American Fence

Is the heaviest fence made today. It is 60 to 80 lbs. heavier to the hundred rods than other fences, because we use heavier wires which hold more galvanizing which makes longer life.

The upright stays on some field fences are 14 in. apart while on American they are only 12 in.

The hinge joint makes it easy to take down and move American from one place to another.

The tension curve allows for all expansion and contraction.

All our stock of fencing is kept in our large warehouse where it is protected from the weather, and when we send out a roll of fence it is just as clean and bright as when it first came from the machine that made it. Isn't it better to buy fence under these conditions than it is to buy fence that has been piled out in the weather for 3 months to 2 or 3 years?

We have all sizes from 20 in. high to 5 ft.

American Poultry Fence is the acme of perfection in poultry tight fences.

Let us figure on your needs.

Yours to serve,

Davis & Satterfield

$8,000 For Furs.—Since January 1st, of this year Marcus Ascher, the Kent "Fur King" has paid out $8,000 for furs, 13,000 hides was the number purchased from dealers in this section and he has paid as high as $25.00 for one hide.

Peace Oratorical Contest.—The Peace Oratorical Contest took place at Johns Hopkins University last night. Washington College was represented by Mr. W. Lester Baldwin whose subject was "The Evolution of World Peace." Mr. Baldwin was selected to represent Washington College by a committee consisting of Messrs. Wm. F. Russell, H. W. Vickers, Jr., and W. B. Usilton, Jr. after a spirited contest on Friday night week. Mr. Baldwin's nearest competitor for the honor of representing Washington was Mr. W. D. Allen, who had an excellent address upon the subject "The Dawn of Peace."

Mrs. Moody Trying to Break Will.—Mrs Mary A. Moody Thurday in the Orphans' Court, through Attorneys Barroll & Barroll, instituted proceedings to break the will of her sister, Emma Alice Mitchell, who died on March 24. The will was filed Thursday in the Orphans' Court. The testatrix directed her executor, William W. Lingenfelder, to sell her property in Chestertown and to buy a tombstone and pay the expenses of the funeral. If the sum realized was not sufficient to carry out the directions the property at 1725 Appleton street was also to be sold and the balance to go to John F. Schulz. If not required to be sold to cover expenses, the Appleton street property was to go to Mr. Schulz absolutely. The testator also disposed of other personal effects and left the residue of her estate to her sister, Mrs. Moody. The latter, in her caveat, alleges testamentary incapacity and undue influence.

Lecture.—Hamilton Holt will deliver in the auditorium at William Smith Hall, at eight o'clock on the evening of Saturday, Aprill 12th, his lecture on "The Federation of the World." Mr. Holt is the editor of The Independent, and is recognized as one of the ablest lecturers on the American platform. Dr. Cain has been in correspondence with him for two or three years, with the view of having him lecture here, but has been unable until this time to make any satisfactory arrangement for his coming. Mr. Holt makes considerable sacrifice on this occasion to show his interest in the college by delivering this lecture, which has made him famous throughout the country. The public is cordially invited to the lecture, and no admission fee will be charged.
