ANDREW JOHNSON

The time has been when Andrew Johnson was honored and respected by the American people as a patriot, the friend of liberty and the upholder of the law. The time is when Andrew Johnson is looked on with contempt and dislike, and despised by every lover of right, as a breaker of the law: a blatant and drunken boaster: a plotting schemer: a traitor to his country, his friends and himself. Raised from a low origin to one office after another, followed up by good luck that rarely follows any but the most talented, he had cause to be proud and to speak with pride of his successful career. But when the hand of an assassin raised him to the highest place, his vaulting ambition and unbounded egotism made him sigh, like Alexander of old, "for other lands to conquer," and like Alexander he drowned his sorrow in the bowl. Was there nothing more? Should it be recorded in the pages of history that Andrew Johnson, rising from the position of Alderman of his native town to the highest in the land, could go no higher than other men? Not so, there were higher positions, at least more absolute, and they must be reached. A President is bound by the law but a Dictator makes the laws himself. The determination was taken: the schemes were formed, the plans were laid. With the veto power a great deal could be done, and with the power of appointing tools to secure his infamous designs wonders could be worked. The work went boldly on, success seemed no longer only possible but probable, and the sky looked bright for the traitor and dark for the Republic. But stay, there was a true heart and a clear head in the War Department. What should be done? Off with his head and so he was disposed of. Ah, no! With bull-dog tenacity he stayed and watched, and aided by the Hero of the Appomattox, he got to his post again.—The time had come when the blow must be struck or the chance would be lost. Then it was that Andrew Johnson, in the face of the laws and of right, deliberately, calmly, and intentionally, set aside, broke and violated the laws of the land. There was no excuse even made, no palliation offered, no pardon asked, and now the Senate of the United States, sits in a high Court of Impeachment, to try Andrew Johnson for "high crimes and misdemeanors." What a fall from his high estate? Disgraced he will leave the White House, under the ban of the whole Nation he has dishonored; cursed and hated by those he has betrayed and forsaken; with scarce a tongue to pity him or an eye to shed a tear of sympathy.—The places that have known him so long will know him no more forever, but branded with ignomy he shall reap his just reward. So be it. Even as the lowest citizen would be punished for transgressing the law, so let the highest suffer in accordance with the magnitude of his crime.

CONGRESS.

In the Senate, the bill providing that a majority of the votes cast shall be sufficient to ratify the Constitutions of the Rebel States, was passed. A memorial was presented asking that bronze medals be struck to commemorate the deeds of and to be distributed to the soldiers and sailors who defended the Country.

In the House, a resolution for the reimbursement of U. S. Bonds that had been destroyed by fire was adopted, also Bill for the relief of destitute people of the District of Columbia. Bill to regulate the custody and expenditure of public money was passed. The Naval Appropriation Bill passed.

Both houses have been occupied with the Impeachment question.

The Senate in preparing for the trial and the House in getting ready the Indictment.

☞ Another chance has opened for Swann. Senator Thomas having been rejected by the U. S. Senate on account of disloyalty, the Maryland Legislature will again have to elect a Senator. A number of aspirants are named for the position, among whom we notice the Hon. Isaac D. Jones, Montgomery Blair, Hon. Hiram McCullough, and of course Swann is in the contest. But we are inclined to think that Tommy will be in the same condition as Mother Hubbard's dog.

Poor Tommy Swann,
Will flatter and fawn,
To get for himself a bone;
When he gets there,
May the cupboard be bare,
And so the poor dog get none.

☞ In all parts of the Country, Congress has been endorsed by the loyal people and papers, in their action on the Impeachment question. The loyal Governors and Conventions have sent their greetings to Congress and the Grand Army of the Republic everywhere announces itself ready for the crisis. But that crisis, we believe, will not arrive. Andrew Johnson's last acts of usurpation have been disowned and in some cases even denounced by the majority of the Democratic party. There were some hot-bloods opened a recruiting office in New York, for enlistment into Johnson's service, but recruits finding that there would be no bounty, were few and far between, and the office was broken up by the police. This is the only cloud of war, we can see, hovering over the country, notwithstanding the fact that Democratic papers howled over the carnage and bloodshed that would ensue if Johnson was impeached. Our readers may rest easy for the present, when the fight commences we will let them know.

THE LEGISLATURE

In the Senate, the bill appropriating $5,000 for the removal of the Rebel dead, who fell at Antietem, South Mountain, Cramton's Gap and Monocacy, to the Antietem National Cemetery, was adopted. The resolution declaring it inexpedient to adopt the eight-hour system, was adopted.

In the House, the bill requiring railway companies to provide separate cars for colored people failed to pass. An order was adopted providing for the appointment of a special committee to take charge of all matters pertaining to the education of the deaf and dumb of this State.

Bill to incorporate Manchester & Worthington Valley R. R., read second time in Senate. Westminster and Balt. & Liberty road Turnpike Co. bill passed in Senate. Bills to appoint additional Magistrate and Constable in New Windsor, read first time in House. Bills amending local laws of Carroll in relation to County Commissioners, and fixing salary of Crier read first time in House. Bill authorizing the Commissioners of Carroll and Frederick Counties to aid in construction of Woodsboro' & Pipe Creek Turnpike Co., passed in House, reported to Senate. Bachman's Valley R. R. Co., bill reported to Senate. Bill to authorize Commissioners of Balt. and Carroll Counties to build a bridge over the Patapsco, on Limekiln road and bill to sanction bequest of Margaret Dod, dec'd, reported to House.—Mr. Jordan presented petitions to the House, for incorporation of Taneytown and McKinstry's Mill Turnpike Company, against the repeal of the Funeral law, and against the removal of State Tobacco Warehouse.

ARTICLES OF IMPEACHMENT.

The following is a brief synopsis of the articles of Impeachment, as reported to the House of Representatives:

Article 1st, charges Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, of a high crime and misdemeanor in office, in removing Edwin M. Stanton, Sec. of War, while the Senate was in session and without its consent.

Articles 2nd & 3rd charge him with appointing, in violation of the Tenure of Office law, Lorenzo Thomas, Sec. of War ad interim, during the session of the Senate and without its consent.

Articles 4th & 5th charge him with conspiring with Lorenzo Thomas, and others by force, threats and intimidation to prevent Edwin M. Stanton, Sec. of War, from holding said office.

Article 6th charges him with conspiring with Lorenzo Thomas to seize the War Department by force.

Articles 7th & 8th charge him with conspiring with Lorenzo Thomas to hinder the execution of the tenure of office law, and to seize the War Department.

Article 9th charges him with unlawfully attempting to control the disbursement of the moneys appropriated for the military service and the War Department.

Article 10th charges him with trying to induce certain officers of the army to violate the Articles of War.

The following are the members chosen to connuct the impeachment proceedings on the part of the House: Stevens, Butler, Bingham, Boutwell, Wilson, Williams and Logan.

☞ The President has approved the following bill: "If any person or persons entitled to the bounty provided by sections twelve and thirteen of the act making appropriations for the civil service, approved July 28, 1866, shall have died, or shall die, before receiving said bounty, it shall be paid to the heirs, of the soldier as designated in said act in the order therein named, and to none other."

☞ The new treaty concluded between the United States and North German Confederation provides that natives of Germany must obtain licence to emigrate, which shall be registered, and those who, after taking out their naturalization papers have resided five years in a foreign country, shall be released from the obligations of military service in Germany.

☞ The East Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church will begin its eleventh annual session in the Exeter Street Church, Baltimore, on Wednesday, the eleventh day of March.—This Conference numbers about 220 members, and will be presided over by Bishop D. W. Clark of Cincinnati.

THE NORTHERN MONTHLY for March justifies the reputation which it has already made, as a magazine devoted to live topics, and fearless in its expression of opinions. Perhaps the boldest and most startling article which has made its appearance in periodical literature for many months is the one in the current number entitled "The Farewell of the Fig-Leaves." Another paper upon a cognate subject, "The Ballet as a Social Evil," will also excite deep attention—and combined they form a wholesome corrective of the feverish and downward direction of metropolitan life.

JUDGE Carter has released Gen. Lorenzo Thomas from arrest on the ground that the case as then before him could settle nothing and that the matter in controversy was passing the ordeal of the highest tribunal in the Country.

NOTWITHSTANDING the President says he will not recognize Mr. Stanton as Secretary of War, his (Stanton's) orders on the Treasury Department are paid without controversy.

GEN. Hancock has been removing loyal men in New Orleans. Gen. Grant took it quietly for some time but he has now revoked Hancock's orders and reinstated the gentlemen removed.

☞ Our thanks are due to Senator Browne of Carroll County, for the Report of the Commissioner of agriculture.

Also to A Gassaway, Esq., Sec. of the Senate for Pub. Doc.

WANTED.—If this should meet the eye of Cyrus Augustine, a printer, he is earnestly requested to return to his home in Ohio, immediately, and relieve the anxieties of a distressed family. Exchanges please copy.

MR. A. H. Huber seems to be pushing the drug business ahead with energy.—By his industry, promptness and willingness to accommodate his customers he is building himself up a thriving and profitable trade. We hope he may meet with the success his enterprise deserves.

A CHALLENGE DEBATE.—The West End Debating Society offer a Challenge to the Public to Debate the question, "Should the Doctrines of Infidelity be prohibited by Law." The Debate will take place on Saturday Evening next at 7 o'clock.

SALES OF PROPETY.—Mr. Jno. C. Davis has sold his farm of 23¾ acres, lying near Union Bridge, to Mr. James W. Ogle, for $3,250.

Mr. Jacob Hess has sold his farm lying near Union Bridge, for $11,000. Price per acre, $149.50.

HAM STOLEN.—Messrs. Mikesell & Shipley left a Ham hanging out in front of their Store the other night and in the morning they found that it had "taken unto itself wings" and disappeared. If it was a descendant of Ham that lent those wings, we suppose he was merely doing an act of charity by taking care of a brother exposed to night air.

AT a meeting of Carroll Council, U. L. A., held in Westminster on the 25th ult., the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That Carroll Council endorse Gen. U. S. Grant and the Hon. Jno. A. J. Cresswell as their first choice for the next Presidency and Vice Preidsency of the United States.

REV. J. Edwin Amos of the M. E. Church, here, preached his farewell Sermon on Sunday night last, from the text, "whom do we preach." We did not have the pleasure to hear him, but we hear he handled his subject with his accustomed ability. We shall be pleased, if the Conference should so decide, to see him back again in our midst.

☞ On the first page of our paper will be found a communication from Chas. Denning, Esq., at whose request we publish it. We do not hold ourself responsible for the matters stated in the Communication, the author having published it over his signature. It may be of interest to our readers as it throws light on some affairs at the Court House

☞ No Wonder so many worthless medicines are advertised, for the cure of various diseases, and when tried, "found wanting," that the invalid looses all faith in specifics. We have yet to learn, however, of the first failure of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, to cure coughs, colds, and pulmonary disease.

BANKRUPT COURT.—B. F. M. Hurley, Esq. Register in Bankruptcy, will be in Westminster on Monday next and hold a Court of Bankruptcy, to continue three days. He takes up the case of P. B. Mikesell on the 9th, Henry Spangler, on the 10th and Richard Dell on the 11th insts. The Court will be held at the Court House where all parties interested in the several cases may appear.

☞ A Lecture was delivered in the M. P. Church, on Tuesday Evening, 25th ult., to the Irving Literary Society of the Western Md. College, by James Frame, Esq., of Baltimore City. The Lecture was very ably written and was delivered in an eloquent style, after which there were several other short addresses delivered by the Rev. Dr. J. J. Murray, President of the M. P. Conference, Revs. Reese, Drinkhouse, Wilson, and J. T. Ward. On the next Evening the Rev Dr. Southerland, preached a very stirring sermon from the text in the 28th chapter of Genesis 12th and 13th verses. Dr. Murray and Rev. J. T. Ward, also exorted, after which there was a meeting of the advisory board of the Western Md. College.

ENDORSEMENT OF WESTERN MARYLAND RAILROAD STOCK.—A few days since the First Branch of the City Council passed a resolution authorizing the endorsement by the city of fifty thousand dollars' worth of the stock of the Western Maryland Railroad. The resolution was called in the Second Branch by Mr. Bokee on Thursday afternoon and was adopted, so that it will immediately go into effect.—American of Saturday.

MASONIC PRESENTATION.—On Thursday evening last, the members of DOOR-TO-VIRTUE LODGE, No 46, A. F. & A. M., presented to their Worshipful Master, the Rev. James W. Reese, a very elegant silver set, consisting of ice pitcher, goblets and waiter, all of great beauty, and appropriately inscribed with Masonic devices. The arrangement having been made during a brief absence on the part of Mr. Reese, were to him a total surprise. The presentation address was made by Past Master, the Hon. John E. Smith, on behalf of the Lodge, and was highly complimentary to the ability and skill with which the affairs of the Lodge have been administered under the Mastership of the recipient. The whole occasion was highly pleasant as well as creditable to all concerned.

☞ The New Lutheran Church just dedicated, is by far finer than is usual to be seen outside of our large cities, with its beautiful frescoing, finely constructed pulpit, and pulpit recess nicely arched, circular pews, large chancel reading desk, baptismal front, and end gallery. This Church corresponds favorably with the best in the largest cities. Its dimensions are large, and its proportions beautiful. It is 87 by 45 feet, including a recess of seven feet for the pulpit. It will very comfortably seat 600 people.

This church is an ornament to the town, and all our citizens have reason to be proud of it. We wish it good success, and hope that its Pastor, through whose faithful labors the Church has been built, may be abundantly remwarded for his earnest toil.

There was a series of meetings held in this Church every evening last week and there will be preaching every Sabbath evening from this time at 7½ o'clock.

CORRESPONDENCE.

(For the American Sentinel.)

MANCHESTER, Feb. 24th, 1868.

MR. EDITOR:

Mr. W. R. Hunter, better known as "The Children's Friend," gave us several of his Lectures last week. Our citizens were very much pleased with him and the Sabbath School Children were delighted. He is certainly a successful lecturer.

We are pleased to learn that the Odd Fellows' had quite an acquisition to their number some nights ago. They have a very fine Hall here, and are rapidly increasing both in numbers and in usefulness. We think them a noble order and bid them God speed in their works of benevolence.

The select School under the superintendance of Miss Miller is in a very flourishing condition. As a teacher, she is much beloved and renders universal satisfaction.

We have a promise of more sleighing.—The poor horses will no doubt be sorry.—The sleighing party who went down to Black Rock and who, on their return were obliged to walk about five miles, will doubtless be sorry too. Sleigh-bells have no music for them since that memorable night. As they drove into town about 8 o'clock in the morning, they were the most distressed looking sleighing party we ever saw. What is so provoking as riding in a sleigh, when you have to walk up all the hills, and then "don't get home till morning."

We had a case before our Magistrate one day last week which occasioned no little interest among the dog owners of our town. Somebody shot his neighbor's dog, which it appears was trespassing. The owner sued for damages, laying the same at $15. Decision was rendered in favor of the plaintiff. The dog comes out of the skirmish wounded, but not killed. What a blessing would it be, if we had only half the number of dogs in the county; perhaps the "late unpleasantness" in our town would not have occurred.

A Railroad meeting was held at Dover last Saturday which was attended by some of our citizens, but we have not learned the particulars. There is no abatement of the Railroad fever.

An accident occurred in Hampstead last Friday night, which came very near proving a serious one. Mr. Amon Price, who stands in Murray's Store, was badly burned about the face and neck, by the explosion of a Coal Oil Lamp. He went to the Lamp, and was in the act of blowing out the light, or turning it down, when it exploded, burning him as stated. It was only by presence of mind and energetic actions, that a destructive fire was prevented.

Rev. Mr. Lightner, Pastor of the United Brethren Church, in this place, goes, this week, to Duncanon, Pa., to take charge of a congregation there. Rev. Mr Young takes charge of this congregation.

Among the many restoritives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity, there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve and to cure, is enchanced tenfold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists to a remarkable degree in whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection, and Incipient Consumption is inestimable.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry

Strong Testimony.

From Benjamin Wheeler, Esq. Depot Master of South Royalston, Mass.

"In the spring of 1858 I was most severely afflicted with a hard, dry cough, with its usual accompaniments of night sweats, completely prostrating my nervous system and producing such a debilitated state of health that, after trying medical aid to no purpose, I had given up all hopes of ever recovering, as had also my friends. At this stage of matters I was prevailed upon through the influence of a neighbor to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and before using two bottles, the effect was almost magical. My cough entirely left me the night sweats deserted me, hope once more elated my depressed spirits, and soon I had attained my wanted strength and vigor. Thus has this Balsam, as has often been remarked by persons conversant with the above facts, literally snatched me from the yawning grave.

You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted."

No. 3.

Dr Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup.

This great medicine cured Dr. J. H. Sequeros, the Proprietor, of Pulmonary Consumption, when it had assumed its most formidable aspect, and when speedy death appeared to be inevitable. His physicians pronounced his case incurable, when he commenced the use of this simple but powerful remedy. His health was restored in a very short time, and no return of the disease has by him been apprehended, for all the symptoms quickly disappeared, and his present weight is more than two hundred pounds.

Since his recovery, he has devoted his attention exclusively to the cure of Consumption and the diseases which are usually complicated with it, and the cures effected by his medicines have been very numerous and truly wonderful. Dr. SCHENCK makes professional visits to several of the larger cities weekly, where he has a large concourse of patients and it is truly astonishing to see poor consumptives that have to be lifted out of their carriages, and in a few months healthy, robust persons. Dr. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC, and MANDRAKE PILLS are generally all required in curing Consumption. Full directions accompany each, so that any one can take them without seeing Dr Schenck, but when it is convenient it is best to see him. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer his fee is three dollars.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor—one when in the last stage of Consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health—are on the Government stamp.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers. Price $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. Letters for advice should always be directed to Dr. Schenck's Principal Office, 15 North 6th St., Philadelphia, Pa.
