Fiani Rites Held for Mrs. Lucy Jackson

TARRYTOWN, N.Y. — Mrs. Lucy Jackson, 114, mother of Clarence C. Jackson of 28 Mechanics Avenue, believed to be the oldest woman of her race in New York State, and possibly the United States, died late Friday. Mrs. Jackson was born at Waynesboro, Va., January 31, 1822. Her birthplace was the plantation of Charles Rhodes, in Nelson County, whose family was one of the oldest in Virginia. She resided here for 44 years.

Surviving are three children: Charles Jackson of Washington, D.C.; Clarence C. Jackson of Tarrytown, and Mrs. Mary Brown of New York.

Funeral services were held at the Shiloh Baptist Church, Monday.

Growers to Make Nation Grapefruit Conscious

WASHINGTON — Confronted with a bumper grapefruit crop which would result in heavy losses unless marketed promptly and effectively, grapefruit growers of all major producing areas are forming this week a National Grapefruit Committee and appealed to consumer organizations to develop a nation-wide advertising campaign similar to recent successful sales drives for other surplus crops promoted at the request of the growers.

John A. Logan, executive vice president of the National Association of Food Chains, with headquarters here, announced that the committee's request would be presented to the agricultural committee of his organization for prompt action.

The food chains, with 37,000 stores from coast to coast participating are now operating a National Holidays Turkey Campaign along the lines of the successful sales drives featuring domestic beef, canned peaches and dried fruits.

Members of the National Grapefruit Committee and the bumper crop resulted from ideal growing conditions, increased plantings and scientific culture. They, also, indeed, produced not only the largest but one of the finest grapefruit crops on record. Government estimates indicate a total crop of 29,000,000 boxes, which is far in excess of normal.

NAACP Executive Meeting Date Set

The first meeting of the executive committee of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will be held Wednesday, January 6. Mrs. Lillian Jackson, president, announced this week.

One of the matters to be taken up at the meeting will be the report of the legislative committee which will outline a program for the year. Mrs. Jackson also stated that plans for a vigorous fight for more city jobs will be considered.

Other matters of importance, she says, will require the consideration of every member.

Public Testimonial to Be Given Bishop Brown

NEW YORK—A public testimonial to Bishop J. W. Brown of the AMEZ Church, who will sail late in January for his new field of Africa, will be held January 15, by the AMEZ preachers' conference of New York at Mother Zion Church.

It Is on New Year's Eve You'll Give Next Party

If you want a rather complete buffet supper, serve with the ham hot vegetable dish such as a casserole of artichoke hearts, or asparagus with a chilled fruit salad or tiny fruit ices rather than with a heavier ice cream.

Chicken a la King

(For 4 servings—to make 12 servings, multiply ingredients by three.)

Two breasts of fowl, cut into very small pieces, 4 mushroom heads, sliced 1-4 cup green pepper cut into thin strips, 2 tablespoons unsalted butter, 2-3 tablespoon flour, 1 cup heavy cream, 1 egg yolk, 3 tablespoons sherry wine, 8 slices of truffle, dry toast.

For this de luxe and special dish for the New Year's celebration, use the family chafing dish. Heat the unsalted butter. Add the strips of green pepper then cook 2 minutes; add the mushrooms next and cook another 2 minutes. Next add the breast of chicken and mix well with the other ingredients. After the flour is added, add the flour dissolved in a little milk, next the cream and add the 2 minutes, stirring gently. Remove from the fire, add the egg yolk, mix well, then season and add the sherry. Serve on hot toast and decorate with truffles. Must be very hot.

The fruit cup first and the ice last with small thin cakes, coffee, and Happy New Year—that's a party very pretty woman would like. Some men, too.

Ask Your Husband to Help You

END A COLD Quicker

with the 3-Minute VapoRub Massage

Of course, you can really do most of this yourself. But he'll gladly give you end the misery of your cold.

Massage VapoRub briskly on the throat, chest and back to stop coughs. Repeat in each case the breathing—loosens phlegm—relieves irritation—soothes bronchial tubes.

While you relax into comfortable sleep, VapoRub's twoway treatment keeps right on working. Often, by morning the worst of the cold is over.

Middy Mum

Midshipman James Lee Johnson, Jr., is home for the holidays, together with his young brother, Frank, home from the University of Michigan.

But Washingtonians waiting for James to talk about the Navy are disappointed.

Mr. Johnson, Sr., says that the best way to get along with whites at Annapolis is to stay in the background. He admits that things shouldn't be that way, but only chance for having a "happy and prosperous New Year" is to keep mum.

is certain that young James's

So the new midshipman is spending his vacation quietly at home. The family seems convinced that "Out of sight is out of mind" is the safest path for a representative of the race to follow with Uncle Sam's sailor boys.

The hero-worship will have to wait. Mr. Johnson asserts. The midshipman will be home for some time this week visiting in Richmond.

Md. to Be Stocked for '37 Hunters

Grouse from Canada, rabbits from Missouri and fish from Maryland's own hatcheries will be used to stock the State's forests, fields and streams next year for the sport of hunters and fishermen, State Game Warden E. Lee LeCompte said, Tuesday.

The rabbits—12,500 of them—will be delivered in February and will be turned loose in every county of the State to replenish the dwindling rabbit population.

Twenty pairs of rough grouse from Leslie, Canada, will be sent to Maryland for breeding purposes.

This week about 2,500 trout will be placed in Stony run, Sawmill run and Severn run, all tributaries of the Patapsco River in Anne Arundel County.

During 1937, approximately 100,000 trout will be placed in inland streams, Mr. LeCompte said.

EATING WITH DIRTY HANDS DANGEROUS

Poisonous material on the skin, especially the skin of the hands, can be easily carried to the mouth, therefore, one should always wash his hands before he eats warned Dr. J. M. McDonald, of the Baltimore health department, in an address, Tuesday.

In speaking on "Keeping Well," Dr. McDonald said that if the skin has a wound or break in the skin anywhere on the body, he should see that it is protected by a suitable bandage or dressing, continuing this protection until the wound is healed.

"Wash off the dust from your skin and change from dusty clothes as soon as possible after the day's work is done," the speaker proceeded. "This will make for much more comfortable, but it will be more healthy."

Helpful Hints

Very cold eggs sometimes crack after you slip them into the boiling water to cook. You can easily prevent this by puncturing the rounded end of each with a needle or pin before it goes into the water. Also you will find it much easier to remove the shells smoothly from hard-cooked eggs if you plunge them into cold water as soon as they are cooked.

White kid hats, very peaked and with a bit of fur to match your coat, white kid gloves and a bracelet watch are the accessories to hold cigarettes, compact and lip stick, will perk up the in-between season for you and if you're a smart girl who doesn't procrastinate, you put you way ahead of the style parade before spring gets in her shots.

And now for a jot to add to your cocktail collection. Clover Club is dee-licious not only for its smooth taste but also for its looks. Properly made, it suggests the dew-laden clover.

In a shaker put the white of an egg, juice of ½ lemon 1 jigger of gin and 1 tablespoon raspberry sirup.

Ice and shake well. Strain into good-sized cocktail glass and decorate with a sprig of fresh mint.

AT WORK

If you work in an office or school where there are a number of friends with whom you would exchange gifts, why not stage a grab-bag this year? The idea is this:

All decide a price to pay for the gifts which will be exchanged. The gifts are bought by individuals and all put into a bag. Each takes one out. In this way no one's feelings are hurt and the gift giving is not so expensive.

AT HOME

Make your food look festive for the holiday season. For a buffet supper on New Year's Eve, there is cold sliced baked ham. First, bake the ham which your butcher has deboned. When it is cool, glaze it with a mixture of gelatin and mayonnaise, mixed together and allowed to cool. Put it on in just the same manner that you would a glaze. When the coating is hard, write the inscription "Happy New Year" in a bright color.

AT THE BAR

This is a pick-me-up that won't throw you down . . . like so many so-called "pick-ups" do, especially if you've been indulging in sours the night before—which, therefore, can scarcely be used as P.M.U's.

1 jigger Absinthe
1 jigger Anisette
Dash of Pernod
Dash or Pernod, Vermouth

Shake well with shaved ice till shaker is frosted. Serve in sour glass or 2 oz. Delmonica glass.

IN THE SHOPS

The newest idea for a handkerchief is a short phrase like, "Bless are you?" printed emphatically all over it. The phrase should be appropriate to the person, and may be purely sentimental such as "I love you." It's a nice idea because the carrier will always think of you whenever she takes the handkerchief out of her purse.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

By ANN PAGE

THIS week brings the end of the big holiday season with New Year's dinner the last celebration of the year for the housewife. Families indulge in good deal of indulgence in food, the majority preferring poultry in some form, many fresh hams, some shoulders and others standing rib roasts, a good deal of lamb is served, and the roasts of lamb or pork or even a turkey are popular for the occasion.

The choice of fruits and vegetables available is based from last week. The cranberry season is again reasonable and in good supply.

Here are three menus for New Year's dinner.

Low Cost Dinner
Baked Ham Slices (half)
Browned Potatoes
Yellow Turnips Apple Sauce
Bread and Butter
Cottage Cheese Pudding
Tea or Coffee Milk

Medium Cost Dinner
