PERSONAL FINANCE PLANS NEW RADIO PROGRAM

How a woman's intense shyness developed into a fear that was threatening to wreck her life will be the theme of a dramatization to be heard on "Your Unseen Friend," on the Columbia network Sunday, March 28th at 5 P. M., EST.

W. H. Campbell, manager of the local branch of the Personal Finance Company, announced today that the story of Betty Merrill, who had an inferiority complex which made her timid and retiring with everyone but her closet friends, will be dramatized by "Your Unseen Friend," on Station WCAO.

The important part played by Betty Merrill's conscience in helping her meet the situation which developed will be told in "Your Unseen Friend's" dramatization of various incidents in Betty Merrill's life.

M. H. H. Joachim, director of the unusual dramatic program, has prepared this interesting program. His stories, adapted from letters received by "Your Unseen Friend," are from real life and founded on actual happenings.
