SATURDAY, APRIL 6 1895.

The Baltimore Evening News of Wednesday published pictures of most of the gentlemen who have been mentioned in connection with the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. That of State Senator Bennett of this city was among them. A cut of Collector Shaw was also among the illustrations, but it was little better than a caricature.

Mr. Charles T. Mitchell, (Democrat), who was declared elected as a member of the Second Branch of the City Council from the Fifteenth and Sixteenth wards, held on Tuesday week, was Saturday served with a formal notice that the election would be contested by Mr. Nelson Baker, the Republican candidate. The notice of contest, which was served upon Mr. Mitchell by Mr. Hugh McElderry, is quite lengthy, and recites very fully the grounds upon which it is based.

The Democratic State Central Committee met in Baltimore on Wednesday and selected Wednesday, July 31st, as the date and Baltimore the place for holding the Democratic State gubernatorial convention. Senator Gorman and I. Freeman Rasin, boss and sub-boss of the party, were on hand, and the meeting was as smooth as oil. Most of the leading politicians called on the senior senator at the Carrollton Hotel, among them Collector Shaw and Deputy Collector Diffenbaugh, of the Custom House. The absence of other Carroll county leaders in this act of courtesy to the head of the party was painfully significant. The gubernatorial aspirants, from Rayner to Spencer Jones, were mostly on hand nursing their little booms. Senator Thomas G. Hayes is said to have the inside track with the bosses, though many persons believe Treasurer Jones is the real favorite.

More Republican Victories.

The Republicans were overwhelmingly successful in the local elections held in the Western States this week. Swift, their candidate for mayor in Chicago, received more than forty thousand majority. The Democrats and Populists were easily defeated in almost all the important contests. Towns that were never Republican before wheeled into line this time. About the only crumb of comfort the Democrats can find in their general rout is the re-election of a Democrat as a justice of the Supreme Court of Wisconsin. It is noticeable, however, that party lines are rarely closely drawn in judicial elections in that and some other States. The Republicans carried St. Louis, Mo., by 13,000, electing all the city councilmen but one, and 23 members of the House of Delegates to 5 Democrats. The Republicans elected the mayor of Denver, Col. An election was held in Rhode Island on Wednesday for Governor and other State officers. Senators and Assemblymen. The Republican candidates on the State ticket have about 10,000 plurality; the Senate stands 32 Republicans, 3 Democrats; the Assembly 69 Republicans, 3 Democrats.

Getting Together.

In announcing the result of the election to fill a vacancy in the Second Branch of the City Council of Baltimore, in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth wards, and a Democratic victory, by a very small margin, in a councilmanic election in Hagerstown, last week, the Advocate added this congratulatory expression: "The Democratic party is getting together, and in November will be in good fighting trim."

"Getting together" is a rather felicitous expression in this case, especially in its application to the election in Baltimore. It was the sort of "getting together" for which the Baltimore Democracy is notorious; the "getting together" of the ward heelers, the roughs, repeaters and evil elements who do the work of the bosses and managers and are carried on the payrolls as laborers or are rewarded by some other method at the public expense. There has been altogether too much of this sort of "getting together" in the Democratic party, and the sooner it shall be ended the better it will be for the public welfare.

The following from The World, an Independent Democratic Baltimore evening paper, is mildly suggestive of the manner in which the Democrats "got together" on the occasion referred to:

"It is with pleasure that The World learns that the Republicans will contest the election of Chas. T. Mitchell to the second branch council from wards 15 and 16. Mr. Mitchell has given evidence that he intends to accept the result of last Tuesday without considering the disreputable methods that were apparent to every one who visited the ward. The World believes that had the Republicans failed to contest, they would be neglecting their duty as citizens, and utterly disregard the demand of the people for pure government and pure elections. They have commenced the contest and they must fight it to the bitter end. They have cried out against ring rule; they have denounced the methods by which the ring retains its hold as corrupt; they have declared that there was fraud in last Tuesday's election. If they hope to secure and maintain the confidence of the people they must delve to the very bottom of this matter. There can be no retreat. There must be an advance. The sentiment of the people is against ring rule, and against the disgusting scenes that characterized last Tuesday's contest. There is but one way to put an end to both, and the way is to let the people know to what extent their right of suffrage is being violated and their will set at naught."

As to the Hagerstown election the Democrats have little to rejoice over, except, probably, the retention of power to hold on to the spoils. The Republicans only carried one of three wards, but it was by a large majority, while the two carried by the Democrats were so close the Republicans claim they were only beaten by throwing out a number of their ballots which should have been counted. There again the Democrats "got together" in the customary fashion when their supremacy is seriously menaced.

For the SENTINEL.

The Aiverett Inebriate Act.

The Court of Appeals on March 27th, in the case of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore vs. Keely Institute of Maryland, sustained the constitutionality of the Aiverett Inebriate Act, passed by the Md. Legislature in 1884. Judge Roberts delivered the opinion of the Court. This law provides for the treatment of habitual drunkards, who are unable to pay for the same, at the Keely Institute, and the cost of this treatment or a part of them, are to be furnished at the public expense. Without questioning for a moment the fact that the decision was fairly and impartially rendered, and was evolved from a careful and unbiased consideration of the subject, yet the law itself is such a glaringly inconsistent piece of legislation that we cannot refrain from expressing our condemnation of it in the most emphatic terms. That drunkenness is one of the greatest and most injurious curses that afflict humanity, leading as it does to poverty, crime, pauperism, insanity, debauchery and the death of 100,000 human beings annually, in this country alone, no one who is at all observant will doubt or attempt to deny. The learned judge referring to the subject, in his opinion, very clearly points out the effects of this curse in the following language: "It is one of the gravest conditions in the century in which we live, and of which legislators have been compelled to make observation, that the victims of the excessive use of alcoholic stimulants, narcotics, etc., have grown to be legion; not of the healthy, robust manhood but of broken, debauched and decrepit men, against whom and for whom, as a class, public sentiment has a right to appeal to the Legislature for protection. Lord Bacon has said that 'All the crimes on earth do not destroy so many of the human race nor alienate so much property as drukenness.' Such being the results of drunkenness, we can but heartily sanction the sentiment of that part of the opinion which refers to drunkards as a class for whom "Public sentiment has a right to appeal to the Legislature for protection," and there is no class for whom we have deeper sympathy than the poor unfortunate who is addicted to drink. The fault we find with the Aiverett Law is that it is the application of a remedy to the effect rather than to the cause. It is an utter impossibility to cure indigestion by an external headache remedy applied to relieve headache which results from the indigestion. The Legislature of Maryland legalizes that which directly promulgates drunkenness, in the shape of the saloon, allows the state to accept a certain percentage of the saloon business which perpetuates drinking and is the institution by which men are made drunkards, fosters and encourages the business and then, after legalizing and permitting such traffic which converts men from health to disease and reduces them to poverty so that they are unable to pay for their own treatment, passes a law requiring that tax payers furnish the money to treat those poor individuals, whom the saloon, backed up by the law of the state, has reduced to their pitiful condition. God help such charity as this. We think that if our legislators really desire to protect our people from drunkenness, they should strike at the root of the matter, instead of sanctioning, or allowing existing laws to sanction the cause and then try to doctor the effects.

In Baltimore City, where the above case originate', there are 2200 saloons, made as tempting and attractive as possible, in order to tempt men to patronize them, and these saloons are turning out day after day moral and physical wrecks, who are not only made miserable themselves, but are a burden to the community in which they live; and yet every one of these infernal saloons has a printed or written permission and authority from the State, hung up somewhere in a conspicuous place, indicating to all the world that they are under the protection of the law. When we have a legislature composed of men who have back-bone enough to meet this question face to face and exterminate the cause of the evil, then and only then, will we reach the true solution of the problem.

OBSERVER.

Baltimore, April 1st, 1895.

Republican National League Convention.

President Tracey and Secretary Humphrey, of the Republican National League, have promulgated a call for the next annual convention of the League, from which the following is an extract:

"In compliance with a provision of the constitution of the Republican National League establishing an annual convention, and in accordance with the instructions of the last national convention, at Denver, the eighth annual convention of the Republican National League is hereby called to meet in the city of Cleveland, O., Wednesday, June 19, 1895, at 10 o'clock A. M., and continue its sessions until its business is completed. It is proposed to take three days for this convention, so that there may be ample time for a full discussion on the questions of special interest to the party at this time. The ratio of representation will be six delegates-at-large from each state and territory, four from each congressional district, and one from each college Republican League club in the United States duly represented in the American Republican College League convention at Grand Rapids, Mich., April 5, 1895. The following are ex-officio delegates: The president, secretary and treasurer of the National League, one vice-president and one executive member of the national organization from each state and territory, and the president and secretary of each state and territory league, making four ex-officio delegates from each. This gives each state practically ten delegates-at-large, in addition to the four from each congressional district. The total representation will exceed two thousand delegates, with an equal number of alternates."

A motion for a new trial in the case of Jacob Henson, convicted of the murder of Daniel F. Shea, at Ellicott City, was overruled on Tuesday by Judge Jones, who sentenced Henson to be hanged at such time as the Governor may designate.

The Howard county school board has announced that public schools in the county will be closed May 31, because of lack of funds.

Marshall E. Price, a young blacksmith, residing at Harmony, Caroline county, has been arrested and held to answer the charge of murdering the young schoolgirl, Sallie Dean, at that place, last week. He was a member of the jury of inquest in the case. His arrest was brought about by the work of detectives Seibold and Gault, of Baltimore. He belongs to a respectable family and has borne a good name himself. He was married about 18 months ago. He protests his innocence, but the evidence against him is said to be very strong.

Thomas B. Babylon, Petitioner, vs. Charles P. Babylon, Howard S. Babylon, Mordecai W. Babylon, Fannie M. Walters, Harry Walters, her husband, Emma Myers, A. Kurtz Myers, her husband, F. Thomas Babylon, Delia M. Fuhrman, George A. Fuhrman, her husband, George W. Babylon, William E. Babylon, Martha B. Handley, Philip M. Handley, her husband, Harry G. Babylon, Jessie F. Babylon, Peter Babylon, William Babylon, Lavina Boyd, Nelson Boyd, her husband, Catherine Babylon, J. Thomas Eckard, Theodore Eckard, Ann L. Eckard, Luther F. Eckard, William W. Eckard, Margaret A. Eckard, administratrix of Jeremiah Babylon, deceased, Jacob O. Eckard, Lawrence R. Babylon, Mary Lee Babylon, Fannie B. Babylon, Willie Josiah Babylon, infants, Daniel Babylon, heirs of Daniel Babylon, Ephraim Babylon, heirs of Ephraim Babylon, The Westminster Savings Institution, Chas. T. Reifsnider and Harry M. Clabaugh, trustees.

The object of this suit is to procure a decree for the distribution of the money or so much thereof as may be necessary to the petitioner and all other creditors of Jeremiah Babylon, deceased, who may have been such at the time of his death, in the hands of the trustees derived from the sale of certain real estate, situate in Carroll county of Maryland, of which Jeremiah Babylon late of said county and State, died seized and possessed.

The Petition states:

1st. That Jeremiah Babylon departed this life in the month of April, in the year 1894, in Carroll county of Maryland, intestate, and seized and possessed of several parcels of land situate in said county, and containing about 130 acres of land, but which appears more accurately from the report of sale of the trustees filed in this cause.

2nd. That said intestate left surviving him Margaret A. Babylon, his widow, and the following persons his only heirs at law, to wit: Charles P. Babylon, Howard S. Babylon, Mordecai W. Babylon, Fannie M. Walters, wife of Harry Walters, Emma Myers, wife of A. Kurtz Myers, F. Thomas Babylon, Delia M. Fuhrman, wife of George A. Fuhrman, Geo. W. Babylon, William E. Babylon, Martha B. Handley, wife of Philip M. Handley, Harry G. Babylon, Jessie F. B. Babylon, children and heirs at law of Josiah Babylon, who was a brother of the said Jeremiah Babylon, deceased as aforesaid, and who departed this life before the said Jeremiah Babylon; Peter Babylon, William Babylon, Lavina Boyd, wife of Nelson Boyd, and Catherine Babylon, children and only heirs at law of Samuel Babylon, late of Carroll county, deceased, and who was a brother of said Jeremiah Babylon, deceased as aforesaid, and who died long before the said Jeremiah Babylon; J. Thomas Eckard, Jacob O. Eckard, Theodore Eckard, Ann L. Eckard, Luther F. Eckard William W. Eckard, George W. Eckard, children and only heirs at law of Susan Eckard, wife of Jacob Eckard, and who was a sister of said Jeremiah Babylon, deceased, and who died long before the said Jeremiah Babylon, as did also the said Jacob Eckard; Lawrence R. Babylon, Mary L. Babylon, Fannie B. Babylon, Willie Josiah Babylon, children and heirs at law of the said Josiah Babylon heretofore mentioned, all of whom reside in Carroll County in the State of Maryland, except Howard S. Babylon and Willie E. Babylon who reside in the State of Ohio, Jessie F. B. Babylon, who resides in the State of Illinois, Jacob O. Eckard who is supposed to reside in the State of Minnesota, and are adults above the age of twenty-one years, except the said Lawrence R. Babylon, Mary Lee Babylon, Fannie B. Babylon and Willie Josiah Babylon, who are infants under the age of twenty-one years.

3rd. That the said Jeremiah Babylon, deceased, as aforesaid, had two brothers to wit: Daniel Babylon and Ephraim Babylon both of whom were West a number of years ago, that the Plaintiffs do not know whether they reside or whether they are living or dead, whether they left any heirs surviving them, Plaintiffs pray for an order of publication against them, or any unknown heirs surviving them.

4th. That the said Jeremiah Babylon and his said wife executed during his life time their separate Mortgages on certain parts of his real estate to one John L. Reifsnider, which Mortgages by several assignments have been assigned to The Westminster Savings Institution a body corporate of the State of Maryland; as appears by copies of said Mortgages filed with bill, marked Exhibits "W, X," and "Y."

5th. That the Westminster Savings Institution also obtained in the life time of the said Jeremiah Babylon a Judgment against him, which is still outstanding and unsatisfied, and which is a lien against the said real estate of the said Jeremiah Babylon, deceased as aforesaid, as appears by a certified copy of said Judgment filed with Bill, marked "Z."

6th. That letters of administration on the personal estate of said intestate were granted to his widow, Margaret A. Babylon, who has settled her first and final account in the Orphans' Court of Carroll County, from which account it appears that the personal estate of said intestate was insolvent, and that the creditors of the said intestate were unable to have their respective claims satisfied out of said personal estate.

7th. That the said intestate was indebted to the petitioner in his life time in the sum of three hundred and ninety six dollars and thirty-three cents with interest from February 14th, 1884.

8th. That under a bill filed in this said cause Chas. T. Reifsnider and Harry M. Clabaugh were appointed trustees to make sale of the said real estate, which they have done and have reported the same to the Court, and which sales have been finally ratified by the Court as will appear by reference to the proceedings in this cause, and that the proceeds arising from said sale are now in the hands of the said trustees.

9th. That your petitioner and the other creditors of the said intestate have no other means of securing payment of their respective claims except from the money arising from the sale of the real estate.

The bill prays for general relief and that a decree may be passed for distribution of the said proceeds from the sale of the said real estate, or so much as may be necessary to your petitioner in payment of his said claim and also the claims of any other creditors who may appear to have been creditors at the time of the death of the said intestate, and whose claims had not been paid and satisfied, and also for an order of publication against the said Jacob O. Eckard of the State of Minnesota, Daniel Babylon or the heirs of Daniel Babylon, Ephraim Babylon or the heirs of Ephraim Babylon, who are unknown and all of whom are non-residents of the State of Maryland, and for the writ of subpoena to the State of Maryland directed to the other defendants in this cause.

It is thereupon this fifth day of April, A. D. 1895, ordered by the Circuit Court for Carroll County sitting as a Court of Equity, that the plaintiffs by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Carroll county, once in each of four successive weeks before the 6th day of May next, giving notice to the said Jacob O. Eckard of the State of Minnesota, Daniel Babylon or the heirs of Daniel Babylon, Ephraim Babylon or the heirs of Ephraim Babylon, the said absent and unknown defendants, of the object and substance of this Bill warning them to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 27th day of May next, to show cause if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

P. S.—Don't monkey with second rate tailors or Ready-made Clothing, when you can buy of us at the above prices. In regard to our workmanship my son has learned to cut by the latest improved system and we guarantee a fit or no sale; and remember we don't have women to make and finish our suits off.

Phosphate! Phosphate!

What is the best or most paying crop for a farmer to raise?

The answer, as a rule, is the crop planted in the Spring--

CORN, OATS, OR POTATOES.

The Spring is nearly with us and we wish to call your attention to the most available Fertilizer you can use on your SPRING CROPS.

We have studied the FERTILIZER BUSINESS for years and are prepared to give a farmer anything he wants in the way of Fertilizer. We especially recommend our

CHAMPION DISSOLVED BONE

FOR POTATOES OR CORN, AND OUR

FOUR X BONE FOR OATS.

We are especially prepared to furnish an excellent article of Fertilizer at very low prices. Our goods have been used by farmers in all sections of Carroll county and have given the best of satisfaction.

Use the Best this Spring and call on us and get the best and your crop will be satisfactory and pay you well. Very respectfully,

N. I. GORSUCH & SON.
