WOMAN'S NOBLE WORK.

A Great Meeting in the Great West—A Luxurious Home and Delicious Mince Pies without Alcohol—Where Prohibition Prohibits—The Western Woman Progressive and Independent.

CHICAGO, Nov. 12, 1889.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Having been elected delegate at large for the Eastern Shore of Maryland to the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, held in Chicago, I left Baltimore Nov. 5th, for this place, which I reached in company with several other delegates from various parts of Western Maryland, at 5 o'clock P. M., the following day, and although there was not a gentleman among us to care for us or our baggage, not a trunk, parcel or other baggage was either delayed, lost or stolen. We proceeded at once to a hotel where we engaged rooms in one of those palatial homes for the public, for which Chicago, this great and growing city of the West, which at this time numbers over one million inhabitants, is so justly famous. The elevator took us to our rooms in the fifth story, over seven hundred guests having already arrived at this one house. We found the floors of the corridors of this story, as well as the sleeping rooms, covered with the softest carpets, stuffed chairs and lounges and marble-topped furniture, with the nicest spring beds and hair mattresses, and last, but not least—by no means least—a bath-room opening out of our room, with hot and cold water, and stationary marble wash-bowls, completed the list of the means of rest and refreshment, which we so much needed, after the thirty-one hours ride in the cars.

After a night's rest we had a few hours to look about us and seek our home of entertainment, which were provided by the residents of the city, who were interested in the work of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, for the officers and delegates. I found mine in the luxurious home of the prohibition candidate for governor of Illinois, who, with his wife and daughter are actively engaged in the work for God and home and native land, national, State and local, and who made our stay among them delightful, conveying us to our place of meeting with his own conveyance, and attending us nights, as our meetings were held till a late hour. Then I will say in passing, that although what is furnished me as food, is of the least consequence, and seldom furnishes cause for comment, yet is an item, showing the progressive spirit as well as the consistency of advocates of total abstinance, I will state that in this luxurious home where every delicacy graced the table, mince pies were served without a particle of alcoholic flavoring and they were truly delicious. The convention was held in Battery D. a large building near the river built something of the style of Oratorio Hall, Baltimore, only much larger and with galleries on three sides; would accommodate 6,000 people and was filled to overflowing every day so that not even standing room was left.

The platform was decorated with pot plants in bloom, foliage plants, cut flowers and some branches of orange trees with oranges on them. The walls were hung with national flags and State emblems, shield shape, with name of State on them. Every State and Territory was represented except Alaska. Many mottoes and fancy flags, given as prizes, and flags from foreign countries were also displayed. The roof being in rustic shape and construction was hung with thousands of small flags about half a yard long and one foot apart. One motto reads: "No sectionalism in politics; no sex in citizenship; no sectarianism in religion; but all for God, for heaven, for home and native land." Another, the young people's banner, inscribed with the words: "Tremble king alcohol, we shall grow up." All, together, presented a most inspiring scene. When the seats were filled never before were so many talented women seen together; from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from the frozen regions at the north to the extreme south, for Canada was ably represented, also Oklohoma and Indian Territory. Four hundred and seventy-six delegates were present.

This 16th session of the N. W. C. T. U., was opened by singing the crusade hymn, Rock of Ages, followed by reading the Crusade psalm; prayer by Mrs. Woodbridge of Ohio, and singing, Give to the Winds Thy Fears, followed. Mother Thompson, aged 73, the leader of the crusade movement from which was evolved the W. C. T. U. and all its branches, was present and made some remarks. Mrs. Willard, the mother of our beloved president, came to the platform a well preserved lady of 85 years. The corresponding secretary states that this year has been one of the best; she has received reports from every State and Territory including Alaska. Reports show that the work has been advanced in most of the states. Several States have made laws prohibiting the sale of tobacco to minors. Delegates from Kansas report that in 60 counties of their State not a prisoner is in jail; so much for the false reports we receive that prohibition does not prohibit. Delegates from Dakota are jubilant over the adoption in their State of a prohibition constitution. One of them remarked that a Christian woman who says she does not like political temperance she looks upon with wonder and surprise. The Western women are much more independent and progressive than the Eastern. Some of them visited far lands where the foot of a woman organizer had never before trod, and slept on a shelf in their humble huts. One reports having traveled over 12,000 miles from Washington Territory to the South and North organizing and instructing as she went wherever she could get a foothold. Will defer further report till a more convenient season lest this communication be too long.

A DELEGATE.

A SHOEMAKER hang out a new sign and then wondered that passers-by found so amusing. His sign ran as follows: "Don't go elsewhere to be cheated. Walk in here."

SWIFT'S SPECIFIC has cured me of a malignant breaking out on my leg, which caused intolerable pain. It was called Eczema by the doctors—four of whom treated me with no relief. I candidly confess that I owe my present good health to S. S. S., which in my estimation is invaluable as a blood remedy.

Our baby when two months old was attacked with Scrofula, which for a long time destroyed her eyesight entirely, and caused us to despair of her life. The doctors failed to relieve her, and we gave Swift's Specific, which soon cured her entirely, and she is now hale and hearty.
