SATURDAY, JUNE 2, 1900.

Matches were a dollar a gross cheaper last year than in 1895. That was not much of a burden on the workingman or his wife.

Exports of corn in 1895, under free trade, were only 28,585,405 bushels. In 1898 and in 1899, under protection, they averaged 200,000,000 bushels each year.

An advance of 10 per cent in the wages of the employees of the West Virginia oil companies. This will hardly mix with the cold water the Democratic editors are trying to throw on prosperity.

William J. Bryan leads the Populist ticket as its candidate for the Presidency on a platform that "reaffirms the demand for the reopening of the mints of the United States to the free and unlimited coinage of silver and gold at the present legal ratio of 16 to 1."

American mills consumed 1,257,190,466 pounds of cotton in 1896. They manufactured 2,006,48,795 pounds in 1899. The Southern planters and mill hands should not lose sight of the fact that protection increased the demand for home consumption by 750,000,000 pounds.

In two years of the Cleveland Administration, 1894-95, we exported $151-199,092 more gold than we imported. In two years of the McKinley Administration we imported $141,703,309 more gold than we exported. The difference to the country, in the two periods, was $292,902,401 in favor of McKinley. This doesn't include the billion-dollar favorable trade balance.

In 1895, one of the years of Democratic disaster, the exports of American cotton goods were worth only $13,789,-810. In 1899 they amounted to $23,566-914. Under the policy of protection there was an increase of nearly $10,000-000 in the foreign demand for American goods, and fully $8,000,000 of this amount was paid by foreigners to American wage-earners.

CARROLL COUNTY AND THE REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATION.

Editor American Sentinel:

The following communication was addressed to and intended for publication in the Baltimore American of Sunday last, but its length was regarded as against its appearance in that paper, as it is, in a certain sense, only local to this county, although designed to reach and inform the Republicans of the other counties of the Second Congressional district of what the writer considers the paramount claims of Carroll to the nomination of some one of her citizens as the Republican candidate for Congress this year. May I, therefore, ask its insertion in the SENTINEL, as the expression of my views upon that subject, and further request that you permit that portion of it which is personal to yourself to go unchanged. The SENTINEL has, under your editorship, heretofore made a strong and courageous fight for the rights of Carroll county, but since your own name has been suggested in connection with the congressional nomination, I perceive that you are more or less embarrassed in relation to the matter and hesitate to continue to give full expression to your views upon the subject. The claims of the county, however, are so palpably fair and just that I trust you will suffer nothing of a personal character to deter you from bringing them again and again to the attention of the readers of the SENTINEL. The communication designed for publication in the American, referred to above, is as follows:

WESTMINSTER, MD., MAY 24TH, 1900.

MR. EDITOR.—In the Baltimore American of Sunday, 20th inst., my name is mentioned in connection with the Republican nomination for Congress in the 2nd district. While one may not decline what has not been tendered, it is due to myself no less than to many friends here and elsewhere in the district, to say, that I am not, in any sense of the word, a candidate, nor in so far as I can prevent, will my name go before the convention for that honor.

I am frank enough to admit, that I am not possessed of sufficient means to make the liberal money contribution, which is expected and required in these days for a vigorous campaign.

Although I have given an active and generous support to the party, for more than thirty-five years, and never held an office under the Government, except in the Union Army during the civil war, in common with many of the survivors of the 50,000 and more men which this State furnished, I am almost persuaded that such service is a source of weakness, rather than of strength to the candidate, by affording political opponents, and some Republicans as well, an opportunity for saying that the soldier "has had his day." "Tis true, 'tis pity and pity 'tis, 'tis true," that in this State, for the past few years, the controlling power in our party has so managed as not to accord to the old soldiers even a little part of a day. Whilst I am not a candidate, nor even an officeholder, I am yet a Republican, anxious to have my native county receive that just recognition to which she is fairly entitled, and which has hitherto been denied to her.

It is now more than sixty-three years since Carroll County was formed. She is the fifth in wealth and population in the State, responded to the call for troops, with more than 1000 men who had their day when patriotism was heroic, and yet, has had but one nomination for Congress, that of 1870, when for a short time we were in the 6th district. For fifty-three years we have been in the 2nd district and in all that time, not a single nomination from any party opposed to Democracy has been conceded to this county. Not only is this so, but, from its creation in 1837, to the present time, it has never had a general appointment to any one of the leading Federal offices in this State, from any President, Whig or Republican.

It is not necessary for me to recount, how generously the other counties have been dealt with in the last half of a century. And one who has been identified with, and given active support to the party can easily name the important positions each has had.

Now, Hon. W. L. W. Seabrook, at this time and for many years past editor of the "American Sentinel," who has had large experience, acquired in important public positions, and has been unswerving in fidelity to, and in giving active and generous support to the party in this county and State, has been named in connection with the nomination as a Carroll county man, as has also Dr. J. J. Weaver, Jr., recently the candidate for State Senator, either of whom will compare favorably with any others to come before the convention.

If we are to win in the district, and the State as well, the party must be thoroughly united. Something more is wanted than mere surface harmony, brought about by manipulators of primaries and conventions to gratify a few men. Some deference must be paid to the wishes of the rank and file of the party, the men behind the ballots, without whose active and cordial support, so-called leaders will manipulate and pull the political wires in vain. It is because Republicans here feel they have been long enough ignored, that it will be insisted upon that the nomination for Congress this term, be given to the man Carroll shall present for that honor. Entirely out of the contest my self, with no desire or intention of getting into it, nevertheless, I am very anxious that President McKinley shall be re-elected, and our Congressional nominee succeed in the district, and to that end, I pledge my best efforts.

Respectfully, &c.,

WM. A. MCKELLIP.

Memorial Day.

Memorial day was fittingly observed at most places where Union soldiers lie buried, but probably the occasion was most prominently observed on the battlefield of Antietam, where a monument, erected by the State of Maryland in commemoration of the valor of the soldiers in both contending armies, was dedicated in the presence of a vast throng of spectators. President McKinley and Secretary Root were among the speakers from the North, and Gen. Joe Wheeler, Gen. Longstreet and others from the South. The President was introduced by Gen. H. Kyd Douglas, of Maryland, an Ex-Confederate officer. The event was one of the most striking in the annals of nations and was perhaps the first in the history of the world in which, within a little more than a third of a century after a gigantic civil war, the memory of the contending hosts was sanctified by the erection of a memorial stone to those engaged on both sides of the struggle.

A PARAMOUNT ISSUE.

It is rather remarkable to hear Sound Money Democrats and Free Silver Democrats alike arguing that the election of Col. Wm. Jennings Bryan, on a free silver platform, cannot be detrimental to the financial interests of the country, because the Senate will be Republican during the whole period of the next administration, and will therefore prevent the repeal of the currency act passed by a Republican Congress and approved by President McKinley. This is tantamount to the declaration by the Democrats that they should only be entrusted with national authority to a certain extent and that it is necessary that the Republicans continue to share that authority with them to prevent the success of their financial heresies. This is a naive confession, to be sure, but, while it is true, it does not constitute a valid reason for the election of a Democratic President and House of Representatives. The acknowledgement that harm and injury to the country would follow absolute Democratic success should be sufficient to utterly discredit that party in the minds of all who believe in a sound financial system and in a currency free from depreciation.

There is no issue or question before the American people of more importance than that of the currency. The Republican party has done everything within its power to insure stability to every form of the circulating medium, against the assaults of Bryanism. It has fortified the currency by a law which pledges the government to make every dollar in circulation equal to gold. It has established gold as the money standard of the country and placed the money on a gold basis. But a large portion of the Democratic party is hostile to that standard and is seeking to gain power for the purpose of overthrowing it.

It cannot be doubted that Democratic success in the national election, with Bryan as the candidate for President upon a 16 to 1 free silver platform, would be interpreted as a victory for the silver cause, and would tremendously weaken the cause of sound money. Its effect would be to create doubt and distrust in the minds of those who believe that prosperity cannot exist in time of peace upon an unstable, unreliable currency. The country knows that with the Republicans in power in the nation the stability of the currency will be maintained. It knows that with the Democrats in control of the government the soundness of the currency system would be imperiled. The nation cannot afford to risk that peril by elevating Bryan to the Presidency and introducing Bryanism as the controlling authority in either House of Congress.

GENERAL CONFERENCE M P. CHURCH.

The General Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, which met at Atlantic City, N. J., on the 18th ult., adjourned on Saturday night, to meet in Montgomery, Ala., on the fourth Friday in May, 1904. Among the important proceedings of the closing hours of the conference was the election of delegates to the ecumenical conference to be held in London, Eng., September 4th, 1901, and the appropriation of $2,500 to pay their expenses. Those elected are: Ministers, Dr. D. S. Stevens, Dr. F. T. Tagg, Dr. T. H. Lewis, Dr. M. L. Jennings, Dr. George Shaffer; laymen, Dr. J. W. Hering, Hon. W. C. Adamson, Daniel Baker, W A. Strickler.

Conference restored the word "Catholic" in the Apostles' Creed, from which it was stricken four years ago.

The committee on home missions commended the report of the secretary, from which it appeared that an indebtedness of the board has been paid and an increase of $12,000 has been made in the receipts.

Among the items of revision submitted was one demanding that M. P. Churches be closed to unknown ministers and preachers until they shall have given satisfactory reference. The purpose is to keep out ecclesiastical tramps. Dr. Lewis submitted a proposition that no applicant for the ministry shall be ordained until he shall have passed a satisfactory examination and been in the work of the ministry for three years. But it provides that licentiates put in charge of churches may be licensed to administer the ordinances of the church, the license to be renewed annually for three years, or until the conference of which he is a member elects him to full orders. It was adopted.

Rev. T. J. Ogburn was re-elected corresponding secretary of the board of foreign missions, and Rev. G. E. McManiman was elected corresponding secretary of the board of home missions.

Revs. F. C. Klein, Dr. T. H. Lewis, B. W. Anthony, and Messrs. F. F. Brierly and W. L. Wells were constituted the board of foreign missions.

The board of home missions, which has been located at Grafton, W. Va., will be transfered to Pittsburg, Pa.

The compilation of a new hymnal for the church was decided upon, and Rev. T. H. Lewis, D. D., of Maryland; Rev. S. S. Fisher, of Ohio; Rev. M. D. Helmick, of West Virginia; Dr. J. W. Hering, of Maryland, and Mr. William Watts, of Ohio, were named as a committee to prepare it for the church.

From the report of the statistical committee it appears that the church has in the United States 59 conferences, 1,646 ministers, 1,135 local ministers and preachers, 177,066 members, 4,250 probationers, 2,001 churches, 533 parsonages, 2,042 Sunday schools, 16,680 officers and teachers, 126,031 scholars. The value of church property is $4,756,-721.

Party at Freedom.

A surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Prough, on Friday evening last. Games and plays were indulged in until a late hour, when tempting refreshments were served. Those present were: Mrs. Edmonson, Mrs. N. W. Steele, Misses Anna, Florence, Mamie and Sadie Steele, Emma Koller, Pearl Bennett, Georgia and Blanche Choat, Bessie Wagner, the Misses Shoemaker, Misses Carrie Devries, Maud Edmonson, Miss Humphrey, Miss Lizzie Frey, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Prough, Messrs. Ollie and George Devries, Russell, Stevenson, Wagner, Goodwin, Harry Bushey, Ernest and William Bell, Clinton Brandenburg, James Carter, George Baseman, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Devries, N. McClosky, James Koller.

Eldersburg Items.

Farmers say that the crops are looking fine.

Freedom Lodge of Good Templars held a temperance rally in Reed's Hall, this place, on Saturday last.

This section was well represented at Winfield on the 30th ult.

Mrs. Robert Lee and Miss Sarah Barnett have returned from a visit to the Eastern Shore.

Mr. Chas. Frederick and wife visited Mr. Samuel Barnett, at this place, on Saturday last.

Mrs. John Ruby is reported as being very low at this time.

Mr. John Ried has some solid iron ore taken from the old Manro mine, which he struck while prospecting on Monday last.

Our baseball boys are very sore over their defeat at the hands of the Smallwood boys, at Winfield, on the 30th ult. They say that they will try it again at this place, on Saturday, June 16th. We hope they may win as they are true sportsmen.

Frizellburg Items.

The year closing with the last day of May has been a cool one indeed. By close observation we find there was ice nine nine months of the year.

Mr. stirling Snader, of Baltimore, made a flying trip to this place on Monday, returning the same day.

Miss Mabel Myers, who spent a week with relatives in Baltimore, is home again.

Mr. Brooke Cover and daughter, Miss Mary Cover, of Lowell, Mass., are visiting Mr. Cover's parents, in this place.

Mr. Jesse Sheets, of New Windsor, spent a day in this vicinity this week.

Festival in the hall begins on next Thursday night.

The annual all day service will be held at the Bethel on Sunday, 10th of June. A good program is being prepared for the occasion.

Mayberry Items.

On last Thursday afternoon there was quite an enjoyable time at the residence of Mr. Milton F. Morelock, near Silver Run, where there was a rifle contest, the participants in which were Messrs. Milton F. Morelock, of Silver Run; Wm. Bankard, of Union Mills; D. C. Stultz, of Woodsboro; and A. E. Fleagle, of Mayberry. We are unable to give the score but all did very good shooting, some making three consecutive center shots.

H. E. Fleagle and father attended memorial service and the dedication of the Maryland monument at Antietam on Wednesday. They report having had a very enjoyable time, as well as the gratification of seeing and hearing President McKinley, Secretary of War Root, Fighting Gen. Joe Wheeler, Gen. Longstreet and many other distinguished persons. While the cemetery is more beautiful than that at Gettysburg, the battlefield is not marked with as many monuments and not as picturesque.

On last Monday morning, Mr. Wm. J. Rodkey narrowly escaped instant death. He was driving a colt attached to a stick wagon when the animal became frightened and began kicking. Mr. Rodkey in some way slipped forward close behind the colt, holding the crosspiece of the shafts when the colt kicked it out of his hands and became detached from the wagon. After running about a mile the colt was finally captured.

Wm. R. Keefer's house is nearing completion and when finished will be a very fine and commodious structure.

Miss Edna Gordy, of Pocomoke City, is visiting Miss Cora Schaeffer, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Baughman have returned to this city from Baltimore for the summer.

Mrs. John H. Mitten, of this city, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Otterback, of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Fannie S. Pearson, of this city, is visiting relatives at Walnut Grove, Patapsco Neck, Baltimore county.

Capt. O. H. P. Mathias and daughter, Miss Etta Mathias, of Baltimore, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in this city.

Misses Nellie Stansbury of Hampstead, and Mary S. McNair, of Emmittsburg, are visiting Miss Clara Bankert, of Spring Mills,

Mr. Albert Shipley, Miss Etta Gosnell, Mr. Edgar Shipley and Miss Maud Flemming, all of Gosnell, visited Spring Grove Asylum on Sunday last, May 27.

Rev. Jesse Higgins, formerly rector of Ascension Episcopal Church, this city, has been chosen rector of the newly organized Church of the Advent at Cape May and has entered upon his duties.

Miss Myrtle Savage, of New Market, Iowa, a teacher in the schools of that state, and her brother, Mr. Verne Savage, are visiting their sister, Mrs. George E. Stoner, of this city, during vacation time.

WOULD NOT SUFFER SO AGAIN FOR FIFTY TIMES ITS PRICE.

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night for fifty times its price.—G. H. Wilson, Liveryman, Burgettstown, Washington Co., Pa. This remedy is for sale by W. Scott Zepp, Druggist.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will hold a public meeting, Whit-Monday evening, at 7.30 o'clock, at Deer Park Church. Mrs. Mary K. Haslup, president of the State Union, will be present and make the principal address, explaining the work of the organization. The pastor, Rev. C. J. Burdette, who is also Grand Chief Templar of the Good Templars of Maryland, will be present. Also, Miss S. C. Trump, the president of the Carroll County Union. Miss Lizzie and Mr. Frank K. Herr, of Westminster, will take part in the program. The music will be under the direction of the Golden Cord Quartette, of Bird Hill, assisted by the congregation of Deer Park Church.

Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said at first it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the doctor then said I had rheumatism. It continued to grow worse and I could hardly get around to work. I went to a drug store and the druggist recommended me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I tried it and one-half of a 50-cent bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends.—F. A. Babcock, Erie, Pa. It is for sale by W. Scott Zepp, Druggist.

ASSIGNEE of Mortgagees' Sale of House and Lot of Land,

In Warfieldsburg, Carroll County, Md.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a mortgage from Florence B. Kraft and Charles C. Kraft, her husband, to Nathan I. Gorsuch, trustee, recorded in real estate mortgage record, liber F. T. S. No. 31, folio 121 &c., of Carroll county, and which mortgage has been duly assigned, as will also appear of record, the undersigned, as assignee of said mortgage, will offer at Public Sale, on the premises situated in Warfieldsburg, in said county and State, on SATURDAY, THE 9TH OF JUNE, A. D. 1900, at 2 o'clock, P. M., the lot or parcel of land mentioned and described in said mortgage, containing THREE ACRES OF LAND, more or less.

The improvements consist of a comfortable Dwelling House, with porches in front and rear, good Stable, Chicken and Hog Houses and other necessary outbuildings. The land is well enclosed with good fence. There is a variety of fruit trees, and connected therewith the sole and exclusive right in fee in and to a well of water, as mentioned in said mortgage. This is a very desirable property and worthy of the attention of any one in want of a snug home in a good neighborhood.

Terms of Sale, Cash; or, if desired, these terms will be made more liberal, of which due notice will be given on the day of sale.

WM. A. McKELLIP,
P. A. Gorsuch, auct. Assignee of Mortgagee.

Why Not Cure Your Cough or Cold?

WESTMINSTER, April 10th, 1890.

MR. JOS. B. BOYLE:

Dear Sir:—For many years I have suffered intensely, on taking cold, from a very troublesome cough, for which I have used a number of various remedies, and obtained but TEMPORARY RELIEF. During the past Spring I was again troubled with the same cough, and through a friend was induced to try YOUR Pectoral Syrup, which not only gave almost INSTANT RELIEF, but a PERMANENT CURE. It gives me great pleasure to say that I believe it to be the best remedy I ever used for the purpose for which it is recommended. Hoping that any person afflicted as I was may be fortunate enough to give it a trial, I am, Truly yours,

EDWARD LYNCH.
