SCHOOL APPOINTMENTS.

The School Board Tuesday made the following appointments of teachers:

Miss Mattie Whitaker to be assistant at Piney Neck.

Miss Inez Russell to be assistant at Still Pond.

Miss Anna May Ayres has been appointed to Chesterville school.

An additional teacher in the Chestertown High School was provided for and the position offered to Miss Barbara Anthony.

The vacancy at Hopewell School, near Chestertown, is caused by the appointment of Miss Anthony to Chestertown.

Rudolph S. Allen, son of J. R. Allen, of near Rising Sun, has been appointed to the vacant scholarship at Washington College, from Cecil county.

Prof. Charles Wheatley has been appointed principal of the Piney Neck High School.

Miss Hannah Bell will likely be appointed to Hopewell school.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

ELIAS DEPUTY.

Mr. Elias Deputy, one of Kent county's oldest citizens died Saturday night at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Richard M. Bryan, near Lankford, aged 85 years. He is survived by four children, viz: Mrs. Gale, of Delaware; Mrs. R. M. Bryan, of Lankford; Mrs. James Legg, of Philadelphia, and Mrs Emma Clothier, of this county; also two sisters, Mrs. Henry Gray, of Kent, and Mrs. McCan, of Del. The deceased was a native of Delaware but lived in this county for more than 57 years. Funeral services were held Monday conducted by Rev. Tilgham Smith; interment in St. Pauls cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. I. R. Leaverton, William Ford, Tilden Brice, Oscar Faucett and Purnell Jefferson. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of arrangement.

MRS. GEORGE T. SEWELL.

Mrs. George T. Sewell, one of the best known and most beloved women of Rock Hall, died last Saturday afternoon at the home of her husband, after an illness of more than a year. The deceased was about 60 years of age, and leaves beside a sorrowing husband, one son, Mr. Wm. Sewell. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from her late home, conducted by Rev. J. T. Richardson, pastor of Rock Hall M. E. Church. The interment was in Wesley Chapel cemetery. Casey & Co., undertakers.

MRS. MARY R. LEGG.

Mrs. Mary R. Legg, relict of the late Richard K. Legg, died Saturday night at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Woodmender, in Quaker Neck, aged 68 years. She is survived by six children, viz: Harry, Thomas, Kendall and Laurence Legg; Mrs. J. E. Anderson, of Queen Anne County, and Mrs. Harry Willis, of Betterton. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Tilgham Smith. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of arrangement. The pall bearers were her sons and sons-in-law.

Self Defense.—State's Attorney Albert Constable, of Cecil, states that four of the murder cases now on the docket in that county would be ready for trial in September, but that in the case of Eugene Emerson, colored, who fatally shot Clarence Rhodes, another negro, on the steamer "Annapolis," on August 7, he was of the opinion that the case would be disposed of before a magistrate and not go to the Grand Jury, as all the evidence pointed plainly to self-defense, Emerson having defended himself from attack.

WORK on the new State road in Queen Anne's, near Chestertown, began this week. The stone will be landed on the shore of Mr. H. P. Skipper. Mr. Howard Hubbard, of Baltimore, is in Chestertown making arrangements to land the great quantity of stone which his firm will furnish direct from the quarries by large lighters.

Rented Hotel.—The Townsend Hotel has been reopened by Mr. Charles Armstrong, formerly of Chestertown. The Smyrna Times says: "Like the ghost of the late lamented Banquo, the hotel at Townsend will not 'down.' Four times at successive terms of the county court have applications been made to license the hotel for the sale of thirst destroyers and four times has the court refused the cry of Townsend's thirsty people, owing to the pressure brought to bear by the never-thirsty portion of the population. And now the matter will be brought again to the attention of the court, this time before the new judges.

FROM PRESENT prospects there will hardly be one-half crop of corn in Kent owing to the drouth. The tomato crop will also be cut short by the lack of rain.
