Tangier Island, Va., the island famed in Revolutionary War history as the place where the! Rev. Joshua Thomas, "Parson of the Islands," preached to the British soldiers and warned them that they would be defeated in their attack on Baltimore, is ready for its annual Home-coming Day, today. Hundreds of visitors are expected to descend upon this little island for the fine program that has been prepared by residents. Each year visitors and former residents take advantage of the special observance, held in memory of Rev. Thomas, and flock to the island in increasing numbers. The visitors come from all over the Peninsula, as well as from many nearby MR. CHIPS, tendent of the Salisbury Dis- sage, tender in its romance—a dramatic thunderbolt trict, Wilmington Methodist Grant, pastor of Swain Memorial Church of Tangier, who with his committee, is working diligently to make the event a successful one.
