An Enemy's Opinion of Gen. Grant.

It is not often we commend to our readers the utterances of the New York World, the accepted Democratic Oracle of the United States But merit is sometimes so conspicuous as to extort a tribute of praise from the bitterest foes, and in such case, deserves the strongest.

An instance of this kind we give below copied from the above paper and to it we call the attention of our Republican friends as the most conclusive refutation from a political enemy, of the gross slanders which are now being heaped upon the greatest Captain of the age, General Grant.

"Of the steadiness and stanchness of General Grant's patriotism or the uprightness and sobriety of his character, no man in the country doubts, or affects to doubt. On the score of his loyalty and solid public services no man in the country can come into competition with this illustrious soldier."

When the World speaks, what must be the virtues of the next President of the United States?

We clip the following from the resolutions passed at a Democratic primary meeting in New Windsor on the 23rd ult. The Capitals are their own.

"We see no remedy for the people but to rise in their majesty, and at the ballot box in November, hurl from power those Radical USURPERS and TYRANTS who have no regard for the Constitution, and good of the country and its people—those, who have established NEGRO SUPREMACY in the South—those, who are trying to fasten more than NEGRO EQUALITY in our own little State of Maryland—those, who in their FRENZIED FANATIC madness, would desecrate the throne of Heaven for the purpose of establishing their HELL-BORN principles on earth—DEMONS in human form who have no respect for themselves and their fellow men cannot be expected to have any regard for justice and right towards their country."

Spirit of Brick Pomeroy and the Ku Klux Klan arouse! Your thunder is being stolen. Who would suppose that our friend Chas. Denning, Esq., who published a communication in the Sentinel a short time ago, had so much blood and thunder in him? Especially the thunder.

How grandly the following eulogy on the brief but noble history of the Republican party, contrasts with the miserable appeals to caste, prejudice and rascality that form the staple of Democratic speeches. It is a paragraph from the speech of Gen. W. H. Gibson, of Ohio, delivered at the impromptu ratification meeting in Chicago after the nominations of Grant and Colfax.

"The Republican party of the United States was the creature of necessity, not of choice, and with the strength of a giant it has fought the battle of the age, and to-day points to a nation saved from rebellion, and a union preserved from dissolution, as the trophies of her triumph.—[Renewed applause.] I thank God to-night that I belong to that party, and that you belong to that party that trampled upon the shackles of four millions of slaves, and all earth gives back the echo "hail to America," and the course of her career is still to be onward and upward."

GENERAL GRANT is not a speech maker, but when he does talk his words are to the purpose. To the multitude which called to congratulate him on his unanimous nomination at Chicago, he remarked that he would be prompted in the discharge of any future duties devolving upon him by the same motives as those which had always inspired his conduct, and his record in the past would be the guide of his future course.

That is all the people ask. They are satisfied with the glorious record he made as a soldier; with the patriotic course he has pursued in the civil complication following the war, with his conscientious and unselfish devotion to duty, and they feel that the country will be safe while he is President.

WE received a visit on Friday last from our friend Capt. H. C. Naill, Republican Elector for this (the 4th) Congressional District. We had a very pleasant chat with him and were glad to find him not only looking as well as usual but also in excellent spirits about our prospects in the coming campaign. He coincides with us in the view that Western Maryland can be redeemed this fall if the proper effort is made.

JEFF DAVIS' Trial commenced yesterday at Richmond,

"O. K." one of the Washington Correspondents of the Baltimore Sun says with evident satisfaction:

The court was busy too to-day in hearing applications for naturalization and dozens of foreign born individuals were in short order converted into American citizens. It is very generally believed that all of these naturalized citizens will vote one way, and how that way is was indicated by the reply of one of the applicants to the question, "Are you in favor of a republican form of government,' to which he gave answer, "No sir; I am a democrat"

Comment is unnecessary, as both the intelligence and qualification of these new "Democratic" voters is fully set forth in the above extract.

FOWLER says he voted against the conviction of Johnson, in the interest of the country and posterity. We wonder if it was his own posterity that he was thinking about. We have thought all along that it was interest and not principle that governed his vote.

THE 2nd and 3d Articles of Impeachment were voted on, on the 26th ult., resulting the same as the former vote 35 for and 19 against The Court of Impeachment then adjourned sine die.

MR. Stanton having withdrawn from the position of Secretary of War, the Senate have confirmed Gen. Schofield's appointment to that position.

THE Democratic papers say that Impeachment has cost $400,000. This is not true as the Committee have expended but $10,000.

SECRETARY STANTON sent in his resignation to the President direcly after the final vote on Impeachment.

OUR thanks are due to Hon. Thos. A. Jenckes for Pub. Doc.

EX-PRESIDENT Buchanan died on the 1st inst., in the 77th year of his age.

GENERAL GRANT'S LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The following is General Grant's letter accepting the nomination for President by the National Republican Convention:

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 29, 1868.

To General Joseph R. Hawley, President National Union Republican Convention:

In formally accepting the nomination of the "National Union Republican Convention" of the 21st of May, instant, it seems proper that some statement of views beyond the mere acceptance of the nomination should be expressed.

The proceedings of the Convention were marked with wisdom, moderation and patriotism, and, I believe, express the feelings of the great mass of those who sustained the country through its recent trials. I endorse their resolutions.

If elected to the office of President of the United States, it will be my endeavor to administer all the laws in good faith, with economy and with the view of giving peace, quiet and protection everywhere. In times like the present it is impossible, or at least eminently improper, to lay down a policy to be adhered to, right or wrong. Through an administration of four years new political issues not foreseen are constantly arising, and the views of the public on old ones are constantly changing, and a purely administrative officer should always be left free to execute the will of the people. I have always respected that will, and always shall. Peace, and universal prosperity, its sequence, with economy of administration, will lighten the burden of taxation while it constantly reduces the national debt.

Let us have peace!

With great respect, your obedient servant U. S. GRANT,

IN accordance with the notice, some of the ladies of our City proceeded to the Cemetery on Saturday, and strewed flowers on the Graves of our fallen heroes.—We hope this custom, so beautiful in its idea, will be continued as no more fitting tribute could be paid to the noble dead. May our countrymen never forget to give the laurel wreath to the living soldiers or to strew flowers over the departed braves.

A FAMILY Remedy. No family should be without some efficacious remedy for the cure of afflictions, so universally prevalent, as coughs, colds, sore throat, whooping cough, and croup—some remedy, too, which can be relied upon as safe, sure and certain. Dr. Wistars. Balsam of Wild Cherry combines this desideratum.

UNION AGRICULTURAL WORKS.—Nothing shows the prosperity of a City so much as the number of its public buildings, and its manufacturing establishments. As an evidence of such prosperity we propose from time to time to note these evidences of our prosperity and progress. The Union Agricultural Works being among the most important we propose to give a few items in regard to them. These works were started in the Summer of 1852 and have ever since been carried on under the management of Wm. H. Harman & Co. The buildings which from time to time have been enlarged and improved, consisting of a large two-story Machine Shop, Moulding shop, Blacksmith's Shop, Saw Mill and sheds occupy nearly an acre and a half of ground. Their new Moulding shop, which has just been finished and is said to be the best arranged shop of the kind in the State, is 100 ft. long by 50ft. wide, and gives employment to 14 hands. The Machine shop employs 5 Iron Workers and 10 Wood Workers, and the Blacksmith's Shop and Saw Mill 4 hands, making a total of 33 hands. These works turn out every season about 300 Springtooth Rakes, 300 Ploughs and 60 Horse Powers, besides numerous other Agricultural Machines in less numbers. We consider these works one of the substantial evidences of prosperity.

NEW WINDSOR, JUNE 2, 1868.

EDITOR SENTINEL:

I happened by chance to notice through the columns of the Democratic Advocate a lengthy epistle from New Windsor signed "L." He starts very beautifully, commenting upon the feelings of the citizens of our quiet Village as regards the news received of the acquittal of President Johnson. Conservatives and lovers of justice were quite exultant, great demonstration of baby kissing and boy shouting, also Democrats and Radicals shaking hands and drinking. Now Sir, I will say that I am a citizen of New Windsor and was an eye witness to all, and must say that the greatest curiosity was that a couple of our Democratic friends were so much overjoyed, that they took a very good starter of King Alcohol in the City of Westminster, and made a great deal of noise without hurting any one.

In responce to the great Democratic and Conservative School House meeting for the purpose of sending delegates to the County Convention. I must say it was a very respectable and quiet meeting. Mr. Denning's resolutions are before you.—Our old friend has forgotten the treatment as Clerk to the County Commissioners, but so it is; the Democratic Conservative party is of a forgiving temperament. Our town is very quiet at present, business lively. You will hear from me soon again.

AMERICAN.

UNIONTOWN, JUNE 1, 1868,

MR. EDITOR:

In obedience to orders of Commander-in-Chief Grand Army of the Republic, Saturday last, the day set apart for the purpose of decorating the graves of our Brothers who fell in defence of human freedom and justice, was appropriately celebrated by the "Boys who wore the Blue," and the good people of our little country Village, where loyalty lives and breathes a pure atmosphere. A Comrade of the Army notified the citizens and asked the Ladies to furnish flowers for the occasion. At 4 o'clock P. M., time specified, parties desirous of participating, assembled and took up line of march for the grave-yard attached to the Church of God, and soon was seen mingling in one common cause, the Warworn Veterans of many battles, the maimed and scarred heroes of Wilderness and Valley, together with private citizens of every political class, and last though not least, the Ladies, God bless them, (ever ready with tests of sympathy or words of cheer,) were busy with their fair hands scattering flowers in tasty profusion over and around the graves of those to whose memory we feel honored to pay so fitting a tribute of respect. Evergreens, Flowers of rare beauty, and appropriate mottoes were prepared in abundance. Over the resting place of Oliver Hiteshue, the heroic son of Carroll who fell while planting our Country's Flag on the enemy's fortification, in handsomely formed letters draped in mourning, was placed the words "Fort Fisher," also National flag bearing on its folds the motto "Thy country honors her martyred sons." In a beautiful arch stretching from the grave of Lt. Wolf to that of Sergt. John Blass, are the words "Honor the Brave," and over the grave of Private John Sullivan, placed in a half circle formed of evergreen and flowers are the words "Hero Rest," the whole surmounted with the National flag draped in mourning. Wreaths and Bouquets such as the hand of fair woman knows so well how to prepare, and for which the heart of every soldier felt deeply grateful. After the work was finished in town, a team being in readiness, a delegation drove out to Dunker Grave-yard on the road leading to New Windsor, and decorated the grave of Jacob Hymiller. Thus ended the day and in conclusion, I can find no more fitting words than "Thank you," to those who so ably assisted, and God grant the day may never come when the people of my own little village shall neglect or refuse to pay a like tribute to the noble dead on each succeeding anniversary, and may the God of Peace reward them is the prayer of an OLD SOLDIER.
