Publication and Microfilm Copying Restrictions

The permission of the Maryland Historical Society must be obtained in writing before any manuscripts from its collections can be published.

The user is further cautioned that unauthorized publication of manuscripts may be construed as a violation of literary property rights. Those rights derive from the common law principle that the author of an unpublished letter or other manuscript has the sole right to publish the contents thereof; unless he affirmatively parts with that right, the right descends to his legal heirs regardless of the ownership of the physical manuscript. It is the responsibility of the author or his publisher to secure permission to publish from the owner of literary rights.

Roll duplication of the whole or any part of this film is prohibited. In lieu of transcription, however, enlarged photocopies of selected items contained on these rolls may be made to facilitate research.

Inquiries regarding permission to publish manuscripts from this collection should be addressed to:
