Blocks were produced again with a temporary set-up within two weeks after this fire and during the construction of the new building which was made of cinder block. A production of 500-600 a day is maintained the year round, a chemical being added to the mix during the winter which, with the steam curing, prevents the possibility of freez ing. During periods of increased building, as now, extra men are added to increase this production to 1,000 daily. The steam curing room capacity of 1,000 block takes care of this produc-
