LADD, WEBSTER & CO.
MANUFACTURERS OF
Improved Tight Stitch Sewing Machines,

For Families and Manufacturing Establishments.

No. 131 W. Baltimore Street,
Between Calvert and South streets, Baltimore.

SAMPLES OF WORK SENT BY MAIL.

Prices from $50 Upwards.

What Constitutes a Good Sewing Machine.

1. It should be well made, simple in its construction, and easily kept in order.
2. It should make a Tight Lock-Stitch, alike on both sides of the material.
3. It should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.
4. It should be able to use Cotton, Thread, or Silk direct from the spool.
5. It should be able to sew from coarse to fine, and from thick to thin, with rapidity and without changing the tension.
6. It should be able to make the tension greater or less, on both the under and upper threads, and with uniformity.
7. It should have a straight needle; curved ones are liable to break.
8. The needle should have perpendicular motion. This is absolutely necessary for heavy work.
9. It should be capable of taking in the largest pieces of work.
10. It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer; should stitch, fell, run and gather.
11. It should be always ready to work.
12. It should be capable of using the same size of thread on both sides of the work, and of using different colored thread or silk, above or below, to correspond with any two colors of cloth to be united.
13. It should be able to make a long or short stitch.
14. It should be able to fasten off the seam, and commence sewing tightly at the first stitch.
15. It should run easy and make little noise.
16. It should have a wheel feed; none others are in constant contact with the work.
17. It should not be liable to get out of order.
18. It should not be liable to break the thread nor skip stitches.
19. It should not be necessary to use a screw driver, or wrench to set the needle.
20. It should not be liable to oil the operator's dress.
21. It should not form a ridge on the under side, nor ravel out, nor be wasteful of thread, as is the case with all chain stitch machines.
22. It should not be "more trouble than it is worth."

☞ All these indispensable requisites of a good sewing machine, will be found embodied in those sold by

Wheeler & Wilson's
SEWING MACHINE.

NO reader of the Kent News needs to be assured of the superiority of this machine. It is attested by the united voice of thousands of families, throughout the civilized world; by all manufacturers of sewed goods, and by the discriminating awards of committees at state and county fairs, where it has uniformly carried off the highest premiums.

These machines make the lock-stitch, the only stitch that cannot be ravelled, and that presents the same appearance on both sides of the seam No other than the lock-stitch is acceptable to discriminating and intelligent people, and as the WHEELER & WILSON MACHINE will sew anything from the lightest muslins to the heaviest cloth, or even leather, and will work equally well upon silk, linen, woollen and cotton goods, it should stand as it does, highest in public estimation. Prices $45, 50, 60, 65, 75, 90, and $100.

PROCLAMATION.
State of Maryland,

Executive Chamber,
Frederick City, May 6th, 1861.

WHEREAS, It has come to my knowledge that a certain Tench Tilghman, of Talbot county, assuming to be Major General of the Second Division, M. M., has issued General Orders, commanding "that the citizens of said Division be enrolled into two classes—one for the defence of their homes—the other for service in any part of the State;"

And Whereas, Sundry commissioned officers of said Second Division have obeyed the said illegal General Orders of said Tench Tilghman by issuing Regimental orders for the immediate enrollment of the citizens as aforesaid;

Now, Therefore, I, Thomas Holliday Hicks, Governor of Maryland, do by this my Proclamation, enjoin upon the commissioned officers in said Second Division not to obey the orders of said Tench Tilghman, in as much as he does not hold a lawful commission in said Second Division, and, is, therefore, without authority to issue any Military orders whatever. And I enjoin upon the citizens residing within the boundaries of said Second Division not to obey or comply with any Regimental orders issued in pursuance of the authority unlawfully assumed by said Tench Tilghman.

{SEAL} Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Maryland, at the City of Frederick, this sixth day of May, eighteen hundred and sixty one.

THOMAS H. HICKS.

By the Governor,
Grayson Eichelberger,
my11-3t. Secretary of State.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County.

MARCH 6th 1861.

ORDERED by the Clerk of said Court, that John P. Hoffman, an Insolvent Petitioner of Kent county, give notice to his creditors, endorsers and sureties to file interrogatories or allegations against him in the said Court, on or before the second Tuesday of July next, that being the time appointed by the Court for the said insolvent debtor to appear and answer all such interrogatories or allegations as may be proposed or alleged against him, and that a copy of this notice be inserted once a week for three successive months in some newspaper printed and published on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, prior to said second Tuesday of July next.
