Will it bring you Prosperity and Good Luck or Poverty and Adversity?

We know This:

That with those who keep a Bank Account prosperity has a better chance.

Why not start a Bank Account with the New Year? Be able, when the year is old, to say, with the prosperous ones, "Financially, the past year has been the best year of my life."

Don't be placed with the "quitter," who complains about "hard times and heavy taxes."

[illegible] Row—Former Sheriff [illegible] and Deputy Sheriff James Colton [illegible]—Detective John H. Kratz, Sheriff William [illegible] J. Kevser.

It is remarkable that every man was promptly in his place having received notice Saturday night.

When court convened the room was packed to suffocation, the corridors and stairways outside were packed so that a person caught in the jam could not move and at least 200 men stood on the Courthouse green, unable to gain admission to the building. The crowd was entirely orderly.

This was no doubt largely due to the fact that the assurance given by former Judge James Alfred Pearce and State's Attorney Vickers were verefied and fulfilled by the prompt arrival of the judges and the opening of Court. When this was done the promise of these gentlemen was carried out and the matter taken in full control by the Court.

By 10 o'clock it was estimated that more than 500 outsiders were in Chestertown. The streets were literally black with teams and the sidewalks crowded with those who had come in them. Business was almost at a standstill, town people mingling with the countrymen and discussing the situation.

In the jail the accused negroes, still badly frightened by their narrow escape Saturday night, cowered under the protection of the local officers and the 12 members of the Baltimore City Police Department who arrived here Sunday evening under orders from Governor Goldsborough.

While the officers anticipated no trouble and no treats were heard from the crowd, there was no relaxation of the grim faithfulness with which the jail and its inmates were guarded.

Owing to the fact that State's Attorney Vickers had gotten the evidence in fine shape, the Grand Jury was enabled to get to work promptly. Besides Detectives Pumphrey and Kratz and Attorney Vickers, among the witnesses were: Dr. Frank B. Smith, who attended Coleman after the murder; Walter I., W. Frank and Grover C. Coleman, sons of the dead man; Nathan Lieberman, keeper of the store where the negroes had gathered prior to the crime; Deputy Fire Marshal William Famous, who was present when Mabley confessed; Smith Butcher, John and Montgomery Reed, Daniel Mabel and his wife, William Carter and Ed[illegible] Wilson, all colored. guard o[illegible] liberties, had been too lenient with our criminals, but personally we did not believe this was true, and we cannot believe that any member of our Bar would for pecuniary reward [illegible] their influence to let [illegible] ility man go unpunished.

We further learned that the majority of those who invaded our town, after having been assured by our State's Attorney and former Judge James Alfred Pearce that the criminals would remain in Chestertown until they could be properly indicted and tried, were satisfied and left, and that subsequently a set of young men did forcibly enter the jail, which was certainly very reprehensible and as your Honors know were prepared for so doing. But later reconsidered and failed to find a True Bill.

We have tried to be faithful in the discharge of our duties and we trust that our deliberations have been satisfactory to this Honorable Court.

Respectfully submitted,
JOHN C. REDMILE,
Temporary Foreman.

THERE is an erroneous report being circulated, viz., that Capt. Walmsley's murderer has been pardoned. This is not true—it was the boy Hynson who was convicted of arson in Quaker Neck who was recently pardoned by the Governor.
