HIGH PRICES FOR SLAVES .- The Milton (N. C.) Chronicle says that the following high prices were prid at Yanceyville last

Saturday for slaves: Milly, 49 years old and bed-ridden, $1,-200; Maria and two small children, $2,505 Mary and two small children, $3,402 — Sold on a credit of six months.

On the 19th inst, there was a fire at Kingston, Canada, which destroyed eighty houses, and what is remarkable, the firemen of that city, in consequence of some misunderstanding with the city authorities, looked on without lending the least aid in extinguishing the flames; and not only refused to work themselves, but some of them aided in preventing volunteers from working the engine. A special meeting of the city corporation and of the fire department was held next day, when a reconciliation took place, and the fire department resumed their former position. The conduct of the firemen, however, is universally denounced as a disgrace to human
