☞Now if ever, has it become the imperative duty of all conservative men to lay aside for the time all merely personal cares and selfish considerations, and devote themselves like true patriots to the salvation of their country. This Government once destroyed, their present immense possessions would be comparatively worthless. At the first signal of revolution, every bank in the country would break, every merchant become bankrupt, and "every sea be full of exiles," fleeing from a land where anarchy reigned, and where neither life nor property could be secure. The foundations of society would be broken up, and rapine and murder rule the hour. The poor would rise against the rich, the employed against the employer, and myriads of men, who have heretofore conducted themselves as orderly and peaceable citizens, being deprived of bread by the troubles of the times, would be compelled to subsist on the highway by the strong arm, as they do in Mexico and other countries which are cursed with evil rulers.—In a word, all the horrors of which we read in the melancholy pages of Tacitus, the glowing annals of Gibbon and Sully, or the more sober recitals of Clarendon and Hume, would be ours.

To prevent such a calamity, will not the solid men of the country firmly resolve that an end shall be put, now and forever, to sectionalism of every description, whether at the North or the South, and organize for that purpose in every State? Will not the farmers and planters, forming as they do the most numerous portion of the inhabitants, resolutely and inflexibly determine that this accursed sectional agitation shall cease? Will not the mechanics, who can only thrive when the country prospers, raise their brawny arms to save the Union and the Constitution from the profaning hands of pestilent fanatics?

Register of Sales.

A farm of 150 acres, well improved and in a high state of cultivation situated near Taneytown, JACOB ZUMBRUN, Trustee, will be sold to-day.

To-morrow, Saturday, a nice little home property containing 17 acres, within three miles of town, will be sold by E. E. CROUT, Esq.

An estate of 266 acres, in a productive state of cultivation and snugly improved, located in Middleburg District, will be sold to-morrow, by ISAAC DERR and SARAH HANN, Executors.

Messrs. HESSON & NUSBAUM, Trustees, will sell a very fine property of 125 acres, improved with fine dwellings and mills, together with farming implements and house furniture, on Thursday next.

For particulars, we refer to advertisements in to-day's paper.

☞By the arrival of the steamer Glasgow, we have dates from Liverpool to the 29th ult. The French troops under Gen. Lamoriciere, heretofore stationed in Rome for the protection of the Pope, and which recently marched from that city to meet the Sardinian army on its invasion of the States of the Church, have met with a disastrous defeat. An engagement has taken place between them and the Sardinians, and the latter gained a decided victory. Lamoriciere has been defeated with great loss.

The Sardinians have captured the two cities of Perugia and Spoletto.

It was reported that the Emperor Napoleon had been fired upon by an insane man at Toulon, but the aim was arrested by a bystander.

☞The Uniontown Press informs us that Charles Wilson, son of John T. Wilson, on last Saturday climbed up an oak tree to thrash off the acorns, when the limb broke on which he was standing, throwing him some twenty feet to the ground, and injuring him severely. He is attended by Dr. Martin.

☞On the 19th ult., says the Uniontown Press, an accident occurred on the farm of Mr. Abraham Appler, that came very near proving fatal. They were threshing grain and had nearly finished when the cylinder of the machine burst and a piece struck Mr. Elias Reck about the head occasioning several bad wounds which it was thought would prove fatal. Dr. Martin was called in, and Mr. Reck is now slowly recovering.

Pennsylvania Politics.

The Bell and Everett Executive Committee met at Harrisburg on the 27th, when most satisfactory accounts were received from all parts of the State. An electoral ticket was formed and resolutions were adopted setting forth that it is deemed inexpedient at this time to nominate a candidate for Governor, and appointing a Committee to so change or modify the electoral ticket as to secure harmonious action from all national men; also recommending the holding of a mass Convention, of all persons opposed to the Republicans, at as early a day after the October election as practicable.

The Fusion in New York.

At a meeting of the committee appointed in pursuance of the resolution of the Union meeting held at the Cooper institute, in New York city, on the 17th of September, to adopt such an electoral ticket as the crisis of the country now demands, the following resolution was adopted unanimously, all the members being present:

Resolved, That this committee recommend to all the citizens of the State of New York who are opposed to the election of Lincoln and Hamlin and who are in favor of preserving the Union of these States upon the basis of the Constitution, the following ticket for the election of President and Vice President of the U. S.

Here follows a list of the names of the Electors, comprising seven Breckinridge, ten Bell and eighteen Douglas men. Good night to Mr. Lincoln.

The Herald (Buchanan) says, the success of this New York Union movement, for the sake of the Union, is a most encouraging political event. The pressure of public opinion has been too strong for the managing of old party hack politicians concerned, and their petty personal feuds and factious disputes. They have been superseded by the paramount question of the defeat of Lincoln, so loudly demanded by the solid Union masses of our people. The result is a common Union electoral ticket in New York, upon which all the conservative forces of the Empire State, old line Democrats, Whigs, Americans and Republicans, Clay men, Fillmore men, Douglas men, Breckinridge men, Bell men and Fremont men, may be rallied into a popular majority of 50,000.

The Mozart Hall Democracy have passed resolutions cordially endorsing the fusion ticket.

☞A correspondent from New York writes, the committee of fifteen emanating from the Cooper Institute meeting, have declared to hold a ratification meeting on Monday, October 8th, All branches of the opposition to Lincoln and Hamlin are to take part in the demonstration, and it is expected to be the greatest gathering of the friends of the Union ever held in this city. It is intended to ratify the union electoral ticket. The meeting will commence at noon, and continue till late at night.—Breckinridge, Bell and Douglas orators from every section of the Union are to be invited to attend.

☞An Exchange says: Mr. Breckinridge was right in saying that his position was unusual. He is the first democratic candidate for the Presidency who has ever been nominated by a mere fragment of a party; he is the first that has ever accepted such a nomination, and he is the first who has ever had so hopeless a case to bolster up and doctor, and if we are not mistaken in the signs, he will be the first who has ever received so miserably small a vote. In all these respects his position certainly is, and will be, unusual.

Terrible Railroad Accident.

A very serious accident occurred on the Pennsylvania Railroad, on Friday last, by the express train being thrown off the track, in consequence of running over a bull, about sixteen miles from Pittsburg. Three passenger cars were thrown off the track, and went down an embankment of eighteen or twenty feet. The top of one car was torn off from the body. There were about three hundred passengers on the train, 25 of whom were more or less injured.

☞A Washington letter writer says the Administration endorse the fusion ticket as arranged by the Committee of Fifteen.—They do not think that the Breckinridge interest is as fully represented as it ought to be, but that under the circumstances, and in the hope of preventing what would be a calamity to the country—the election of Lincoln—they will urge their friends throughout the State to go for it.

Pennsylvania State Election.

This election will take place on Tuesday next, 9th of October. Much is thought to depend upon it; if Curtain, the people's candidate for Governor is elected, it is thought that the vote of the State will be cast for Lincoln in November, but if Foster, the Democratic candidate should succeed, it is supposed the State will go for Douglas at the Presidential election. In view of this state of things a vigorous canvass is being prosecuted.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.

Health and Happiness are the twin-sisters which render existence pleasant and agreeable, for the enjoyment of life depends, in a great measure on the state of the health. None need despair who suffer from dyspepsia, pulmonary affections, nervous disorders, ulcers, scrofula, piles, or fistulas, while these famous medicines offer not only an antidote but a radical cure. They have had the most marvellous success in the worst types of diseases which afflict the human race.—Sold at all Druggists, at 25c., 62c. and $1 per box or pot.

Important from Europe.

By the Anglo-Saxon, at Quebec, we have highly important intelligence from Europe. Fifty thousand Sardinian troops had entered the States of the Church. Pesaro was entered and twelve hundred German soldiers, with Gen. Bella, commander of the Pope's troops, were taken prisoners. The Powers have protested against the entry of the Sardinians into the Papal dominions.—Russia and Prussia protest in the strongest terms, but would take no other step. Count Cavour had issued a note explaining the position of Sardinia. An interview between the Emperors of Russia, Austria and the Prince Regent is to take place at Warsaw on the 1st of October.

☞A fire in Baltimore last week reached the office of our former townsman, J. BENJAMIN ROSE, conductor of the Price Current. His whole stock of printing materials, consisting of stands, presses, types, paper, &c., was greatly damaged. Ben was insured in the sum of $4,000, about covering his loss. Lucky boy!

☞Mayor Henry, of Philadelphia, has written a letter declaring that he will support Bell and Everett, but not with a fusion ticket. He favors the Peoples' State and Municipal ticket.

☞A new penny daily paper, entitled the Union, has been started in Philadelphia. It is devoted to the cause of Bell and Everett.

☞A week or two ago John B. Snowden killed four large copper-head snakes of the largest species, on the farm of Thos. E. VanBibber, near town.

☞Hon. Henry Winter Davis and his constituency pronounced in Baltimore on Thursday night of last week for Bell and Everett. Their big thunder will be heard again in November next.

☞A German named A. Strange, 36 years old, unmarried, committed suicide in Baltimore on Sunday, by hanging.

☞The hall of the Maryland Institute was opened for the reception of deposits for the 13th annual exhibition, on Monday last. The exhibition will open on Tuesday evening next.

☞S. Owings Hoffman, Esq., and Dr. Chapin A. Harris, prominent citizens of Baltimore, died last week.

☞P. G. Breckinridge, a Breckinridge county elector for Botetourt county, Va., has come out for Bell and Everett.

McMahon for Bell and Everett.

"Carlos,' the correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer communicated the following to that journal:—

Some anxiety exists to know how our distinguished citizen John V. L. McMahon, Esq., stands in regard to national politics. Ill health and physical inability has prevented his taking any active part in political affairs for some years past. In 1840 he supported Gen. Harrison, and presided at the great Whig National Convention then held in our city. He afterwards voted for James K. Polk, and subsequently, I believe, advocated Gen. Taylor's election; and following this, was a warm supporter of Gen Pierce. It is a singular fact, that he has ever been on the winning side of the Presidential race. At present, though wholly retired from public life, he is undoubtedly desirous of the election of Bell and Everett.

☞During our visit to Lowell we were shown through the Laboratory of our celebrated countryman, DR. J. C. AYER. Scarcely could we have believed without proof what is seen there beyond disputing.

They make a barrel of solid Pills, about 15,000 doses, and three barrels of Cherry Pectoral, 120,000 doses, per diem. To what an inconceivable amount of human suffering does this point! 170,000 doses a day!! Fifty millions of doses per year!!! what acres and thousands of acres of sick beds does this spread before the imagination! And what sympathies and woe!—True, not all of this is taken by the very sick, but alas, much of it is. This Cherry Drop and this sugared Pill are to be the companion of pain and anguish and sinking sorrow—the inheritance our mother Eve bequeathed to the whole family of man.—Here the infant darling has been touched too early by the blight that withers half our race. Its little lungs are affected, and only watching and waiting shall tell which way its breath shall turn. This red drop on its table is the talisman on which its life shall hang. There the blossom of the world just bursting into womanhood is stricken also. Affection's most assiduous care avails not, she is still fading away.—The wan messenger comes nearer every week. This little medicament shall go there, their last, perhaps their only hope. The strong man has, planted in his vitals, this same disease. This red drop by his side is helping him wrestle with the inexorable enemy; the wife of his bosom and the cherubs of his heart are waiting in sick sorrow and fear lest the rod on which they lean, in this world, be broken.

O, Doctor! Spare no skill, nor cost, nor toil to give the perishing sick the best that human art can give.—Galveston, Texas, News.

O, Ye Afflicted!

Hear what James T. Davis Esq., ex-Presiding Judge of Monongalia County, Va., says:

Messrs. Fitch & Scott, Agents for R. M. Lemon, Proprietor of Linsey's Improved Blood Searcher:

Gentlemen—I was afflicted with Scrofula for several months, and was so low that I myself and my friends did not think that I could recover. I had been under treatment of medicine by two able physicians for some months, the disease had extended over my side and breast, and had run more than a gallon of matter, when Mr. McCreary, agent for Dr. J. M. Linsey's valuable Improved Blood Searcher, passed through my village and induced me to purchase Three Bottles. I immediately commenced using the medicine. Before I had used one bottle, the discharge from the sores entirely ceased. My appetite improved, and my bowels became regular; and before I used the Three Bottles, I was restored to good health, and have enjoyed good health ever since, which has been some twenty months. I believe it to be a sovereign remedy, and that it will recommend itself upon a trial. I most heartily recommend it to the afflicted.

Given under my hand and seal this 26th day of June, 1860. J. T. Davis.

I, Marshall M. Dent, Clerk of the county Court of Monongalia County, hereby certify that the foregoing is the genuine signature of James T. Davis, Esq., late Presiding Justice of said County. Given under my hand this 27th day of June, 1860.

MARSHALL M. DENT, Clerk.

☞Our eccentric and generally worthless vicinity fellow citizen, GEORGE NOEL, had a free ticket to the luxuries of our Jail one day last week, where he still remains, for abuse of his very excellent and amiable wife. We hope George will learn a valuable lesson and profit by his meditations whilst in limbo, and when freed, be a wiser and better man.

☞The British war steamer Gladiator brings to New Orleans some further accounts respecting Walker's fate. Ten shots were fired at him, amid the cheers of the natives, who afterwards refused to bury him, leaving that duty to foreigners. Col. Rudler has been sentenced to four years' imprisonment. The remains of Walker's army reached New Orleans on Friday, having come on board of the Gladiator.

Meeting in Myers' District.

The Douglas democrats of Myers' District, will hold a meeting in the vicinity of Silver Run Church on Saturday week, 13th inst., at 2 o'clock, P. M. Elector John S. Given, Jos. M. Parke, Isaac E. Pearson and W. Scott Roberts will address the people, and the Mt. Pleasant Brass Band will be present.

☞We are compelled to defer to next week the publication of several favors from our friends, and also some advertisements. To insure insertion the same week, advertisements should reach us by Tuesday evening.

☞The Breckinridge Democracy of Westminster District will hold a meeting at the Court House tomorrow night. W. W. Dallas, Esq. and Dr. Ligget are advertised as speakers.

☞A despatch dated at Frederick on Saturday says, Mr. Yancey spoke for two hours this afternoon at Court-house square to between four and five hundred people. A meeting of the Breckinridge men is in progress to-night at their headquarters, and the Bell and Everett men are holding a large and enthusiastic gathering to-night at Court-house square. The "minute men" attended in procession, making quite a large turn out.

☞At Pittsburg no additional bodies have been taken from the ruins of the building demolished by the boiler explosion on Monday, and it is presumed there are no others. The number of the victims has been increased by the death of two wounded by the calamity. Two others are in a precarious condition.

Western Maryland Railroad.

A corps of engineers, under the direction of Mr. Gitt, of Pennsylvania, arrived in Hagerstown on Saturday last, having completed a survey of one of the proposed routes of the Western Maryland Railroad from Raven Rock, on the South Mountain, to Hagerstown. The present line passes in the immediate vicinity of Smithburg, Cavetown and Chewsville.

County Mass Meetings.

A mass meeting of the Union party was held at Elkton, Cecil county, yesterday; another will be held at Chestertown, Kent county, to-morrow; and another at Centreville, Queen Anne's county, on Tuesday. Our townsman Jno. E. Smith, will address the people at each of these meetings.

☞Thomas Meagher, of Baltimore, died on Monday from the effects of drinking wormseed oil in mistake for whiskey.

CORRESPONDENCE.

PEORIA, Illinois, September 23, 1860.

Mr. Editor: According to promise I drop a line to my old friends of Carroll through the medium of your journal, to let them know that though distant, I still remember them. As you are aware I left Baltimore on the 27th ult., and after a pleasant trip, unmarred by the slightest accident, arrived on the following evening at Richmond, Ia., where we were detained some five hours. Having an opportunity to take a stroll, I did a view of the town, and found it decidedly the prettiest place I have ever seen, far ahead of any town I passed through in Ohio. Leaving there we went to Logansport by morning, and from thence across the Grand Prairie to Peoria. The scenery on this part of the route was most sublime and picturesque, presenting a view far as the eye could reach of one unbroken expanse, with myriads of flowers of brightest colors. Here and there, it is true, was a small shanty with a corn patch of a few thousand acres, or a herdsman attending a few hundred fine cattle, or a new and thriving town springing up along the line of the Railroad, but these were all that had a tendency to dispel the glorious reverie caused by the scenery around. Arriving at Peoria, we took the packet for Pekin, and after a pleasant ride of 10 miles down the Illinois river, found ourselves quietly resting in an elegant hotel. On Thursday we went a few miles on Delavan Prairie, where we rusticated for a week. Living on the choicest products, and enjoying ourselves generally. But all pleasures must have an end, so at the end of a week I mustered up my traps and returned my steps to Peoria, to try again the busy scenes of life, and soon succeeded in finding employment and fair wages.

The corn crop of Illinois is far ahead of anything I have ever seen East, and it is confidently expected we will have the busiest season this fall that Peoria has ever known. Everything in the vegetable line here is plenty and cheap, and many more varieties raised than are known East. Peoria is a very pretty town, or rather city, as it has a population of over 18,000, lying on the Illinois river, with a high bluff overhanging the Northern part of the town. There are four Railroads diverging from here, and another in course of construction; and many times five and six steamboats arrive in one day. Politics is, however, the all-absorbing topic and the campaign of 1840, in Maryland, would fall to give you an idea of the enthusiasm manifested here now. There was a Douglas demonstration held on Wednesday, and it is estimated that at least 20,000 persons were in procession.

But I am trespassing, as all printers like short letters, I shall close promising, however, to write soon again. Yours, as ever. THOMAS J. LOCKARD.

To the Friends of Westminster and its Surroundings:

I hereby reiterate my invitation to you, to attend the meeting to which you are invited to-morrow, October 6, as found in another column. We trust you will have the kindness to respond to the call, by attending, at least. Our object is to establish a first-class Institution in this place, and every citizen, with or without children, must feel interested in this important matter. Important, because it will be of pecuniary benefit to Westminster and the country around. Important, because it will add greatly to the character of the place, especially as the County seat. Important, because of its salutary effect upon society, as a promoter of the institutions of truth, and disperser of error: and more important, because it involves the development of the moral and intellectual character of the youth of this community, which of itself is sufficient to command the interest of every reflecting mind. Citizens of Westminster, would you rather send your children away from home at three or four times additional cost, or afford permanent and Collegiate facilities for them at home, thereby blessing your own town and county, as well as the extensive patronage which must be received from abroad, when once its true character and worth is known and appreciated? Come out then to the meeting, and put your hands and hearts together, with a determination that knows no failure, and you shall rejoice by and by in seeing your sons and daughters rising to eminence and distinction in society and state, blessings to the world and ornaments to society. The youthful mind must be educated. It is continually grasping after something with an insatiable desire, and how often it finds its way into dens of vice and iniquity, the victim of enslaving lusts, the burden of parental hearts, and wreck of premature graves.—Loudly do they call to you for a way and a lamp to guide their feet in wisdom's ways with the assurance that "her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are paths of peace." Respectfully, F. R. BURK.

Union Meeting at Grove Academy.

A large number of the citizens of Frederick and Carroll Counties favorable to the election of Bell and Everett, met at Grove Academy, near Double Pipe Creek, on Tuesday last.

On motion, MARTIN GRIMES, Esq. was called to the Chair, and Dr. JAMES W. MILLER, appointed Secretary.

Lycurgus N. Philips, Esq. stated the object of the meeting, when, on motion of that gentleman, the Chair appointed Messrs. L. N. Philips, John A. Koons and John Root, a committee to draft resolutions, who retired and in a few moments reported a series of resolutions which were unanimously adopted, and suggested the formation of a Club of Minute Men, which accordingly organized under the name of Minute Men of Grove Academy.

The following officers were chosen: L. N. Philips, President; Michael F. Eichelberger, Vice President, and Dr. James W. Miller, Secretary. The following gentlemen were appointed a committee to make arrangements for a Mass Meeting to be held near Double Pipe Creek: John Root, John Albaugh, and Michael F. Eichelberger.

Mr. John A. Koons being called for, delivered a very patriotic and eloquent speech, which was listened to with marked attention.

On motion the proceedings were ordered to be signed by the officers and published in all the papers favorable to the election of Bell and Everett. [SIGNED BY THE OFFICERS.

Union First, Union Last, Union and Liberty Now and Forever, One and Inseperable!!!

At a meeting of the citizens of Carroll and Frederick Counties, held in the Grove of Mr. Charles B. Simpson, on Saturday, September 29, the following gentlemen were appointed officers:

President—ISRAEL RINEHART.

Vice Presidents—Nicholas D. Norris, James Pearre, J. W. Shriner, Jos. McKinstry, Ann Stoner, Mordecai S. Englar, John D. Clemson, and Joseph Greenwood.

Secretaries—David Rinehart, J. F. Shepherd, and Charles B. Simpson.

After the meeting was organized the New Windsor Band entertained the crowd by playing the good old national air, Hail Columbia.

At the request of the President, Mr. Norris introduced the Hon. JNO. E. SMITH, of Carroll, who delivered a short, but eloquent, chaste and argumentative address.

Mr. LYNCH, of Frederick City, was then presented to the audience, who entertained them for a short time, when the meeting adjourned to meet at McKinstry's Mills at 7 o'clock.

At 7 o'clock the meeting re-organized at the Mills. Mr. GRAYSON EICHELBERGER delivered an able, calm and argumentative speech, and was followed by Dr. SIMPSON, who is a young man that promises to make an eloquent and impressive speaker. Mr. LYNCH closed the speaking by one of his most happy efforts.

The meeting then adjourned, it being universally conceded that the day had been pleasantly and profitably spent, we having had, in addition to the speaking, good music and the presence of the Ladies.

SIGNED BY THE OFFICERS.

Reduced by Dyspepsia to a mere Skeleton.

CURED BY "BOERHAVES' HOLLAND BITTERS."

Mr. A. Matchett, a trader probably as well known as any man in Western Pennsylvania, states as follows: "I met with a farmer in Armstrong county who was reduced by Dyspepsia to a mere skeleton.—I persuaded him to buy a bottle of Boerhave's Holland Bitters, believing it would cure him. Meeting him some months after, what was my astonishment at finding him a hale, hearty man; he told me he now weighed 200 pounds, and that this wonderful change had been produced by Boerhave's Holland Bitters, to which he attributed solely his restoration."

The October Elections.

State elections occur in several States during the present month. Yesterday State officers were chosen in Florida; on next Monday, the 8th, South Carolina is to choose members of the Legislature and on the 9th, Tuesday of next week, elections will be held in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Iowa. An election took place in Delaware on Tuesday for inspectors and assessors.

Conflagration at St. Louis.

One day last week a stable was fired in St. Louis by matches which were thrown while burning on a heap of loose straw by a party of boys, who had used them to light their cigars. The flames immediately spread to the adjoining buildings, consuming in all over twenty-five tenements, and rendering houseless three hundred people. During the excitement of the occasion a child was thrown from a house on to a feather bed, other bedding was then thrown on it, which took fire, and the child was burned to death.
