American Platform,

Adopted at the Session of the National Council, February 21st, 1856.

1st. An humble acknowledgment to the Supreme Being, for His protecting care vouchsafed to our fathers in their successful Revolutionary struggle, and hitherto manifested to us, their descendants, in the preservation of the liberties, the independence, and the Union.

2d. The perpetuation of the Federal Union, as the palladium of our civil and religious liberties, and the only sure bulwark of American Independence.

3d. Americans shall rule America, and to this end, native-born citizens should be selected for all State, Federal, and municipal offices or government employment, in preference to all others: nevertheless,

4th Persons born of American parents residing temporarily abroad, should be entitled to all the rights of native-born citizens; but

5th No person should be selected for political station, (whether of native or foreign birth) who recognises any allegiance or obligation of any description, to any foreign prince, potentate or power, or who refuses to recognise the Federal and State constitutions, (each within its sphere) as paramount to all other laws, as rules of political action.

6th. The unqualified recognition and maintenance of the reserved rights of the several States, and the cultivation of harmony and fraternal good will between the citizens of the several States, and to this end, non-interference by Congress with questions appertaining solely to the individual States, and non-intervention by each State with the affairs of any other State.

7th The recognition of the right of the native born and naturalized citizens of the United States, permanently residing in any Territory thereof, to frame their Constitution and laws, and to regulate their domestic and social affairs in their own mode, subject only to the provisions of the Federal Constitution, with the privilege of admission into the Union whenever they have the requisite population for one Representative in Congress. Provided always that none but those who are citizens of the United States, under the constitution and laws thereof, and who have a fixed residence in any such Territory, ought to participate in the formation of the constitution, or in the enactment of laws for said Territory or State.

8th. An enforcement of the principle that no State or Territory ought to admit others than citizens of the United States to the right of suffrage, or of holding political office.

9th. A change in the laws of naturalization, making a continued residence of twenty-one years, of all not hereinbefore provided for, an indispensible requisite for citizenship hereafter, and excluding all paupers, and persons convicted of crime, from landing upon our shores; but no interference with the vested rights of foreigners.

10th Opposition to any union between Church and State; no interference with religious faith, or worship, and no test oaths for office.

11th Free and thorough investigation into any and all alleged abuses of public functionaries, and a strict economy in public expenditures

12th The maintenance and enforcement of all laws constitutionally enacted, until said laws shall be repealed, or shall be declared null and void by competent judicial authority.

13th Opposition to the reckless and unwise policy of the present administration in the management of our national affairs, and more especially as shown in removing "Americans" (by designation) and conservative in principle, from office, and placing foreigners and ultraists in their places; as shown in a truckling subserviency to the stronger, and an insolent and cowardly bravado towards the weaker powers; as shown in reopening sectional agitation, by the repeal of the Missouri Compromise; as shown in granting to unnaturalized foreigners the right of suffrage in Kansas and Nebraska; as shown in its vascillating course on the Kansas and Nebraska question; as shown in the corruptness which pervade some of the departments of the government; as shown in disgracing meritorious naval officers through prejudice or caprice; and as shown in the blundering mismanagement of our foreign relations.

14th Therefore, to remedy existing evils, and prevent the disastrous consequences otherwise resulting therefrom, we would build up the "American party" upon the principles hereinbefoee stated.

15th That each State Council shall have authority to amend their several constitutions, so as to abolish the several degrees, and institute a pledge of honor, instead of other obligations for fellowship and admission into the party.

16th A free and open discussion of all political principles embraced in our platform.

RESOLUTIONS

Adopted by the Old Line Whig Convention of Maryland, which assembled in the city of Baltimore July 10th, 1856.

Whereas, The Whigs of Maryland, in General Convention assembled, believing that a crisis has arrived in the political affairs of the country which renders it the patriotic duty of every good citizen to use all proper exertions to check the progress of sectionalism and disunion, present to their political brethren, and to the national and conservative portions of all parties in all sections of the Union, the annexed declarations of their principles and purposes:—

Declaration of Principles.

1st. That the Whigs of Maryland adhere to the principles of their party, in the maintenance of which they elected Zachary Taylor and Millard Fillmore, (applause,) and having stood aloof from all participation in present party organization, declare their intention to maintain their independent position until such time as they may deem an active reorganization advisable—disavowing all political disabilities on account of religious creed, and the fullest enjoyment of the right of conscience, neither abandoning any old, or adding any new principle, except such of a purely national character as the progress of the country may require.

2d That the Whigs of Maryland enter upon this Presidential struggle with the Constitution as their guide, and the preservation of the Union from the designs of sectional parties, as an object superior to all party affiliation, or the attainment of partizan purposes;—and cordially invite

"Union for the sake of the Union."

(applause,) in their effort to restore the country to that condition of internal harmony which prevailed between the North and the South when the present administration came into power,

3d That in Col. John C. Fremont, the candidate of the so-called Republican party, we recognise an adventurous and successful explorer, altogether without experience in governmental affairs, and totally unqualified for the proper performance of the duties of President; and consider the platform of the Convention which nominated him as promulgating doctrines anti-Republican, unconstitutional, and fanatical; calculated to foment discord, increase sectional agitation, and, if sustained by the people, to lead to civil war and an ultimate dissolution of the Union—we, therefore, utterly repudiate both as unworthy the support of the National Whigs of Maryland.

4th That the platform of the Democratic party, of which James Buchanan has declared himself the embodiment, proclaims doctrines and purposes with regard to our foreign policy calculated to tarnish the national character by countenancing aggressive designs on friendly nations—designs which we regard as in total subversion of the general principles of right and justice which were ably carried out by President Fillmore (applause) during an administration that was of the Washington standard—patriotic and conservative, and gained for him throughout the country the proud title of "Model President."

5th That as one of the participators in the Ostend Conference, which misrepresented the national character, and caused distrust and suspicion among the friends of republican institutions throughout the civilized world, we regard James Buchanan as a dangerous and unsafe man to be entrusted with the Executive power of the country.

6th That in the present position of the Democratic party and its candidates we see nothing that promises a termination of sectional agitation—nothing to restore peace and harmony to the country—but find that party, whilst opposing the fanatical sectionalism of the republican party, to hold a position of extreme partizan and sectional bias—the success of which may tend to prolong the present unhappy condition of affairs, and give room for renewed attacks on the integrity and permanency of the Union.

7th That as Whigs, who delighted to honor Henry Clay whilst living, and revere his memory as one of the great good men of the nation—knowing him to have been honest, pure, patriotic, and devoted to the glory of our common country—we regard James Buchanan as the man who, above all others, knew the utter falsity of the calumnious charge of "bargain and corruption," and who, through partizan animosity, not only withheld his testimony but indirectly countenanced and promulgated the charge.

8th That we recognise Millard Fillmore (applause) as one from whose antecedents the country can expect, in full security, a truly national Administration—firm, moderate, and tranquil—an Administration equal and impartial to the North and the South, regardless of all sectional issues—faithful to the Constitution and the laws—a national man with national principles—whose conservative character and views are calculated to allay the sectional strife that now threatens the stability of the Union, by compromise, concession, and a purpose single to the welfare, harmony and the prosperity of the whole country.

9th That, as citizens of one of the Southern and slaveholding States, anxious for the restoration of a kind and brotherly feeling between all sections of the Union, and the eradication of all sectional animosity and agitation, we call on our brethren of the North and of the South, of all parties, to pause—to allow time for the operation of that great American safeguard, calm and serious reflection—and to look to the future with minds free from sectional and partizan feeling, having only in view a determination to meet the approaching crisis as patriotic citizens, and not as sectional partizans, gulded by passion, prejudice, and an unnatural animosity against those who should be regarded as brethren by all the ties of a united country and a common destiny.

10th That in the Hon. Millard Fillmore, we recognise a consistent and conservative Statesman, (enthusiastic applause,) in whose whole political career and history there is nothing to fear from excessive partizanship, national mischief making, or self-aggrandizement—but every thing to expect that will tend to the national tranquility, and the honor and glory of our common country—and in the language of Henry Clay (applause) we commend his claims for election on the ground "that he has administered the Executive Government with signal success and ability—he has been tried and found true, faithful, honest and conscientious."

11th That we deem it inexpedient to present a separate and independent candidate for the Presidency, and commend the foregoing resolutions to the consideration of our political brethren throughout the Union.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

THE GRAND EXTERNAL REMEDY.

By the aid of a microscope, we see millions of little openings on the surface of our bodies.—Through these this Ointment, when rubbed on the skin, is carried to any organ or inward part. Diseases of the Kidneys, disorders of the Lungs, Asthmas, Coughs and colds, are by its means effectually cured. Every house-wife knows that salt passes freely through bone or meat of any thickness. This healing Ointment far more rapdly penetrates through any bone or fleshy part of the living body, curing the most dangerous inward complaints, that cannot be reached by other means.

ERYSIPELAS, SALT RHEUM AND SCORBTIC HUMOURS.

No remedy has ever done so much for the cure of diseases of the Skin, whatever form they may assume, as this Ointment. No case of Salt Rheum, Scurvy, Sore Heads, Scrofula, or Erysipelas, can long withstand its influence. The inventor has traveled over many parts of the globe, visiting the principal hospitals, dispensing this Ointment giving advice as to its application, and has thus been the means of restoring countless numbers to health.

SORE LEGS, SORE BREASTS WOUNDS and ULCERS.

Some of the most scientific surgeons now rely solely on the use of this wonderful Ointment when having to cope with the worst cases of sores, wounds, ulcers, glandular swellings, and tumors. Professor Holloway has, by command of the Allied Governments, dispatched to the hospitals of the East, large shipments of this Ointment, to be used under the direction of the Medical Staff, in the worst cases of wounds. It will cure any ulcer, glandular swelling, stiffness or contraction of the joints, even of 20 years' standing.

PILES AND FISTULAS.

These and other similar distressing complaints can be effectually cured if the Ointment be well rubbed in over the parts affected, and by otherwise following the printed direction around each pot.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy in the world for the following diseases:

Asthma	Diarrhœa	Indigestion
Bowel Complaints	Dropsy	Influenza
Coughs	Debility	Inflamation
Colds	Fever and Ague	Veneral affections
Chest Diseases	Female complaints	Worms of all kinds
