REPUBLICAN CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

The members of the County Republican Central Committee, chosen at the Primaries on Saturday September 28th, 1895, are requested to meet in Westminster on Monday, October 7th, at 10 o'clock, A. M. The nominees of the convention held on Monday, September 30th, 1895, are also requested to meet with the committee.

GEO. T. MOTTER,
Chairman.

GEO. E. SHARRER, Secretary.

Every voter who desires to be free from servitude to bosses should cast his ballot, in November, for the Republican ticket.

The Advocate charges the Republicans with stealing the colors of the Baltimore Exposition for their badges. Has the Exposition a monopoly of the Maryland colors? or is this another exhibition of the Advocate's ignorance and venom?

If you want reassessment and equal taxation, vote the Republican ticket. The bosses who are running the Democratic party have four times pledged a reassessment and cheated the people every time. They have promised it again, but they can't be trusted to carry out their pledges. They'll cheat you as long as you trust them.

Unregistered Republican voters should not forget the sittings of the officers of registration in the several districts of this county, on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week. These will be the last registration days this year. See advertisement in another column of the SENTINEL, of the places at which the registrars will sit on the days named. Don't fail to register and vote the Republican ticket.

Democratic newspapers like the Advocate, and some Democrats who utterly ignore the logic of facts, are endeavoring to create the impression that their party favors and the Republicans oppose reassessment. The Advocate says: "The issues, so far as Carroll Democrats are concerned, are Democracy vs. Republicanism; Equal Taxation vs. Tax Dodging." The brazen impudence of the latter assertion is without a parallel. It is like Satan accusing an angel of sin. Everybody knows that the Democratic bosses, who are running the State campaign and who will control the legislature if the Democrats shall be in a majority, have been controlling the executive and legislative branches of the State government during the last twenty years, and, in violation of the most solemn pledges, have repeatedly prevented the enactment of an equitable assessment and tax law. The Democratic candidate for Governor lent them his willing assistance to defeat such a measure before the last legislature. On the other hand the Republicans are solemnly pledged to a proper reassessment of property and the equalization of taxation, and they have no violated pledges to confront and accuse them.

Strong Words From a Democrat.

Following is an extract from a personal letter received on Tuesday by a well known business man of this county from one of the oldest and most prominent jobbers in Baltimore, whose fealty to Democracy has never for a moment been questioned. Referring, in the letter, to the present state of political affairs, he says:

"Every influence should be brought to bear against the infernal despotism which has gotten the State and city by the throat. Gorman has exterted every effort to wreck Cleveland, and defeat all the pledges of the Chicago platform. I cannot believe that the powers above will much longer tolerate this unprincipled demagogue. Lowndes will be the next Governor of Maryland."

Every citizen entitled to vote at the election in November should see that his name is on the list of registered voters.

The twenty-third annual meeting of the Reformed Synod of the Potomac will be held in Frederick, commencing on the 22nd inst.

The Convention and Its Nominees.

The Republican convention which met in this city on Monday to nominate candidates for the legislature and county offices, was a thoroughly representative body and was composed of delegates who came together for the purpose of selecting the best possible ticket, according to their own careful judgment, without dictation from cliques, factions, or bosses. It was, in all respects, the people's convention and, as the people's will was understood, carried it into effect. Naturally, where there were numerous aspirants there were disappointments. It was not an easy matter, where there were so many excellent and worthy men seeking nominations, to make selections between them, and in several cases more than one ballot was necessary. As far as can be judged there was no combination to further the chances of any candidate, but the delegates voted of their own volition for whoever seemed best to them to be nominated. It was a refreshing spectacle after the cut-and-dried manner in which most of the nominations of the late Democratic nominating convention were made, according to a previously arranged slate. In the Republican convention there was no slate and the delegates had to do their own selecting.

The first nomination made was that of Dr. J. J. Weaver, Jr., of Uniontown, who was chosen as the party's candidate for State Senator by acclamation. Dr. Weaver is widely known in this county as an able and educated gentleman. He is a graduate of Pennsylvania College and for a number of years practiced the profession of medicine very successfully in Uniontown and vicinity. He is a man of high character and is an excellent speaker and debater. He was in the hall when his nomination was made, and after repeated calls addressed the convention and accepted its trust in a speech that convinced everybody who heard him that, if elected, he will not be confined in his utterances in the Senate to "aye" and "no," but will be able to discuss questions and measures that may come before that body with his fellow-senators. In the restricted space to which this article must be confined it is only possible to add that in the speech referred to Dr. Weaver left no room for doubt as to his views on the question of taxation. He announced himself in favor of a re-assessment and the taxation of all property, of every species, real, personal and mixed. He employed the strongest possible terms to convey his meaning on the subject and is under a personal pledge to do his utmost to carry the views he expressed into effect by legislation.

Of the candidates for the House of Delegates, Dr. Clotworthy Birnie is one of the ablest and best men in the county. He resides in Taneytown, a few miles from the home in which he was born and reared. He is a practicing physician and attends the humblest of his patients, where no fee or reward is expected, with the same earnest care that he gives to the most prominent and influential. He is a gentleman of fine education and marked ability, an able speaker and a forcible and logical reasoner, and no better nomination for the legislature has ever been made by any party in Carroll or any other county of the State.

Mr. Wm. F. Cover, of York Road, is another admirable legislative candidate. He is not a member of any of the learned professions, but he is an excellent and successful business man and an intelligent and worthy gentleman. He was, for a number of years, engaged in farming and is thoroughly conversant with the need of legislation for the promotion of justice to the interests of the farmers of the State. He is at this time conducting the warehouse business at York Road, and is in constant contact with the farmers of the surrounding country.

Mr. Charles H. Smith, of Mt. Airy district, is said to be one of the best men on the ticket. Those who know him best commend him most highly as a gentleman of probity, intelligence and decision of character. Our own acquaintance with him is limited, but he impresses all with whom he comes in contact very favorably, and will give the people of the county, before the campaign is over, an opportunity of seeing what manner of man he is. That he fully deserves their votes there is no doubt and if elected will make an able and valuable representative in the lower house.

Mr. Charles J. H. Ganter, of Manchester, is probably the best known of all the candidates on the legislative ticket. He is a successful druggist in the town of Manchester, and is connected with the press as the editor and publisher of the Manchester Telephone. He is an intelligent and worthy gentleman and will make an able representative if elected to the House of Delegates. He was, for a number of years, postmaster of Manchester, and was a thoroughly efficient officer.

Taken altogether the legislative ticket is one of the best ever nominated by either party in this county and the Republicans are proud of it, as they have just reason to be.

For the sheriffalty the nomination of Mr. Wm. D. Slack, of Freedom district, is an excellent one. Mr. Slack had as competitors in the convention some of the best and worthiest citizens of the county. His nomination was not made without a contest, and three ballots were required to make a choice between the aspirants, and then Mr. E. D. Bowersox, near this city, came within three votes of a majority. Having won, Mr. Slack's worth as a man and his fitness for the position entitle him to the hearty support of the Republicans and other citizens of the county who appreciate true merit. He was a candidate for the legislature in 1891, and became widely and favorably known in the county.

Among the candidates for Judges of of the Orphans' Court, Judge Albert Schaeffer, now a resident of Westminster district, was nominated for re-election, having been the only candidate on the Republican ticket elected in 1891. During the four years of his incumbency of the office he has discharged its duties with fidelity and in such manner as to win the respect of everybody who has had business with the court. He is a quiet, unassuming gentleman, but a man of sterling character and worth.

Mr. Wm. Y. Frizzell, of Franklin district, another of the candidates for the Orphans' Court, is widely and favorably known throughout the county. He is a large landholder and farmer and is also engaged in other business that has brought him in contact with the people. His strongest political opponents hold him in high esteem and he is universally known as a man of pure and upright character and excellent judgment and ability, the very sort of man to make a thoroughly competent and trustworthy judge of the Orphans' Court.

Mr. William Wallace Naill, of New Windsor district, another of the Orphans' Court nominees, is a son of the late Capt. David W. Naill, of Sams Creek, who frequently represented Frederick county in the House of Delegates and Senate during his lifetime. Mr. Naill was a candidate on the Republican legislative ticket in this county fifteen or twenty years ago, and is well known as a thoroughly upright, worthy and intelligent citizen, conscientious in the discharge of every duty, public and private. He deserves the hearty support of the people.

Three excellent gentlemen were put in nomination before the convention as competitors against those chosen for the Orphans' Court ticket, but they were all from Manchester district, which had already received the nomination of a candidate for the House of Delegates, a fact which with a divided delegation, militated against them and prevented either of them from being chosen.

Mr. Arthur F. Smith, who was nominated for State's Attorney by acclamation, is a native of this city and a son of the late Judge John E. Smith. He was educated at Western Maryland College and Pennsylvania College, and studied law in the office of McKellip & Clabaugh. He was admitted to the bar several years ago, but for a time turned his attention to other pursuits. He is now practicing his profession at the Westminster bar and has many friends who will rejoice to see him successfully pursuing the calling in which his honored father attained such great distinction.

Mr. Israel C. Rinehart, whose nomination for County Commissioner was made by acclamation and with a heartiness that showed the convention's appreciation of his eminent fitness for the station, is a well known citizen of Union Bridge district. He is largely interested in the economical and careful administration of the affairs of the county, being a citizen of substance and a successful farmer and also engaged in other important business. He is a most excellent citizen and no man in the county is better qualified, by intelligence and judgment, to discharge the duties of County Commissioner.

Mr. Alfred T. Buckingham, of Woolery's district, the nominee for County Treasurer, is a successful merchant and has been engaged in business at Bird Hill for a number of years. He is well known in the county and is universally regarded as a capable, upright and efficient business man, with a character above reproach and a reputation of which any citizen might well feel proud. His nomination was made on the fourth ballot, against two excellent citizens and after a close contest.

Mr. Wm. A. Roop, who was nominated for County Surveyor by acclomation, is a well known and highly esteemed citizen of Westminster district, competent, upright and most worthy of the respect of the people. The office may be of little value or importance, but the nominee is a first-class man and completes a ticket thoroughly deserving the support of the people.

Following the report of the committee on credentials the committee on resolutions, though its chairman, P. B. Englar, made the following report, which was unanimously adopted:

That the Republican convention of Carroll county heartily endorses the platform of principles as adopted at the Republican State convention, and pledges its nominees to a business-like and economical administration of the affairs of the various offices which they may be called to fill, and deprecates the present lavish expenditure of money in the various county offices, as evidenced by the last published county statement. The platform hereby recommended is as follows:

The Republicans of Maryland in convention assembled renew their allegiance to the National Republican party, and declare:

1. That nearly a score of years has gone by since there has been a general reassessment of property in this State, during all which time the inequalities and injustices in the distribution of the public burdens have been growing greater, and every effort to remove them has been defeated by the managers of the Democratic party in order that some of them might get votes by demanding a reassessment and others merely by preventing it.

2. That a Republican victory in Maryland at the ensuing election will insure to the people the prompt passage of a reassessment law so framed as to require that every person holding property in the State shall contribute his proportion of public taxes for the support of the government according to his actual worth in real or personal property.

3. That the rapid increase of municipal indebtedness emphasizes the necessity for the speedy adoption of the amendment to the state constitution which shall be an effectual limitation upon the debt-incurring capacity of the cities and counties of Maryland.

4. That all ingenious devices by which the leaders of the hitherto dominant party in this state have sought to prevent a free and fair expression of the public will at the polls shall be swept away.

The control of the machinery of their elections restored to the people of the several counties.

Registration made annual in Baltimore city and quadrennial, with annual revision, in the counties.

The supervisory powers of the courts over the action of the registers made effective and not illusory.

And the right to places on the official ballots secured to the nominees of independent citizens as well as to those of the regular party organizations.

5. That of all the means for insuring that a government of the people for the people and by the people shall not perish from the earth the most certain is an effectual public school system which shall give to the poorest child in the state the opportunity to obtain an education without money and without price; and we pledge ourselves to such amendments of the school law as shall exclude politics from their management and secure free school books to their pupils.

6. That all public offices exist for the good of the people only, and it is the right of the people to have them administered with an eye single to the public interests, and we, therefore, pledge ourselves to the enactment of such legislation as shall permit the people of the several counties and municipalities of the state to decide for themselves by popular vote whether appointments to the police, fire and other departments of public service shall be in accordance with the principles of the merit system.

7. We condemn the partisan management of the oyster police force of this state, and we hereby denounce every effort to deprive the people of their independent right to the public oyster beds, and we announce our unalterable opposition to the leasing or selling of the same.

The convention then proceeded to the nomination of candidates for the several offices, and Messrs. Fred. D. Englar, of New Windsor, and Solomon Myers, of Uniontown, were appointed tellers. Marshall G. Shaw placed the name of Dr. J. J. Weaver, Jr., of Untontown, before the convention, for State Senatort, and he was nominated by acclamation.

For Sheriff Samuel A. Crabbs, of New Windsor, was placed in nomination by Henry Englar; Wm. D. Slack, of Freedom, by Samuel L. Little; Alfred T. Buckingham, of Woolery's, by Lewis H. Knox; E. D. Bowersox, of Westminster, by Charles C. Ingle; Chauncey E. Jérome, of Westminster, by John B. Saylor, and David Cover, of Franklin, by Howard Shipley. Three ballots were taken, resulting as follows:

Names	1st bal.	2nd bal.	3rd bal.
Crabbs	7	9	1
Slack	20	29	34
Buckingham	5	5
Bowersox	18½	17½	30
Jerome	8½	4½
Cover	6

Wm. D. Slack, having received a majority of all the delegates was declared the nominee of the convention for sheriff.

For members of the House of Delegates Charles H. Sapp, of Hampstead, was placed in nomination by Jos. W. Miller; Charles H. Smith, of Mt. Airy, by Walter R. Rudy; Charles J. H. Ganter, of Manchester, by Joshua Murdock; William F. Cover, of Middleburg, by William Wood; Dr. Clotworthy Birnie, of Taneytown, by P. B. Englar. A single ballot was taken, resulting as follows:

Sapp.....30
Smith.....60
Ganter.....55
Cover.....50
Birnie.....65

Messrs. Smith, Ganter, Cover and Birnie having received the highest number of ballots cast, and a majority of all the delegates, were declared the nominees of the convention for the House of Delegates.

For judges of the Orphans' Court Noah Schaeffer, of Manchester, was placed in nomination by Ivan L. Hoff; George Gummel, of Manchester, by Joshua Murdock; Albert Schaeffer, of Westminster, by Charles C. Ingle; Wm. W. Naill, of New Windsor, by W. S. Drach; Jacob Folk, of Manchester, by Charles J. H. Ganter, and Wm. Y. Frizzell, of Franklin, by Howard Shipley. A single ballot was taken, resulting as follows:

N. Schaeffer.....12½
G. Gummel.....20½
A. Schaeffer.....63
W. W. Naill.....35
J. Folk.....1½
W. Y. Frizzell.....62

Messrs. Albert Schaeffer, Naill and Frizell, having received the highest number of ballots, and a majority of all the delegates, were declared the nominees of the convention for judges of the Orphans' Court.

For County Commissioner, Israel C. Rinehart, of Union Bridge, was placed before the convention by Wm. Wood, and on motion of M. G. Shaw was declared the nominee for that office by acclamation.

Arthur F. Smith, of Westminster, was placed in nomination for State's Attorney by Charles J. H. Ganter, and on motion of M. G. Shaw was declared the nominee of the convention for that position by acclamation.

For County Treasurer, Alfred T. Buckingham, of Woolery's, was placed in nomination by Wm. Wood; Charles H. Sapp, of Hampstead, by J. W. Miller, and Thomas Zepp, of Westminster, by Charles C. Ingle. Four ballots were taken, with the following result:

NAMES.	1st Ballot.	2nd Ballot.	3rd Ballot.	4th Ballot.
Buckingham	31½	27	25	34
Sapp	20½	26	29	31
Zepp	13	12	11

Mr. Buckingham having received a majority of all the delegates on the fourth ballot was declared the nominee of the convention for county treasurer.

For County Surveyor, Wm. A. Roop, of Westminster, was placed in nomination by M. G. Shaw, and on motion was declared the nominee for that position, by acclamation.

On motion the convention adjourned.

GEORGE T. MOTTER,
CHAIRMAN.

CHARLES MELVILLE,
J. H. T. EARHART,
Secretaries.

After the adjournment the new County Central Committee met for organization, and Dr. George T. Motter, of Taneytown, was elected chairman; George E. Sharrer, of Westminster, secretary, and Dr. George E. Baughman, of Westminster, treasurer.

The story of the murder of Mr. Wm. Russell, a prominent merchant at Reisterstown, who was shot and killed by burglars about thirteen years ago, has been revived by a report that a man who died recently at Mt. Hope confessed that he was involved in the murder and implicated two other persons. Nobody, however, at that institution, can be found who knows anything about the alleged confession, and the report seems to be without foundation. Dr. Hill, who has charge of the medical staff at the institution, says the man, who, it is said, made it, was suffering with acute melancholia. The doctor inquired about it, but none of the sisters in charge had any knowledge on the subject.

If you want reassessment, don't trust the promises of the people who cheated you of that measure four times already. Vote the Republican ticket.
