PRISONERS CARRIED OVER.

Sheriff Hadaway Delivers Seventeen Convicts to House of Correction and Penitentiary—Writ Served on Grinnell.

Sheriff Hadaway assisted by his son and officer Thomas V. Simpson carried 17 prisoners over on the Ford Monday, five of whom went to the penitentiary, eleven to the House of Correction and a white boy to the House of Reformation.

On the way to the boat Brookins got a slim chance at Grinnell and gave him a knock with his fist. These are the two men who were implicated in the Rock Hall murder, the former having been sentenced to 8 years in penitentiary and the latter set free by Court but afterwards rearrested and sentenced by Justice Medders to 2 years in House of Correction for carrying concealed weapons.

A writ was served on Grinnell Monday charging him with assault with intent to kill.

Brookins asked the Sheriff for permission to "get at" Grinnell remarking that he would then be willing to serve his sentence.

Six negroes were arrested in Chestertown for playing crap Sunday and each fined $2 and costs by Judge Loud.

WEDDING NOTES.

St. John's Church at Rock Hall was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday at 9.30 A. M. The church was beautifully decorated with roses and chrysanthemums and every seat occupied. The interested parties were Mr. Joseph Leo McKinley, of Washington, and one of the attractive ladies of Rock Hall, Miss Lillian Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Young. Nuptial mass was performed by Father Heavey. Miss Mary Ringgold was maid of honor and Mrs. Paul Massey matron of honor. The ushers were Messrs. Paul Massey and William Camp. The wedding march was rendered by Miss Nannie Taylor, and the best man was Mr. Lester McKinley. The bride was dressed in brown chiffon broadcloth and carried bride's roses; the maid of honor wore pink chiffon and Mrs. Massey wore white organdy. Among the many gifts were a locket from the groom, an heirloom of his mother's family; chest of silverware from the bride's mother, china set from groom's mother, cut glass, rugs, etc.

Among those present from a distance were Mr. Geo. W. Young, Mrs. McKinley, Mrs. Clark, of Washington, Miss Pettyjohn and Mr. Geo. Camp, of Wilmington. The bride and groom left via boat for their home in Washington that morning.

The wedding of Miss Annie H. Stam, daughter of Mrs. A. H. Stam, of Chestertown, and Dr. R. S. Hooker, of Philadelphia, is announced to take place at 11 A. M. today at Emmanuel P. E. Church.
