N. B.—The above is an outline of ONLY ONE Number, and that put up under the excitement and bustle of attending to nearly 10,000 new subscribers, letters of inquiry, &c. EEVEN MORE numbers equally good, and as much better as possible, will be furnished this year; and the capital December No (1856) will be furnished free to 3,000 new subscribers for 1857, first received.

N. B.—At least 200 perfect seeds of the new Chinese Sugar Cane will be sent free to every old or new subscriber to THE AGRICULTURALIST who furnishes a ready directed (post paid) envelope to mail them in.

N B—The AGRICULTURALIST is located at the Metropolitan city of the country—the best point for getting the best information from every section

N B—The AGRICULTURALIST surpasses all other similar journals in having, beside its Resident conducting Editor, an Associate Editor at each of several points in the Eastern, Middle and Western States. A dozen of these men, who are thoroughgoing practical Cultivators, Fruit growers, Stock raisers, &c, are constantly furnishing to the AGRICULTURALIST their combined experience and observations in their several localities.—This arrangement gives this journal Unequaled advantages for diffusing the very best practical information collected from each division of the country

Every Farmer, Merchant, Mechanic or Professional Man, who is annually expending $1,000, $500, $200, $100, or but $50 or $20 upon his farm, Orchard, Garden, or House plot, or upon his Animals, will do well to expend a single dollar a year more in supplying himself with THE AGRICULTURALIST. From its full 500 good articles given every year, no one can fail to derive at least some hints that will be worth to him many times the cost.

County Commissioner's Sale.

NOTICE is hereby given that on Tuesday, January 27th, 1857, between the hours of and 5 o'clock P. M., in front of the Court House in Easton, the County Commissioners will offer at public sale, to the lowest bidder, the contract for building the piece of new road in Chapel District, recently condemned by Messrs. E. A. Dudley, John D. Nabb and Mathias Merrick, Commissioners, and surveyed by James M. Leonard, Esq., county surveyor, and running from a point near the Chapel M. E. Church, on the three bridge road, through the lands of James A. Roe and the heirs of the late Jesse Scott, to Brandy Bridge, on the road leading from Chapel to Hillsborough, being about three quarters of a mile in length—the said road to be thirty feet wide, and to be ditched and bridged wherever necessary, and cleared of all obstructions so as to make it a good road, and to be put in good travelling condition. The said road to be completed in six months from the day of sale, and the purchaser to give bond with approved security for the faithful performance of his contract. By order of the Board of Commissioners of Talbot county.

IN TIME FOR

CHRISTMAS.

1856.

AS the season is approaching for the presentation of Holyday presents of various kinds, the undersigned would respectfully call particular attention to his superior and unrivalled collection of Jewelry & Fancy Articles, which have been selected in the city with great care and will be disposed of on the most moderate terms. His assortment embraces the most choice variety of Fancy Articles which he has ever had the pleasure to offer to the public, and cannot fail to give general satisfaction to purchasers. The especial attention of the Ladies is solicited to his brilliant collection of

JEWELRY, &c.

His stock of GOLD & SILVER WATCHES, is much larger than heretofore, and cannot fail to attract attention and secure purchasers.— His assortment of CLOCKS challenge competition, and are superior to all other articles of the kind ever offered in this market. Give us a call and judge for yourself. It is deemed unnecessary to trespass on the time and patience of the reader by an enumeration of the various articles embraced in his assortment, feeling assured that all who desire to make purchases, either for themselves or friends will not fail to give him a call in due time. It would do well even to drop in and take a look at the many handsome articles on exhibition in his establishment at the old stand. "Walk in Ladies" and bring the Children with you. Farmers who intend to make their wives and daughters a handsome present at Christmas or New Years day cannot do better than by a purchase of STEWART'S elegant Clocks or a superior Gold Watch and Chain, Pencil or some other attractive article.

VALUABLE

Real Estate for Sale.

THE subscriber, as agent for Mrs. Mary E.
Emory, offers for sale her valuable Farm situated on Skipton Creek and Wye River, in Talbot county, Md., about eight or ten miles from Easton, the county seat, and convenient to church and schools. This farm contains 401 Acres, of which about 180 Acres are well covered with valuable Oak, Chestnut and Walnut Timber.— The rest of the track is arable and susceptible of the highest improvement.

The buildings on this farm are a large new and convenient residence, granary, corn house, stables, and servants' dwellings, and all other requisite out-buildings in a good state of repair.

This farm is most eligibly situated on Wye River, and has several landings on it for the delivery of grain and other produce. The river furnishes an abundant supply of fish, oysters and wild game. The situation is very healthy and the land is well located and supplied with an abundance of excellent drinking water. The arable land is in good condition and has a quantity of shell marl; the use of which would render it highly productive.

The natural advantages of this farm are as great as those of any farm in the country, and offers the strongest inducements to purchasers.

Persons wishing to make a profitable investment should view this valuable farm and judge for themselves. WM. HAYWARD, Agent.
