Notice to County Central Committee.

The members of the Republican County Central Committee are requested to meet promptly at the Carrolltonian Office, Westminster, on Monday, AUGUST 3rd, 1891, at 10 o'clock, A. M. A full attendance of the members is desired as business of importance will be transacted.

WM. H. BELL, JR., Secretary.

In 1880 the United States exported $8,963,446 worth of all forms of iron and steel and imported of the same to the value of $53,714,008. In 1890 the exports were $29,100,660, and the imports $16,584,701. In other words from a balance of trade in iron and steel of all forms, of $44,750,562 against us in 1880 there was a balance in our favor of $12,515,959 in 1890, a net gain of $57,266,521, and this too in face of the fact that the decline in price to the home consumer was more than fifty per cent. in the decade. Verily protection pays.

Notwithstanding the general endorsement of Senator Gorman by the Democratic convention of this State it is privately rumored that the managers are apprehensive that he is losing his grip on the reins of party government. If such be the fact, however, there are no signs on the surface to indicate it. Independents seem to vie with regulars in expressing their admiration for the leader through whose management the State has been most grievously disgraced. Perhaps, however, it may be merely to conceal their chagrin at these things from their political opponents.

The Party to Trust.

The general course of the Republican party on all questions of public importance that have arisen since the war presents strong contrasts to the tergiversations of the organization called by courtesy the Democratic party. The Republican party has stood firmly by its avowed principles under all circumstances. It never wavered in its support of measures necessary to maintain the public faith and redeem the financial pledges and promises of the government, while the Democratic party followed the greenback theory of Mr. Pendleton and urged the redemption of gold bearing bonds with paper money. The courage and devotion to principle of the Republican party in the crisis which followed the formulation of the Pendleton theory gives us to day the magnificent financial standing occupied by this country among the nations of the earth. If it had faltered and yielded to apparent popular clamor the land would have been covered with the shame and ignominy of partial repudiation to which the plans and purposes of the Democratic party would have inevitably led. A sound drubbing taught the Democrats that, after all, a policy of financial dishonesty was not acceptable to the people, and in 1872 they no longer advocated the payment of the national debt with green backs, but adopted a sound platform upon which they nominated Horace Greely, who was not only in sympathy with the Republican purpose of paying the national debt honestly, and according to its terms, but was the very embodiment of the doctrine of a tariff for protection, in pronounced opposition to the traditions of the party that nominated him.

On this question the Republicans have consistently maintained and, whenever invested with authority by the people, have enforced the protective theory. The Democrats have occupied uncertain ground concerning it. At times they have adopted equivocal utterances on the subject. At others, as when they made Mr. Greely their standard bearer, they exhibited a tendency in its favor, but may now be considered as practical free-traders, having been, under the leadership of Mr. Cleveland, committed to that side of the question, for the time being, at least. Future events may involve a change of front, however, the course of the Democratic party having been shaped, manifestly, for the purpose of catching the popular breezes.

Can anybody predict, with certainty, the attitude of the Democratic party on the silver question a year hence, or doubt where the Republicans will stand in relation to it? One of the most pronounced opponents of unlimited coinage is Mr. Cleveland, a possible Democratic candidate for the Presidency, but the party's representatives in Congress, by their votes in its favor, as far as they could do so have committed the party to the doctrine to which, only a few years ago, it was unequivocally hostile. The Republican party will maintain a firm stand in opposition to free coinage. It has the courage of sound conviction on the subject and will maintain its attitude without wavering. It has always done so on all questions and will not depart from this honest and healthy practice now.

We verily believe that a vast majority of the people of Maryland occupy Republican ground on this question, notwithstanding the endorsement of Senator Gorman, who voted for the free silver bill, by Democratic conventions. It is a living and vital issue, as was that of the greenback business, and as is the tariff question upon which, also, many Democrats are in sympathy with the Republicans.

Under these circumstances why should such Democrats continue their attachment to a party with the course and conduct of which they have so little sympathy, and thus assist in promoting and sustaining a policy in direct opposition to their own well grounded opinions. The history of the last twenty-five years is sufficient evidence that the Republican party will stand by its principles and encounter the risk of defeat rather than resort to temporary expedients and evade honest issues for the purpose of winning victories at the loss of self-respect. It is the party to trust and all its history proves it.

Hon. John W. Noble, Secretary of the Interior has resigned.

Chairman Quay and Treasurer Dudley, of the Republican National Committee, have resigned their respective positions in that body. Their successors have not yet been chosen, but there seems to be no doubt that Gen. J. S. Clarkson will be placed at the head of the Committee.

Mr. Frank Brown's vigorous fight for the gubernational nomination forced the bosses to make a virtue of necessity and accept him, but the monotonous unanimity displayed by the convention in the selection of the other candidates, indicates that the Democratic party is still closely encircled by the ring.

Governor Campbell, of Ohio, said recently that an invitation had been sent to Mr. Cleveland to speak in that State during the pending gubernatorial campaign, and expected the Ex-President would make at least six speeches in his—the Governor's behalf. Now Mr. Cleveland is reported as saying that he has not been invited to make any speeches in Ohio and does not expect to speak in that or any other State. He would have been wiser if had he determined to make no speeches and write no letters, at an earlier date.

It is a mistake to suppose there is no protective tariff sentiment in the South. The New York Press says that sentiment is gaining ground in the industrial Southern States, whose interests are threatened by the proposition to repeal the McKinley tariff law. A correspondent of the Press, at Shelby, N. C., says that a meeting of tariff men has just been held at Asheville, N. C., at which 800 were in attendance, and it was determined to organize a tariff league in every township of North Carolina. Many Southern men are awaking to the conciousness of the fact that the extraordinary development of the resources of that section has been accomplished, thus far, under the protective system, and are unwilling to risk the consequences of a change to free trade.

"McKinley Prices" on Prints.

From the N. Y. PRESS.

It is a remarkable fact that none of the free trade papers dare produce the figures to prove their continual, parrot-like cry, that the new tariff has raised the prices of the necessaries of life. The York Dry Goods Economist is a trade paper devoted entirely to the dry goods trade. It finds its patronage entirely among dry goods men, and its market report of prices of the different varieties of articles imported under the term "dry goods," are recognized as correct by retail dealers all over the United States, from whom the great bulk of the patronage comes. Politically, however, that journal is the organ of the New York importers, who are free traders, because it would largely increase the importing business. Hence the New York Press, in referring to the files of the Economist and taking there-from the prices of different goods, cannot be charged with having obtained its figures from a protectionist source. In a recent issue, the Press discusses the charge that the new tariff law has increased the price of "the working-girl's dress," and proceeds to show by the wholesale prices, taken from the Economist, that the charge is false. It gives in the first column the wholesale prices, as published by the Economist in its issue of April 5, 1890, six months before the new tariff law went into effect, and in the second column the prices of the same goods, taken from the same source, in its issue for the second week in July. We reproduce the figures below:

PRICES OF PRINT GOODS BEFORE THE NEW TARIFF PASSED, COMPARED WITH THEIR PRESENT PRICES.

Trade name of the several kinds goods. Prints.	Price six months before new Tariff.	Price now under new Tariff.
Allen's pink checks	6 @ 6½	5½
Allen's Shirtings	4½ @ 5	4
Allen's Turkey reds	6½	5¾
American indigo blue	6½	6
American shirting	5 @ 5½	4½
Anchor shirting	5 @ 5¼	4¼
Arnold long cloth C	9	8½
Berlin solids	6	5
Berlin red, 3 4	7½	7
Berlin red, 4-4	11	10
Berlin red, 4-4XXXXX	17	12½@16½
Cocheco XX twills	6¾	6½
Cocheco madders	5½ @ 5¾	4¾
Charter Oak fancies	5 @ 5¼	6
Eddystone fancy	6½	6
Eddystone chocolate	6½	6
Eddystone sateen	6½	6
Eddystone robes	7 @ 7½	6½@6

Here is proof positive, whose authority cannot be denied, that the wholesale price of print goods such as the mass of workaday people chiefly buy, are lower now than they were before the new tariff bill was passed. This settles the cry that the tariff has increased the price of this class of goods. The lowering of the price is undeniable; the free traders say that the tariff increased prices. We ask for a proof that it is so, or for any tangible evidence to destroy the correctness of the above figures.

Democratic State Nominations.

Frank Brown, of Carroll County, for Governor.

The Democratic State convention, which met in Baltimore on Thursday, quickly concluded its labors and nominated candidates to be voted for for the several State officers to be chosen in November. Three of the nominees were chosen by acclamation and the fourth with but trifling opposition. The name of Frank Brown, of Carroll county for Governor, was placed before the convention by Hon. Frank T. Shaw, of this city, and seconded by Mr. Robert Crain, of Baltimore. Mr. Edwin Warfield, of Howard, paid a glowing tribute to Mr. Brown and Mr. Keedy, of Washington county, moved his nomination by acclamation, and the motion was adopted with a shout. Then followed the nominations of Mr. Marion DeKalb Smith, of Kent county, for Comptroller, and Mr. John P. Poe, of Baltimore, for Attorney General, both by acclamation. Mr. J. Frank Ford, of Charles county, and Dr. George Wells, of Annapolis, were placed in nomination for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and Mr. Ford received 109 votes, Dr. Wells 8. The nomination was made unanimous and the ticket was completed.

In the selection of a State Central Committee, Messrs Samuel Cover and George P. Buckey, and Hon. Frank T. Shaw were named as the members for Carroll county.

The coldest July weather ever reported by the weather bureau occurred in Western New York, Northwestern Pennsylvania and Northern Ohio, on Monday last. The range was from 46 to 52 degrees, being from 1 to 4 degrees lower than appears by any previous report. The temperature in the northern part of the lower Michigan peninsula, on the 20th ult., was below 40 degrees, and frosts occurred.

Prohibition Convention.

The State convention of the Prohibition party of Maryland was held at Glyndon Park on Wednesday and nominated a full State ticket, as follows:

For Governor—Edwin Higgins, of Baltimore.

For Comptroller—Joshua Levering, of Baltimore.

For Attorney-General—H. B. Moulton, of Montgomery county.

For Clerk of the Court of Appeals—Levin S. Melson, of Worcester county.

The nominations were all made unanimously and without opposition. The candidates are all gentlemen of worth and standing.

A platform was adopted covering not only the question of the prohibition of of the liquor traffic, but many other issues. Mr. John L. Reifsnider, of this city, was a member of the platform committee, and Mr. John W. Angel, of Middleburg, was named as the Carroll County member of the State Central Committee. Ten delegates were reported as present from Carroll county, but their names were not published.

Death of Samuel Sands.

The venerable Samuel Sands, of the American Farmer, died at the residence of his son, Mr. Wm. B. Sands, Lake Roland, on Tuesday last, in the 92nd year of his age. He was born at Annapolis, April 10th, 1800. In 1811 his widowed mother removed to Baltimore, and two days afterwards he entered the office of the Whig, a daily newspaper, then published in that city, as an apprentice to the printer's trade. From that time he has been constantly connected with the press as printer, editor, or publisher. Mr. Sands was the first to put Francis Scott Key's immortal poem, the "Star Spangled Banner," in type, which he set as a handbill and printed and distributed throughout the city, while the older compositors were with the defenders of the city awaiting an attack from the British army.

Mr. Sands was the founder of the first agricultural paper published in this country.

In a collision between two excursion trains at St. Mande, near Vincennes, France, on Sunday night, forty-three persons were killed and four wounded, some of them fatally. The wreck took fire and many of those held fast in the debris were roasted to death. Then, when water was obtained, it was poured on the wreck so freely that some of the victims were drowned. Among the killed are the Marquis and Marquise of Montferrate. It is claimed that the danger signals set to warn the train officials were changed by some person with a grudge against the driver of the train which ran into the rear of the other.

Joel B. Erhardt has resigned as collector of the port of New York on the ground that the collector has been reduced to a position where his authority is no longer commensurate with his responsibility. J. Sloat Fassett, of Elmira, N. Y., has been appointed his successor.

At Cynthiana, Ky., Wednesday, Mrs. Ann Milner Woods, died, aged ninety-eight. She was one of the original followers of Alexander Campbell in founding the Church of the Disciples.

Lightning killed two horses belonging to Mr. E. E. Dayhoff, near Linganore, Frederick county, on Friday evening of last week.

FARMERS'

Fertilizer Bulletin

The Farmers' Fertilizer Company of Carroll County is not a misnamed corporation. It is an organization for the benefit of the Farmer and no one else; whatever profit may occur in an economical administration of its business, after payment of expenses, goes to the purchaser of its goods. That is one of the reasons why, after several years of trial, it is able to say in that, notwithstanding the advance in prices of certain material, unlike other firms, there will be

1891

No Advance in Prices of its Goods.

A careful observation of the market will enable one to purchase in advance of a rise, and that is another reason why the Farmers' Fertilizer Company is able to Undersell the Incautious.

Grade for grade on certain leading brands of any house or firm in Carroll county, its goods are from $4 to $6 per ton cheaper; and this is confirmed by the analysis made by the State chemist of Maryland as per report of February, 1891. That kind of testimony is unanswerable.

DON'T BE MISLED.

The announcement that extraordinary results have been obtained from isolated fields from certain liberally advertised brands of fertilizer is intended for the unwary. The best test of the virtues of any fertilizer is the result per acre from an entire farm. These same fertilizers, boomed into prominence, have been known this year on a full farm test to produce but from 18½ to 21 bushels per acre; not so in any instance, yet learned, has this been the case with our goods.

From 28 to 44 Bushels per acre have been the result when the Farmers' Fertilizer Material has been used. We employ no agent, we sell nothing but absolutely PURE MATERIAL.

We buy our goods before an advance in prices, we exercise the strictest economy in the management, and we therefore assert, now as heretofore, that if you want to be perfectly satisfied, give our goods a trial. In addition, if this company can be of service to any of its patrons in furnishing them with formulas, it will do so with pleasure and without charge. An allowance of $1.00 per ton will be made to those bringing their sacks with them, and a discount of 2 per cent. will be made on all cash sales.

Respectfully,

The Farmers' Fertilizer Co.,

A Five Minutes Talk

TO FARMERS.

It may seem early to call attention to

FERTILIZER

FOR FALL SEEDING,

but there are farmers who have in former years given their orders for fertilizer before consulting us. To them we especially wish to talk.

DON'T BE HUMBUGGED

by misleading statements made by those who are interested in the results of misleading farmers. Remember that our fertilizer has been sold for years—long before many of the different brands that are sold to day were thought of; and remember we will not be undersold. The general business that we have gives us a great advantage over our competitors. This advantage we are willing to share with the farmer. For years farmers who have used our fertilizer have had the most flattering results and we are more thoroughly convinced than ever that are especialy adapted to the soil of our county. This was our aim, and the results have proven out success. Another year has just passed with the best of results from our fertilizer from all over the county. Here is what one of the many say of our fertilizer:

Messrs. N. I. Gorsuch & Son: Gentlemen.—I used you dissolved raw bone fertilizer last fall, putting 167 pounds to the acre. I have just threshed 440 bushels of wheat from 11 acres, of excellent quality. I used other fertilizers, but yours was by far the best. I would have made money if I had used all of your fertilizer.

Respectfully,
DAVID J. BROWN, Cranberry.

Remember if you want cheap, but good fertilizers, see us, or our representives, who are:

Frank Brown, Silver Run.
N. D. Norris, Eldersburg.
D. W. Richards, Hampstead.
Wm. J. Brown, Arcadia.

Respectfully,

N. I. GORSUCH & SON,
