"I PADDLE MY OWN CANOE."

By whatever means a person may gain notoriety, that which is the most lasting and beneficial is the result of care, and a proper regard for rectitude of conduct and proprieties of life. Acting upon this principle in our business, the effect has been, that ever since we commenced the mercantile business it has been marked by a steady increase. We shall still abide by the cause which produces such satisfactory results; and while returning our thanks to our friends and patrons for their liberality, we assure them that no effort on our part will be spared to secure and warrant a continuance of their favor and patronage. We have just returned from Philadelphia with a large and well selected assortment of Proclamation.

State of Maryland, Executive Chamber,
Annapolis, November 16, 1861.

WHEREAS, The people of Maryland have at their recent election, again expressed their unalterable devotion to the Union and the Government of our fathers, and it is important that the Legislature should, as speedily as possible, conform to and carry into effect the will of the people so expressed, by furnishing all necessary aid to the Government of the United States in its efforts to suppress the unholy rebellion that seeks the dissolution of that Union and the destruction of that Government; and

WHEREAS, There are other subjects connected therewith of the deepest importance to the interests of the people of Maryland requiring prompt Legislative action.

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution of the State of Maryland, I, THOMAS HOLLIDAY HICKS, Governor of Maryland, do hereby summon the members of the Senate and House of Delegates to meet in their respective chambers in the State House, at the City of Annapolis on Tuesday, the Third day of December, proximo, to consider and determine the steps necessary to be taken to enable the State of Maryland to take her place with the other loyal States in defence of the Constitution and the Union.

(SEAL) Given under my hand and the Great Seal of Maryland, this sixteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

By the Governor: THOMAS H. HICKS.
GRAYSON EICHELBERGER,
