He Didn't Want any Flies on His Plate.

[From Detroit Free Press.]

"Not guilty, your Honor, and I'll tell you how it was," begun Charles Martin Rose, "I've been boarding up on Croghan street. We don't get half enough to eat, there's no ice to keep things cool, and the flies are awful."

"State how many flies there are in that house," said the court.

"I can't do it, sir; they are measured by the bushel. Well, last night, when we sat down to supper, there were flies in the butter, in the tea, in the milk and thousands of flies tumbling over the bread and cold meat. I didn't like it, sir, and I told the landlady I didn't, and when she called me a chickadeeman I packed my trunk. She wouldn't let me take it away, and so we had a fuss. She tore my collar off and pushed me over a chair, and I believ I pinched her arm. If there had been no flies there would have been no fuss."

"Nature created the fly and pronounced him perfect," softly answered the court. "Flies have just as much right in this world as you or I."

"But I don't want 'em around me."

"But perhaps you are in the way of the fly as much as he is in your way. Fly or no fly, you raised the row and I shall have to fine you five dollars. We cannot get through life and not meet with annoyances. I've had boils when I knew they wern't necessary, I've had the ague when no one else in the county had it. Flies have bothered me, and on seven different occasions the doctors have pronounced me a dead man. Am I not living yet—am I not fat and happy and contented?"

"Here's your money, and I'll die before I'll let flies eat off of my plate!" muttered the prisoner as he reached for his hat. Some of the boys sympathized with him, and when he went out one of them followed at his heels and earnestly inquired:

"Don't you think the flies of this country are sapping the life-blood of industry?"

A PICTURE OF GENERAL ZACHARY TAYLOR.—General James Shields thus describes his first interview with General Taylor: "I was sent with my brigade to report on the Rio Grande. After getting my command into camp I put on the most showy uniform I had and spent much time in rigging myself up to do honor to such an occasion as the meeting with the commander-in-chief of the army of occupation. Arrived at headquarters I inquired for General Taylor, and was shown into a tent by the orderly, who went away to announce me. Presently entered a hard-featured but still very benevolent-faced man, quite undersized, who, from his appearance, would easily have been taken for a wagoner. A great flapping straw hat crowned his head, he had no collar, a linen coat, and the coarse pantaloons he wore had no suspicion of rank about them, and his unstockinged feet were covered by common infantry shoes. While I was trying to figure out in my mind what this apparation could be he grasped my hand and heartily exclaimed, 'I'm very glad to see you here, General Shields, and will cut out some work for your command before long.' And this was actually General Zachary Taylor, one of the bravest, kindest and noblest of men that ever lived."

THE AMERICAN NATIONAL RIFLE TEAM.—The fourth and last competition for positions on the American National Rifle Team was finished at Creedmore on Wednesday afternoon. The weather was splendid while the competition lasted, and some splendid records were made. The team total of the eight highest scores sums up to 1,640 out of a possible 18,000 points, this being by six points a higher score than was made three weeks ago on the same ground and by nearly the same men. It is the best team score that has ever been made by eight men in any match or competition. Mr. I. L. Allen is again at the head of the list with a splendid showing of 212 out of a possible 225 points, Jackson following with 211. Dakin 210, Jewell 209, Weber 202, Clark 200, Hepburn 198. It may now be confidentially predicted that the following gentlemen will compose the American team of 1877: Messrs. Dakin, Jewell, Allen, Jackson, Blydenburgh, Hyde, Bruce and Weber.

WON'T TAKE IT.—Many of Mr. Vanderbilt's workmen refuse to accept their share of his $100,000 sop. They say they are not to be bought for $8 a man, nor for any amount. One of them, signing himself "of a family of six, living on $1.30 a day," makes this statement in a communication to the New York Sun, and further says: "We want no charity. We want a just and proper remuneration for an honest day's work. It is true that bread and water will keep us alive, but what is life on such a fare? Why should we subsist on it when officers of the road live on the luxury of the land, and waste daily what would support many families! We, the Brotherhood, intend to demand unity, peacefully, fair pay, and look to the press and people for help."

GENERAL CROOK is an Indian fighter and a man with practical ideas. He says the character of Indian fighting has changed within the last three years, and that the hostiles are now better armed than the regulars, while they almost always shoot better. He also says that in almost every instance trouble with the Indians arises from injustice done them by white people. Putting this and that together, we conclude that a new Indian policy is the most imperative necessity of the times.

ARE you going to the Sea Side, or are you there already? In either case procure some of Glenn's Sulphur Soap, if you would increase the luxury of the bath, render your skin white and healthy, and remove freckles or sun burn. Sold by all Druggists. Hill's Hair and Whisker Dye, black or brown, 50 cents. aug25-4t.

"Do you understand the nature of an oath?" a juryman asked in a St. Louis court. "Of course I do," was the reply. "Do you mistake me for a member of Congress?"

THE American tramp is coming up for discussion at the Social Science Congress at Saratoga.

How it is Done.

The first object in life with the American people is to "get rich"; the second, how to regain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second, (good health,) by using GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWERS. Should you be a despondent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Indigestion, &c., such as Sick Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Costiveness, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, &c., you need not suffer another day. Two doses of AUGUST FLOWER will relieve you at once. Sample bottles 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. Positively sold by at first-class Druggists in the U. S.

The fifth section provides that the officers of Registration shall, before striking from said list of qualified voters and from said books of registration the name of any registered person, diligently inquire and accurately ascertain that said registered person does not possess, or before the election next ensuing will not possess, the requisite qualifications to entitle him to be registered as a qualified voter in such precinct or election district, or that such person is disqualified under the provisions of the second and third Sections of the first Article of the Constitution; and if it shall appear that said registered person does not possess or will not possess said qualifications, and that he is so disqualified, then said officer shall strike the name of such person from said list of qualified voters and said books of registration, but if it shall appear otherwise then such officer shall not strike the name of such person from said books of registration and from said list of qualified voters; and before registering as a qualified voter any person who has applied to said Officers of Registration to be registered as a qualified voter, said officer shall diligently inquire and accurately ascertain that such person possesses or will possess before the election next ensuing the requisite qualifications to entitle him to be registered as a qualified voter, and that he is not disqualified under the provisions of the second and third sections of the first Article of the Constitution; and if it shall appear that said person so applying possesses or will possess before said day of election said qualifications, and is not so disqualified, then said officers of registration shall register the name of such person as a qualified voter; but they shall not register the name of any person who does not or will not possess said qualifications or is so disqualified; and when any person applying, as aforesaid, for registration, shall have been previously registered within this State, the officer of registration to whom such application is made, before registering such person shall demand and receive from him a certificate of his previous legal registration, and such certificate of previous registration shall be cancelled by the officer who shall register such person anew.

The thirteenth section provides that no person shall be entitled to be or remain registered in any precinct or election district, unless he shall have been a resident of the State for one year, and of the city of Baltimore, or the county in which registration is claimed, for six months next preceding the next ensuing election, at which such registration would be evidence of the right of the person so registered to vote; and in case any county or city shall be so divided as to form portions of different electoral districts for the election of representatives in Congress, delegates or other officers, then to entitle a person to be or remain registered in any particular section or part of such county or city, he must have been a resident of that part or section of the electoral district in which he claims to be or is registered for six months next preceding the next election, at which such registration would be evidence of the right of the person so registered to vote; and the residence necessary to entitle any person to be or remain so registered, shall be an actual bona fide residence within the precinct or district within which such person may claim to reside and to be registered, and such actual bona fide residence shall be established upon the oath or affirmation of competent evidence to the satisfaction of the register to whom the application is made, and to the satisfaction of the judge or judges to whom any appeal is made under the provisions of this Act; and the neglect or refusal of any person deeming himself aggrieved by the refusal of any officer of registration to register his name, or by the striking off of his name from the list of qualified voters, to appeal by petition from such action, as provided for in this act, shall be deemed and taken to be conclusive evidence that the said person was rightfully refused registration, or that the name of such person was rightfully stricken from the list of qualified voters of such precinct or election district.

The law further provides, that whilst discharging the duties imposed by the several sections of this act, said officers of registration shall have and exercise the powers of a Justice of the Peace for the preservation of order around the place of registration, and may compel the presence of witnesses for the purpose of obtaining any information necessary to an intelligent discharge of the duties of their office; they shall have power to issue summonses, attachments and commitments, to any constable or sheriff, who shall serve such process as if issued by a Judge of a Court or a Justice of the Peace.

GALENA MACHINE SHOPS!

Wm. A. Hyland & Co.

WE beg leave to call the attention of the Farmers of Kent and the adjoining counties to our new and the many IMPROVEMENTS we have made this year. Our Self-Oiling PITMAN BOX, which will run two hours without stopping to oil; also, case hardened Journals, which we think is a great advantage, preventing the wearing of the Journals, a trouble that all other machines have to contend with. We are now using a Guard with concaved centre, which will PREVENT CHOKING and always present a Sharp Cutting Edge, a thing that must present itself to the farmer at once. Also, a Knife with Steel Back, thereby adding Strength, Lightness and Elasticity; and our PATENT STEEL WIRE DROP, that overcomes all objections to a Dropper, working as well in light as heavy grain, a thing that has been long needed and found at last by us.

We make the Reapers of two sizes, for two and four horses. The four-horse Reaper cuts a Swath of six feet, and will cut from twenty-five to thirty acres of grain per day, and will not work the horses as hard as ordinary farm work. The five foot machine is intended for two horses, and is handled very easily. Farmers, call and see, or write to us and learn what we have for sale.

They are the proprietors of a Corn Sheller with Fan attachment, which with their one and two horse power, will shell and clean seventy-five bushels in one hour, of which fact good reference can be given.

REPAIRING

they do neatly, and all their work is done at reasonable prices, and say to all, encourage home manufacture, or at all events give them a trial.

THE CRAWFORD MOWER

so justly celebrated for its light draft, and good work done by it, they also keep for sale.

Also, the Celebrated Taylor Rake
