COUNTY CONVENTION.

In accordance with a resolution of the State Central Committee, found in another column, the Unconditional Union Voters of Carroll County are requested to assemble in County Convention on Saturday the 16th of February, inst., at 11 o'clock, A. M., at the Court House in Westminster, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the State Convention to be held in Baltimore on the 20th instant. Let there be a full turn out of all the Loyal men, as the exigency of our surroundings require full consultation and prompt action to avoid impending danger. Other matters of local importance will be brought before the Convention.

The Crisis in Maryland.

We are rapidly approaching a political crisis in Maryland. The events now transpiring at Annapolis, sufficiently indicate the tendency of Rebel legislation, and warn the people of our State to beware how they longer allow its destinies to depend upon men of the same political complexion as those who now hold the reins of our State Government Recklessness rules in the deliberations of our lawmakers, and there is no foreseeing how great calamities may be brought upon us ere they shall quit their places. Possessed of the true Democratic instinct—that insatiable desire for the spoils of office—they are willing to overtopple the State Constitution, and wholly ignore the rights of the minority, to attain the desired object. Not content with allowing the cause of justice to pursue their ordinary course, they are determined to stay all proceedings until a law can be passed that will shield perjured Registers and punish election judges for a conscientious performance of their duties. Daily denouncing Congress for excluding Rebels from participation in the National Councils, they have fixed a fictitious and unjust representation, whereby loyal men are to be reduced to a mere cypher in the Senate and House of Delegates. The consummation of these revolutionary schemes will be the passage of the "Convention Bill," which will break down the last barrier and launch us upon a sea of peceable—perhaps fiery—revolution. The idea advanced by these men of the complete sovereignty of the people finds a wholesome qualification in the existence of written Constitutions, which are provided as a safeguard against the dangerous acts which these men are daily perpetrating.—The sole object—the grand purpose—at which they aim, is to perpetuate power in the hands of the disloyal, and to punish men for having remained faithful in their allegiance to the government of the United States.

To meet these madmen in their high-handed measures, and to fight them at every step, is the stern and patriotic duty of every Unionist in the State. The man who is willing to succumb to these outrages, or whose ardor cools when it should be aroused to the highest pitch, is unworthy to enjoy the blessings of popular government. Already the "rapid speed" exhibited by the party in power is having its effect, and already are there numerous indications that the unholy alliance that defeated the Union men of the State is breaking to pieces. The clouds are breaking away; an early and auspicious dawn is coming upon us. Our day of triumph will come none the less surely and brightly for having been for a time enveloped in the dark clouds of treason and treachery.—Our good old State cannot long remain subject to the influences which now control it, but soon again must she stand among her loyal sisters of the Union. The battle for the victory may be, aye, will be, a severe one, but success will again attend our cause. Let us, then, be hopeful of the future—patient in enduring the ills now attending us—but prompt and active in redressing them.—Baltimore County Union.

The Naval School.

A movement is on foot, and is being seriously urged, to remove the United States Naval School from Annapolis. The impression in the House of Representatives and in Washington is that Maryland is hopelessly and irredeemably given over to disloyal influences, and that efforts for her regeneration are useless. The Radicals of the State do not believe this, and ask that Congress will not abandon them and weaken their cause by two hasty action. They urge that they do not wish to see the State punished because of the defection of Gov. Swann and his acting with the Conservatives. It is probable that the Naval Committee will report a bill for the removal of the Academy, but a strong effort will be made by our Representative from the Second and Fourth Districts to defeat it before the House.

☞Congress has very justly refused to make an appropriation for a Minister to Rome, for the reason that Protestant worship is not allowed in public assemblies in the city of Rome, nor, indeed, in the Roman States. The British Government has no diplomatic relations with Rome, and we are glad that our Government will withdraw its Minister.

Legislative Wisdom.

We would like to ask any honest, sensible Copperhead of the county, whether the General Assembly of this, or any other State, can dictate to a Constitutional Convention, called by the people, what kind of a Constitution they must form? If not, then, clearly, was it not a most contemptible farce for the Legislature to insert in the Bill calling the Convention, a clause prohibiting that body from providing for the payment of emancipated Slaves? The object was to humbug the people, and deceive them in regard to the real object of that Constitutional Convention. And yet, true to their instincts of dishonesty, the Rebel papers of this County try to make capital out of the votes of our Representatives, in opposing the amendment to instruct the Convention. We would like, just for curiosity, to see Rebels deal honestly with a question once. It would look so funny in print.

☞The passage of the bill now before the Maryland Legislature, for the destruction of our present State Constitution, will leave us totally at sea in regard to a State government. In such case, an election for delegates to form a new State Constitution would be open to every man in the State, both white and black. If these men, in their haste to sweep away everything that savors of Republicanism, should accidentally establish Impartial Suffrage, it would atone for a good many of the past sins of the Democratic party.

A Surprise Party.

MR. EDITOR:—I consider it due the friends of Frizzleburg, to make this public acknowledgement of the kindness manifested by them towards myself and family. On Friday night, February 1st., as we were sitting in our comfortable dwelling, after the sun had sunk behind the western hills and the shades of night were extinguishing the last remains of day, a Sled loaded with ladies and gentlemen and bags and tubs, soon followed by another, stopped opposite our door. Soon a rap at the door was heard and in entered some eight or ten young ladies and men, and demanded possession of the house which we surrendered without firing a gun or drawing a sword, perhaps because we are opposed to war. It proved, however, a prudent course, for soon the contents of the load was deposited in our house, which consisted in Oats, Corn, Potatoes, Meat, Lard, Applebutter, &c., and a splendid dress pattern for Mrs. Amy, and also a splendid Pocketbook containing some twenty-seven dollars in money, amounting to in all as I think at a reasonable estimate to fifty-five dollars, all of which we were made the lawful possessors by them. After a social chat we all agreed to bow at the throne of Grace, made accessible by the Atoneing Lamb! and give thanks to God for his goodness, and then took the parting hand with joyful hearts. The leader in this matter was my esteemed friend Thomas Mering, assisted by Levi Fleagle.—and Misses Sallie Yingling, Annie and Nellie Fleagle were the parties getting up the dress pattern. They and all concerned in the donation will accept our warmest thanks tendered by us for their kindness thus demonstrated, and pray that they may long live to cheer the hearts of the needy Shepherds of Israel.

MAGGY M. AMY,
C. AMY, Pastor.

The Democratic Party.

Mr. RAYMOND of the New York Times, has made good use of his eyes and ears.—His knowledge of Democratic "history" is complete, and he draws it to the life. The following "pen portrait" of the party into whose ranks he penetrated, will be recognized any where, without a label:

"We certainly do not misstate the case when we say that the Democratic party, in its organized political action, is the inveterate foe of all moral and social progress and elevation. It seeks always to use the vices of men, not to cure them.—It panders to the worst appetites and passions, because it can make them minister to its advantage. And in its political action its impulses have been equally alien to the spirit of freedom. Its temper towards the colored race has always been narrow, illiberal and even cruel in sympathy with their oppressors, never with those who have sought their elevation and advancement. In a word, the Democratic party has never sought any thing higher or better than its own aggrandizement.—It has never yielded to the impulses of philanthrophy, which, however mistaken they may sometimes be, are always nobler than calculations of selfish advantage, as springs and motives of public action."

Appointments.

On Tuesday night week, Gov. Swann sent the anxiously looked for—by the Copperheads to the Senate. Quite a stir was made by those appointments of the Governor among the Democracy, some of whom swore roundly that they would "smash" several of them in the Senate.

The prevailing opinion among that class of politicians is, that Mr. Swann, having received his coveted election to the United States Senate, should have resigned his position as Governor, and allowed his successor, who will be responsible for the acts of the appointees, to make the nominations.

We don't know how our Cecil Conservatives will relish their share of the spoils. They ceatainly lied equal to any other admirers of the great Swann in the State, and spilled as much of John Barleycorn's blood on Cecil soil for his sake, and the only appointment credited to this county is Inspector General of Grain. Mr. B. F. May, the present Inspector, is reappointed and accredited to this county where he has not claimed a residence for several years. Mr. May is a very excellent Inspector of Grain, but he should have been accredited to Baltimore city, and left our Conservatives standing out in the cold without the pretense of a rag to cover them Lack-a-day! that Swann is a mighty "unsartin whiteman." We pity some of our "Conservative" friends who had their eyes filled with big offices, but we have no tears to shed with them in their very great affliction.—Cecil Whig.

The Winter South.

No winter since that of 1857 has equalled the present in severity. From the country we learn that the ground is everywhere encased in a covering of snow, topped with a crust of ice. The roads are beds of ice, where the track has been broken at all. It is hoped that the growing wheat is doing well, though nobody has seen it for weeks. Thawing is very slow when it takes place at all—the chill of the night recovering the conquests of the day, and replacing snow with ice. It is very rare in our climate that we have to record a season of such extraordinay rigor. As we approach the mountains, and in the Valley, the sleety vestment covers the earth to the depth of ten inches or more. The ice upon our ponds and streams is of almost unprecedented thickness.—Richmond Enquirer.

Letter from Pennsylvania.

The following letter, though somewhat late, will be found quite interesting:

HARRISBURG, JAN., 1867.

Editor "American Sentinel,"

DEAR SIR:—Presuming that an occasional letter from the Keystone State—from the flourishing city of Harrisburg, the capitol, would be of interest to your readers, I will endeavor to keep you advised of offairs in this section of the loyal old State founded by Wm. Penn. We made a noble charge against the enemy in this State—the bold, unblushing copperhead element—a party infinitely more treacherous and damnable in their political antecedents than the rebels of Maryland!

Brig. Gen. John W. Geary, the Hero of Gettysburg, and of an hundred other well contested battle fields was duly inaugurated Governor of this State, amid great pomp and ceremony, on Tuesday the 15th of January. An immense crowd of Firemen, the Military and civilians from all parts of the State were in attendance, and everything passed off creditably to the various committees of arrangements, and certainly speaks well for the enthusiasm displayed by the honest yeomanry of Pa.

The contest was truly exciting, and the victory glorious. All the machinations the enemy could invent, resort to slander and prevarication was had, lying and falsification were boldly and openly advocated, but the brave boys in blue, and the unflinching Republican voters of our good old State gave them such another Gettysburg defeat as they will long remember! Heister Clymer, the defunct opponent of Gen. Geary, the consistent voter in the Senate of Pennsylvania (during the war for the suppression of the Rebellion) against all the important bounty bills, relief for Soldier's widows, fer the increase of the military forces, &c., has met the reward he so richly deserved. His name to-day is a by-word, and no more heard in political circles.

We watched with much interest the contest in "Maryland, my Maryland," and witnessed with deep regret the course of Gov. Swann, the recreant,—the former Know Nothing and staunch (?) supporter of Republican principles. Had the old imbecile at Washington, A. J., not shown himself a fit advocate of Treason and treachery, the result would be different in Maryland to-day. No sane man can doubt this. You must, however, do the best you can, under the circumstances, and if occasion ever requires it, if the rebel horde again oppress and annoy you, an hundred thousand loyal men will come to the rescue, prepared! The spirit is still amongst us; it will never die, so long as the glorious Sun shines upon earth, or the brilliant Stars remain fixed in the blue arch of Heaven!

On Inauguration day we achieved another victory. The election of Gen. Cameron to the Senate of the United States, we hold as such. Forney, Ex-Gov. Curtin and the "Old Commoner" Thaddeus Stevens were the contestants. Thad wisely withdrew—his services are immense in the U. S. House of Representatives, and the remaining two were ingloriously defeated in caucus.—Better things might have been expected from these two prominent men in our party, than an attempt at disorganization. Gen. Cameron is a bold unflinching champion of the Republican cause in Penn.—an able defender of Pennsylvania interests, and the choice of her people. The vote stood as follows:—Cameron, Republican 81; Cowan, Copperhead and renegade 48; majority on joint ballot, 33.

A brutal Prize Fight came off on Inauguration day at Goldsboro, in York county, fourteen miles below Harrisburg, between Sam Collyer, backed by the Baltimore Plug Uglies, and Johnny McGlade, of New York, backed by the "fancy" of Gotham. About 1500 people were present, forty-seven rounds were fought in fifty-eight minutes, and Collyer won. The parties assembled were the worst characters to be found in the above named cities, a horde of infamous thieves, pickpockets and cut throats, armed with revolvers and whiskey bottles. Swann's "pets" from Baltimore, however, capped the climax. They picked more pockets, robbed more passengers on the railway trains, and done more fighting and drinking than any crowd of villains we ever heard of. The authorities of the copper-governed County of York could do nothing to prevent this meeting, yet they knew it was on the tapis three days before. Oh, of course not! It could not be expected from the democracy of that misgoverned locality to interfere.

Truly Yours, PENNSYLVANIA.

Jeff and the Way he is Starved.

Twenty dollars a week are allowed by the Government to provide for the table of Jefferson Davis at Fortress Monroe, with articles that are not furnished in the regular rations of the garrison; this is the way in which the prisoner is "starved."—Mrs. Davis writes to the editor of the Charleston Courier that her husband's "health continues to decline, and that the pecuniary circumstances of his family are becoming very embarrassing." If Jeff. eats that twenty dollars' worth "that's what's the matter."

The Lutheran Church Fair.

The prospects for the success of the Lutheran Fair are exceedingly encouraging. A lively and generous spirit of emulation has been excited amongst those connected with the church, and members of other congregations, and the community generally, with feelings of liberal and christian generosity are aiding in a variety of ways to promote the praiseworthy enterprise.—The parties specially charged with the superintendance of the work, are actively and earnestly engaged in preparing for the "opening" which promises to be interesting and entertaining. Donations are rapidly coming in, and beautiful and valuable articles purchased, made, and donated, useful and ornamental are ready to be displayed to the admiring gaze of all who will favour the Fair, and the fair ones with their presence.

The elegant silver Tea Sett, already spoken of, is now on exhibition at the Jewelry Store of Wm. Moore Esq., near the Railroad, who has kindly and generously taken charge of it and will gladly show it to visitors, and put down their names for a chance. Wm. B. Larmour of Baltimore has increased the obligations of the Ladies in charge to him by the gift of a handsome, and costly silver Card Receiver, which lads, and lassies, and staid matrons will devour with longing eyes. The attractions will be great, the goods of the best quality, the fare suitable to the nicest palate. The ladies fascinating. The New England Kitchen irresistable and everything lovely. To one and all who wish pleasure, and profit, and the rewafd of a good conscience we say come and help us to push forward a good work.

Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup.

This great medicine cured Dr. J. H. SCHENCK, the Proprietor, of Pulmonary Consumption, when it had assumed its most formidable aspect, and when speedy death appeared to be inevitable His physicians pronounced his case incurable, when he commenced the use of this simple but powerful remedy. His health was restored in a very short time, and no return of the disease has been apprehended, for all the symptoms quickly disappeared, and his present weight is more than two hundred pounds.

Since his recovery, he has devoted his attention exclusively to the cure of Consumption and the disease which are usually complicated with it, and the cures effected by his medicines have been very numerous and truly wonderful. Dr. SCHENCK makes professional visits to several of the larger cities weekly, where he has a large concourse of patients and it is truly astonishing to see poor consumptives that have to be lifted out of their carriages, and in a few months healthy, robust persons. Dr. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC, and MANDRAKE PILLS are generally all required in curing Consumption. Full directions accompany each, so that any one can take them without seeing Dr. SCHENCK, but when it is convenient it is best to see him. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer his fee is three dollars.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor—one when in the last stage of Consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health—are on the Government stamp.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers Price $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. Letters for advice should always be directed to Dr. Schenck's Principal Office, 15 North 6th St, Philadelphia, Pa.
