Thos. H. Trippe, register First District, Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 9th and 10th, at Easton; Wednesday, September 11th, at Trappe Mills.

John T. Harrison, Second District, Monday, Sept. 9th, at M. O. Camper's store in Broad Creek Neck; Tuesday, September 10th, at P. M. Pastorfield's drug store at Royal Oak; Wednesday, Sept. 11th, at St. Michaels.

F. A. Morgan, Fourth District, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, September 9th, 10th and 11th, at Cordova.

Joseph Lowe, Fifth District, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 9th, 10th and 11th, at Wittman.

For the information of voters the following sections of the new Registration Law are published:

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That said several Officers of Registration for the respective election districts in the counties of this State, instead of sitting five days in September and two days in October as prescribed by the said Act of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, chapter twenty-two, section ten, shall sit for the purpose of performing the duties imposed upon them by said Act, and by this Act, daily for two successive days in the month of May, for three successive days in September and for five successive days in October in every year in which an election shall be held in said counties; said sittings in May and September to commence on the second Monday in said months respectively, and the October sitting to commence on the first Monday in October. Said sittings shall be in the manner be called the May, September and October sittings. The said respective Officers of Registration shall sit at said several sittings in the several counties from 8 o'clock A. M. until 6 o'clock P. M. on each day of their sessions, and their proceedings shall be public and open to free inspection, without any obstruction whatever. The places of their sittings shall be selected as prescribed in said Act of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, chapter twenty-two.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That said Officers of Registration, when sitting at their respective May, June, July and September sittings, and the first sitting in October, shall register as provided in the said Act of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, chapter twenty-two, all qualified voters who shall present themselves for registration; and in addition to said work of registration they shall carefully revise and scrutinize the said registries of voters so received by them from said Clerks of the several Circuit Courts and of the Superior Court of Baltimore City, to the end that all errors therein shall be corrected; and the names of all voters entered therein who shall have died or become for any reason disqualified, or who from any cause shall have ceased to be entitled to remain on said registration books, shall be stricken off. In order that the work of striking off from the registries the names of all dead and disqualified persons, and of all persons erroneously or improperly placed thereon, may be thoroughly and accurately accomplished, it shall be the duty of said several Officers of Registration at their May sitting to go carefully over the whole list of names in their respective precincts and election districts, and to note for striking off the names of all persons whom from their own information, or from information furnished to them from others, they have good reason to believe to be proper to be stricken off. Having made out this list, which shall be at all times open to public inspection, it shall be their duty to address written notices to all the persons whose names are set down thereon, except those known to be dead, calling on said persons to appear before them on or before the first day of July sitting in the city of Baltimore, and the first day of the September sitting in the counties, to show cause why their names should not be stricken from said registries, which notices shall be served in Baltimore city by the police of Baltimore city, and in the counties by the sheriffs of the several counties, upon all of such persons who can be found, and said notices shall also be sent by mail to said persons addressed to them at the place from which they were registered, should no cause, or, in the judgment of said Officers of Registration, an insufficient cause to the contrary be shown by the first day of their July or September sitting, as the case may be, it shall be the duty of said Officers of Registration, during said sitting, to strike off the names of all persons on said list; but if said Officers of Registration shall be satisfied by competent sworn testimony produced before them, or from their own knowledge or information, that any of said persons, notwithstanding their failure to appear in answer to said notices, are in reality entitled to have their names retained on said registration books, then the names of such persons shall be retained; moreover, whenever any suggestion shall be made to them in writing, signed by any person, that said registration books contain any specified name or names which should be stricken off, it shall be their duty to diligently inquire into and investigate every such suggestion, and to strike off every name which, upon such investigation, they shall ascertain to have been improperly registered in the first instance, or to be no longer entitled to remain upon the registration books, for any lawful cause. Within three days after the sittings in May, June, July and September and the first in October in the city of Baltimore, and after the May, September and October sittings in the counties, said Registration Officers shall publish, as provided in said Act of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, chapter twenty-two, the two alphabetical lists required to be published by section twenty-one of said Act; and shall also put up and retain during their subsequent sessions, in a conspicuous place in the room occupied by them as a registration office, two of said printed alphabetical lists; and the said Officers of Registration, within three days after the close respectively of their sittings in May, June, July and September, shall send by mail, and through the police of Baltimore city and the sheriffs in the several counties, notices to all persons whose names have been stricken off at said respective sittings, so as to give them an opportunity to appear at some future sitting, not later than the first of the October sittings, and establish their right to be reinstated. At the end of the first October sitting it shall, in like manner, be the duty of said Officers of Registration to send notices in the same modes to all persons whose names have been stricken off at such October sitting, notifying them that their names have been stricken off, and informing that said Officers of Registration will sitson the third day after the date of such notice, for the hearing and determining of all applications for reinstatement, at which final sitting said Officers of Registration shall sit for said purpose only. In all cases when a name is stricken off, the reason shall be recorded opposite such name, and when a name is stricken off upon the oath of any person, the name of such person shall be recorded opposite the name stricken off. At the end of each day's registry, or revision of registration, one of said Registers in the city, or the Register of the county, shall sign his name or initials immediately under the last name registered under each letter, so that no new name can be added without discovery. And shall any of said Officers of Registration of the several counties of this State be unable to act and register the qualified voters of their respective election districts on the next to the final day of the October sitting, by reason of sickness or other unavoidable cause, all persons qualified to be registered, who shall appear in person at the place of registration on said day, and who shall fail to be registered by reason of such disability of the Officer of Registration, they shall have the same right of appeal as if they had been refused registration by the Officer of Registration.

THOMAS H. TRIPPE,
Officer of Registration for First Election District.

JOHN T. HARRISON,
Officer of Registration for Second Election District.

WILLIAM B. EWING,
Officer of Registration for Third Election District.

F. ADDISON MORGAN,
Officer of Registration for Fourth Election District.

JOSEPH LOWE,
Officer of Registration for Fifth Election District.

To the Voters of Easton District.

Whereas, I have been notified by the county commissioners that they have divided Precinct No. 1, Election Districts No. 1, into two precincts, to be known respectively as Precinct No. 1 and Precinct No. 2, by the following lines of division: Commencing at the lower King's creek bridge, and running with the road known as Dover road to Washington street, Easton, then with Washington street north until opposite the front of the court house door, then straight through the center of the court house west until it strikes West street, then straight with West street north until it intersects the Bayside road, then a westerly course and with the Bayside road to Miles river bridge. All the territory on the north side of this line shall be known as the first precinct of Easton district, and all on the south the second precinct.

And that they, the said county commissioners, have changed the number of the precinct heretofore known as precinct No. 2 from precinct No. 2 to precinct No. 3.

Notice is hereby given that the voters of Easton district will be classified and registered in accordance with the aforegoing designation and division of precincts.

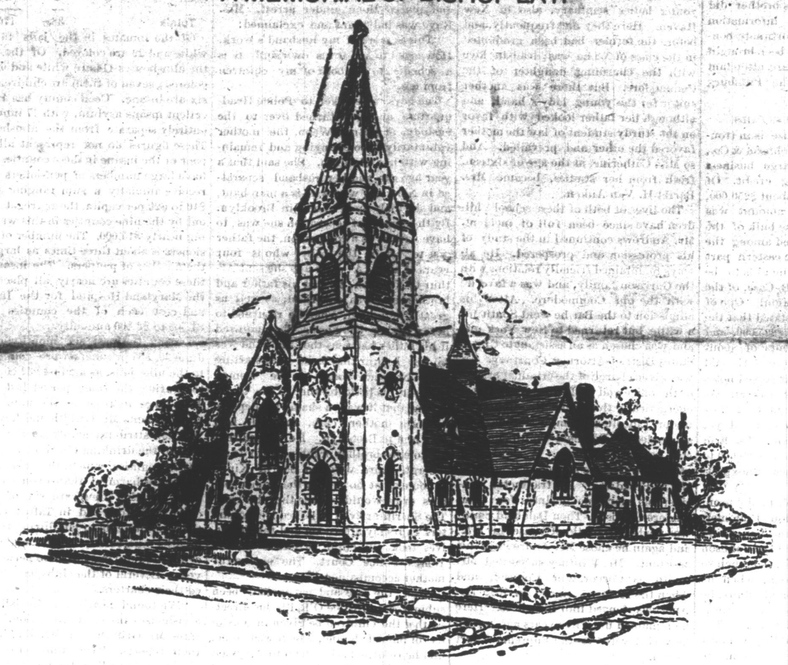
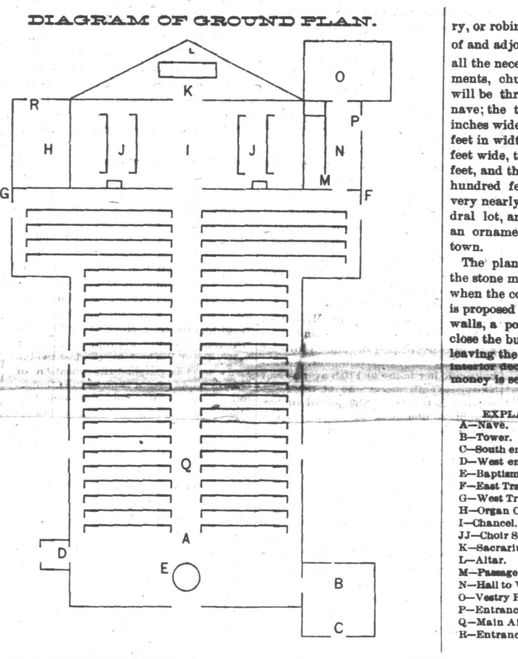
A MEMORIAL OF BISHOP LAY.



A PERSPECTIVE VIEW OF THE PROPOSED NEW CHURCH FOR TRINITY CATHEDRAL, EASTON, MD.

DIAGRAM OF GROUND PLAN.



Herewith is presented a perspective view and diagram of the ground plan of the proposed new church for Trinity Cathedral, Easton. The church is to be a memorial of the late first Bishop of Easton, Rt. Rev. Henry Champlin Lay. The plans were prepared by Mr. W. P. Wentworth, a noted architect of Boston, Mass., who has a church of his design in almost every State and Territory of the Union. The material for the walls is to be of Port Deposit granite, and the roof to be of slate. The view here given, is looking toward the southeast corner of the tower. As will be seen by the diagram of the ground plan, the church is to be cruciform in shape, with an apsidal sacrarium. The style of architecture is composite, partaking of the Gothic, Romanesque and Byzantine, and in principle is closely allied to the early church buildings erected by the christians of the first two centuries after Christ. In the plans provision is made for the proper celebration of all the services of the Church, in such form as may be most suitable. The church will comfortably seat three hundred people, while, if necessary, a great many more could be accommodated. The choir stalls have a seating capacity sufficient for thirty-two choristers; and in the west transept, adjoining the chancel, a large organ chamber is provided. The vestry, or robing room, is immediately off of and adjoining the east transept, with all the necessary conveniences for vestments, church furniture, etc. There will be three aisles running down the nave; the two side aisles being thirty inches wide, and the central aisle six feet in width. The nave will be forty feet wide, the transepts extending ten feet, and the length over all about one hundred feet. The location will be very nearly in the centre of the Cathedral lot, and when completed will be an ornament to that section of the town.

The plans are now in the hands of the stone men for their estimates, and when the cost has been ascertained, it is proposed to at once erect the main walls, a portion of the tower, and enclose the building so it can be occupied, leaving the finishing of the tower and interior questions to be adjusted as money is secured to pay for them.

PAPER IS KING.

Facts that Show the Approach of a Paper Age.

We live in paper houses, wear paper clothing and sit on paper cushions in paper cars, rolling on paper wheels. We do a paper business over a paper counter, buying paper goods, paying with paper money or charging them up in paper books, and deal in paper stocks upon paper margins. We row races in paper boats for paper prizes. We go to paper theatres, where paper actors play to paper audiences.

As the age develops the coming man will be more deeply inmeshed in the paper net. He will wake in the morning and creep from under his paper clothes on his paper bed, and put on his paper dressing-gown and paper slippers. He will walk over paper carpets, down paper stairs, and seating himself in a paper chair, read the paper news in his morning paper. A paper bell will call him to his breakfast, cooked in a paper oven, served on paper dishes, laid on a paper cloth on a paper table. He will wipe his lips with a paper napkin, and having put on his paper shoes, paper hat and paper coat and having taken his paper cane, he will walk on a paper pavement or ride in a paper carriage to his paper office.

He will organize paper enterprises and make paper profits. He will go to Europe on paper steamships and navigate the air in paper balloons. He will smoke paper tobacco in a pipe, lighted with a paper match. He will write with a paper pencil, whittle paper sticks with a paper knife, go fishing with a paper fishing-rod, a paper line and a paper hook, and put his fish in a paper basket. He will go shooting with a paper gun, loaded with paper cartridges, and defend his country with paper forts, with paper cannon and paper bombs.

Having lived his paper life and achieved a paper fame and a paper wealth, he will retire to paper leisure and die in paper peace. There will be a paper funeral, at which the mourners, dressed in paper crape, will wipe their eyes with paper handkerchiefs, and a paper preacher will preach a paper sermon in a paper pulpit from a paper text. He will lie in a paper coffin wrapped in a paper shroud, his name will be engraved on a paper plate, and a paper hearse, adorned with paper plumes, will carry him to a paper-lined grave, over which will be raised a paper monument.

The 16th of this month is the anniversary of the battle of Camden, S. C., fought in 1780.

Why is witnessing a funeral like a private conversation with a celebrity?—Because it's an inter-view.

A CHINESE MASON.

Low Yuk Ling Received Into the Fellowship of the Craft.

The regular semi-weekly assembling of Eureka Lodge, No. 248, F. and A. M., took place at their spacious lodge room in the temple. The occasion was the first instance of the conferring of the degree of Master Mason on a native of the Flowery Kingdom. Low Yuk Ling, a Chinaman, who is said to be of noble birth and a relative of the present Chinese Emperor, and whose ancestry probably dates back to the days of Confucius, was received into full fellowship as a member of Eureka Lodge, in the presence of over five hundred members of the fraternity. Promptly at 8 o'clock worshipful Brother G. W. Hallock, master of Eureka Lodge, presided over the lodge. Each officer, attired in conventional full dress, was at his post at the sound of the gavel.

The candidate, in order to be proficient in preceding degrees, was under the tuition of Past Master of Eureka Lodge and ex-Inspector of Police Worshipful Brother G. W. Dilks, and the creditable examination through which the candidate passed showed that Brother Dilks is a thorough disciplinarian, and the subject a very apt pupil. That Brother Ling was thoroughly Americanized was clearly established, for in taking the obligation his responses were given in a distinct, clear voice, and could be heard in every part of the large hall.

The hall was decorated with flags of both nations. Over the master's chair in letters of gold was the word "Welcome." The handsomely papered walls, richly frescoed ceiling and elegant upholstery under the incandescent light presented a striking picture. At the conclusion of the ceremonies Brother Ling invited "all the boys" to partake of a sumptuous banquet, where every delicacy the market affords was tastefully spread. Covers for 300 were laid at a famous restaurant uptown.

Among the well-known Masons present were: Grand Secretary Ahlers, Past Masters G. W. Dilks, G. Frost, J. Fields, A. Postly, L. Stamper, A. Outwater, W. T. Segur, Dr. Cooper, C. Stevens, Dr. E. T. Dobbs and A. Stevens.—New York Star.

The following is published for the edification of our school boys; I married a widow who had a daughter. My father visited our house frequently, fell in love and married my step-daughter. Thus father became my son-in-law and my step-daughter my mother, because she was my father's wife. My step-daughter had also a son, he was my brother and at the same time my grandchild, for he was the son of my daughter. My wife was my grandmother, because she was my mother's mother, I was my wife's husband and grandchild at the same time, and as the husband of a person's grandmother is his grandfather, I was my own Grandfather.

Damsels Who Chew Gum.

Ladies are not by any means the only patrons of the highly perfumed delicately-put-up Tutti Frutti.

Schoomarms confiscate the little wads from their pupils as contraband, and in the silence of their lonely boarding-houses ceaselessly wag their tireless jaws in masticating sweetness out of it. Maiden ladies love it. Young, fashionable belles always have darling little packages in their tiny reticules they carry suspended to their nickle-plated belts they wear aronud their waists, and supposed by male humanity to contain only a bottle of perfume, a few visiting cards, a pockethandkerchief and car tickets.

Girls at the seaside, girls in the mountains, girls on the street cars, good girls, pretty girls, indulge in the habit. Doctors—some of them—say it purifies the breath, tones up the stomach and cleans the teeth.

Nor is the habit confined to the schoolchild, who buys in the tiny shops adjoining the thirty odd schoolhouses in this city only a penny's worth.

The girl gum-chewers may be very ethereal creatures when worked into a romantic serial or summer novel, but to watch a woman's jaws going—going—up and down!—with a steady steam-engine like regularity, while her eyes gaze out of the car windows with a vacant stare, is a wonderful sight. It might be thought difficult for a girl to look "culchowed" and chew gum, yet there is a tradition that the practice is in vogue at Vassar and the fashionable boarding schools of the East. Chewing-gum tontests used to be in vogue, but since the dime museums have added them to their attractions they have ceased to become fashionable fads.

The number of varieties on the market is as varied as the brands of cigars, and the demand is constantly increasing for novel and highly perfumed gum. A Fourth street confectioner says that the amount of his sales is a surprise even to himself. There are Yucatan, barley, malt, chocolate, lemon, Honolulu and Mexican chicle, not to forget the original tutti-frutti. Many husbands claim that there is something to be said in favor of the practice. When a woman is chewing gum they claim she can't talk or scold.

The Mormons are said to have discovered this secret, and they purchase large quantities. Many a husband who has a scolding wife always keeps a supply in his vest pocket.

There is an old song of a man who had such a better-half, and he applied to a physician, who cut her chatting strings, and she ceased to talk. Then he tired of her silence, but there was nothing known to the physician's art by which a dumb woman can be made to talk. Had the chewing-gum habit been in vogue then, the song would never had been written, and many a man never would have been talked to death nor scolded into his coffin.—New York Star.

About the Teeth.

A physician remarked to me, the other day, that he did not suppose that 1 per cent, of the dentistry is being done that should be. He attributed the cause to ignorance, and wondered if in time the press would not be used as a means of educating the public to the importance of dentistry. One source of a great deal of suffering among children of parents who desire to save the teeth of the rising generation is the ignorance regarding the cutting of the second or permanent set. The first teeth of the permanent set to erupt are the first, or six year molars, which take their places back of the last molars of the first, or milk set. These teeth are more subject to decay than any others, and they are also very important, as they do the principal part of the mastication between the sixth and twelfth years. Parents frequently mistake these teeth for members of the milk set, hence neglect them, thinking that when they are lost new ones will take their places. Another source of suffering is the neglect of the milk set. These teeth should be filled and retained in the mouth until the second set is ready to take their places. Toothaches can be avoided by proper attention.—St. Louis Dentist.

Origin of "We Won't Go Home."

An interesting history of an old and well known comic tune was given by Professor Ensel, a music teacher, in a speech in the Music Teachers' Association recently. He said that when the army of the first Napoleon was in Egypt in 1799 the camp for awhile was near the pyramids. One afternoon about sunset the band was playing. The inhabitants of the desert had collected near and were listening to the music. Nothing unnatural happened until the band struck up a tune which we now hear under the name "We Won't Go Home Till Morning." Instantly there were the wildest demonstrations of joy amohg the Bedouins. They embraced each other and shouted and danced in the delirium of their pleasure. The reason was that they were listening to the favorite and oldest tune of their people. Professor Ensel then stated that the tune had been taken to Europe from Africa in the eleventh century by the Crusaders, and had lived separately in both countries for over seven hundred years. This is certainly enough to make "We Won't Go Home Till Morning" a classic. Its origin is more of a mystery than the source of the Nile.—Louisville Post.

A colored minister, wishing to notify his congregation that the Sunday afternoon services would be discontinued, said, "Hereafter in the afternoon there will be no preaching in the afternoon hereafter."
