Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

SATURDAY, JUNE 7, 1902.

Hon. George A. Pearre has been renominated for Congress, in the 6th District of Maryland, by acclamation. In honoring him by this renomination the Republicans of the district are doing themselves honor. He is a worthy representative.

The Baltimore American of Friday states that Senator McComas and the Maryland delegation in Congress have agreed to urge upon President Roosevelt the appointment of Col. Wm. A. McKellip, of this city, as consul to Havana, Cuba, and, failing in that, to continue efforts in behalf of his appointment to some equally as desirable a foreign post. Col. McKellip represents the old soldier element in Maryland, which has been entirely ignored in Federal appointments in this State, and his sacrifices for and fidelity to the Republican party in Maryland are too well known to require repetition.

The Advocate replies to the SENTINEL's accusation of lack of patriotism on the part of Democratic Congressmen, in relation to the Philippines, by first, in substance, resorting to the imbecile retort, "You're another," and then proceeding to discuss the question in a manner which justly exposes it to the same charge brought against its congressional friends. It weighs nothing with the Advocate that unfitness for several-government is absolutely apparent in the Filipinos; that they have, in their conflict with the U. S. Army, violated all the rules of civilized warfare; that they have assassinated large numbers of their fellow countrymen who preferred American rule to the dictatorship of Aguinaldo, and that they have treacherously murdered American soldiers at every opportunity. The Advocate, in its rancorous hostility to the Republican party is thoroughly blinded to everything commendable in the dealings of this country with the natives of the Philippines—the establishment of civil government wherever possible; the introduction of schools and the employment of other agencies to fit the people for self-government, and it gives full credence to all the exaggerated stories calculated to smirch the reputation of its own country. There certainly isn't any patriotism in this exhibition of its spleen in the matter.

South African War Ended.

The war between the British and Boers in South Africa is ended, terms of peace having been agreed upon between the contestants.

From the first the struggle on the part of the Boers for national independence was hopeless, but they made a gallant and protracted effort to achieve the end at which they aimed—complete freedom from British domination. In its effort to subjugate them England has probably expended three quarters of a billion of dollars and has sacrificed many lives. It is doubtful whether her success will remunerate her for these great sacrifices.

Apparently the Boers, by their stubborn resistance, have wrung terms of peace from their enemies of a much more favorable character than might have been expected. They will be allowed to carry arms, under license, when needed for protection; will be given fifteen millions of dollars to reimburse them for war losses and to enable them to resume their avocations, and in addition will be granted loans for two years without interest; no special tax will be imposed on landed property to defray the cost of the war; military rule will cease as speedily as possible and representative institutions leading up to self-government will be introduced; the Dutch language will be used in the schools, where the parents desire it and will be allowed in the courts. Mild measures will also be used in dealing with those who have incurred penalties outside the rules of war.

It may be expected that England, being finally triumphant over these brave and determined people, will endeavor to gain their friendship and good will by generous treatment, rather than to constrain their fealty by force, and some time in the not very far future the Boers may attain such a relation to their conquerors as is now enjoyed by the Dominion of Canada, which is independent in everything but in name.

The Fuller Syndicate is said to be ready to pay the city of Baltimore the purchase money for the Western Md. Railroad and it is understood that payment will be made within the next week or ten days. The syndicate has extended the time for holders of stock of the road to accept $35 per share therefor, to June 15th, certificates to be deposited, properly endorsed, at the banking house of Townsend Scott & Son, 209 East Fayette street, Baltimore, by that date.

Miss Mary Eliza Schley, whose father was George Jacob Schley, was found dead at the foot of a stairway at her home on Druid Hill avenue, Baltimore, last week. Miss Schley was 82 years old and blind. She had fallen down the stairway during the night, and was probably killed by the shock. Her body was found by a servant. She was a native of Baltimore, but her father was born in Frederick and was a cousin of Admiral Schley's grandfather.

Fire destroyed the barn, granary, cornhouse, stables and cowsheds, six buildings in all, on the Folly Quarter estate, owned by Mr. Charles Carroll, in Howard county, on Tuesday night, together with about 100 barrels of corn, a lot of wheat and several hundred dollars' worth of farming implements. The cows, 50 in number, were rescued. The loss is estimated at $10,000, and is partly covered by insuranec. About half the outbuildings on the place were destroyed.

The annual meeting of the Eastern Funeral Benifit Association of the Junior Order of American Mechanics was held Friday of last week, at Grange Hall, at Towson. Hagerstown was chosen as the place for the next meeting.

A Girl's Long Tramp.

A 9 o'clock Wednesday night a strange girl was observed by Mr. Chas. N. Mitten, of this city, walking aimlessly along West Main street. The attention of Mr. Joseph W. Smith, of the firm of Smith & Reifsnider, was called to the girl, and he induced her to enter their counting room, where he questioned her about her singular conduct. She was barefoot and her feet were bruised and blistered, showing that she must have come from a distance.

She seemed bewildered, but it was finally ascertained that her name was Ella Weisingsale, and that she came from near Hanover, Pa. Parties in that place were communicated with and an inquiry started which developed the fact that a daughter of Wm. Weisingsale, of that vicinity, was missing from her home. She was taken to the home of Mr. James M. Stoner, for the night, and early Thursday morning her father father came for her. He stated that she was sent to carry him his dinner to a limestone quarry, about a mile from his home, at noon Wednesday; and, not finding him, walked on and on apparently searching for him. Her prolonged absence alarmed her parents and an effort was made to find her, but without avail until they received the communication from this city. On her long tramp she passed through Littlestown and went toward Taneytown, but left that route two miles from the former place and got to the Littlestown turnpike, which she followed to this city. When she arrived here she still carried the basket with her father's lunch untouched, and when asked why she had not eaten it she replied, "It is papa's dinner." Footsore and hungry, she was still looking for him to deliver the dinner. By the route she followed she must have traveled nearly 25 miles. She is about 14 years old and has been mentally weak for several years.

Excursion tickets will be on sale and full information can be obtained from local ticket agents.

CAUTION!

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase for 50 the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 18 s for the cure and treatment of Consumption and Throat and Lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for Severe Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup—and especially for Consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. Sold by all druggists in the civilized world. G. G. Green, Woodbury, N. J. Sold by W. Scott Zepp, Druggist.

READ IT IN HIS NEWSPAPER.

George Schaub, a well known German citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volksfreund, and he knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns, and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back, he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take up her household duties." He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will hear of her wonderful recovery. This valuable liniment is for sale by all druggists.

Of what does a bad taste in your mouth remind you? It indicates that your stomach is in bad condition and will remind you that there is nothing so good for such a disorder as Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets after having once used them. They cleanse and invigorate the stomach and regulate the bowels. For sale at 25 cents per box by all druggists.
