An Issue With Whom?

The Advocate of the 19th ult says:

"The Easton Ledger, with commendable energy and a desire to show the drift of Democratic sentiment in this state upon the probable issues in the next campaign and the chances of success of the party, last week gave opinions on these questions from quite a number of prominent Democrats and some not so prominent. There was considerable unanimity of sentiment that the leading issue will be a new assessment."

Now, the question is: With whom will the assessment issue be made? If the Democrats propose to antagonize the Republicans on that subject they must take the negative and oppose a new assessment law. The Republican party has not been hostile to such a measure at all, but the Democratic party, while making it the subject of pledges and promises in every campaign since, and including, that of 1887, has always developed an opposition, in some quarter, sufficiently strong to defeat all legislation in the matter. Another pledge of the same character should only provoke contempt and derision on the part of the people, who have been so often cajoled into trusting the Democratic party after its repeated deceptions. It is brazen effrontery for Democrats to talk about making assessment an issue in the approaching campaign unless, indeed, it is to be an issue among the Democrats themselves in advance of the campaign. No doubt there are many Democrats who favor the passage of a new assessment law. In fact, it is probable that a majority of the members of that party honestly desires such legislation. But majorities are of little consequence in an organization that is ruled by one or two bosses, whose wishes are recognized law with the party's representatives. The success of the Democratic party in this State at the next election will simply mean the continued supremacy of a power that is hostile to a new assessment, unless that power be subverted and overthrown at the primaries.

The Impending Crisis.

The gravity of the financial condition of the country is forcibly set forth in a measure sent to Congress, by President Cleveland, on Monday last. Undoubtedly a great peril is threatening and the President again appeals to the patriotism of Congressmen to provide a speedy remedy for the impending evil. The message contains much that every citizen, without regard to party affiliations, can approve, but proposes nothing upon which the discordant elements of his own party will unite. The administration bill for the relief of the Treasury, which accompanied the message, has already been radically amended in the Committee of the House to which it was submitted, but will probably not receive a majority of votes when placed upon its passage in that branch of Congress. Should it do so, however, its chances in the Senate would be exceedingly slim. Without attempting a synopsis of its provisions in detail it may be said that, principally, it proposes an issue of 50 year gold bonds, and provides that treasury notes redeemed in gold shall not be reissued. The President seems to imagine that this is about all that is necessary to avert financial disaster, and makes the mistake, which other members of his party share, that the impending crisis is in no way attributable to the shortage in the revenues of the government.

While the danger complained of may not be solely due to this shortage, it is undoubtedly the consequence of the legislation under which the recipts of the Treasury have fallen far below the expenditures. That legislation paralyzed enterprise, restricted trade and manufactures and brought incalculable ruin and misery upon the people as a primary result. Adversity and depression took the place of prosperity and activity in every branch of business, and the influence and effect of this condition is now being felt directly upon the financial standing of the nation.

Another cause of the imminent danger referred to is the profound distrust of the country in the Democratic party. The present Administration and Congress have so thoroughly demonstrated their inability to enact useful legislation and to administer the government wisely and successfully, that a feeling of apprehension has arisen at home and aboard and no man can foretell the consequences unless prompt measures shall be adopted to arrest the impending crisis.

In this emergency, many eyes are being turned to the veteran financier and statesman, John Sherman, as the source from whom must emanate some plan by which the ship of State may be safely piloted through the troubled waters to a quiet haven. Mr. Sherman is a patriot and will undoubtedly give his best thought and effort to the solution of the difficulties confronting the country; but, we fear, will be able to accomplish little, as the pathway to safety and prosperity lies through a change in the law which is mainly responsible for the unhappy condition that confronts the nation, and this cannot be accomplished with the Democrats in power.

The Hagerstown and Frederick Fair Associations have reached an agreement by which their respective fairs will be hereafter held on different dates. This year Frederick yields to Hagerstown, and will hold its fair October 8th to 11th, while the Hagerstown fair will be held October 15th to 18th. Next year Frederick will be entitled to select dates upon which it has been customary to hold its fair.

About half-past 5 o'clock Thursday morning the North German Lloyd steamship Elbe and the British steamship Crathie collided about thirty miles from the Hook of Holland, and the Elbe went down soon after. Only twenty out of 334 persons on board were saved. The Elbe sailed from Bremen for New York on Wednesday. The list of lost included most of the officers and crew as well as passengers.

An Appeal.

The undersigned Christian ministers of Westminster and vicinity, seeing the great injury done to this community by the liquor traffic, and the apparent indifference of so many of our best citizens upon this subject, and knowing that we are powerless to abolish, or even materially to abate this evil without the hearty co-operation of all good people; in the interest of good government, good morals and religion, we feel moved to make the following public and united appeal:

1. We appeal to all persons to discontinue and discountenance the use and sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage. We appeal to the intelligent and influential men and women of this community, whose opinion and influence count for so much on all public questions; unite with us in creating a healthy, public sentiment concerning the drink habit and the liquor traffic.

2. Recognizing those who are engaged in the liquor business as men capable of, and worthy of a better vocation; we appeal to them, to seriously consider whether they can afford to conduct a business that is "evil and only evil" in its results; a business that their judgment and conscience condemn.

3. We appeal to all the freeholders, to seriously consider the responsibility incurred by them in signing petitions for a license to conduct the liquor business, and to refrain from doing so in the future. Inasmuch as the law under which licenses for the sale of liquor are issued in this county, requires petitions to be signed by nine freeholders, residing in the neighborhood; it follows that the responsibility for the existence of the liquor traffic in our midst, rests largely on the signers of these petitions. This being the case it is evident that these signers share with the liquor dealer the responsibility for whatever injury results, and are accountable for the same at the bar of public conscience, and finally at the bar of Almighty God. We hold that it is not right to recommend any man as a fit person to conduct the sale of liquor as a beverage. No man, no matter how excellent his character, or good his intentions, can conduct the saloon business without great injury to the community. The most successful liquor business is the most injurious in its results. The most respectable and orderly places are a snare to, and the ruin of our best citizens. We hold, therefore, that signing a petition for a license to conduct a liquor business in any case is without justification. Knowing that a large proportion of those whose names are now on these petitions are among our most worthy and respected citizens, we are forced to the conclusion that these gentlemen have not seriously considered the responsibility incurred in so doing. It is because of the good character of those who sign these petitions that we feel hopeful in making this public appeal.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Lauterback, near Freedom, presented a scene of unusual festivity on Monday and Tuesday evenings of this week, they having invited a number of the young friends of Mr. Herbert Wampler to assist them in celebrating a most important event—historically—his twenty-first birthday.

As Monday evening, the time appointed, was stormy only a few of the invited guests assembled, but they received a cordial welcome, and were well repaid for their effort in coming. So much did they enjoy themselves that it was decided to meet again on Tuesday so that those who did not get there on Monday might have the opportunity of tendering their congratulations and best wishes to Mr. Wampler. At an early hour on Tuesday evening the merry jingle of the sleigh-bells announced the coming of the expected guests, and the spacious parlors were soon filled with youth and gayety. Merry games, charades etc., served to pass the hours. At eleven o'clock a handsome collation was served, to which all did ample justice, after which the games, etc., were continued until at last the lateness of the hour compelled a reluctant departure. The guests after thanking Mr. and Mrs. Lauterbach for their delightful hospitality, one and all wished Mr. Wampler many happy returns of the day. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Philip Lauterback, Miss Barbara Lauterbach and Misses Minnie McQuay, Emma and Andy Shipley, Elsie Bennett, Abbie and Minnie McKinney, Milly Bushey, Carrie and Mattie Shoemaker, and J. R. Ways, Messrs. Herbert Wampler, Horatio Shipley, Mac. Shipley, Tom Bennett, Harry Bushey, John McKinney, Saville Hewitt, and A. H. Wallace.

The Young People's Missionary Society will meet at Messiah Church, February 3rd, at half-past seven P. M.

AN OPEN LETTER.

WESTMINSTER, April 10, 1890.

Mr. Jos. B. Boyle:

Dear Sir:—For many years I have suffered intensely, on taking cold, from a very troublesome cough, for which I have used a number of various remedies, and obtained but temporary relief. During the past Spring I was again troubled with the same cough, and through a friend was induced to try your Pectoral Syrup, which not only gave almost instant relief, but a permanent cure. It gives me great pleasure to say that I believe it to be the best remedy I ever used for the purpose for which it is recommended. Hoping that any person afflicted as I was may be fortunate enough to give it a trial, I am,

Truly yours,

EDWARD LYNCH.
