The New Superior Grain Drill Is O. K.

Read what Mr. Harry P. Skipper Says :

Chestertown, Md., Oct. 15, '07.
Davis & Satterfield, Chestertown, Md.
Gentlemen :—The Superior Grain Drill, with the new Fertilizer Finger Feed attachment, which I purchased of you in 1906, and which bunched my wheat so badly that I was not willing to settle for it until it was made right, I am pleased to say that the new "Y" spouts you put on this fall gave perfect satisfaction, and I herewith enclose my check in settlement for the drill. I would also say that the Superior Drill Co., through you, treated me as fair in this transaction as any man could ask.
Yours very truly,
HARRY P. SKIPPER.

We warrant this machine. You sign no note nor pay any money until your wheat comes up.

Perseverance

A steady accumulation of small savings deposited as they are saved in a safe and sound institution like this, where they will draw interest, will in a few years amount to a total of surprising magnitude.

At first the amount may seem small, and determined perseverance may be necessary to overcome discouragement; but after a year or two the accumulations will begin to be a stimulus to further saving, and you will find that with an increasing principal comes an increased interest.

FAIRFIELD'S STOCK FOOD

GREATEST KNOWN BLOOD PURIFIER. SEPARATE PREPARATION FOR EACH KIND OF ANIMAL. : : : : : :

GENTLEMEN :
You certainly have a wonderful preparation for poultry. I have tried to raise ducks for 14 years without success; they would all die at the feathering age. But this year I was induced to try your Poultry Tonic, and when my ducklings got giddy I fed the tonic and raised all but one duck that hatched out.
CORNELIUS C. BROWN.

We guarantee all goods to be as represented and allow a liberal trial of thirty days—ample time in which to give them a thorough trial. If not satisfied by that time, the goods may be returned and money will be refunded. No charge made for a reasonable amount of tonics used in the trial.

Live Local Notes.

THE "Plan," Capt. John Crouch, of Piney Neck, was one of first boats loaded with oysters to reach Baltimore Tuesday. Oysters sold for 75 aud 80 cents per bushel.

THE Auditors—J. H. Baker, P. G. Wilmer and E. Thos. Massey—will begin their labors next Monday morning.

MILTON BAKER'S hen roost was raided of several fine chickens last week and on Friday night the thief was caught in a steel trap. It was an opossum and furnished a hearty meal for Mitchell Bell who happened near in time to secure the prize.

THE Tolchester excursion season will close Monday but round trips will continue to be made by Susquehanna and Annapolis.

J. W. SKIRVEN has just received a carload of fine western ewes. He has orders for at least 500 ewes but finds the supply limited up to this time.

F. G. USILTON has sold his fine driving mare, "Lady Wolcott," record 2.27¼, to Col. S. B. Nelson, of Richmond, Va., who will keep her for his family use.

WM. PIERCE, a well-known colored resident of Georgetown, was buried Tuesday. He was the "Mayor" of the town.

THE excursion to Annapolis Monday was under the auspices of Bethel A. M. E. Church; 560 bought tickets from Chestertown.

THE Carnival left Chestertown for Centreville by sail boat Sunday. Robbins show arrived and pitched tents on same lot. It was well attended. John Groves, of Chestertown, has a responsible position with this show and his employer says he is making good in every way.

THE Cherokee Indian base ball club will cross bats next Friday with the Chestertown team composed of Messrs. Massey, Kibler, White, Cross, Lit. Crew, Johns, Horsey, Moore, Orrell, Wallen, Crew. The games will be played in the afternoon and at night under the management of John S. Vandergrift.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE for Kent County will be held at the High School, Chestertown, next Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The instructors will be Dr. James E. Carroll, Dover, Del.; Miss Lillian Johnson, Normal School, Kutztown, Pa.; Miss Mary E. Ford, Frostburg Normal School; Miss Mary H. Scarborough, State Normal School. Dr. T. H. Lewis will lecture in Stam's Hall Monday evening. No other evening meetings.

AT a meeting of the Board of Visitors and Governors of Washington College Tuesday the following were named to scholarships at Washington College: Joseph N. Wheatley, Jr., Norman Crouch, Galen Vansant, and Miss Anna Smyth to Normal Hall. Mr. Lesmond Fitz Gerald will resume his position as purveyor at the college, having made a success in that position last year.

JAMES ALFRED MERRITT, of Chestertown, is the latest prophet to set up shop. Just after Christmas of last year Merritt donned his astrological armor and began to peer into the future. Soon he had the whole history of 1908 doped out, and on December 29 he made a fair copy of his prophecy and sealed it. The table shows that he prognosticated well.

THE stack-yard on J. B. Stevens' farm, near Crumpton, took fire Saturday while threshing wheat and about 1200 bushels of wheat were burned.

THE canneries throughout Kent are running full blast now, most of the peelers being foreigners. It is marvelous how these people thrive in such surroundings but they are able to teach our people a few lessons in hardiness. It is told on good authority of a new Bohemian, born at the barracks of the Bohemian operatives of the Lincoln City canneries, that the infant's mother worked diligently at her post in the packing-house up to within an hour of the healthy lad's birth last Saturday afternoon, and on Wednesday morning, she was back at work again, smiling and singing.

THE first shipment of new corn from Kent was on Thursday when Mr. W. E. Jarrell shipped at Chestertown 100 bags of cob corn to Baltimore.

THE Md., Del. & Va. R. R. Co. have adopted a rule requiring a deposit of ten cents for each bag loaned to farmers and upon its return the money is refunded. This rule was made necessary by the loss of over 7,000 bags by this company last season.

THE barn on the Dickerson farm, near Rock Hall, was burned Thursday night, together with 12 tons of hay and a fine driving horse belonging to Mr. Kimble.

THE Chestertown Cornet band will give a vaudeville show in Stam's Hall, Sept. 21st. See adv. next week.

DR. H. C. HUGHES,
