WESTMINSTER:
THURSDAY, JAN. 16, 1868.

FOR PRESIDENT:
GENERAL ULYSSES S. GRANT,
Subject to the decision of the Republican National Convention.

☞To our advertisers we make the request, that hereafter they will enter on all advertisements which they send to us, the number of times which each is to be inserted, so that we may be enabled to make our charge for the same.

MEETING OF THE STATE REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE.

The Republican State Central Committee has been called to be held in Baltimore, on Tuesday, the 21st inst. The Committee will be charged with the duty of designating the time of holding a State Convention to elect delegates to the National Republican Convention which meets in Chicago in May next; and take other measures necessary for the organization of the Republican party in Maryland for the approaching Presidential campaign. We would urge upon the members of the Committee for this County the necessity of attending. Now is the time to re-organize the party for the next campaign, and every man should be at his post.

TO OUR CONSERVATIVE FRIENDS.

By reference to our Local column, our readers will see that D. Scott Boyle has been appointed Deputy Clerk of the Circuit Court for Carroll County. Now, to Mr. Boyle we have not a word to say. If the Clerk chooses to appoint him or any other man who served his time in the Rebel army, it is his right which we shall not gainsay, nor would we attempt to dictate as to who shall or who shall not be appointed. We had no hand in placing the present incumbents in office, but on the contrary did all in our power to prevent their election, therefore we are free to say what we please, and their acts, whether good or bad, are creditable or damning only to those who elected them. Neither have we anything to say, on this subject, to those men who were Rebels during the war; we only propose to speak to those who, claiming to be Union men in the past, saw proper at the last election to cast their ballots with the dominant party.

During the campaign our friends repeatedly spoke of what would be the result if the Rebel party came into power, our Conservative friends would answer, "Oh, they'll hardly do that, will they?" and then march up to the ballot-box and vote for the men who devastated their lands and laid waste their grain fields.

And now we would say to our Conservative friends, in a spirit of kindness, look about you and see whether they will do that or not. They have done it in the instance noted above. They did it when they set aside the registry law; they did it when they enfranchised Rebel soldiers; they did it when they set aside the Constitution of 1864; they did it when they undid all the good work that loyal men had done; they did it when they passed the Sunday Passenger car bill in the Legislature; they did it when they passed the present miserable Jury law in order to keep loyal Sheriffs from selecting the juries; they did it when they modified the Sunday law; they did it when they called a Rebel General to preside over the State Agricultural College; they did it when they put arms in the hands of paroled Rebel prisoners and gave them command over the State Militia; they did it when they turned out of the Public offices men who had fought for the old flag, who had suffered for it, like our old friend at the Court House with the shattered and crippled arm, and replaced them by men fresh from the ranks of treason. They will do it again this Winter when their Legislature meets, when they repeal the school law which educates the poor man's children at the expense of the State, when they modify the Sunday law for the benefit of the Jews, gambling houses and drinking saloons, and when they take a few more steps towards the payment for the slaves.

Yes, Conservative gentlemen, the very identical "that" which we warned you against, the very identical "that" which you insisted "they would hardly do," they have done over and over again, and they will continue to do it. And you are helping them on. You gave them the power to do all that they have done and now you are swallowed up, a helpless minority, a mere bubble on the surface of a rushing river. We warn you once more of the breakers ahead and in a friendly way tell you again that they will not heed your advice. Our ranks are closing up and if you have any of the old love of true principles left in you, fall into line before the captains set you down as bushwhackers and spies in the camp.

PROPOSALS FOR CARRYING THE MAIL IN MARYLAND.—The Postmaster General has issued proposals for carrying the mails on the different routes in Maryland, from July 1st, 1868, to June 30th, 1872. All proposals must be properly delivered at the Post Office department in Washington, before the 4th day of March, 1868.

☞Jesse Brown of this county, has been appointed one of the pages to the House of Delegates. This is the only appointment the Legislature has honored our county with.

THE GOVERNOS MESSAGE.

Owing to the press of other matter last week we were not able to give a review of the Governor's Message but we will now do so.

He commences by parroting after Andrew Johnson, and singing his usual song about the negro, rehashing the old talk about a "white man's Government."—He then passes on to the finances of the State, and like the Comptroller he admits the straightened condition of the Treasury, as a relief to the Treasury he recommends the re-enactment of the Defence Loan, repealed by the last Legislature, with power to reimburse from this source the advances made in payment of bounties. The reorganization of the Public School system is urged, and the present system is commended in lieu of a better one. The organization of the Department of Labor and Agriculture is recommended.

The Governor speaks of the enrollment and organization of the State militia but says nothing about the cost. He says the expenses of uniforming and equipping the men has been met by "contracts made on time." The commutation money collected amounted to $41, 468, and the sum paid enrolling officers was $30, 878 being ninety per cent of the amount collected The total number of enrolled militia is 79, 655, of which 58, 921 are put down as belonging to the National Guard, though not over ten thousand of those are organized and equipped. The Governor complains of Stanton and Grant not giving the State its quota of arms.

After a good deal of talk about Public Improvements, the Governor winds up by making a strong bid for the Senatorship, telling his rebel friends in the Legislature how he had "stood at the helm of this good old State" to stop the "defiant march of extreme Radicalism." How he had thrown down the commission with which he had been honored, to remain at his post, and how though he had been hunted with a venom to which the dark ages of barbarisim presents no parallel," he had gone on faithfully. In other words, he thinks he has suffered and worked enough to be rewarded. But even with this appeal we are inclined to think the Swann will get plucked.

GOLD PENS AND POCKET KNIVES.

It will be gratifying to the numerous admiring friends of the Hon. Jno. W. Harden, one of the Delegates from Carroll County, to learn that, having overcome his excessive timidity and modesty, he has summoned courage to appear before the Legislative footlights and to "speak a piece."

Golden visions have been dancing through the eloquent brain of the gentleman from Carroll, and they finally resolved themselves particularly into the form of gold pens and pocket knives. So stirred to his inmost depths (his pockets) the distinguished member, in calm, impressive dignity arose, and thus began: "Mr. Speaker," (at the first sound of his soft, and tender notes the House was still,) "I move that the Librarian furnish gold pens and pocket knives to such of the members as wish them—and have never had them." The solemn silence was broken by Bro. Pentland, who swore (piously) that the proposition was ridiculous and disgraceful. Ten men only wanted the aforesaid valuables and the motion was kicked under the table. The first effort of our "gold pen and pocket knife Johnny" has not been a success but genius such as his will not be "squelched." When he becomes better acquainted he will arise Phœnix like from his ashes, and unless fortunes tide runs maliciously against him this Winter we are sure he will make something of himself or for himself. At the last advices the colleagues of "gold pen and pocket knife Johnny" had not been heard from. They are preparing, we suppose, to startle the House by their tremendous eloquence. When, like Balaam's animal they open their mouths we will like Capt. Cuttle make a note of it, and for the delectation of themselves, their families and friends, and for the precious benefit of posterity will place upon perpetual record their immortal utterances.

THE STATE LEGISLATURE.

The Senate have appointed a travelling committee to visit the reformatory institutions of the State. A resolution awarding the Naval Academy Band $120 for playing "My Maryland," at the inauguration of Gov. Bowie, was adopted. Senator Browne of this county has drawn the long term, four years of office.

In the House a petition has been presented from the Jews, against the Sunday law. The "negro legislation" has commenced. A bill has been asked for to protect the Democrats from the negroes, by making the railroads furnish separate cars for them. The Bill empowering the Mayor of Baltimore to oust the old and appoint new Trustees of the Poor in that city.

A number of bills have been presented but few acted on as yet. The Legislature in joint session, re-elected Robert Fowler State Treasurer, by a vote of 55 against 53 for John Merryman his antagonist.

CONGRESS.

Congress has been occupied during the past week with the Revenue, Reconstruction and the Currency. In the House, the Missouri election case has been decided in favor of Van Horn the sitting member, The Report of the Sec. of State to the House states that 21 States have ratified the Constitutional Amendment.

☞ Hon. Oden Bowie, Governor elect of Maryland, was inaugurated at Annapolis on Wednesday, the 8th, with the usual ceremonies, but he does not enter upon his duties until January 1869, unless Gov. Swann should resign.

☞ The Conventions of the Grand Army of the Republic throughout the country, are endorsing Gen. Grant as their candidate for the Presidency.

☞ Among the officers appointed by the Maryland Senate is one Hunter Davidson, Journal Clerk. Davidson was an officer in the United States Navy at the commencement of the rebellion, deserted, went South, took up arms against the Government, and for some time was connected with one of the Rebel pirates.—Such are the men that Maryland Democracy delights to reward.

☞Attorney General Jones has given Governor Swann his opinion that the term of all civil officers in Maryland appointed by the Governor has expired, and that the Governor is required to make new appointments of said officers within fifty days of the commencement of the present session of the General Assembly, and that the Governor's commissions to such newly appointed officers will be for two years, commencing on the first day of May next.

☞An apprenticeship case came up before Judge Giles in the United States District Court. A colored girl had petitioned for release from indentures, the points involved being nearly the same as the case in which Chief Justice Chase made the decision that the colored apprenticeship laws of Maryland were in conflict with the Civil Rights law, and were, therefore, null and void. In the present case Judge Giles grants the petition for a release, and confirms the opinion given by the Chief Justice.

☞ In the House of Delegates, on Friday last, an order requesting the Governor to have the National flag displayed from the Capital during the session of the House, and authorizing him to appoint an officer for that purpose, was of course rejected.

THE FREDERICK REPUBLICAN has been enlarged and improved in appearance. Mr. Black has associated with himself, Mr. A. C. McLean, in the management of the paper.

NEWSPAPER CHANGE.—The Free Press of Towsontown has changed hands, Mr. Church retiring and giving place to Messrs J. E. Horney & Bro., of Easton, Talbot County, who will hereafter conduct it.

BROKE INTO A CHURCH.—Some miscreant broke into the new Lutheran Church one day last week, by way of a window. The only object seemed to be to commit a senseless depredation.

Myerly will sell his farm of 35 acres lying on the Littlestown road; On Feb. 8th Mr. D. L. Lockard for $740, subject to a ground rent of $15 per year.

A large lot of iron ore is also brought here for shipment.

THE WEST. MD. R. R.—Large quantities of produce are being carried over the Rail Road at this time. We are informed, thrt such was the press of business, that two extra burden trains had to run on Sunday last. As an item of interest to the farmers we would state, that between 18,000 and 19,000 gallons of milk are sent over the road to the City every month.

The Road is now graded nearly all the way to Hagerstown. They have commenced laying the track West of Union Bridge.

THE CASH SYSTEM.—By referring to our advertising columns, it will be seen that John L. Reifsnider has adopted the cash or ninety days—credit system. E. K. Gernand publishes his card to his customers stating, that hereafter he will do a cash business, believing that thereby he can sell his goods lower than under the old plan.

A. H. Huber and H. L. Shriver also think that "quick sales and small profits," if they are cash will pay best in the end.

THE LUTHERAN FAIR.—We append below a list of the articles drawn and the names of those who drew them.

Mrs J. H. Hoppe's fancy quilt, drawn by Miss Emma Gilbert, of Uniontown; Mrs. Capito's fine quilt drawn by Mr. Robert Haley; Mrs. Rinehart's fancy quilt, drawn by Mrs. Mary Burns; Mrs. Rinehart's crib quilt drawn by Saml. Bankart; Miss Laura Grass' cradle quilt, drawn by Jacob Keefer; crib quilt drawn by Reese Bixler; China Tea Sett drawn by Jacob Knipple; Zoetrope drawn by Chas. Capito Smith.

SONG OF IRON.

I am mighty in the saber,
Fiercely wielded by the brave,
Glorious in the stalwart steamer,
Laughing at the storm and wave.

Beauteous in the palace pillars,
Saying in the pointed rod,
As it brings the deadly lightning,
Quelled and harmless to the sod.

But there is a glorious essence,
Where I take my grandest power,
Giving to the RACE my surest,
Sweetest aid, in danger's hour.

See! before me fly diseases!
See the darkest hydras bow!
See the rose of health and beauty
Take the palest cheek and brow.

Fly, dyspepsia! fly, consumption!
Yes, all ills are crushed at length,
For I give what human nature
Only ever needed—STRENGTH!

Shall I tell in what great essence
I can thus your spirits cheer up?
Pallid, trembling, dying sufferer,
'Tis the famed "PERUVIAN SYRUP."

The PERUVIAN SYRUP is a protected solution of the Protoxide of Iron, a new discovery in medicine that strikes at the root of disease by supplying the blood with its vital principle or life element—Iron.

The genuine has "PERUVIAN SYRUP" blown in the glass.
