An Interesting Comparison.

The Philadelphia Press has made a careful compilation of the aggregate vote of all the States, at the recent Congressional election, except that of Florida and Nevada, which could not be obtained. A comparison of this vote with that of the Presidential election in 1892, exhibits some interesting changes. The aggregate vote at the recent election, with the omissions named, was 11,263,377 The Republican vote was 5,588,326, only a little short of the combined vote of the Democrats, Populists and Prohibitionists. The Democratic vote was 4,148,456, the Populist 1,246,752, and the Prohibitionist 219,843. As compared with 1892, there was an increase of 413,124 in the Republican vote, a decrease of 1,408,462 in the Democratic, an increase of 205,724 in the Populist, and a decrease of 44,290 in the Prohibitionist. The aggregate vote fell only 847,259 short of that for President in 1892.

The Delavan House at Albany was destroyed by fire on Sunday night. 12 or 15 persons employed in the building are missing and, it is supposed, perished in the flames.

Forty one persons perished in a fire at a Christmas tree festival at Silver Lake, Ore., on Christmas eve.

Shipley Items.

We are enjoying the sleighing and every one who can raise a horse and sleigh is out for the fun. We all had a merry Christmas and have entered upon the New Year with new hopes and new resolutions.

Mr. Burgess N. Williams, one of our most esteemed citizens and neighbors, is critically ill with dropsy and heart disease. Dr. Joseph T. Hering is the attending physician.

On Monday morning, 31st ultimo., at 5 o'clock, Mr. D. E. McQuay got up as usual to make his morning fire. He went into the store for something and set the coal-oil lamp upon the counter. The cat followed him into the store and seeing a mouse, leaped for it over the counter where the lamp stood, which was knocked to the floor and broken. The oil ignited and a general conflagration followed. Mr. McQuay ran to rescue his sick wife and child. The powder in the store soon exploded, then the coal oil barrel, bursting off all the doors of the store room and hall leading to the parlor and kitchen. The family barely escaped with their lives in their night clothes, as the explosions caused the flames to spread into every room in less than 3 minutes after the lamp was broken. Everything in the house was destroyed. The loss is probably $2,000, or over. The property burnt was partially insured. The barn, shop, machinery, and stock were all saved.

For the SENTINEL.

A New Year's Eve Party.

A scene of havoc and despair, wrought by fierce tempests in mid-summer, contrasted vastly with the brilliantly illuminated windows, the melody of bells, and the sound of cheery voices at the substantial home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Englar, on New Year's Eve. A large coterie of invited guests took possession of their elegant apartments and held them with unabated merriment until the bells rang the old year out, and the new year in. At a timely hour we were invited to the dining room, where was served a toothsome collation of eatables and potables. Humor, when unbridled, and rivalry to see who can have the best time, sharpen the appetite, but here we found more than could be encompassed. Later in the night the merry company were entertained by games and diversions of a suitable character, which made time speed swifter than one desired. Long after the hour when, as Irving says, New Year comes in like "a jolly, fat-sided alderman," the last of the company wheeled into line with the first, and bade the generous host and hostess a kind "good-night," with "many returns of the same." Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John C. Buckey, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Nicodemus, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Devilbiss, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. T. Repp, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Englar, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Smelser, Mr. and Mrs. C. Sellman, Mrs. J. W. Snader, Mrs. Vernon E. Wampler, Misses Mollie Manahan, Jennie Paine, Amelia C. Engel, Ida H. Devilbiss, Maggie Engel, Florence Barnes, Leah Ensor, Lena Lambert, Dora Johnson, Sylvia Evans, Fannie Ecker, Carrie Stouffer, Carrie Smith, Messrs. Howard Ensor, Ed. Barnes, Lee Myers, Edgar Ecker, Frank Snader, Charles Ecker, Walter Englar, Jos. E. Englar, Grant Devilbiss and also Mr. Jesse Baile, of Frederick.

HARRIS' ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

One of the several reasons assigned for the great success of the Princess Bonnie in Philadelphia, is that it appeals directly to the refined element of theater patronage. This is to be traced, so it is said to an entire absence of coarseness and rough buffoonery. The better class of theater goers of Philadelphia were so carried away by Mr. Spensel's opera, that they continually feted and feasted pretty nearly every member of the company. The Reverend Dr. McConnell the Rector of the very aristocratic St. Stephens' Episcopal Church of Philadelphia, and the Rev. Dr. Furness, the celebrated Unitarian divine and the oldest minister in the pulpit to day both entertained Mr. and Mrs. Spenser and Miss Mayo at different times during the famous run of the opera. "Princess Bonnie" will be produced at Harris' Academy Baltimore, week beginning January 7th, when the original cast will appear.

AGE IMPROVES IT.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION is soon to enter upon its sixty-ninth year of publication, and as one says who has been a constant reader of its columns for more than thirty years, "It has steadily improved year by year." Its articles to-day cover the whole field of life and experience, furnishing a vast amount of valuable and entertaining reading of a character not found elsewhere, and of so great a variety that THE COMPANION interests alike each member of the family.

The Prospectus of the volume of 1895 announces an unusual array of attractions; fourteen serial stories, a wealth of short stories, anecdotes, humorous sketches, adventures, science and home articles, timely editorials on all important questions, and more than two hundred original poems of the highest class.

Full Prospectus and specimen copies sent free on application. New subscribers who send $1.75 now will receive the paper free to January 1, 1895, and one year from that date. It comes every week. Finely illustrated.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, Boston Mass.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

The enormous circulation of The New York Tribune, now the largest of any political weekly in the United States, undoubtedly did much to influence the country in the right direction in the late campaign. Having sharpened its arrow and spear afresh, The Tribune has again taken the trail for big game. To secure the Presidency in 1896 for the Republican party, is now the object of its labors. The Tribune is a great paper and is commended to our readers. Roswell G. Horr's articles on the Tariff, Coinage and Labor, are alone worth the price of the paper. Friendly to the old soldier, devoting much space to Agriculture, and printing every week superb and absolutely unequalled Market Reports, editorially able and entertaining. The Tribune is worthy a place in every home. It illustrates the news of the day profusely. Thousands of Democrats take it for its articles on public affairs and its purity, decency and freedom from smut. The Tibune stands like a rock against the reactionary policies of the Democratic party. Every Republican should have it. The Tribune Almanac for 1895, out in January, and 25 cents a copy, will be valuable on account of its full returns of the phenomenal elections of 1894.

M., after which the ladies of the Woman's Relief Corps will hold an oyster supper. Patriotic addresses will be delivered by well known speakers and a good time is anticipated. The public is cordially invited to be with us.

Castoria promotes Digestion, and overcomes Flatulency, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhœa, and Feverishness. Thus the child is rendered healthy and its sleep natural. Castoria contains no Morphine or other narcotic property.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 South Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"From personal knowledge and observation I can say that Castoria is an excellent medicine for children, acting as a laxative and relieving the pent up bowels and general system very much. Many mothers have told me of its excellent effect upon their children." DR. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass.

"For several years I have recommended 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial results." EDWIN F. PARDEE, M. D., 125th Street and 7th Ave., New York City.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach." CARLOS MARTYN, D. D., New York City.

Trade Palace,

33 E. MAIN STREET.

This week, the first business week of 1895, M. Schneeberger sounds the signal note of keen business activity. This week we announce to all our friends the commencement of our

Great Reduction Sale,

which includes all of our Woolen Dress Goods, Dress Trimmings, Ladies' Coats, Ladies', Children's and Men's Woolen Underwear, Blankets, red and white Flannels, in fact every winter article will be sacrificed. We have thrown our whole weight and superior facilities to long remembered by each and every customer; and it will pay you to put off making your purchases until you have investigated our matchless values.

Ladies' and Children's Coats,

25 PER CENT. BELOW COST.

To get a good fine coat at such price we advise you to come quick, as only the quick will get them.

WOOLEN DRESS GOODS,

25 PER CENT. BELOW COST.

We know you have waited for some of those great bargains. True, we reduced our prices some time ago, yet we didn't exactly strike your fancy. We know you're an exacting public, and we're going to meet your demands even if we lose money doing it.

WOOLEN BLANKETS,

25 PER CENT. BELOW COST.

Although the cold weather just set in, yet we make such startling reductions, we know no other business house would make. Money is not taken in consideration when your friendship is in the balance.

Just arrived, 6,000 yards of best Pacific Print Remnants, so well known to you all, at	5c.
1,000 yards fine Bleached Muslin Remnants, worth 10 cts., at	7c.
2,000 yards 40-inch wide Brown Muslin, worth 10 cts., at	6c.
20 pieces of the best Unbleached Canton Flannel, sold always at 12½ cts., during this sale at	8c.

SPECIAL.

Buttermilk Soap, sold everywhere at 10 cts. a cake, we sell now at 5 cts., or, per box	15c.

It's the same old story—We've been underselling one and all ever since we opened last year, and are getting too much used to it to quit. If you want genuine bargains make Schneeberger's Trade Palace your destination.

Look to Your Interest, People.

Big Slaughter in Wall Paper.

MY PRICES RANGE FROM 12c. TO 30c. PUT ON WALL. GILT 20c. TO 25c. ALL PAPER 8 YARDS LONG

These are not living prices. You may say how do I live. I have no rent to run a store and fuel, &c., and do all of my own work. I don't pay any hands one year to do three months' work in season. This is a chance to get papering done cheap. Take advantage while you have a chance. I will do as before, done by me. I can give the best references in the county.

Guarantee All Work

There has been a great deal said about me being a scab workman, but it was only said by those who can't compete with me in price and workmanship and who are afraid of me—never by a party that I did work for. Write for sample and price, or I will come to see you in person and tell you what your job will cost. I can be found 300 yards from the limit of Westminster on the Littlestown turnpike.

Thankful for past favors,
Very Respectfully,
L. GLADHILL.
