Public General Laws,

PASSED JANUARY SESSION 1872.

[PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.]

[CHAPTER 355.]

AN ACT

To authorize the issuing of licenses to Telegraph Companies and Express or Transportation Companies not organized under the laws of this State, to transact business therein.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of May next, it shall not be lawful for any person to act as agent within this State, of any Telegraph Company or of any Express or Transportation Company or Association, not incorporated by this State, or organized under the authority thereof, to transact any business for such company, firm or association within this State, or to send or receive messages by telegraph, or to send or receive any goods, wares or merchandise in package, parcels, boxes, barrels or any other enclosure, or to effect any transportation of any article of trade or traffic for and on account of any such company within this State, or to receive compensation therefor, or to advertise or offer to transact any business for or on account of any such company, or to open any office for the transaction of such business without first obtaining a license therefor as hereinafter provided.

Section 2. And be it further enacted, That any agent of any such Telegraph Company or Express or Transportation Company, Firm and Association, proposing to do business in this State, shall pay to the Comptroller for a license for the said company to transact business at its principal office in this State, for one year, the sum of three hundred dollars, or a proportionate part of said sum for any fractional part of a year, and all licenses issued in pursuance of this Act shall be made to expire on the first day of May next succeeding the date of its issue.

Section 3. And be it further enacted, That before the Comptroller shall issue such license he shall require the said company so applying, to file in his office a copy of its charter and a statement signed by the President and Secretary of the said company or association, and under its corporate seal, showing the location of the principal office established or proposed to be established by said company or association within this State, and also the location of any subordinate office or offices so established or proposed to be established by the said company or association within this State, and said statement shall also contain an agreement that the services of legal process upon any of its said officers shall be sufficient service upon the said company or association.

Section 4. And be it further enacted, That after any such company or association shall have complied with the provisions of the preceding section of this Act, and before any of the subordinate agents or employers of any such company or association shall transact any business at any of said subordinate offices, the said company or association shall cause to be paid to the Comptroller of the Treasury for the agent of each subordinate office located as aforesaid, the sum of two dollars, upon receipt whereof the said Comptroller shall have been so made as aforesaid, to transact the business of the said company at their said respective subordinate offices, and any such company or association thereof desiring to establish an additional office or offices, shall file an additional statement setting forth the location of the same and an argument in regard to services of legal process as aforesaid, and shall pay the sum of two dollars for each license to said additional agent or agents as aforesaid.

SECTION 5. And be it further enacted, That the principal cashier or other principal officer or agents of every such company or association which shall have transacted business in this State under this Act, as the agent or employee in charge of the principal office of such company, shall annually on the first day of June, report under oath, to the Comptroller of the Treasury, the whole amounts of earnings charged or received by or on account of such company or association, for business done in this State for the year or part of a year, ending on the preceding thirty-first day of December, which report shall show the gross amounts of earnings so charged or received at the said principal office and at each of the said subordinate offices, and if the one per centum of said gross earnings so charged or received as aforesaid, shall exceed the price of the license or licenses issued on account of said company or association as aforesaid, there shall be paid into the Treasury before taking out the license or licenses for or on account of said company or association for the ensuing year, the whole excess of such one per centum over and above the price of said license or licenses as aforesaid.

Section 6. And be it further enacted, That if any such company or association shall desire to transact business in this State, and shall have no principal office within this State, to which the other officers of said company or association to make application, shall be subordinate and shall have no principal agent to whom the other agents of said company or association within the State shall be compelled to account, then, and in that event, it shall be the duty of each and every agent of such company or association, to make application to the Comptroller for license to transact the business of said company at the office or place of business where said agent may be employed, or may desire to transact business as aforesaid, and at the time of making said application and before license shall be issued, such agent shall pay to the Comptroller the sum of three hundred dollars, if the office at which such agent is to transact the business of said company or association be located in the City of Baltimore, and the sum of twenty dollars, if such office be located in any of the counties of this State, outside of said city.

SECTION 7. And be it further enacted, That every such agent of any such company or association as shall have no principal office in this State as aforesaid, shall annually on the first day of June, report under oath to the Comptroller, the whole amount of earnings charged or received by or on account of such company or association, for business done at the office or place of business of such agent, for the year or part of a year, ending on the preceding thirty-first day of December, and if the one per centum of said gross earnings so charged or received as aforesaid, shall exceed the amount of the license of said agent, there shall be paid into the Treasury before taking out the license for the ensuing year, the whole excess of such one per centum, over and above the price of said license or licenses, as aforesaid.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That if any person shall act as such agent, as aforesaid, for any such company, firm or association as is named in the first section of this Act in any capacity as shall transact any business, or receive or charge any money, or hold himself out or advertise to transact any business in this State for, or on account of any such company or association, without such license as aforesaid, such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon indictment and conviction thereof, in any Court of this State having jurisdiction, shall, for the first offence be fined not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, in the discretion of the court—one-half to the State and the other to the informer—and shall stand committed until the said fine and all costs are paid; and for the second offence in addition to the said fine shall be imprisoned not exceeding six months, and in every such case a fee of fifty dollars shall be allowed to the State's Attorney of the county or city prosecuting the same, to be taxed as a part of the costs of such prosecution.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of every cashier or orther principal officer or agent of any such company or association, as is described in the first section of this Act to keep a book or books containing a fair and legible account of all charges and receipts made by him or by any other agent of such company or association at the office or place of business of said agent, in which shall be entered every item of charges or receipts by such agent or agents or by any person for them for or on account of such company or association for business done as aforesaid, and in the event of the removal of such agent, it shall be his duty to hand the same over to his successors or to the principal agent of such company or association, and if any such agent shall neglect or refuse to keep such book or to make such entries or to hand over the same as herein directed, said agent so offending, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, before any Justice of the Peace of the county or City of Baltimore, as the case may be, be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars—one-half to the State and the other to the informer—and shall stand committed until the fine and costs are paid.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That the Comptroller of the Treasury may examine, on oath, any cashier or other principal officer or agent of any such company or association, or may cause the same to be examined on oath, touching the duties of the said agent or the business of the said company or association, or the earnings or receipts of the same, and any such agent refusing to be sworn or to testify his knowledge in the premises when called on so to do as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction before a Justice of the Peace be fined not exceeding twenty-five dollars and costs.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the charter and all other authority by which any Telegraph Company now, or which may hereafter be erected in this State, is authorized to do the business of telegraphing, shall be recorded in the Clerk's office of the Circuit Court of the several counties in which a telegraph line or lines may be erected, and all sales, transfer and assignments of any and every telegraph standing or erected in this State shall be recorded within sixty days after the said transfer or assignment is made in the same manner and place or places as their charter and other authority are required by this Act to be recorded; and any failure, neglect or refusal to comply with the requirements of this section by any telegraph company doing telegraph business in this State, shall debar such company from any and all action at law for any injury or damages done to any poles or walls erected or set up in this State.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That no plea of limitation shall be valid and of no effect in any court of law in this State in bar to any trespass or damage committed by any telegraph company in erecting a telegraph until three years after their charter, and all other authority they may claim to have for enclosing a telegraph line or lines through the State shall have been recorded as required by section eleven of this Act, and they shall also exhibit and keep exhibited in some prominent and convenient place in each office of business of said companies for the inspection of persons having business with said companies the charter and all other authority by which said telegraph companies are authorized to erect lines of telegraph in this State.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from and after the date of its passage.

We hereby certify that the aforegoing is a true and perfect copy of an Act passed the General Assembly of Maryland at the January Session, 1872.

AUGUSTUS GASSAWAY,
Secretary of the Senate.

MILTON Y. KIDD,
Chief Clerk House of Delegates.

Approved April 1, 1872.

THE Methodist preachers of New York have a periodic agitation on the subject of tobacco. It seems that the much abused weed is always troubling those who don't use it more than those who do. At any rate in the Conference on Saturday some members offered a resolution recommending entire abstinence from tobacco, and proceeded to argue in the same old track—that it is poison, that it shortens life and brings on a half-dozen diseases with unpronounceable names. But they were suddenly confronted by a venerable brother, Richardson by name, who came with spirit to the defence of what he declared had been a friend to him during a life of eighty-three years. Thereupon the anti-tobacco men relapsed into silence, but they had the majority of numbers if not the weight of argument on their side, and they passed the resolution.

CRUSHED WHEAT.—A new article of food is announced in "crushed wheat."—The wheat is not ground nor cracked, nor bolted, but simply crushed between steel rollers. An enthusiast writes of it that "there are no fragments of burmill stones, to set your teeth on edge; but soft, pulpy, white wheat, with every particle of the berry as it came from nature, the wonderful food of man! Nitrates for the muscles; carbonates for heat and fat; phosphates for brain and nerves. Pure wheat contains almost everything required for sustaining the life of man, from the arch of his eyebrows to the play of his brain and the power of his muscle."

SOME TEMPERANCE LEGISLATION.—The Wisconsin Legislature, which has just adjourned, distinguished its closing hours by the passage of an unique liquor law. Section four provides that "it shall be unlawful within this State for any person to become intoxicated." For the offence the punishment is to be imprisonment from one day to two months certain, with a further contingent imprisonment, at the discretion of the court, until the costs of his conviction are defrayed.

GOV. GRATZ BROWN delivered a powerful speech at the liberal mass convention in Topeka, Kansas, on the 10th instant. The Chicago Times (democratic) thinks it is one of the most pronounced utterances in favor of the prompt inauguration of the Presidential campaign at Cincinnati on the first day of May, which has yet appeared.

THE EUREKA FANNING MILL.

THE GREATEST INVENTION OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY!

Farmers Look to Your Interest!

THE attention of Farmers and Mechanics is particularly directed to the combined economy, utility and practicability of the Eureka Mill, and to the many other advantages it possesses over every other Fanning Mill which has been introduced to the public

It is the fruit of long and patient investigation by the inventor, who has made it his constant study for over twenty years. He has secured several patents for Mills, and has always been rewarded with the best of success. But not feeling satisfied with his former attainments, he determined to reach the climax, and he now believes that his new invention will warrant him in exclaiming in the joy of his heart, like the philosopher, Phythagoras—EUREKA!—signifying in the Grecian language, "I have found it." This has given the name to this new Mill.

In this Mill are all the former improvements to which have been added several more, adding still greater advantages than were at first anticipated, or even thought possible by the inventor himself. It embraces the three great essentials necessary in every invention:

It combines ECONOMY, UTILITY and PRACTICABILITY!

THE "EUREKA" MILL

Is small and lighter, and is capable of doing more and better work in a given time than any other Mill
