PAY UP!

Notwithstanding all our dunning, we have yet a large amount of money outstanding, which we now greatly need and intend collecting in the speediest manner. It will be well, therefore, for those knowing themselves indebted to us to take this hint and save costs. It is no use longer to be mealy-mouthed about it, we have to pay cash for paper, ink, hands, taxes, and indeed everything else, and trusting out our work from year to year is a humbug we will tolerate no longer.

The Coming Campaign.

We are glad to see that in nearly all the Counties of the State our Republican friends are moving actively and organizing their forces for a vigorous canvass against the adoption of the new Constitution. This is as it should be. There is nothing to be gained by a passive policy, but much to be lost. No party can allow its opponents upon any political question to walk over an uncontested course, without becoming demoralized and unequal to future effort. No matter what may be the chances, or what the odds against us, let the Republicans of Maryland come up square and compact against the Constitution which disfranchises not only colored men, but also the white men of Carroll and other Western populous Counties.—There is no longer any time to be lost in speculating, but earnest, manly effort is necessary on the part of every Republican in Carroll. Let all the Leagues be thoroughly alive to the work before them, and if any have died out see that they are immediately re-organized and put to work. The Election for the Constitution is not the only one that we are interested in this fall, and hence the necessity for early organization, for if the Republican party of Carroll is fully aroused and true to itself, democracy and conservatism will stand no chance in the second contest.

Why Is It?

Since the Radical victory in Tennessee the bonds of the State have advanced five per cent in the New York market.

Immediately after the Radical victory in Missouri last year the bonds of her State jumped eight per cent in the New York market within a few hours, and they have since risen over thirty per cent.

Will some Copperhead tell us whether, since the recent rebel victory in Kentucky the bonds of the State have risen and if so, how much?

What is the reason that Radical victories make bonds go up, while rebel or Conservative victories do not?

With negro suffrage in Maryland, and a solid Republican majority of twenty thousand, our Commonwealth will also commence to look up, an extensive emigration will come in from the North, land will again sell at reasonable prices, and loyalty no longer be considered disreputable.

Don't fail to Get Registered.

The Officers of Registration are now in session in the different Districts, and we hope every Union man in the County who has not yet been registered, will at once make application for registry. It is essentially necessary to have every vote out on the 18th, and therefore let all see that they are not deprived of their votes by a failure to be properly registered.

The Common Sense.

This is the title of a new paper started at Ellicott City, Howard County, by P. Unger, Esq. The first number presents a neat and workmanlike appearance, and promises to be an able defender of manhood suffrage and equal rights. We welcome the Common Sense as a valuable exchange, and wish it abundant success.

☞The veteran Congressman, Hon. E. B. Washburne, of Illinois, has returned from abroad in improved health, and is at present the guest at Washington of his intimate personal friend, General Grant. Mr. Washburne expresses the opinion that the first business of Congress when it meets will be to prepare articles of impeachment against the President, and that is the only way to save the country.

Keep it Before the People.

That every man who votes for the new Constitution on the 18th, votes to DESTROY one of the best School Systems of the country, and to deprive their children of an Education free of expense.

☞Those irreverent lads who called names after a certain "bald head" of old, deserved their untimely end, because at that time no panacea had been discovered to restore the human hair upon the bald spots. But now Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia is known to possess the rare merit of invigorating the roots and filling them so full of life, where not entirely dead that they cannot help putting forth a new growth which rivals in beauty the locks of youth.

Peruvian Syrup.—This valuable medicine has been silently making its way to public favor by the numerous remarkable cures it has performed. Its singular efficacy is owing to the protoxide of Iron, which remains unchanged in this preparation and is the only form in which this vital element of healthy blood can be supplied.

General Grant's Protest.

Below we give the letter of Gen. Grant to President Johnson protesting against the removal of Generals Sheridan, Thomas and Hancock, with his reasons and objections thereto:

Headquarters Armies U. S.,
Washington, Aug. 17, 1867.

His Excellency, Andrew Johnson,
President of the United States.

Sir:—I am in receipt of your order of this date directing the assignment of Gen. G. H. Thomas to the command of the Fifth Military District, General Sheridan to the Department of the Missouri, and General Hancock to the Department of the Cumberland. Also your note of this date enclosing these instructions saying, "Before you issue instructions to carry into effect the enclosed order, I would be pleased to hear any suggestions you may deem necessary respecting the assignments to which this order refers."

I am pleased to urge—earnestly urge—in the name of a patriotic people who have sacrificed hundreds of thousands of loyal lives and thousands of millions of treasure to preserve integrity of Union of this country, that this order be not insisted on. It is unmistakably the expressed wish of the country that General Sheridan should not be removed from his present command.—This is a Republic where the will of the people is the law of the land. I beg that their voice may be heard. General Sheridan has performed his civil duties faithfully and intelligently. His removal will only be regarded as an effort to defeat the laws of Congress. It will be interpreted by the unconstructed element in the South, those who did all they could to break up this Government by arms, and now wish to be the only element consulted as to the method of restoring order, as a triumph. It will embolden them to renewed opposition to the will of the loyal masses, believing that they have the Executive with them. The services of General Thomas in battling for the Union entities him to some consideration. He has repeatedly entered his protest against being assigned to either of the five military districts, and especially to being assigned to relieve General Sheridan. General Hancock ought not to be removed from where he is. His department is a complicated one which will take a new commander some time to become acquainted with. There are military reasons, pecuniary reasons, and, above all, patriotic reasons why this order should not be insisted on. I beg to refer to a letter marked private, which I wrote to the President when first consulted on the subject of the change in the War Department. It bears upon the subject of this removal, and I had hoped would have prevented it.

I have the honor to be, with great respect, your obedient servant,

U. S. Grant,
General U. S. Army and Secretary of War ad interim.

Of this letter the Boston Journal says: "It will give his friends the profoundest gratification. It is earnest, directly to the point, and though brief, yet comprehends the subject in all its relations. A better protest could not have been written. He endorses Sheridan's administration fully, saying that 'he has performed his civil duties faithfully and intelligently.' He then says 'it is unmistakably the expressed wish of the country that Gen. Sheridan should not be removed,' adding the suggestion, so grievously needed at the White House: 'This is a republic, where the will of the people is the law of the land.' His allusions to the effect of the contemplated removal on the unreconstructed element in the South are as just and true as they are sagacious. They would have gone to the heart of any other man in the world than Andrew Johnson. But how does this self-sufficient functionary meet this calm, weighty and truthful protest? He devotes more than twice the space occupied by Gen. Grant to a substantial repetition of one of his old rigmaroles about the Constitution. Of course he ignores the will of the people. It is a philosophical doctrine that a column of water no thicker than a pipe stem would balance any other body of water of the same height even if it were the Atlantic ocean. And so Andrew Johnson appears to entertain no doubt that his single will is as much superior to the will of the loyal millions of the country as his station is above theirs. In other words, he has got the idea that he is their autocrat and not their servant. But what has General Sheridan done to the injury of the Constitution? Nothing, certainly, that the President is able to specify. He talks vaguely about Sheridan's 'absolute tyranny,' and says affairs in his district appear to be in 'a disturbed condition,' and that 'a bitter spirit of antagonism' seems to have resulted from his management. But all the disturbances and the bitter spirit, it is well known, is in Rebel quarters alone—the Union people in Sheridan's district are satisfied and harmonious, and only disturbed by the prospect of his removal. As yet this is all that the President can offer in justification of his removal of General Sheridan. A weaker and more ignominious apology was never made by any public man.

A Malignant Spirit of Opposition.

The N. Y. Times is editorially quite sharp upon the President. It says:

The conduct of Johnson is not explainable on any known theory of human action. Treachery is usually traceable to expectations of advantage. Conflict is seldom provoked unless there be some chance of success. But in his case we see treachery with no other motive than the gratification of a malignant spirit of opposition. Mr. Johnson's course would be intelligible if it promised the deliverance of the South from the restraints of existing legislation. So far as the South is concerned, Mr. Johnson's gratitude, in some respects unlawful interference in its behalf, is a blunder and a crime. Mr. Johnson's attitude might be respected if it were calculated to strengthen him elsewhere. But an ass is not more helpless than is Mr. Johnson. From this date until the 21st of November he may play all sorts of pranks. On the 21st of November, and thenceforward forever, he will be powerless; his ninety days' sport will end in his being reduced to helplessness. Beyond that his hatred cannot carry him. Again, Johnson's conduct would be susceptible of explanation if it opened a way for his ambition on the shoulders of the Democratic party. The War Democrats doubt him as an abettor of the unreconstructed element; the Copperheads despise him as too vacillating and too slow for their purpose. From every point of view the course of Johnson is equally incomprehensible and indefensible.

Local Items.

Religious Notice.—A Protracted Meeting will commence at Union Bethel, near Carrollton, September 5th, at 7½ o'clock, P. M. Rev. J. C. Owens, of Lancaster, Pa., will be present, and superintend all exercises. Preaching on Sabbath at 10 o'clock, A. M., and 2 o'clock, P. M. The public generally are invited.

Lecture To-Night.—Let all our readers bear in mind the Temperance Address that will be delivered at Odd Fellows' Hall to-night by Past G. W. A. Edward Carswell, of Canada, and not fail to be in attendance. Mr. B. F. Gantt, so favorably known to our citizens as an able champion of Temperance, will also be present. The Committee of Arrangements will use every exertion to have all comfortably seated, but as there will doubtless be a large crowd we advise all to go early.

Sabbath School Pic Nic.—There will be a Sabbath School Pic Nic held on Saturday next, September 7th, in the Grove adjoining Spring Dale School House, near New Windsor. Addresses will be delivered by Rev. H. C. Holloway and Rev. Jesse Starner, with other interesting exercises. The Frizzellsburg Brass Band will furnish the music, and a pleasant and profitable day's enjoyment is confidently anticipated. A general invitation is extended.

National Grays' Band.—This Band, but recently organized by a number of young men of our town and vicinity, made their first appearance on our streets on Saturday last, in their new Band Wagon, making a really fine appearance, and acquitting themselves very creditably in the performance of several pieces. They are eminently deserving of credit for the energy and perseverance displayed.

Prescription of Ministers and Preachers of the Gospel.

Let the friends of religious liberty remember that the "new Constitution" puts a stigma upon "ministers and preachers of the Gospel" as a class, and ordains that they shall be ineligible as members of the Senate and House of Delegates. No matter how immoral, how irreligious or thoroughly unprincipled a man may be, there is nothing in this new Constitution to prevent such an one being sent to make laws for "My Maryland."—But a "minister or preacher of the Gospel" must, on no account, ever presume to aid in the functions of legislation. The grog-shop keepers, who may desire to have the license laws tinkered to suit themselves, can, if they please, send the most notorious tavern lounger to the halls of the General Assembly; the gamblers can, if they desire, send any "black-leg" they please to Annapolis to see to their interests; the enemies of any and of all religion can, without let or hinderance, elect avowed infidels to advocate their ideas and to seek to infuse the same into the legislation of the State; but no "minister of the Gospel," or of any religion, is ever hereafter to be permitted to utter his voice in our legislative halls! Should any of our law-abiding citizens, who deplore the immorality and unprincipled character of too many of those who thurst themselves forward to represent the people in the general assembly, desire to send some retired clergyman or lay preacher to the legislature, as one in whose honesty and devotion to the cause of morality and virtue they can implicitly rely, they are to be met with this constitutional prohibition: "No minister of the Gospel shall be eligible as Senator or Delegate."

Let the friends of religion and good morals ponder this matter. The animus which dictated this proscription of the "preachers of the gospel" is the same which repudiates the Christian doctrine of the unity of the races and the "common brotherhood of man." The old spirit of the overthrown slave oligarchy—the spirit of despotism, seeking to clog the wheels of human progress, and hating all true liberty, which includes the humblest and the poorest in its benevolent scope, is naturally averse to "Christian liberty," and so seeks to put a ban upon its special representatives—"the preachers of the Gospel." Will not the friends of Christian liberty resent the insult, and set the seal of their disapprobation indelibly upon this iniquitous "new Constitution" by casting their votes against it?—Balto. American.

Flanking the President.

Gen. Grant is treating the President as he did the Rebels at Richmond. He is flanking him, and has already extended his line so as to render Mr. Johnson's position untenable. The President overruling his instructions continuing in force all the orders of Gen. Sheridan, he has issued an order which in more direct compliance with the literal terms of the Reconstruction Act accomplishes the same end. He has directed, in a special order, that the Commanders of the Military Districts "will make no appointments to civil office of persons who have been removed by themselves or their predecessors in command." This is an effectual checkmate to whatever might have been designed to be accomplished through the removal of General Sheridan, and will prevent the restoration to power of Gov. Wells in Louisana, of Gov Throckmorton in Texas, and of the murderer Monroe in New Orleans. The Washington agent of the Associated Press, instructed from the White House, attempts to make at appear that this order creates no issue between the President and Gen. Grant.—We presume, however, people will exercise their own common sense in construing a thing so manifest and vote his explanation gratuitous as well as false. We concur, however, with the correspondent in thinking the order a very good "notice in advance" to the President. There will undoubtedly be an issue of very serious proportions unless he pays due attention to the notice thus given. Gen. Grant, it is reported, has requested to be relieved from attending at Cabinet meetings except when military matters are under discussion.

Andy and the Darkies.

Mr. Langston, the colored lawyer, has made a detailed statement of his recent interview with Mr. Johnson, in which the President avowed his intention to remove General Howard from the Freedmen's Bureau, and intimated a willingness to appoint Mr. Langston himself to the position, if he would take it. Mr. L., after consulting with General Grant, has decided not to be drawn into the trap, believing that the offer was made 'to effect the removal of General Howard and to embarrass the interests of the colored race.' Andy now denies the proposition, and involves a question of veracity between him and Langston. Who shall be believed? Andy, or the Nigger?

☞Senator Cameron had a long interview in Washington on Saturday with General Grant. Mr. Cameron declared afterwards that General Grant was as sound a Republican as any man in the country. Mr. Cameron also expressed himself strongly in favor of the impeachment of President Johnson.

☞The Washington Star says General Sickles, on retiring from the command of the Second Military District, will doubtless throw up his military commission and commence the practice of law in New York city. There, he will at once become perhaps the most powerful man in the ranks of the Union party. His career since the commencement of the war, has gained him the entire confidence and regard of his old political opponents, while he has lost none of his stronghold upon the Democratic masses of New York. As valuable as have been his services to the Union cause in the South, they are destined to be of even greater value to it in New York.

☞Some surprise has been manifested because President Johnson furnished for publication the correspondence between Grant and himself. It was so damaging to "My Policy" that it was reasonable to suppose the Executive would have withheld it as long as possible. A correspondent of the Boston Advertiser gives this explanation: "Careful inquiry concerning the same leaves scarcely any doubt but that the President furnished it for publication while in a condition similar to that in which he was when he took the oath of office."

The Spirit of the Soldiers.

In a recent application for a claim before one of the Departments, by a Wisconsin soldier, the following oath of allegiance is attached:

"I, S. F. B., having duly sworn, say, that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and defend it against all its enemies, foreign and domestic—Andrew Johnson included."

The Question Settled.—Those eminent men, Dr. James Clark, Physician to Queen Victoria, and Dr. Hughes Bennett, say that consumption can be cured. Dr. Wistar knew this when he discovered his now widely known Balsam of Wild Cherry, and experience has proved the correctness of his opinion.

Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup.

This great medicine cured Dr J. H Schenck, the Proprietor, of Pulmonary Consumption, when it had assumed its most formidable aspect, and when speedy death appeared to be inevitable His physicians pronounced his case incurable, when he commenced the use of this simple but powerful remedy. His health was restored in a very short time, and no return of the disease has been apprehended, for all the symptoms quickly disappeared, and his present weight is more than two hundred pounds.

Since his recovery, he has devoted his attention exclusively to the cure of Consumption and the disease which are usually complicated with it, and the cures effected by his medicines have been very numerous and truly wonderful. Dr. Schenck makes professional visits to several of the larger cities weekly, where he has a large concourse of patients and it is truly astonishing to see poor consumptives that have to be lifted out of their carriages, and in a few months healthy, robust persons. Dr. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC, and MANDRAKE PILLS are generally all required in curing Consumption. Full directions accompany each, so that any one can take them without seeing Dr Schenck, but when it is convenient it is best to see him. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer his fee is three dollars

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor—one when in the last stage of Consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health—are on the Government stamp

4 Dyspepsia.

There is no disease which experience has so amply proved to be remediable by the

PERUVIAN SYRUP,

(a protected solution of the Protoxide of Iron), as Dyspepsia. The most inveterate forms of this disease have been completely cured by this medicine, as ample testimony of some of our first citizens proves.
