Concedes the Power of the Autocrat.

Recognizing the hopelessness of a contest with bossism in the Democratic party Hon. Isidor Rayner withdrew, last week, from the race for the gubernatorial nomination, frankly acknowledging that the power of the machine is omnipotent and his success, as the champion of the cause of the people, utterly impossible. While Mr. Rayner's methods of resistance to ring rule may not always have been the wisest and most prudent, and may, to some extent, have militated against his aspirations for the governorship, there is no doubt that the principal difficulty in his way has been the opposition of the bosses. He is a man of ability and from a Democratic standpoint represented his District with more than ordinary success in the Lower House of Congress. But he was too independent to suit the wishes of the party dictator, and he isn't by any means the first to feel the hopeless character of a fight with the machine. The Democracy of Maryland is simply enslaved and as thoroughly subject to the will of one man, so far as party policy is concerned, as are the people of Russia to the will of the Czar, and Mr. Rayner's retirement from the gubernatorial contest is only another concession of the dictorial power of the autocrat who sets up whom he will and orders the downfall of every man in his party who incurs his opposition. There is no relief for Democrats of independent proclivities from this thralldom but by the exercise of an independent ballot at the polls, and there are signs that this potent power may be employed with some effect at the election next November.

Death of Secretary Gresham.

Secretary of State Walter Q. Gresham died at Washington, D. C., shortly after 1 o'clock Tuesday morning, of pneumonia and heart failure, following an attack of pleurisy. Secretary Gresham was first taken sick early in May, and was well on the road to recovery when acute pneumonia set in with a fatal result. The deceased secretary was born March 17th, 1832, in Harrison county, Indiana. Like so many of the eminent men in this country his childhood and early manhood were marked by poverty and adverse circumstances, which were overcome by energy and ability. He came of Whig stock and when that party dissolved identified himself with the Republican party and followed its fortunes until 1893, when he became lukewarm in the cause and occupied something of an independent attitude. He became Secretary of State upon the inauguration of President Cleveland in 1893. His previous record was an eminently honorable one. He served with distinction in the war for the Union and rose to the rank of Major-General of Volunteers. He was appointed United States District Judge of Indiana by President Grant, a position which he filled with honor until 1883, when he was appointed Secretary of the Treasury by President Arthur and served until October, 1884, when he voluntarily retired and in December following was appointed Judge of the United States Circuit Court of Illinois. This office he resigned to become a member of Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet. He was also Postmaster-General for a short period.

Judge Gresham's name was frequently mentioned in connection with the nomination for the Presidency of the United States, as a Republican.

Henson Lynched.

Jacob Henson, the young colored man who was convicted of the murder of Daniel F. Shea, at Ellicott's City, and the date of whose execution had been fixed for June 7th by Gov. Brown, was taken from the jail of Howard county, at midnight of Tuesday, by a party of less than twenty disguised men, and hanged on a dogwood tree in Merrick's lane, a short distance from the prison. Henson was gagged and bound when taken from the jail and was forced to walk part of the way over Patapsco Heights towards the spot selected for his execution, but his terror was so great that he fainted and had to be dragged the remaining distance.

The lynching was caused, apparently, by the fear that the sentence of the condemned man might have been commuted on account of the doubt prevalent in relation to his sanity. The members of the State Lunacy Commission had examined him and Gov. Brown had requested Drs. Charles G. Hill, George H. Rohe, L. G. Smart and other experts to make a formal report on the sanity of the murderer. A piece of paper upon which the following was written was found pinned to Henson's clothing:

"We respect our court and judges. Governor Brown forced the law-abiding citizens to carry out the verdict of the jury."

While there does not seem to be much public sympathy for the victim of the lynchers, his unlawful taking off must be condemned by the really law-abiding citizens. Henson was guilty of a brutal and atrocious murder and, if morally responsible, richly deserved the judgment passed upon him by the court. If any reasonable doubt of his sanity existed there could be no tenable objection to the Governor ascertaining the truth in relation to his mental condition. It is not probable that he could have shammed insanity to such a degree as to deceive experienced experts, and he would probably have been hanged legally next Friday. The men who hanged him were law-breakers not law-abiding citizens. By their act they simply declared their unwillingness to abide by the acts of the lawfully constituted authorities and they have made themselves amenable to the law which they have outraged. How much better is murder for vengeance than murder prompted by cupidity?

The authorities of Howard county ought to be able to discover the lynchers and bring them to account. It was not a mob acting under a sudden and fierce impulse, but a small body of cool, calculating and determined men. There is less excuse for the lynching in this case than can be offered in most instances, therefore, and the act itself would indicate a steady decline in respect for the law. It is time its violators should be taught a salutary lesson and Howard county is offered an opportunity to do so that should not be neglected.

A Movement in Maryland for Lay Representation in the Annual Conferences of the M. E. Church.

The following address, signed by a number of prominent laymen of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Maryland and the District of Columbia, is a long step in the direction of an important change in the polity of that denomination in relation to the question of lay representation in the Annual Conferences. The address will, without doubt, be read with interest by members of other denominations as well as by those of the Church immediately interested in the movement:

To the Laymen of the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

BALTIMORE, MAY 24TH, 1895.

It is a matter of record that the Rev. George C. Bacon, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church, Hagerstown, Maryland, introduced a resolution at the last session of the Baltimore Annual Conference recommending lay representation at the Annual Conferences of the Church, and that the same was referred to a committee with instructions to report at the next Annual Conference. Believing the sentiment of the laity to be in accord with the movement thus inaugurated by the clergy, the district stewards' meetings in the three Baltimore districts elected representatives to confer upon the subject with representatives from the Washington and Frederick districts.

Such Conferences having been held and unanimity of opinion developed, it was determined to bring the subject promptly forward to the end that intelligent and deliberate action might be taken upon the proposed change in the polity of our Church.

In pursuance of that plan it has been resolved to send each Recording Steward in the Baltimore Conference a copy of this circular with the request that it be read in the Official meeting and that lay-delegates from each Church or Station be elected during May or early in June to meet in a laymen's Convention, to be held at Wesley Hall, over the Methodist Book Rooms, 118 E. Baltimore street, on Friday, June 21st, at 8 p. m., for the purpose of considering the question.

Short addresses by prominent laymen from the several districts will be made bearing on the subject. You are strongly urged to see that your Church is properly represented at this convention which is to consider a question of so much moment to Methodism. And the Recording Stewards are requested to forward the names and addresses of the delegates as soon as chosen, to Walter Kirwan, Esq., Room 50, Chamber of Commerce, Baltimore, Md.

The paper of the people, for the people and with the people.
Honest in Motive. Fearless in Expression. Sound in Principle. Unswerving in its allegiance to right theories and right practices.
The Sun publishes all the news all the time, but it does not allow its columns to be degraded by unclean, immoral or purely sensational matter. Editorially, The Sun is the consistent and unchangeable champion and defender of popular rights and interests against political machines and monopolies of every character. Independent in all things, extreme in none. It is for good laws, good government and good order. By mail Fifty Cents a month, Six Dollars a year.

The Baltimore Weekly Sun.
The Weekly Sun publishes all the news of each week, giving complete accounts of all events of interest throughout the world. As an Agricultural paper the Weekly Sun is unsurpassed. It is edited by writers of practical experience, who know what farming means and what farmers want in an agricultural journal. It contains regular reports of the work of the agricultural experiment stations throughout the country, of the proceedings of farmers' clubs and institutes, and the discussion of new methods and ideas in agriculture. Its market reports, Poultry Department and Veterinary column are particularly valuable to country readers. Every issue contains Stories, Poems, Household and Puzzle Columns, a variety of interesting and instructive selected matter and other features, which make it a welcome visitor in city and country homes alike.

THE MORNING HERALD
FOR 1895.
The Publishers take pleasure in announcing that "The Morning Herald" has recently been enlarged from four to eight pages, and that while the price remains at one cent per copy, or $3.00 per year to mail subscribers, each edition contains as much news and more general reading matter than is printed by the Baltimore two cent dailies.
The Telegraphic Service of "The Morning Herald" is unexcelled by any other Baltimore paper.
Its News Service in the counties is thorough and reliable.
Its Market Reports are full, complete and accurate.
Its illustrated Woman's Page is a feature that will not be found in any other Baltimore daily.
A verbatim report of the Sermon by Rev. Dr. Talmage—the celebrated Brooklyn Preacher—appears in Monday morning's edition.
"THE MORNING HERALD" will continue to be an Independent Newspaper—fair and impartial in its statements and fearless in the expression of its opinions.

"THE SUNDAY HERALD,"
Of twenty-four pages, is the best Sunday paper in Baltimore, and is sold at 5c. per copy, or $1.50 for a year.

"THE WEEKLY HERALD"
Is the cheapest and best eight-page weekly newspaper published in the United States, the annual subscription being 50c.

☞ "The Morning Herald" will be sent on trial for one week to any person sending his or her address, enclosing 5 cents, to the

MILLER BRO'S

Furniture Given Away!

WE ARE GIVING AWAY
A LARGE LINE OF ELEGANT FURNITURE,
especially manufactured for us by the Lyon Table and Supply Co. of Buffalo, N. Y. Come to our Stores and see the presents and the articles themselves you will soon possess. They COST YOU NOTHING!
They are the finest and most useful premium articles ever offered in this or any other city. They are given when you have traded a certain amount at our stores.

Not necessary to trade it all at one time; trade at your convenience, and all purchases will count towards the presents.

Rumember that we do not ask you any higher prices for the goods on account of the presents. We sell all the goods at the same price, whether we are giving you coupons or not. We have adopted this method of advertising because we believe it will result in increasing our business and at the same time share the benefits with our customers, for we know that if you get such presents from us you will not forget us, and the articles themselves will advertise us every day while in your house.

See cut in this week's Advocate.

Yours Respectfully,
MILLER BRO'S.,

HURRAH FOR WHEAT!

Our cry is a dollar for the next crop; and we want to say to our customers that we will be at the old Stand where we have been so many years. Other firms come and go, but we stay here forever. Come and see us when you have anything to sell.

To all Housekeepers we take pleasure in recommending our Flour, for sale by all first-class grocers; made from choice old Wheat and by the latest improved machinery.

Ask your grocer for our Flour.

Farmers' trade and exchange especially solicited.

Very Respectfully,
N. I. GORSUCH & SON,
Westminster, Md.
