DR. MOTT'S Chalybeate Pills.

An aperient and stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen, of high medical authority and extraordinary efficacy in each of the following complaints, viz.:

DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATION, DYSPEPSIA, DIARRHŒA, CONSUMPTION, SCROFULA, SALT RHEUM, SCURVY, JAUNDICE, LIVER COMPLAINTS, RHEUMATISM, MERCURIAL CONSEQUENCES, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, NEURALGIA, CHRONIC HEADACHES, FEMALE WEAKNESS, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, etc., PIMPLES ON THE FACE, ROUGHNESS OF THE SKIN, etc.

The IRON being absorbed by the blood, and thus circulating through the whole system, no part of the body can escape their truly wonderful influence.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can for a moment be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. In all cases of female debility (fluor albus, chlorosis, etc.), its effects are delightfully renovating. No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use. As a grand stomachic and general restorative it has no superior and no substitute.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; six boxes, $2 50; one dozen boxes, $4 00. For sale by Druggists generally. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to General Agents.

Harper's Magazine.

VOLUME XX.

THE December Number commenced the Twentieth Volume of HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE. In the Introductory Notice prefixed to the first Number, the Publishers announced their intention to present a periodical to which those who had the slightest relish for miscellaneous reading, or the slightest wish to keep himself informed of the progress and results of the literary genius of his age, would willingly be without.—And they intend to publish it at so low a rate, and to give it a value so much beyond its price, that it shall make its way into the hands of the family circle of every intelligent citizen of the United States.

How far they have succeeded in carrying out their design the 116 Numbers of the Magazine already published will show. Each of these contains as much matter as an ordinary octavo of 400 pages, costing, if illustrated in the style of the Magazine, at least three dollars. The Sixteen Volumes of the Magazine are thus equivalent to a library of more than a Hundred Volumes, comprising the best productions of the foremost Novelists, Historians, Essayists, and Poets of the day.

Without entering into a comparison with other American periodicals, the Publishers may be permitted to say that HARPER'S MAGAZINE contains 75 per cent. more matter than Blackwood's, Fraser's, or the Dublin University Magazine. While giving place to many of the best productions of European Novelists and Essayists, HARPER'S MAGAZINE regularly furnishes a larger amount of original matter than is contained in any other similar periodical, whether European or American. It has published articles from more than Two Hundred American writers, residing in every section, and in almost every State of the Union. By thus welcoming contributions from every part of the country, the Publishers have effectually prevented the Magazine from assuming a sectional character, or becoming the organ of any "mutual admiration" clique or party.

As an Illustrated Magazine, HARPER'S is wholly without a rival. The volumes already published have contained more than Six Thousand Engravings, most of them executed in the highest style of the art, from Original Drawings by Dopler, Parsons, Hitchcock, Fredericks, Wallis, Thwaites, Hoppin, Crapin, Lossing, Voigt, Bellow, McLenan, Strother, Hooper, Palmer and others. Expense of these the Magazine has paid not less than One Hundred and Twenty Thousand Dollars. The cost of its literary contributions has considerably exceeded this amount. HARPER'S MAGAZINE has therefore, in less than ten years, paid more than a Quarter of a Million of Dollars to American Authors and Artists.

The Publishers gratefully acknowledge that this large outlay has been remunerative beyond their most sanguine expectations. They hoped from the first that the Magazine would make its way into the hands of the family circle of every intelligent citizen of the United States," but the number of these readers has proved far greater than they anticipated. They believe that the circulation of the Magazine will continue to increase with the growth and population of the country.—For the spirit and manner in which it will hereafter be conducted, they can offer no better guarantee than the contents of the Volumes already issued.

While the Magazine will continue to be sustained by the writers whose papers have gained for it its distinctive character, a hearty welcome will be given to new Authors. Almost every Number has introduced fresh names to the reading public; and the Editors trust that their list of Contributors will be yet more enlarged.

TERMS.—One copy for one Year, $3; Two copies for one Year, $5; Three or more copies for one Year, $2 each. HARPER'S Magazine and "Harper's Weekly," one Year, $4. And an Extra copy gratis, for every Club of ten Subscribers.

Clergymen and Teachers supplied at Two Dollars a year. The Semi-Annual Volumes bound in Cloth, $2 per vol. Muslin Covers, 25 cents each. The Postage upon Harper's Magazine must be paid at the Office where it is delivered. The Postage is Thirty-six Cents a year.

THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW (Liberal).

5.
BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE (Tory).

The present critical state of European affairs will render these publications unusually interesting during the forthcoming year.—They will occupy a middle ground between the hastily written news-loaves, crude speculations, and flying rumors of the daily Journal, and the ponderous Tome of the future historian, written after the living interest and excitement of the great political events of the time shall have passed away. It is to these Periodicals that readers must look for the only really intelligible and reliable history or current events, and as such, in addition to their well-established literary, scientific, and theological character, we urge them upon the consideration of the reading public.

The receipt of ADVANCE SHEETS from the British publishers gives additional value to these Reprints, inasmuch as they can now be placed in the hands of subscribers about as soon as the original editions.
