DYSPEPSIN

A CERTAIN CURE FOR
Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Biliousness, Sick Headache & Habitual Costiveness.

WHAT is Life without the enjoyment of health? It is but a burden. Ninety-Nine Hundredths of Dyspeptic cases, you could not enjoy life. Dyspepsia is a prevalent disease in the United States, brought about by our habits and irregularities. The Materia Medica has been exhausted to find a remedy, and the skill of the most learned Physicians has failed to effect a cure. Notwithstanding this declaration we unhesitatingly say "SMILLER'S DYSPEPSIN" is a Certain Cure for Dyspepsia and the many complaints incident thereto. We have been before the public a sufficient length of time to fully test its merits, and in every instance where it has been used according to direction, it has resulted in giving relief. "SMILLER'S DYSPEPSIN" is not a Cure-all, but is a Certain Cure for the symptoms of the diseases named, and for which only we claim it as a specific. Give it a fair trial, and your testimony will be unsolicited.

OH! What a Set of Blowers

THERE ARE WHO

ADVERTISE IN THE EASTON PAPERS.

The best blowing I can do is, that I have retailed cast nails ever that have been sold in this town since 1860, when I commenced business at the same old stand, opposite the Court House, where I am still ready to supply them with GOOD NAILS, such as they have purchased of me in the past, and all others who want something good in my line of business; nothing that will goad about it.

I have just returned from the city with a full supply of BOOTS AND SHOES, and am still receiving such articles as I can recommend to my friends and the public in general.

LADIES' WEAR.—All articles that they need in way of a Gaiter, Slipper, Balmoral, or Shoe of any kind she may desire.

GENTLEMEN.—Boots, Gaiters, Balmorals, &c.

MISSES, BOYS, YOUTHS and CHILDREN'S SHOES of all descriptions on hand, or built all who may want such articles. Also, a splendid stock of LEATHER of the very best, which will be made up into Boots, Shoes, or Gaiters, to suit the wants of the most fastidious. Mend work. Feeling thankful for being sustained in the past, I still beg the same favor of my friends and the public in general.

FARMS WANTED.

IF you wish to sell your farm, send full description, with price and location, to Mancha's Land Agency, Easton.

If no sale is made, it will cost nothing to have the land advertised in his pamphlet.

I make the land business my EXCLUSIVE BUSINESS, and advertise extensively all over the country.

Persons in the county who may wish to buy land, can find a choice of farms by consulting my list.

I can be found at the Easton Star office on Tuesdays and Saturdays, except when I am on the road showing land to buyers.

GENERAL LAWS

OF THE

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND

At the January Session, 1874.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

[CHAPTER 219.]

FISH AND FISHERIES.

AN ACT

To repeal section twenty-two, of an act passed at January Session, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, entitled an act to repeal section twenty-two, of article forty-one, of the Code of Public General Laws, entitled "Fish and Fisheries," sub-title "Patuxent," regulating the right of fishing in the Patuxent River and its tributaries, and to enact the same with sub-sections.

Whereas, Sundry persons unknown to the citizens of Prince George's, Charles, St. Mary's and Calvert counties, have heretofore frequented the waters of the Patuxent River, and with immense and improper seines, patent weirs and other traps and devices, have been engaged in the catching and taking of fish in said river; and

Whereas, The quantity of fish in said river is fast diminishing, and will, at no distant day, without some wise, prudent and effectual means be adopted to prevent the wanton destruction of the same, cause to be a source of supply of food to the residents along the valley of said stream; and

Whereas, Strangers and non-residents of this State have been in the habit of fishing in the waters of said Patuxent River, in such manner and by such means as to destroy young and small fish in great numbers, and to effectually prevent the passage of fish up said river to their spawning grounds, and

Whereas, In order to prevent any further wanton destruction of fish in the waters of said river, by such seines, patent weirs, traps and other devices aforesaid; and to protect the citizens of Prince George's, Charles, St. Mary's and Calvert counties, in their rights; therefore—

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section twenty-two, of an act passed at January session, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, chapter one hundred and twenty-eight, entitled an act to repeal section twenty-two, of article forty-one, of the Code of Public General Laws, entitled "Fish and Fisheries," sub-title "Patuxent," regulating the right of fishing in the Patuxent River and its tributaries, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with sub-sections so as to read as follows:

22. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons other than bona fide residents, citizens of Prince George's, Charles, St. Mary's and Calvert counties, to take or catch fish in the waters of the Patuxent River and tributaries, with any seine, weir, trap, or other device, excepting only the hook and line; provided, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to such as shall obtain permission from the owners of land bordering on said waters, to fish off and opposite his, her or their land or lands so bordering on said waters; and provided, that none other than bona fide residents, citizens of said counties, shall use in any of the waters of said river that lind on Prince George's, Charles and Calvert counties, above the village known as Benedict, any seine, weir or net more than seventy fathoms long, and less than two inches square in the mesh.

Sub-section 1. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to empty their seines upon the beach so as to leave the smaller fish to perish, but to empty the same in water of sufficient depth to enable such smaller fish to return to the waters for growth and maturation.

Sub-Section 2. Any person or persons violating the provisions of this act, shall be fined no less than seventy-five nor more than one hundred dollars, in the discretion of the justice of the peace before whom the case is heard, which amount shall be appropriated to the public school fund of the county wherein such judgment is rendered; and for the payment of the amount of fine so adjudged, any boat, seine, weir or other fishing tackle used by any person or persons in violation of the provisions of this act, shall be seized and held as security upon complaint against such offending party.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

We hereby certify that the aforegoing is a true and perfect copy of an Act passed the General Assembly of Maryland, at the January Session, 1874.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

AN ACT

To repeal section one, of article twenty-eight, of the Code of Public General Laws, title "County Commissioners," and to re-enact the same with amendments.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section one, article twenty-eight, of the Code of Public General Laws, title "County Commissioners," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted to read as follows:

Sec. 1. The County Commissioners of each county in this State, are declared to be a corporation, and shall have power to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, defend and be defended, in any court of this State or elsewhere, make and use a common seal, and alter the same at pleasure, purchase, take and hold, sell and convey, such estate, real, personal and mixed, as the business of said corporation may require, within this State, subject to the limitations of law in regard to the amount of real estate; make such by-laws, rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the laws and constitution of this State, as may be necessary for the government of said corporation, and the transaction of its business; appoint such officers, and a sufficient number of them, and the County Commissioners of each county, shall annually appoint to hold office for one year, or during the pleasure of their successors, a competent number of persons in each district, or divisions of their county, as may afford the best opportunity for full and fair expression of popular will.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

We hereby certify that the aforegoing is a true and perfect copy of an Act passed at the General Assembly of Maryland, at the January Session, 1874.

RELIEF OF WASHINGTON COLLEGE.

AN ACT

For the relief of Washington College, and to appropriate money for the same, and provide for the education and boarding of students from each county of the Eastern Shore.

Whereas, The Visitors and Governors of Washington College have gratuitously educated and boarded a large number of students from the different counties of the eastern shore of this State on account of the annuity granted to them by the acts of the General Assembly, which they intend to continue to do, and have also educated a large number of day scholars free of charge for tuition, and to manifest this by some substantial aid from the State the usefulness and prosperity of the College will be increased therefore,

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Treasurer, on the warrant of the Comptroller, be and he is hereby authorized and directed, in addition to the sum now annually paid to the Visitors and Governors of Washington College, to pay to the said Visitors and Governors the further sum of two thousand dollars annually, on and after the first day of June, in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-four.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That in consideration of the sum of two thousand dollars to be paid annually to the Visitors and Governors of Washington College, in addition to the sum now annually paid to them, the said Visitors and Governors shall educate free of charge for tuition, board, books and stationery, six additional students from the counties of the Eastern Shore.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the students thus to be educated free of charge, as provided by the second section of this act, shall be selected and appointed in the same manner, and subject to the same rules and regulations and restrictions as are prescribed by the resolutions thirty-four of the General Assembly, in the year eighteen hundred and forty-eight, and the act of eighteen hundred and fifty-six, chapter two hundred and nineteen.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That each student receiving such appointment, shall execute a bond to the State of Maryland, in such penalty and with such security as the Judges of the Orphans' Court may approve, with the condition that he will teach in one or more of the public schools of this State for not less than two years after he graduates, which bond shall remain in the custody of said Judges, and in case of forfeiture, suit may be instituted thereon in the name of the State by the State's Attorney of the county from which such student was appointed, who shall pay over all sums recovered by said suits to the Board of County Sch ol Commissioners of said county, for the use of the public schools of the county.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the Treasurer, on the warrant of the Comptroller, be and he is hereby authorized and directed to pay to the Visitors and Governors of Washington College the sum of one thousand dollars to be applied by them in increasing and improving the library and philosophical and chemical apparatus of said College.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

We hereby certify, that the aforegoing is a true and perfect copy of an Act passed the General Assembly of Maryland, at the January session 1874.

BALTIMORE AND MARYLAND EYE AND EAR INSTITUTE.

AN ACT

To provide for the support and treatment of indigent patients in the Baltimore Eye and Ear Institute of Baltimore city, and the Maryland Eye and Ear Institute.

Whereas, Thomas Sowers, Julian J. Chisolm, Andrew Reid, George Guest, James Hodges, Samuel H. Tagart, Bernard Carter and Douglas H. Gordon, have, under and by virtue of the General Laws of the State of Maryland authorizing the foundation of corporations, formed a corporation under the name of the Baltimore Eye and Ear Institute of Baltimore city, and have established an infirmary in the city of Baltimore for the purpose of treating the diseases of the eye and ear, whereof, Dr. Julian J. Chisolm, professor of the eye and ear diseases in the University of Maryland, is the surgeon in charge; and—

Whereas, The Maryland Eye and Ear Institute, under the management of Professor George Reeling, has been well and firmly established in the City of Baltimore; and—

Whereas, It is desirable that the benefits of the said institutions shall be extended to the poor of the State of Maryland, who are suffering from diseases of the eye and ear, suitable for surgical treatment, therefore—

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the sum of one thousand dollars be and the same is hereby annually appropriated to the Baltimore Eye and Ear Institute of Baltimore city, and that the said sum shall be paid upon the warrant of the State of Maryland, upon the warrant of the Comptroller of the State of Maryland, upon the surgeon in charge of the said Baltimore Eye and Ear Institute of Baltimore city, and to the surgeon in charge of the said Maryland Eye and Ear Institute, upon the production by them of a certificate from the President of the said Baltimore Eye and Ear Institute of Baltimore city, and the President of the said Maryland Eye and Ear Institute, that the said institutions have received the said sum, including the sum of said appropriation, and giving the number of patients received and treated in said institutions under the provisions of this act, of the expenditures and receipts, and such other facts and particulars as may tend to exhibit the effect of this appropriation.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

We hereby certify that the aforegoing is a true and perfect copy of an act passed the General Assembly of Maryland, at the January session, 1874.

[CHAPTER 499.]

ASSESSMENT OF NATIONAL BANKS.

AN ACT

To provide for the assessment of the shares of the capital stock of national banks, located in this State, heretofore omitted to be assessed for State purposes, and to collect the State taxes due on said shares.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be the duty of the cashier of every national bank so called in this State, which has not paid the State taxes on the shares of its capital stock, for and on account of its several stockholders, directly into the Treasury, on or before the first day of May next, to report to the county commissioners of each of the several counties of this State, and to the appeal tax court of Baltimore city, under the hand of said cashier, a true and correct list of the stockholders of said bank, residing in the said counties and city respectively, and the number of shares standing in the name of each of said stockholders, at the time of making the return of stockholders for the assessment of county and city taxes in each year, for which said bank has not paid the State taxes on said shares as aforesaid, and the par value of said shares; and also to report to the county commissioners of the county in which said bank is located, or the appeal tax court of Baltimore city, if the said bank be located in said city, a true and correct list of all the stockholders of said bank who are non-residents of this State, and it shall be the duty of said cashier at the same time, to return to the Comptroller of the Treasury a duplicate of his said report to the said county commissioners and appeal tax court as aforesaid.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said county commissioners and appeal tax court shall, as soon as possible after the receipt of the said returns from said cashier of said national banks, examine and see whether the State taxes on the said shares have been assessed and collected from the said stockholders respectively, or whether the same have been omitted to be assessed against said stockholders, and if the said State taxes have been omitted to be assessed and collected from said stockholders respectively, or any of them, and are still due and unpaid, then it shall be the duty of the said county commissioners and appeal tax court respectively, to assess said shares of stock so omitted, or on which the said State taxes are still due and unpaid, at their true value for the year or years respectively for which they may have been so omitted, or for which the State taxes may be due and unpaid as aforesaid, and to levy the State taxes due in said years respectively on said shares, and to charge said stockholders respectively with the State taxes so due and unpaid on their said shares as aforesaid, and to place the accounts of State taxes so due from and charged to said stockholders respectively, in the hands of the collector of State taxes for said county and city respectively, and it shall be the duty of said collectors respectively to proceed at once to collect said State taxes and pay the same into the Treasury of the State.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That if said State taxes shall not be paid by said stockholders within ten days after the said account shall have been delivered to said collectors, it shall be the duty of said collectors respectively, to give notice to the said stockholders by advertisement in some newspaper published in the county or city, where said taxes are due and unpaid, of the amount of the amount of said taxes due from said stockholders aforesaid, for such year for which the same may be due, and that unless the same be paid to the said collectors respectively, within twenty days from the date of said notice, which shall be published once a week for three successive weeks, warning said stockholders respectively to pay the said taxes so due as aforesaid, to said collectors respectively, before some day to be fixed by the collector, not less than ten nor more than twenty days from the date of said notice, the non-fulfillment of said notice as aforesaid, and giving notice that if said taxes are not paid, he will proceed to sell the said shares of stock so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the said taxes respectively, and shall forthwith proceed to sell the said shares of stock so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the said taxes respectively, at public auction, for cash, to the highest bidder, at the place of business of said bank, or at the door of the court house of the county in which said bank is located, or at the City Hall in Baltimore city, if the said bank be located in said city, and shall make a return of his proceedings in the premises to the next court to be held for said county or city, and the said court shall thereupon ratify and confirm the said sale, and direct the said collector to make a transfer of the said shares of stock so sold, to the purchaser thereof, and to issue a certificate to said purchaser therefor; and order shall settle the said proceeds of said shares of stock so sold as hereinafter and if said court shall find that the provisions of this act have not been complied with, then said court shall order the said shares of stock so sold to be restored to the said stockholders respectively, free from any charge for the said sale; and shall make such other order in the premises as may be just and proper; and the said court may also order the president and directors of the said bank to transfer the said shares of stock so sold, on the books of said bank, to the purchaser thereof, and to issue a certificate to said purchaser therefor; and order shall settle the said proceeds to said shares of stock so sold as hereinafter and if said court shall find that the provisions of this act have not been complied with, said court shall order the said shares of stock so sold to be restored to the said stockholders respectively, free from any charge for the said sale; and shall make such other order in the premises as may be just and proper; and the said court may also order the president and directors of the said bank to transfer the said shares of stock so sold, on the books of said bank, to the purchaser thereof, and to issue a certificate to said purchaser therefor; and order shall settle the said proceeds to said shares of stock so sold as hereinafter

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said collector, as soon as practicable after said sale, or sales, shall be reported, as the ordinary practice is to examine into the money of said report, and if it shall appear to the said court that the provisions of this act have been substantially complied with, and that the purchase money for the said shares of stock so sold, has been paid to the said collector, in consummation of said sale, upon order the president and directors of the said bank to transfer the said shares of stock so sold, on the books of said bank, to the purchaser thereof, and to issue a certificate to said purchaser therefor; and order shall settle the said proceeds to said shares of stock so sold as hereinafter

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That if any collector shall fail or neglect to perform the duties imposed upon him by this act, said collector shall be liable to prosecution therefor, and shall, upon conviction before a justice of the peace, be fined not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than two hundred dollars, in the discretion of the said justice, and the bond of said collector shall be liable to the State for any loss accruing from said failure or neglect

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any such bank, as is mentioned in the first section of this act, to agree with the Comptroller the payment directly into the Treasury by said bank of the State taxes due from its stockholders on the shares of stock held by them, and as standing in their names on the books of said bank, for the years for which the same may be due respectively, and to pay the same to the Treasurer; and if such bank shall make such agreement in writing, signed by the president and cashier thereof, and shall pay the sum so agreed upon with the Comptroller to the Treasury, then it shall not be necessary for the cashier of said bank to agree and paying, to make the report specified in the first section of this act, except as to such stockholders as may have transferred their stock before the time of making said report by said cashier.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after the date of its passage.

We hereby certify, that the aforegoing is a true and perfect copy of an act passed at the January session, 1874.
