They can be used for the target practice by the huntsmen and the sportsmen, and as souvenirs of the Spanish American War they will decorate your den or cozy corner.

$100,000 Worth of Books==Fine de Luxe Editions to be Sold at 25c On the Dollar

The Big Sale — We begin today an unprecedented sale that will appeal to lovers of fine books—not the sort of books that are read once and cast aside, but rich, elegantly bound De Luxe Editions that men of letters, scholars and the most intelligent classes delight to possess—books that it is not only a pleasure to read, but that will do credit to the finest of libraries—books that will last a life time and become heirlooms—at a quarter and less than a fourth of their value.

The Reason Why — The failure of George Gebbie & Co. of Philadelphia and the widespread depression among subscription book publishers threw lots of fine De Luxe Editions of Standard Authors on the market at prices that had never been known before. Grasping the opportunity that presented itself we made enormous cash purchases, secured entire edition remainders, therefore are able to offer our public these magnificent De Luxe books at less than one-quarter their value.

The Publishers — These elegant library editions, hitherto sold only by agents at high prices, include the well-known, high-class publications of John D. Morris & Co., Gebbie & Co., The Chesterfield Society, The Davos Press, etc. Represented in the collection are the Great Dramatists and Historians as well as the works of the Great Masters of Romance.

The Character — The books, as you would expect in De Luxe editions, are bound either in three-quarters leather or full silk cloth, beautifully tooled and ornamented in gold. The paper is soft and luxurious to the touch, and of a quality that makes the biggest volumes, light in weight and the plates from which they are printed are clear and clean cut type, which it will be a pleasure to read.

The Ornamentation — The illustrations are of the highest character, and some are generously illustrated. In single sets of certain works these are over one hundred rare engravings, including duotones, photogravures, manuscript facsimiles and colored maps. The title pages are works of art. Some of the editions are limited and numbered. Some are the only complete works extant of certain authors.

THE SHOE STORE.

ARE YOU ONE OF THE SEVENTY?

$4.00 IS A POPULAR PRICE for a pair of Dress Shoes and seventy men out of a hundred think this about the right figures.

Are you one of them? If so we offer you the All America Shoe, their style lines are just as distinct as shoes selling for $5.00.

We won't tell you its the best shoe on earth—even if we do think so, because best is a much abused word.

There's one thing certain though if you can beat it at the price you'll be getting more than a bargain.

For your your own satisfaction at least examine this shoe before you buy—you owe it to yourself. We have them in all leathers and made on the newest lasts.

COURT CASES.

The Appeal Docket Occupies Several Days—Criminal Cases—Damage Suits, &c.

The appeal case of Simon Grollman vs. James Willis was tried and judgment given for Grollman. S. S. Beck for Grollman.

The case of Simon Westcott vs. Smith Premier Typewriting Co., was a claim of $65 for commissions on machine, etc., sold Kent County School Board. The jury returned a verdict for Simon for the full amount of claim. L. W. Wickes and W. W. Beck for Mr. Westcott and H. H. Barroll for defendant.

Alvah A. Lamkin, attorney for Bessie A. Stanling, petitioned the court for a writ of habeas corpus to secure the custody of an 8-year-old negro boy from Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Wallis. The court granted the petition, but when the mother and Supt. Wm. Ford tried to take the boy from Mrs. Wallis, who had been so good to him, he kicked and cried and refused to budge. He was carried away by force.

Robert J. McWhorter sold the livery stable on Cross street, now occupied by Charles H. Davis, to Mr. Stafford, but the occupant refused to move. A hearing was had before Justice Fowler in January, who decided that Mr. Davis should have had six months notice. The case was appealed to court, where it was proven that Mr. Davis had only been the tenant of Mr. McWhorter for one year, therefore only a month's notice was required. The jury returned a verdict for plaintiff for restitution of property. L. W. Wickes for McWhorter, H. H. Barroll for Davis.

The case of John R. Howell vs. Sam'l Moffett, for $10 horse service fee, was tried by jury and a verdict given for Moffett. H. H. Barroll for Moffett, W. W. Beck for Howell.

State vs. Oscar Johnson, for assault on George Deen. Motion to dismiss for want of jurisdiction of the justice was granted and the prisoner discharged. He was afterwards re-arrested on another writ. S. S. Beck for prisoner, W. W. Beck for State.

State vs. Nellie Mitchell, for swearing. Motion to squash proceedings granted. S. P. Townshend for Mitchell, W. W. Beck for State.

State vs. John Evans, for vagrancy. Tried by jury and verdict not guilty. M. deK. Smith for Evans, W. W. Beck for State.

John A. Walls vs. W. Holt Woodall. This was a case in which Mr. Woodall purchased a horse of Mr. Walls guaranteed to be sound, &c. The jury returned a verdict for Mr. Walls for $130.63. W. W. Beck for Woodall, H. H. Barroll for Walls.

The Grand Jury returned indictments against Wm. Palmer, Theodore Butler, John Russell, Wesley Blake, Alonza Brooks, Earl Gibbs, Benj. Comegys, all for larceny; Samuel Cain, J. H. Jones, Samuel Mason, Henry and Augusta Mercer, Junius Smith, all for violating local option law; Jos. Jones, illegal use horse and buggy; Robert Clayton, for selling stolen goods; Noah Walker, receiving stolen goods.

All day Thursday was occupied with the suit of Dr. S. E. Ford against Mrs. Mary L. Baker, Mrs. J. C. Davis and Mrs. Annie Hayes Harper for payment for bath room fixtures. The jury brought in a verdict for Dr. Ford for $91 as against Mrs. Baker. Dr. Ford was represented by H. H. Barroll; Mrs. Harper by Herbert Perkins; Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Baker by J. D. Urie.

The case of Chas. Brown and wife vs. Kent county for damages resulting from an accident due it is charged from horses taking fright at a load of sand left near roadside near St. Paul's Church, was on trial at time of going to press. Marion deK. Smith represented plaintiff and Lewin W. Wickes defendant.

The Grand Jury finished their labors Thursday and reported that they had been in session four days, examined 60 witnesses, 7 constables and bailiffs, made 18 presentments and found 18 true bills. They further reported that they had been delayed in their proceedings because of the non-attendance of witnesses for whom summonses were issued. The jail and premises were found neat and clean and comfortably provided for the prisoners. The removal of James Blake from the jail to the almshouse, on account of sickness and infirmities, was advised. Thanks to the court and officers of the court for their kind attention was extended. C. E. Crane, foreman; Claude F. Parks, A. W. Carmine, clerks.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

At a meeting of the Faculty of Washington College, held April 21st, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, by the mysterious working of an all-wise Providence, death has entered the home of our Vice-President and co-laborer and has translated from its earthly tenement to its celestial abode the soul of his beloved wife, and a member of our college community; and

WHEREAS, though we feel that words can but feebly express the deep-seated sympathy of our hearts for him in his great bereavement, nevertheless we are constrained to offer him all the consolation in our power; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Faculty of Washington College does hereby tender Dr. James R. Micou its sincerest condolence in the loss of the companion of his life, and trusts that the same God who wounds will administer a kindly relief; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this action be transmitted to Dr. Micou and that the secretary transcribe same in the faculty records.
