Special Offering

Realizing that the majority of Boys' and Childrens' Clothing is sold before the holidays and that a great many have already been sold we will make a SPECIAL OFFERING of 20 per cent. discount on all remaining Boys' and Children's Suits.

This is an innovation to our Clothing business and ought to be appreciated and taken advantage of by every parent who has not yet provided the boy with his winter Suit.

Our stock of Boys Suits are second to none in the county for its vastness in styles and lowness in price and with this additional reduction from our already low figures, leaves no excuse to let the boy go poorly clad.

J. D. LUCAS.

EXPIRED ON TRAIN

Sudden Death of Dr. J. A. Catlin, Former Well-known Physician of Chestertown.

Dr. J. A. Catlin, who was formerly a well-known physician of Chestertown, and who for sometime boarded at 1200 Madison avenue, Baltimore, dropped dead Wednesday on a train between Philadelphia and New York. Dr. Catlin had been a sufferer with heart trouble. On November 1 he went to the University of Pennsylvania Hospital, in Philadelphia, where he underwent treatment, and wrote friends here that he was in an improved condititition. He is survived by a widow and two sons, Harry W. Catlin, of New York, and Lennox Catlin, of Mexico.

Dr. Catlin represented the National Drug Company and had a large acquaintance among physicians. He was a native of Chestertown and was 58 years of age. He graduated at the medical school of the University of Pennsylvania about 1881. He was twice married. His first wife was a daughter of Dr. T. H. Whaland, and second wife, who survives, was before her marriage, Miss Hallie Plumly. Mr. Albert J. Catlin, of 1025 Lanvale street, is a brother of Dr. Catlin.

THE SAD REAPER

Death Calls Dr. Jos. A. Catlin, J. Carvil Maslin and Others to Their Final Resting Place.

JONAH KLEIN SPAYD.

Jonah Klein Spayd, a retired farmer died on Saturday afternoon at quarter to 4 o'clock at his home in Lebanon, Pa. He was 86 years of age on October 15 and had been in declining health since August. He was sick in bed only since last Wednesday. Mr. Spayd is survived by his widow, formerly Miss Mary A. Bomberger, of South Lebanon Township, who is also well advanced in years. These children also survive: Mrs. E. C. Reigel, of Lebanon; Mrs. G. H. Fry, of Philadelphia; John H. and William F. Spayd, of Lebanon. There are ten grandchildren and one great-grand-child.

For the past thirty years Mr. Spayd owned a farm at Millington, this county. He usually spent his winters here. He was a member of the First Reformed Church and was held in much esteem by both people and successive pastors. His funeral took place on Wednesday.

J. CARVIL H. MASLIN.

Mr. J. Carvil H. Maslin died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. Edward Loud, near Fairlee, early Monday morning. While out gunning about a month ago he sustained a severe fall in getting over a fence and a few days after that he was compelled to take to his bed and then a complicated case of Bright s disease developed. This disease and its complications proved fatal after two weeks suffering. Everything that a devoted wife, children and friends and a skilled physician could do was done to no avail. Mr. Maslin was 63 years of age and has spent his whole life in Kent farming in Quaker Neck. He broke up farming two years ago and has since made his home with his daughters. His home was always a hospitable one and the kind-hearted generosity of himself and family made it pleasant indeed to visit them. Mr. Maslin was as true as steel to his friends and disliked duplicity and wrong dealings of all kinds.

He leaves a widow, who was Miss Ball, of Delaware, and the following children: Mrs. W. Edward Loud, of near Fairlee; Mrs. William S. Gardner, of Baltimore; Mrs. Edgar J. Watson and Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton, Jr., Chestertown; Miss Virginia Maslin, Falmouth, Mass., and Mr. Wm. D. Maslin, of Chestertown. Messrs J. Thomas, Edward and Samuel Maslin, of Kent, Mrs. W. T. Edwards, of Kent, and Mrs. J. W. Penn, of Norton, Va., are brothers and sisters of the deceased.

The funeral took place from his daughter's home, near Fairlee, on Wednesday morning. Rev. Mr. Morris, of St. James M. P. Church, officiated and spoke very sympathetically of the various burdens we have while traveling through life and entreated all his hearers to "cast their burden on the Lord." Two beautiful selections were sung by Mrs. Henry Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Leaverton. The bearers were Messrs. James A. Bramble, Henry Brown, Harry C. Willis, Wm. T. Nicholson, John E. Morris and Richard S. Groves. Interment in Chester cemetery, Chestertown; J. E. Ferguson undertaker.

CAPT. JOHN P. SHELTON.

Capt. John P. Shelton died Sunday night at his home on Bohemia Manor, aged seventy-one years. He was a native of Delaware but moved to Cecil county when a young man. He was in the employ of Mr. Joseph H. Steele, of Chesapeake City, in the grain business, but retired from active life some years ago. In addition to following the water he was interested in agriculture and owned two large farms on Bohemia River. He is survived by a widow, who was Miss Florence Teal, of Baltimore.

Mrs. Catherine E. Joiner died November 24th at her home near Fairlee, aged 69 years and 7 months.

NEW OFFICERS SWORN IN.

The newly elected county commissioners organized on Tuesday last; Mr. Alfred C. Loud was made President; Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., counsel, and Charles L. Dodd clerk. The Messrs. C. B. Dudley, Harry Davis and A. C. Loud, enter upon a second four-year term with the best wishes of all and being experienced commissioners will be better able to discharge their various duties than ever.

The newly elected Sheriff, Capt. Daniel W. Hadaway was sworn in on Tuesday and is now the Sheriff of Kent county. He bonded in the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars before the Orphan's Court with U. S. Fidelity and Guarantee Company, of Baltimore, as sureties. Ex-Sheriff Medders was appointed deputy sheriff.

The judges of Orphan's Court—John H. Simpers, John P. Nicholson, W. Sheppard Morris—were sworn in Tuesday. Judge Simpers was again commissioned as chief judge.

THE Fairlee merchants, Kilbourn and Smyth, have their Christmas goods in and are in the midst of a big trade.

Live Local Notes.

THE best present you can send a friend or child away from home is a year's subscription to the KENT NEWS. It is only $1.00.

THE thermometer registered 18° in Chestertown Thursday morning. It was the coldest day of the winter so far. Farmers have been caught with work unfinished and much corn in the fields husked and unhusked.

THE State officers of the Junior Order of American Mechanics visited the Chestertown lodge Wednesday evening and met about forty members. Oysters were served at the Loud House after the speaking.

Cash for Corn.—Crouch and Clements are paying 51 cents for cob corn and 55 cents for shell corn at Chestertown depot and paying CASH for it on the spot. A great satisfaction to the seller.

Bank Reports.—Elsewhere in our columns will be found reports of The Chestertown Bank and the Kent County Savings Bank. It will certainly prove gratifying to all our readers to see such splendid exhibit of our local financial institutions.

Loss of Poultry.—Dogs broke into Henry Yorker's chicken house on Maple avenue Wednesday night and killed 25 pullets. The chickens were simply killed and left piled up outside the hen house. This is quite a loss to the faithful Henry.

Big Pen of Hogs.—Mr. J. W. Boggs, of near Crumpton, has a pen of 38 hogs that are said to be the finest in Kent county. They will average about 350 pounds alive. These hogs have consumed more than 500 bushels of corn and been admired by buyers and others. He will give the public a chance to buy 25 of these hogs at public sale Dec. 18th.

Prize Winner.—Mrs. G. E. Noland, of Tolchester, was a prize winner at the Maryland State Horticultural Show in Baltimore this week. Her prizes include first on raspberry jam, preserved and canned strawberries, crab-apple jelly, canned fruits and jellies, canned blackberries, preserved currants, and second on canned plums.

Carried a Pistol.—Sheriff Medders, as one of his closing acts, arrested a colored man named James Williams, in Chestertown, aged about 28 years, and gave him a hearing before Justice Calder charged with carrying a concealed weapon. The weapon was a big revolver and the negro had just purchased a supply of cartridges. He could not explain his need for carrying such an ugly looking gun on his person and the Justice imposed a fine of $50 or seven months in the House of Correction. This should be a salutary lesson.

Crumpton Bridge.—Crumpton bridge is now declared to be in better condition than it has been for fifteen years. Mr. Benjamin M. Hazell of Millington, superintended the work and gave the counties a most excellent job. The improvement cost the two counties $1500 and as it was estimated by engineers that it would cost $20,000 to put a new birdge there this is a great saving to the counties.

Travel over this bridge is very heavy and by again being put in order has added much to the convenience of the upper county people.

Thieving.—Thieves broke into Kate Walker's chicken coop a few nights ago and robbed it of seven pullets. Kate heard the noise and succeeded in hammering the negro with a clothes pole and compelling him to drop a chicken. She says she'll buy a pistol and be ready for his return.

A farmer near town, whose wife had gone on a visit over night, thought he heard thieves after his hogs, came to town and summoned sheriff and a score of others. Upon their arrival they found a horse was sick! And that was all.

Game Violators Fined. — The game wardens caught a lot of gunners last Sunday morning in Pope's Creek, Charles county. They were soundly sleeping on their gasoline launches after a night of shooting. They had a big lot of fine ducks including canvas backs, etc. There was a regular fleet of gasoline launches and canoes all well armed. The guns used were big enough to kill 100 ducks at a shot! Some of them were 12 feet long. Land owners along the tributaries of the Potomac have for years been suffering from the depredations of these gunners. The justice imposed fines of $34.90 each, and the whole crowd were sent to jail in default of payment. The boats, guns, ducks and all paraphernalia were forfeited.

A company of gunners were caught on Sassafras river a short time ago and fired upon by the Game Warden. One of the gunners was wounded in the leg and had to be carried to a Philadelphia hospital. The hunters escaped capture by running off in a fast boat.

EASTERN SHORE WINS.

The prizes at the Horticultural Show in Baltimore this week came to the Eastern Shore. The Rich Neck Farmers' Club, of Queen Anne's, won five prizes with five exhibits. Mr. Albert Story won the first prize for best ten ears of corn, and Messrs. W. I. Walker and A. Story won first premium on wheat.

Mr. Collier, of Talbot won Bolgiano's silver cup for single ear of white corn. The Eastern Shore won all prizes for corn and Mrs. Noland, of Tolchester, made a sweep of the prizes in canned goods!

Messrs. J. T. Anthony and Harry P. Skipper, of near Chestertown, addressed the students at the Maryland Agricultural College Thursday afternoon. Prof. Porter says the students never evidenced greater interest in any speaker than on this occasion. It was learned there that it was the Eastern Shore boys who were leaders in their studies.

Mr. W. Irving Walker, of Chestertown, was elected president for next year.

The second trial of Harry K. Thaw for the murder of Stanford White has been postponed until January 9, and that will give Thaw an opportunity to eat his second Christmas dinner in a cell. The young man has been in prison for eighteen months and he certainly can have no excuse for complaining that the law is hasty.

MRS. BRADLEY was acquitted of the charge of murder in Washington. Once more the unwritten law seems to have played its part. The woman did kill Brown, but the jury has decided that she was warranted in taking the law into her own hands. The unwritten law as applied to murder is dangerous.

W. S. & A. M. CULP, of Chestertown, have contracts amounting to $45,000 in Georgetown, Middletown and elsewhere and have bid on a $25,000 house in Talbot county. They have about 15 men from Chestertown and elsewhere employed.

THE first snow storm of the season visited this section on December 3. If the old saying is right we will only have three snow storms during the winter. Mr. Hope C. Copper was the first to appear with sleigh.

C. L. GILL has contracted with C. L. Jarrell to haul 1,000 loads of dirt to his Avenue property. The dirt is being hauled from Mr. C. S. Smith's lot on College avenue.

KENT'S REPRESENTATIVES.

The representatives from Kent county are expected to stand in the leading ranks in both houses and they will, without a doubt, faithfully represent the county in all her local interests and the State's general interests as well. Our county has never had a stronger delegation in brains and character than that which will represent us at Annapolis this winter.

Hon. William M. Slay, the Senator-elect, is a lawyer of high standing and is in the prime of life. He is a good speaker, sound thinker and close reasoner, and he has the full courage of his convictions.

Hon. James S. Harris is well-known throughout the State, and in Delaware probably as well, as a horticulturist. He is an authority on peaches and pears, having for years been one of the largest growers on this peninsula. As President of the Peninsula Horticultural Society and as an active participant in other agricultural organizations Mr. Harris has been of great service to all these interests and is well up on public questions generally. He is a leading member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Hon. Harry C. Willis will have his first experience as an active participant in State legislation but no one doubts his ability to cope with the best that will compose our next law making body. He is one of our intelligent agriculturists and has no difficulty in expressing himself on any subject. He is well read and in thought and action is always abreast with the times.

Of all these three gentlemen it can be truly said their strict and high sense of honor and duty is well known. Politically they are Democrats, sound to the core, while their integrity on all subjects is unquestioned. Our county expects much from such a high class of representatives and we are sure the people will not be disappointed in them.

CHURCH NOTES.

Christian Workers' meeting 6.45 p. m., lead by Miss Mary Elliott. The sermon in the morning will be to the Junior Order of American Mechanics, by special request. Members of other orders and the public generally invited to attend. A welcome always awaits you at the services of this church.

The following officers have been elected in the Christian Endeavor Society of Christ church, Chestertown, for the next six months:

President—Wm. J. Vanuort.
Vice-President—Stewart R. Matthews.
Coresponding Secretary—Miss Nettie Russell.
Recording Secretary—Mrs. C. N. Satterfield.
Treasurer—Mrs. W. C. Sutton.
Pianist—Miss Clara Usilton.
Assistant Pianist—Miss Anna Smyth.
Chorister—J. Frank Wheatley.

At a meeting of Christ Church Sunday School teachers Thursday evening Mrs. H. S. Barnett was elected superintendent of the Cradle Roll and Mrs. W. J. Vannort superintendent of the Home Department.

AN Illinois farmer has appealed to the local authorities for protection against wild hunters on his property. He says he is tired of being grazed by bullets and is fearful that he will be shot in mistake for a deer. That farmer ought to go into a cyclone cave until the deer season is over.

THE following officers were elected in Amicable Lodge Odd Fellows Monday night: N. G., D. B. McMenamin; V. G., Harry R. Graham; secretary, Harry T. Hoyle; treasurer, James W. Chapman.
