"The Kernel of the Controversy."

Among the resolutions adopted by the Republican State convention, which met in this city on the 1st inst., was the following:

"While we acknowledge gladly that the great bulk of our Democratic fellow-citizens desire, as we do, just registration laws and fair elections, we deny their party leaders share this desire, or purpose voluntarily to relinquish the unworthy practices to which they have so often owed their retention of power, and in proof of this denial we point to their refusal to permit the admirable bill prepared by Mr. Jas. Alfred Pearce, of Kent county, to become a law at the last session of the General Assembly, and by their discreditable attempt (happily frustrated by public opinion) to substitute for it a statute which, under the pretense of reform, would have perpetuated and aggravated the worst evils of the previously existing system.

And we promise to make every effort to obtain from the next General Assembly the enactment of Mr. Pearce's law, with the addition of such features of the so-called Australian ballot system as may be found suited to our institutions and adapted to protect the purity of the elective franchise.

Mr. Wellington, the nominee for Comptroller, in his admirable speech at the meeting at Odd Fellows' Hall, the evening of the day on which the convention was held, happily denominated this "The Kernel of the Controversy." The phrase forcibly expresses a sentiment widely entertained by the best elements of all parties in the State. Under the control of corrupt bosses the Democratic party has prostituted the ballot and perpetrated the most unblushing frauds upon the suffrage in Baltimore and elsewhere in the State. Admonished by revolts within the party lines and demands for such legislation as would properly guard the ballot-box and restore its integrity, the managers have repeatedly, through the party's conventions, pledged the reforms demanded. Entrusted again and again with power, these pledges have been as often ignored and broken, and laws passed difficult of construction and utterly impotent to correct the outrages denounced alike by Republicans and honest Democrats. The present registration law is a case in point. Attorney General Whyte has construed the phrase "first October sitting," in the law, to mean the sitting of the registrar on the first day of the October sitting, probably a correct interpretation, although the language is obscure; but the opinion of the Attorney General has not been accepted in all parts of the State, and hence in Baltimore, Howard, and possibly some other counties of the State there will be a sitting one day next week at which applications for reinstatement will be received and considered. Monday will be the day in Baltimore county and Tuesday in Howard county, while in this and other counties the sitting terminated yesterday. This may not be a very important matter, but it demonstrates the looseness with which the law was prepared and the careless manner in which it was passed by those who had promised a reform in election methods.

The chief failure on the part of the managers, however, has been the omission to pass a law to prevent false registration, repeating, miscounting and bribery. In a practical sense there are only two parties in the State, the Republican and Democratic. The Prohibition party is numerically so small that it need not be considered in this matter. The contest for supremacy in the State is between the Republican and Democratic parties, and these should, as far as possible, be equally represented on the election boards. There should be two officers of registration in every district in the State and ward in Baltimore city, and they should be selected upon the recommendation of the official bodies of their respective parties. Their concurrence should be necessary in every official act, and when a disagreement arises an appeal should be had to the judiciary. The Pearce law, and the Australian system of balloting as far as applicable in this State, as approved by the Republican convention, should be adopted, and such representation given the minority party in the election boards, as will utterly prevent miscounting and the manipulation of ballots. This is the system for which the Republicans are struggling in New York, New Jersey and Maryland, and which is persistently opposed by the Democratic managers. Why? Can any satisfactory answer be given the question except that they do not favor any system that will interrupt and prevent their corrupt practices.

No system can be made so perfect that dishonest men may not be able to perpetrate some wrongs upon the ballot, but the plan, thus briefly outlined: that requires the State to print the ballots; gives equal representation to the leading parties in the election board; admits only one voter to the room in which the ballots are received and where he obtains his ballot; presents the best measure so far devised to ensure honest balloting and fair counting. This is substantially the system demanded by the Republicans and the Independent Democrats who are co-operating with them. Experience proves that it cannot be secured through what is known as the regular Democracy, and every citizen, whatever may be his political proclivities, who desires the termination of the saturnalia of fraud that has disgraced the State should, at the approaching election, vote the Republican legislative ticket; because it is only through the Legislature that the remedy can be applied.

Not a Retreat.

Under the caption, "THE SENTINEL Retreats," the Advocate says:

The SENTINEL refuses to discuss the question that the Republican party is a party of spoils, and runs away from the Advocate's sketch of Radical rule in Maryland. It calls the Advocate's article "political malevolence," and thus contents itself. The Advocate stated facts, and the SENTINEL cannot controvert them. Radicalism in Maryland is so odious no respectable Republican paper can be found to defend it. But the Republican record will be taken up and exposed just as often as any Republican journal challenges comparison by bringing allegations—not facts—against the Democratic party.

The Advocate is greatly mistaken in supposing the SENTINEL unwilling to discuss, in a proper manner, any pertinent political question, or to defend the record of the Republican party, when the attack is not the mere expression of partisan animosity. The Republican party needs no defence from that species of assault. Its maintenance of the Union against the assaults of the Breckinride wing of the Democratic party; its magnificent administration of the national finances and maintenance of the public credit; the unparalleled development of the resources and industries of the country under laws enacted by Republican Congresses, all combine to gild its history with a glory never attained by any other party. And if the Advocate will honestly contrast the treatment of Southern unionists by the States of the Confederacy, with that accorded to Southern sympathizers in Maryland, and other border States, it will be constrained to admit that its friends, the enemy, were much more severe than the radicals of whom it complains. The official sequestration of property, and the imprisonment or banishment of its owners, was only a small part of the wrongs and indignities heaped upon Southern men, and women too, who dared to cherish union sentiments. The SENTINEL has no desire to rake up these sad incidents of a gigantic civil war. They are past a quarter of a century, condoned, forgiven and well nigh forgotten. If any Southeran sympathizer, or Democrat—for the names were nearly synonymous in this latitude during the war—was wronged, or deprived of legal rights as a citizen—and possibly such may have been the case in some instances—let him reflect upon the condition and treatment of Southern Unionists, and remember that in civil war it is not always possible to deal gently even with those who may be only suspected of holding with the enemy. During the war the editor of the SENTINEL lived in the Congressional District of the State lying adjacent to the National capital, and in which there was, of necessity, a large body of Union soldiers. It is a matter of record, that in the very height of the war, a Democrat, who openly declared his adhesion to the cause of the South, was elected to Congress over a Unionist of conservative type, Hon. Charles B. Calvert, in that district. If the wrongs upon which the Advocate harps were perpetrated, it is natural to suppose the Fifth Congressional District would have had a large share of them. Yet Southern sympathizers voted without let or hindrance. The Advocate knows well that no unionist could have voted in any of the territory controlled by the Confederacy.

But as already remarked, these things are of the past and of the war, and should have no effect in the consideration of the living questions of the day, such as, for instance, the redemption of Maryland from the criminal misrule of corrupt bossism. The Advocate calls assertions of this character "allegations—not facts—against the Democratic party." Elsewhere it speaks of "charges not proved." What sort of proof does the Advocate require to demonstrate the charge of frauds upon the ballot by the Democratic party, through its bosses, in Maryland? The fact has been confessed by many Democrats themselves over and over again, and even the bosses have been constrained to admit it and ask for another trial. But conclusive of the fact as these confessions and admissions are, they do not stand alone. Ten or a dozen convicted Democratic election officers, looking through prison bars as the penalty of their corrupt practices and frauds upon the suffrage, are a fitting supplement to the overwhelming and convincing testimony of hundreds and thousands of disgusted Democrats. In the name of justice, if that isn't proof what would be?

The School Fund.

In the preamble to the resolutions adopted by the Republican county convention it was charged that the invested school fund of the county, which amounted to $76,697.96 at the time the schools passed under Democratic control, twenty-two years ago, has been entirely expended and that at present there is a large deficit, the amount not being definitely stated. There is certainly no error in the statement concerning the expenditure of the invested fund. It disappeared long ago, the bulk of it, if not all, before the present school authorities were appointed; and there can be no manner of doubt about the responsibility of the Democratic party of the county for that result. For the sake of a little temporary advantage in lessening the levy for school purposes this fund was sacrificed. It was an imprudent and unwise proceeding. If it had been untouched the income from it would to-day be providing means for the erection of much needed new school buildings and for repairs of others, if not affording better salaries to many poorly paid teachers. The fund is gone and reproaches will not restore it; but the people would do well to retire the party responsible for its expenditure and substitute the government of the party that protested, though ineffectually, against the short-sighted policy.

The Republican county central committee, which met in this city on Tuesday, resolved to hold public meetings in all parts of the county, for the discussion of the issues involved in the pending election. The Democratic committee has taken similar action and an energetic and lively campaign is anticipated. The resolution of the Republican committee is timely and wise. A thorough discussion and presentation of the history of Democratic rule in State and county during the last twenty years will convince the people that it "is time for a change," and the sooner the better.

Carelessness in lighting a gas well at Kokomo, Ind., on Monday, caused the death of Chusa Mormon, a Methodist minister. He was roasted. Several others were badly hurt.

Bribery of Voters.

Unless rumor was notoriously at fault there have been several occasions, during the last ten or a dozen years, when the bribery of voters was practiced in this county. This is particularly said to have been the case in several instances when candidates on the Democratic ticket were supposed to have been in peril, and has probably not been pursued as a general rule by either party. But whether general or spasmodic, the practice is none the less reprehensible, and will be condemned by all honorable men. It is in violation of the constitution and statutes of the State, the first of which imposes disfranchisement, and the latter fine and imprisonment as the penalties attaching to this crime.

It is, of course, difficult to bring the crime home to its perpetrators; but it may not be impossible, and the effort should at least be made to discourage and discountenance it. The statutory provisions will be found in the new Code, Art. 27, Sec. 26. The provisions of the constitution on the subject are contained in Art. 1, Sec. 3, and are as follows:

"If any person shall give, or offer to give, directly or indirectly, any bribe, present, or reward, or any promise, or any security for the payment or the delivery of money, or any other thing, to induce any voter to refrain from casting his vote, or to prevent him, in any way, from voting, or to procure a vote for any candidate, or person proposed or voted for, as Elector of President and Vice-President of the United States, or Representative in Congress, or for any office of profit or trust, created by the Constitution or Laws of this State, or by the Ordinances or Authority of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, the person giving, or offering to give, and the person receiving the same, and any person who gives, or causes to be given, an illegal vote, knowing it to be such, at any election to be hereafter held in this State, shall, on conviction in a Court of Law, in addition to the penalties now, or hereafter to be, imposed by Law, be forever disqualified to hold any office of profit or trust, or to vote at any election thereafter."

Nothing to Boast Of.

The constitution of Maryland prohibits the Legislature from creating any debt without, at the same time, providing a sinking fund for its liquidation at maturity. Comptroller Baughman, in his speech accepting the Democratic nomination for re-election, said: "Every sinking fund has been kept up to date in exact conformity to the requirements of the law." As it is a constitutional requirement there would be no particular cause for boasting of the fact if it were strictly true; but it is not. Col. Baughman has, doubtless, as Comptroller, properly applied the taxes levied for the several sinking funds, but he knows very well that some of his predecessors did not, and that to-day the people of Maryland are paying taxes to some of these sinking funds that would long since have been matured and the debts for which they were created paid if large sums had not been diverted from them into other channels. In other words, the people are paying these debts, principal and interest, twice, because Democratic Comptrollers violated the plain requirements of the constitution.

Open Letter to the "Advocate."

The author of the following letter, after addressing it to the Advocate, concluded to request its publication in the SENTINEL, and the request is hereby granted:

UNION BRIDGE, 10th month, 9th day, 1889.

To the Democratic Advocate.

Friend Advocate:—Being a friend of thine and a weekly reader of thy valuable periodical, which has heretofore maintained a high-toned and argumentative style, I was very much amazed at a slang article which appeared in thy paper on the last 7th day, which became thy own by thy having approved of it and by thy publication thereof.

The cant words, nick names and ribaldry were not so much as thy entering into the privacy of a man's family and speaking of his wife. Thou shouldst not have done this, and I hope thy sense of propriety will preclude thee from further transgression of this kind and induce thee to be more careful in future. Let thy communications to the people hereafter be argumentative. Let them be intellectual. Give us a thorough knowledge of tariff reform and taxation. Let us know why railroad iron under the present enormous tariff can be bought now at about one-third the price that was paid for a worse article in the year 1863. Tell us why cotton fabrics can now be bought at 5 and 10 cents per yard, which in the year 1828 cost from 25 to 75 cents per yard. Tell us why coal and iron ore are to be placed on the free list, and how this will benefit the laboring man. Give us the exact reason why rice and sugar should be heavily taxed, and why potatoes, wool and lumber are to be placed on the free list. Show us how the placing of coal, iron ore and lumber on the free list will benefit the laboring man, and how the placing of potatoes and wool on the free list will benefit the farmer; and then tell us and explain to us fully what the election of General Harrison has to do with the price of wheat; or dost thou wish the tax of twenty cents per bushel taken off wheat for the benefit of the farmer?

With these little hints, by which we hope thou mayest profit, and the promise that thou shalt hear from us hereafter,

We remain thy sincere friend,
BENJAMIN BREAKWATER.

The Baltimore Nominations.

The Republican nominating convention in Baltimore, on Thursday evening selected a ticket composed of Republicans and Independent Democrats. The ticket was also endorsed by the Independent Democratic Committee of one hundred, and is a very strong one. All the nominees in the First and Second Legislative Districts are Independent Democrats, and in the Third District Republicans. The candidates for Clerk of the Superior Court and Sheriff are Independent Democrats, and the remainder of the ticket Republicans. They are as follows: For Mayor, Major Alexander Shaw; for Chief Judge of the Supreme Bench, Robert H. Smith; for Clerk of the Superior Court, Thomas E. McCready; for Sheriff, Thomas McCosker; for Surveyor, Gilbert H. Bryson; First Legislative District, Samuel E. Atkinson, George F. Nicholl, Louis Fehsenfeld, Jacob Wolf, Wm. A. Galloway, S. Clarence Scott; Second Legislative District, W. Benton Crisp, State Senator; House, James McColgan, David S. Brisco, William L. Marbury, Roger W. Cull, George A. Dubreuil, George F. Gephart; Third Legislative District, Fourteenth ward, John Jamison; Fifteenth, Edward G. Rost; Sixteenth, Chas. W. Brown; Seventeenth, Robert H. Beauchamp; Eighteenth, Jas. E. Swindell; Twentieth, Wm. C. Harden.

"Lord Baltimore," the big bell in the dome of the City Hall, Baltimore, is reported to be a failure, and a very poor successor of "Big Sam." Opposition to the payment of the bill for his Lordship, amounting to $2,943, has developed in the City Council.

The Lutheran Synod.

The Maryland Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, which met in Martinsburg, West Va., last week, concluded its labors on Saturday last, and adjourned to meet in Washington, D. C., next year. Among the proceedings was the report of the treasurer, Mr. W. H. James, of Baltimore, which shows total receipts for benevolent purposes, during the year, $15,203.15; from Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies, $2,911.28—total, $18,114.43. Chairman Miller, of the Committee on Statistical Apportionment, made a report, showing, on the average, a fair increase over that of last year.

A vote of thanks was passed the resident pastor, Rev. C. S. Trump, and to the entire community for their successful endeavors to make the visitors comfortable.

At the ministerial meeting the following were admitted as licentiates: W. D. Nicoll and Messrs. Schmidt and Fisher. Revs. Luther DeYoe and W. J. D. Scherer were ordained on Sabbath evening. Rev. Charles Butler was also received, the ordination services to take place in the church of his father, Dr. J. G. Butler, in Washington.

Assistance was granted the charge at Oakland, Md. Memorial resolutions were passed to the memory of Revs. Wm. M. Heilig and X. J. Richardson, who died during the past year. The following speakers for 1890 were appointed: "Education," Rev. H. S. Cook; "Foreign Missions," C. S. Albert, D. D., and "Ordination," D. Schindler, D. D.

Washington Letter.

(From our regular correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., OCT. 7, 1889.—Washington is in gala attire to greet the 200,000 strangers within her gates to-day in attendance upon the Knight Templars triennial conclave. To-morrow the largest parade of Knight Templars the world has ever seen will take place upon our streets—more than 20,000 men will be in line, with forty brass bands. In the evening the President will hold a special reception for the Knights and their ladies. On Thursday evening Mrs. Gen. Logan holds a reception at her residence, Calumet Place. In holding this reception Mrs. Logan is carrying out arrangements made by the late Gen. Logan just after his return from the Conclave held at St. Louis in 1886, when he was instrumental in getting Washington selected as the place for holding the present conclave. The Knights are receiving a royal welcome as everyone here knows the importance of making friends for Washington as the place for holding the grand American Exposition in 1892.

Private Secretary Halford is again too sick to perform his duties. If his health continues to grow worse, as it has done since he came here, it is probable that he will tender his resignation.

Attorney General Miller says he has not been tendered an appointment to the bench of the Supreme Court. He ought to know.

Maryland News.

Ober's phosphate works, Locust Point, Baltimore, were destroyed by fire Thursday night. Estimated loss, upwards of $200,000; insurance about $127,000.

The formal opening of the training school for nurses, connected with the Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, occurred on Wednesday.

Governor Lee, of Virginia, has assented to Governor Jackson's proposition for a survey to decide the disputed oyster boundary in the Potomac river.

George Phillips and wife who were lodged in Howard county jail two or three weeks ago on the charge of having stolen a horse and buggy belonging to Rev. C. E. McCullough, from the stable of Mr. David Burdett, Poplar Springs, had a hearing last Saturday before Justice Cooke and were held for the action of the grand jury.

It has leaked out that Col. L. V. Baughman, Democratic candidate for Comptroller, and Col. Samuel Cox, of Charles county, cashier of customs, at Baltimore, had a quarrel at Democratic Headquarters, on Saturday last, about the Democratic nominations in Charles county, which ended in a lively fist fight during which, it is reported, they knocked each other down.

Sister Martha Seton, said to be the oldest member of the sisterhood of the Sisters of Charity in this country, died Wednesday at the Convent of Mount Saint Joseph's, Frederick county. She was 94 years old, and had been in the sisterhood seventy-six years as a Sister of Charity. In early life she carried on her work in all parts of the country. She was a daughter of the late Ezra Dadisman, of Frederick.

Majority and minority reports have been made by the committee of the First Branch of the Baltimore City Council, appointed to investigate the charge of an attempt by Charles A. Nicolai to bribe Councilman Hayden to vote for a certain gasoline contract. The majority report sustains the charge and the minority dissents. The names of Naval Officer Raisin and Special Agent Mahon were drawn into the investigation and the majority report states that every opportunity was given them to appear and testify; but they did not do so. "Hack" Quinn was also involved in the scandal.

The crop report for September, issued by the U. S. Agricultural Department makes the following exhibit of the average condition of crops in Maryland, September 1st, or when harvested: corn, 83; wheat and rye, when harvested, 82; oats, when harvested, 85; barley, when harvested, 90; common potatoes, 82; sweet potatoes, 87; tobacco, 57; Sorghum, 60; apples, 61; peaches, 57; grapes 65; number of hogs for fattening compared with last year, 99; average condition of same as to weight and size, 98, figures which are slightly below the general average of the country in corn, wheat, rye and oats and above it on barley and potatoes.

The Baltimore base-ball club has gotten safely down to fifth place. At one period during the season it promised to be a good third, but recently has been losing rapidly. The team is badly broken up, several of the members being sick, leaving it in a crippled condition. The St. Louis Club bids fair to lose the pennant this season, the Brooklyns now having a good lead, with the end near at hand. The present standing of the clubs is as follows:

	Won.	Lost.		Won.	Lost.
Brooklyn, - - -	91	43	Baltimore, - - -	70	61
St. Louis, - - -	88	44	Columbus, - - -	59	76
