Election, Tuesday, November 7th, '93.

Election next Tuesday, November 7. See that arrangements are made to bring out the full Republican vote.

A New Assessment—An Analogy.

"Do you want a new assessment?" asks the Advocate, and then proceeds to explain that the way to gratify that desire is to vote for Democratic nominees for the House of Delegates. They are pledged to a revaluation of property"—and the Advocate then goes on to quote the resolution of the Democratic county convention on the subject, which mildly expresses the opinion that the next General Assembly should pass an assessment law. But, says the Advocate, "The Republican nominees are not pledged to anything and if they were would not count for much in a Democratic Legislature." Both of these propositions are erroneous. The Republican State convention distinctly pledged the whole party of the State to a new and fair assessment of all property, and the country has just had the most convincing evidence of the potency of a Republican minority, in the passage of the Silver Purchase Repeal bill. Republicans act, Democrats make promises which they fail to keep. The Republicans are in a minority in both Houses of Congress, but they furnished more votes for repeal than their opponents, who were pledged by the Chicago platform to the measure, while the Minneapolis convention contented itself with declaring for a sound currency. The Republicans in Congress maintained the declaration by passing the repeal bill, which would otherwise have been defeated.

The situation on the assessment question is somewhat analogous to the attitude of parties on the Sherman law. The Democrats were pledged to its repeal. As a party they violated the pledge and the Republicans rescued the country from the supposed peril of a continuance of silver purchases, leaving other unobjectionable features of the law in force. The Democrats, as everybody knows, have repeated the pledge of a new assessment time and again and as often violated it, until its last repetition can only excite contempt and derision in the minds of those who know how skillfully former promises have been evaded or deliberately broken. If the people really desire a revaluation of property, the way to secure it is by voting for the Republican nominees for the House of Delegates, every one of whom is personally in favor of such a measure and will vote and work for it with earnest sincerity. Can as much be honestly said concerning all the Democratic candidates?

Hon. Frank T. Shaw, in his address to the Democrats of this county, announces that the pending election is more than local—that it has a national significance. So it has, and so let it be met. The Democrats are invited to vote the ticket of their party, whose representatives in the highest legislative body in the land, with few exceptions, only two weeks ago, signed a proposition to practically repudiate the plighted faith of the government. They are asked to cast their ballots for the nominees of the party pledged to undo the work of protection and introduce the system of free trade, the mere threat of which has silenced the ringing hammers of the forge, stopped the looms and closed the doors of innumerable mills, throwing out of employment hundreds of thousands of workingmen, and bringing proverty and desolation to myriads of homes in which peace and plenty reigned until this withering blight fell upon the land. Democrats of Carroll county! don't forget that in casting your ballots for the ticket nominated by your party, you will vote to spread this desolation still farther and wider over the land. Republicans of Carroll county! whatever may be the course of your Democratic friends and neighbors in this crisis, don't, by absence from the polls, indicate indifference to the consequences of further Democratic victory. Come out and vote solidly for the ticket which represents sound money and protection. Republican readers of the SENTINEL, we appeal to you to meet this issue with a determined front and when the polls close on Tuesday evening, let not one Republican vote be unpolled.

The Brooklyn Eagle, a leading Democratic paper, lays bare some monstrous Democratic frauds upon the registration in that city, where there is a strong revolt against the corrupt local ring. The frauds were perpetrated in the interest of Mayor Boody, who is a candidate for re-election, and of Maynard, the discredited candidate for judge of the Court of Appeals. Behind and instigating it all is David B. Hill, Ex-Governor and United States Senator.

Election, Tuesday, November 7th.

Tuesday next will be election day. See that your neighbor is prepared to vote, and set him a good example by voting the entire Republican ticket.

Thirty-two years of Republican rule and thirty-two years of unparalleled prosperity ended with the entry into power, on the fourth of March, of a Democratic Executive and Congress. The prosperity and the plenty have vanished as the dew-drop of the morning exhales under the scorching rays of a midsummer sun, and the party so lately invested with supreme authority now seeks to delude its followers by attributing the revulsion to bad Republican laws. The absurdity of this plea is too apparent to delude any but those who are wilfully blind to the truth. A system which produces beneficial results, with constant uniformity, for thirty-two years, does not lose its effect in a twinkling unless its operation be arrested by a hostile power, as has been the case in this matter. The result was anticipated and predicted by the Republicans as the inevitable consequence of a Democratic triumph. It has closely followed that event, and will increase in violence as Democratic policy is enacted into law. The way to arrest it is to give the dominant party a rousing defeat in every quarter of the country in which an election is to be held on Tuesday next. Such an object lesson may stay the hands of the free trade statesmen who are bent on reversing the economic system under which the country achieved the most wonderfully prosperous condition ever witnessed in the history of the world. The voters of Carroll county and of the State of Maryland should take a hand in teaching that lesson, and no Republican, especially, should withhold his hand from the ballot in this important crisis. Republicans of Carroll county, vote, VOTE, on Tuesday next.

One of the remarkable features of the present political campaign in this county is the great activity displayed in the conduct of the canvass by the executive committee of the Democratic central committee. Meetings and barbecues are being held and every possible means are being employed to awaken the enthusiasm of the Democratic voters, probably in the expectation that in the odor of roast meats, the fragrance of coffee and the delights of stirring music they may be made to forget the lamentable condition of the country under a Democratic administration, which promised "dollar wheat" as the reward of the farmer for his vote for free trade; increased orders and better prices to the manufacturer, and higher wages and cheaper living to the workingman for their share in the great reform. The people were misled by these promises into electing Mr. Cleveland. Will they be induced to endorse the work of the administration which they brought into being, under the stimulus of manufactured enthusiasm? Voters of Carroll county, give this matter a little sober thought and reflect upon the condition of the country before you cast your ballots as an added warrant to a free trade Congress to sweep the system of protection, which made the country prosperous, out of existence.

No Republican should be so indifferent to the public welfare as to neglect to cast his ballot at the election on Tuesday next.

In the address of the chairman of the Democratic county central committee to the Democratic voters of this county, it is alleged that "a large county debt, a legacy of Republican rule, has been swept off the county ledger." The address should have explained, in this connection, that for the payment of this debt, amounting, twenty-five years ago, to $65,000, a sum aggregating fully twice that amount has been levied upon the tax-payers since that time. It should also have explained, if the case were fairly put, just how and for what purpose the debt was incurred. Young Democrats reading the item will naturally conclude that it was a piece of Republican extravagance. When they are told that the debt was incurred to relieve the county of a draft for soldiers, by providing substitutes to fight the battles of the Union against the secession precipitated by Southern Democratic leaders, they may regard it in a different light.

While the Democratic managers in Carroll county are inviting voters to barbecued feasts and seeking to hold them in the ranks by appeals to their stomachs, it would be well for all to remember, that, as the effect of Democratic policy, there are all over the land, to-day, thousands of men without employment, and hosts of women and little children suffering for the bare necessaries of life. Many a hearthstone is cold upon which a year ago, blazed the fire of comfort and plenty. Voters of Carroll county, do you mean to sanction a continuance of this deplorable condition by an endorsement of the Democratic party and its suicidal policy, at the polls? If you don't want free-trade and ruined industries, with poverty and distress in every quarter, vote the Republican ticket at the approaching election.

Intelligent Democratic voters must have smiled incredulously when they read in the address of Hon. Frank T. Shaw, chairman of the Democratic county central committee, last week, that "to equalize the burden of taxation is the declared purpose of our (the Democratic) party." That has been the "declared purpose" of the party for nearly a decade of years, and it has repeatedly promised to carry the purpose into effect; but the least astute citizen must have long ago discovered that the managers have taxed their ingenuity to escape fulfillment of the promise without appearing to do so. The tax-dodgers evidently have a "pull" on the Democratic party of this State, else would a revaluation of property have taken place long ago. But a Democratic pledge on this subject is as valueless as a rope of sand and as readily broken.

The great Columbian World's Fair closed, officially, on Monday last, and is now a thing of the past. The paid admissions, during its continuance, reached nearly twenty-two millions. In this respect it fell short of the great Paris Exposition, but in every other it far exceeded all previous Fairs and, doubtless, will have no parallel for many a year to come.

Doubtless genuine party fealty is moving the managers of the Democratic campaign in this county, in the desperate efforts they are making in behalf of the ticket, but as most of them have been and still are—while others want to be—beneficiaries of the party spoils, a direct individual and personal interest may not unfairly be inferred. The rich plums of fat offices for long terms, don't come to the many, but they are expected to do the voting and keep the party in power that the favored few may continue to reap these rewards. It is almost surprising to what a limited circle the lucrative official positions have been confined during the long and unbroken period of Democratic rule in this county; but the masses do the voting while the benefits are circumscribed. Those who read this statement will need little reflection to convince them of its truth.

It takes a good deal of ingenuity to connect the election of a sheriff, in Carroll county, with the so-called Force Bill, but the chairman of the Democratic central committee has managed to introduce the subject in just that relation. It must be rather diverting to the intelligent members of the Democratic party, but then it may have its effect with those who are not aware that the force bill was simply a measure to put the election of members of Congress under National control, and that it provided for an equal representation of both parties in the election machinery, its sole purpose having been to insure "a free ballot and a fair count." The use of the bugaboo at this time shows that the party leaders are hard pressed for material with which to fire the Democratic heart.

President Cleveland has just paid another contributor to the fund for the promotion of his election, by an appointment to a responsible position abroad. The appointee is Mr. J. R. Roosevelt, of New York, a brother-in-law of Van Alen, who bought the Italian mission with a fifty thousand dollar contribution. Mr. Roosevelt gave ten thousand, and gets the place of Secretary to the Embassy at London. These transactions indicate that Mr. Cleveland's Lenox Lyceum speech, last year, in which he denounced the use of money in elections, was a hypocritical pretence. That is pretty strong language, but the facts in these cases seem to justify it.

President Cleveland signed the Silver Purchase Repeal bill on Wednesday, and on the same day the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company notified its employees at Wheeling, W. Va., of a ten per cent. reduction in their salaries. The two facts are not referred to here for the purpose of asserting the existance of any connection between them, but simply to remind the readers of the SENTINEL that it has always held that the existing industrial depression was not caused by the Sherman law. That law ceases but reduction of the wages of workingmen goes on and will grow severer as long as the Democratic attack on the protective system has a show of success.

The manner in which the Tammany Democrats of New York are attempting to railroad Maynard, their discredited candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, of that State, through the ballot to a seat on the bench, is forcibly illustrated by the registration at Gravesend. The male population of that place is 4,209, but 6,218 voters have been registered. Nearly one-half of those whose names have been placed on the lists are repeaters.

The assassination of Mayor Harrison has produced a perfect epidemic of cranks in New York City. Numbers of prominent citizens have received demands from these gentry and one, Mr. F. L. Mathias, who was superintending the erection of a building for the Postal Telegraph Company, was shot and seriously injured. The Superintendent of Police was called upon and requested to hand over $75,000 to a half-crazed individual who fancied himself the creditor of the official to that extent.

For the SENTINEL.

Nothing Goes Without an Affidavit.

MR. EDITOR.—The writer has been informed since the last issue of the SENTINEL, that the parties implicated in the article which appeared in its last issue under the title of "Mr. Arnold and the Sheriffalty," intend to deny the charge in this week's Advocate.

Now, unless the denial is under oath, it will amount to nothing. They started the affidavit business and nothing goes now unless sworn to.

The writer has also been informed that one of the gentlemen stated on the streets of Westminister, that the writer of said article had come very near getting all the facts, but that he would be compelled to deny the whole thing for the good of the party. Of course, I expected them to deny it. They could not afford to plead guilty to an indictment of that kind. But facts are facts.

PRESTO.

The firm of Wm. H. Hoffman & Sons, extensive paper manufacturers and property owners of Baltimore county, has made an assignment for the benefit of its creditors. The firm is composed of Messrs. George W. S. Hoffman, Wm. E. Hoffman and John W. Hoffman, all sons of the late Wm. H. Hoffman, who was one of the pioneer paper manufacturers of Baltimore county and who died a few years ago leaving a very large estate. A large portion of the product of their extensive paper mills was formerly shipped from the station at Alesia, on the B. & H. Branch of the W. Md. R. R. Several years ago a branch road was built from Alesia to the mills.

The store of T. F. Eyler, at Sabillasville, Frederick county, was broken into by thieves, on Monday night, who succeeded in getting away with about $50 worth of goods. They stole a large auger and other tools from the blacksmith shop of James Poole, adjoining, and with them forced a panel out of the door of the Eyler store.

Fourth-class postmasters have been appointed in Frederick county, as follows: W. L. Armacost, Gracehaim, Frederick county, vice H. A. Weller, removed; T. F. Eyler, Sabillasville, Frederick county, vice G. W. Manahan, removed.

Irenes B. Headington died suddenly of apoplexy on Tuesday night at the Blue Mountain Hotel. He leaves a widow, who was Miss Clara Shipley.

Carter Harrison Assassinated.

Ten minutes before 8 o'clock last Saturday night a young man called at the house of Mayor Carter Henry Harrison, of Chicago, and requested to see him on urgent business. The domestic who admitted him left him in the hall and notified the mayor, who at once went to his visitor and was greeted with repeated shots from a revolver, one of which entered his heart, causing his death in less than half an hour. The assassin left the house, went to a police station and delivered himself into the custody of the authorities. The atrocious deed was soon known throughout the city and aroused the greatest excitement and indignation. Threats of lynching were freely made but wiser counsels prevailed and the law will be permitted to take its course. The man who perpetrated this crime is named Patrick Eugene Prendergast. He is either insane or is simulating insanity. He pretends that the mayor promised to appoint him corporation counsel and then played him false and that he only did right in killing him. As Prendergast is not a lawyer, it is readily seen that such a promise could not have been made him; but the fact that the assassin alleges it, would strengthen the presumption of his insanity, provided, however, it is not a cunningly devised story, adopted merely to produce that effect.

The murdered mayor was no longer a young man, having reached his sixty-eighth year; but he was still hale and vigorous, mentally and physically, and full of ambition to attain to higher station, having been an aspirant for a seat in the United States Senate. He was a graduate of Yale College and was possessed of great natural ability. He was five times Mayor of Chicago, served in the Lower House of Congress and filled other public stations. He was a widower with adult children, but was on the eve of marriage with Miss Annie Howard, a young lady of New Orleans, who was prostrated with grief by the dreadful occurrence.

Mr. Harrison's grand-father was a brother of Benjamin Harrison, the great-grandfather of Ex-President Harrison, and these two distinguished descendants of a distinguished family were not unlike in personal appearance, although otherwise widely divergent in many respects. Mayor Harrison's warmest political supporters were the lawless elements of Chicago, and through them he triumphed in his last canvass. It may be that he is, himself, a victim of the very spirit fostered and strengthened by his course. However that may be, the crime of his taking off is not the less reprehensible and deplorable.

No Republican should be so indifferent to the public welfare as to neglect to cast his ballot at the election on Tuesday next.

The Repeal Bill Passed.

The Silver Purchase Repeal bill came to a vote on Monday, in the United States Senate, and was passed by yeas and nays, the total for repeal having been 43, to 32 against it. Of those voting in the affirmative 23 were Republicans and 20 Democrats. Classing Senators Stewart, of Nevada, and Allen of Nebraska, as Populists, with which party they have announced their identification, 9 Republicans, 20 Democrats and 3 Populists voted against repeal. Irby, of South Carolina, and Kyle, of South Dakota, are classed as Democrats. There were five pairs—3 Republicans and 2 Democrats who would have voted for repeal, and 2 Republicans and 3 Democrats who would have voted against repeal. This analysis gives 26 Republicans, 22 Democrats for repeal; 11 Republicans, 23 Democrats, 3 Populists against repeal. Following are the names as given in the analysis of the vote by the New York Press:

MR. CRABBS CONFIRMS HIS DENIAL.

To the Editor of the American Sentinel.

It has been reported in the Democratic Advocate that I intend, if elected Sheriff of Carroll County, to appoint Mr. Charles Sellman my deputy. There is not a word of truth in the report. I have never promised anyone. I have all I can do at present to look after my canvass.

S. A. CRABBS,
Rep. Candidate for Sheriff.

State of Maryland, Carroll County to-wit:

I hereby certify that on this 1st day of November, A. D., 1893, before me the subscriber, a Justice of the Peace of the State of Maryland, in and for Carroll county, personally appeared Samuel A. Csabbs, the Republican nominee for Sheriff, and made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God that the matters and things stated in the above communication are true to the best of his knowledge and belief.

Mr. Sellman's Affidavit.

NEW WINDSOR, MD., Nov. 2nd, 1893.

It having been reported in the Democratic Advocate, and reiterated in that paper by Mr. R. Charles Matthews, that Mr. Samuel A. Crabbs, the Republican nominee for Sheriff, has promised, in the event of his election to that office, to appoint me his Deputy, I beg to say, in the most emphatic manner, that no such promise has ever been made to me by Mr. Crabbs, nor is there any understanding to that effect between us. My support is given to Mr. Crabbs because he is my personal friend; because I consider him a better man for the place than Mr. Arnold, and because I think Mr. Arnold has been nominated once too often by the Democratic party.

CHARLES H. SELLMAN.

State of Maryland, Carroll County, ss:

I hereby certify that on this 2nd day of November, 1893, before me, the subscriber, a Justice of the Peace of the State of Maryland in and for Carroll county, aforesaid, personally appeared Charles H. Sellman, and made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God, that the matters and things set forth in the aforegoing statement are true, to the best of his knowlege and belief.

The object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of the real estate of which Joseph H. Hartsock, late of Carroll county, deceased, died seized and possessed, lying and being in Carroll county and in Frederick county, in the State of Maryland.

The bill states that Joseph H. Hartsock departed this life in Carroll county, in the State of Maryland, on the 7th day of September, A. That said real estate cannot be divided without loss or injury to the parties interested and that it would be to the interest and advantage of all parties herein, that said real estate be sold and the proceeds distributed among the parties entitled thereto according to their respective rights and interests.

The bill prays for the passage of a decree for sale of the real estate and for other relief.

It is thereupon, this second day of November, A. D., 1893, ordered by the Circuit Court for Carroll county, sitting as a Court of Equity, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Carroll county, once in each of four successive weeks before the fourth day of December, 1893, give notice to the said non-resident defendants of the object and substance of this bill of complaint, warning them and each of them to appear in this Court, in person or by solicitor, on or before the 21st day of December next, to show cause if any they have why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
