DIED,

At St. John's College, Annapolis, on Thursday last, HENRY CLAY WORTHINGTON, eldest son of the late Walter B. C. Worthington, in the 15th year of his age.

It is but seldom we are called upon to record the premature end of such as had arrived at this period of life. We always have some announcement of the falling away of the aged, or the untimely cutting off of the very young—flowers nipped in the very bud. But it is a melancholy task to notice the departure of one on whom the dearest hopes of many friends were centered, who had just arrived at the age for the development of his faculties, and had just begun to give earnest of the satisfaction he was in future to render to those same hoping friends. The deceased was a manly youth. His very countenance showed forth a noble nature, that only wanted years to exhibit itself in all its beauty. But his high-mindedness and correct course, so far in life as he reached, must afford that consolation which cannot otherwise be offered to his friends, whose longing expectations have been thus suddenly terminated.

"Slow moves the plumed hearse, the mourning train—
I mark the sad procession with a sigh,
Silently passing to that family fane,
Where, HARRY, thy forefathers mouldering lie;—
There sleeps that Mother, who with tearful eye,
Pondering the fortunes of thy early road,
Hung o'er the slumbers of thine infancy;
Her son, released from mortal labour's load,
Now comes to rest, with her, in the same still abode.

"Bursting Death's silence—could that mother speak—
(Speak when the earth was heap'd upon his head)—
In thrilling, but with hollow accent weak,
She thus might give the welcome of the dead:—
"Here rest, my son, with me;—the dream is fled;—
The motley mask and the great stir is o'er:
Welcome to me, and to this silent bed,
Where deep forgetfulness succeeds the roar
Of life, and fretting passions waste the heart no more."

ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE,
February 20, 1853.

At a meeting of the "State Rifles," held in the Recitation Hall of the Grammar Department, WM. H. GASSAWAY was called to the chair, and Charles E. Hutton appointed secretary.

On motion of Isaac W. Brewer, the following resolutions were offered and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we have heard with deep and poignant sorrow of the death of our esteemed fellow soldier and student, HENRY CLAY WORTHINGTON, the first ever taken from our midst.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the family of the deceased in the sad bereavement which they have been so suddenly called to lament.

Resolved, That in token of respect for the deceased, we will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days, and attend the funeral in full uniform.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be signed by the officers of this meeting, published, and a copy forwarded to the family of the deceased.

WM. H. GASSAWAY, President.
Charles E. Hutton, Sec'y.

BALTIMORE MARKET.

GRAIN.—Wheat.—The receipts by water have been very small indeed. The sales on Monday were at 107a109 cents for good to prime reds, and at 110a115 cts. for whites.—From wagons, reds were taken at 100a105 cts. On Wednesday prices were a little better, with sales of good to prime reds, afloat, at 108a110 cents, and of whites at 112a117 cts.; and reds from wagons at 105a108 cents. Yesterday the sales of reds, afloat, were at 110a113 cents.—To-day we quote the wagon price of reds at 108a112 and 113 cents. No reds afloat. Family flour whites are worth 115a120 cts.

Corn.—On Monday, sales of both white and yellow at 57a58 cents; on Wednesday of white at 55a57 cts., and of yellow at 57a58 cents.—To-day there is little or none afloat; we quote both kinds at 56a58 cents. A lot of prime yellow by railroad was sold to-day at 59 cents.

Oats.—Sales in the early part of the week at 36a40 cents for Md. and at 42 cts. for Penna. Since then, a sale of Penna. at 40 cts. Little or no Md. in market.

Cloverseed.—Sales of prime parcels at $6, and we quote that price to-day.

Timothy Seed.—Sales at $3.12½.

Flaxseed.—There is little or nothing doing in this article. We quote at 140 ctss per bushel.

MAY.— We quote baled Hay at $18 per ton, and loose, from wagons, $16a18. Sales of Staw at $12.

TOBACCO.—The maket is almost entirely bare of Maryland, and the agents are therefore unable to supply the wants of shippers, who are anxiously waiting the receipts of the new crop. Prices are nominally the same as last week, which we continue, viz: Maryland Ground Leaf $3.50a7; frosted $3.25a4; inferior $4a4.50; good common $4.75a5.25; brown $6a 7.60 and fine brown $8. There is nothing doing in Ohio, of which the stock is also very small. We continue to quote, inferior and common middling $4a5; good $5a6.50; fine red $6a8; fine wrappery $10a15; and yellow $10a16. The inspections of the week are only 14 hhds. Maryland, and 7 hhds. Ohio.

A Cloud of Witnesses.

We have certificates from Hon. Henry Clay and R. M. Johnson—one from Captain Cannot, brother to the eminent Physician to the President of the French Republic, who was cured of a Rheumatism of 7 years standing—also, one from Robert Gault, Rheumatism of 7 years. Mr. Oldham, Baltimore Custom House, dreadful case of Dyspepsia, and from hundreds of others. All must admit there never has been such a mass of testimony in favor of any other medicine, which is so pleasant and taken in such small quantities.

GREATER WEIGHT OF TESTIMONY CANNOT BE GIVEN.

Were there ever so many cures—wonderful cures made by any other medicine? All we ask of the afflicted is, that they try HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE, the purifier of the blood and cure for all chronic diseases, as Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Scrofula, and all complaints of the stomach, bowels, &c.

Pamphlets, with a history of the medicine, with certificates of many wonderful cures, may be had at the stores having the Tincture for sale, gratis.

You owe it to yourself to call and get a pamphlet, it may be the means of curing you. See certificates in to day's paper. JOHN T. W. DEAN and GEO. W. WILSON are the agents for Upper Marlboro'. WILLIAM H. EARLY, for Brandywine.

Administrator's Sale

Of over ONE HUNDRED NEGROES and other Personal Property.

THE undersigned, by virtue of an order of the Orphans' court of Anne Arundel county, Maryland, will, as the administrator of James Kent, late of said county, deceased, expose to public sale

On TUESDAY, the 15th day of March next, at Portland Manor, the late residence of the deceased, of which he died possessed, consisting in part of about One HUNDRED NEGROES; HORSES, MULES, and other stock; FARMING UTENSILS, and the crop of WHEAT now growing upon the estate, HOUSEHOLD and KITCHEN FURNITURE, &c.

As this is the most extensive sale of Negroes and other personal property offered for many years in Maryland, and as the property will be sold without reserve, it will offer a sufficient inducement to attend the sale to all who may desire to purchase such property.

THE TERMS OF SALE are cash for all sums under Fifty Dollars, and cash or approved acceptances with satisfactory endorsers at six months, including interest, for all sums above Fifty Dollars. All property when knocked off will be at the risk of the purchaser, and if the terms of sale are not complied with, the property will be forthwith resold, and the former purchaser held responsible for any difference between the amount of the second and the first sale.

Classical, Mathematical and Military School.

RUMFORD ACADEMY,
KING WILLIAM, VIRGINIA.

THIS School is about two miles from Sharon Church, on the stage road between Richmond and Tappahannock. So healthful is the location, that but few cases of serious sickness have occurred in the School since its establishment in 1804. No expense is spared in providing for the physical comforts of the Pupils.—Treated in every respect as young gentlemen, they are required to conduct themselves as such.

The subscriber, who has been engaged eight years in guiding and instructing youth, will be aided by competent assistants.

The usual English course, including Chemistry and Philosophy, an extensive course of Mathematics, and the Latin, Greek and French Languages, will be taught. Tactics will be taught if a Drill Class can be formed.

A recess of one week will be given at Easter.

TERMS:

For Board and Tuition, with every necessary except Lights and Stationery, from 15th of January to 1st of July, $84 00
Payable one-half the 1st of May, the other half the 1st of July.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

This is to certify, that JOHN H. PITTS, Principal of the Rumford Academy, graduated at this Institution with the highest honors of his class, in July, 1844, and since that period has been constantly and most successfully discharging the duties of a Teacher in Fleetwood Academy. During Mr. Pitt's connection with this institution, he discharged for a year the duties of an Assistant Professor, and to our entire satisfaction.

I cheerfully recommend the Rumford Academy, under the charge of Mr. Pitts, to the public, believing that he will give the fullest satisfaction to all who may patronize him.

FRS. H. SMITH, Sup't. V. M. I.
V. M. Institute, Oct. 4, 1848.

The high stand that Pupils instructed by Mr. Pitts have maintained at College, assures us that his mode of instruction is thorough and successful. This fact, together with his admirable discipline, as shown by the unusually correct deportment of his pupils, warrants us in recommending his School most highly.

WM. BOULWARE, King & Queen.
CORBIN BRAXTON, King William.
R. M. T. HUNTER, Essex.
J. B. CHRISTIAN, New Kent.

November 10, 1850.

When the foregoing was given, these gentlemen were visitors of William and Mary College, the Virginia Military Institute, and the University of Virginia.

Residing near Rumford Academy, we are well acquainted with the manner in which the School is conducted.—The discipline is mild and parental, but firm and vigilant—its efficacy is seen in the conduct of the students, to whose irreproachable and gentlemanly deportment it gives us pleasure to testify. We cordially recommend the school as one of higher moral tone than any similar institution we have ever known.

D. H. GREGG,
JAMES ROANE,
THOMAS ROANE,
WM. S. FONTAINE.
