REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS,
ROBERT GARRETT,
OF BALTIMORE COUNTY.

ELECTION, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6TH.

ELECTION, TUESDAY,
NOVEMBER 6th, 1906.
Polls open from 8 a. m., till 6 p. m.
VOTE FOR
ROBERT GARRETT.

Democrats in this locality who want to throttle Hearstism once for all—and their name is legion—should aid in that good work by voting for Robert Garrett for Congress.

One of the best methods of strangling Hearstism in its incipiency, is to elect an overwhelming Republican majority to the House of Representatives of the Sixtieth Congress.

The best thing the Democrats of Maryland who want to save their party from destructive and entangling alliances with Hearstism, Socialism and Populism can do is to vote for the Republican candidates for Congress.

Democratic leaders are endeavoring to induce voters to repeat the experience which immediately followed the election of 1892. Every stay-at-home Republican will be a party to that effect if it shall succeed. No believer in protection can afford to give his tacit consent to its overthrow by remaining away from the polls.

No Republican should require urging to go to the polls on Tuesday next and cast his ballot for the nominee of his party for Congress. Every consideration of fidelity to principle should prompt such action. A terrific onslaught is being made upon the policy of protection, which has repeatedly lifted the country out of the adversity and hard times to which it had been brought by free trade.

Robert Garrett, the Republican candidate for Congress from the Second District of Maryland, is the highest type of the true American citizen. His political methods are pure and free from the taint of corruption and corrupting influences. His election to Congress would do much to elevate the standard of politics in Maryland and would give a black eye to pot houses and pot house politicians. In view of the methods of his Democratic opponent he deserves the support, not only of every Republican, but of those Democrats as well who profess abhorrence of the political debauchery especially characteristic of that opponent's own county.

No Republican voter should delude himself with the notion that because the President is a Republican and the Senate will remain so for the next two years at least, it will not matter much if a majority of Democrats shall be elected to the House of Representatives of the Sixtieth Congress. The great work of controlling trusts and protecting the people in their rights, so happily met by the first session of the Fifty-ninth Congress, should go on unhampered by an unsympathetic Democratic majority in the Lower House. Every Republican should discharge his high duty by going to the polls on election day and casting his ballot for the candidate of his party for the House of Representatives.

WHAT ARE THEIR PURPOSES?

It might be interesting to inquire, if there were the possibility of eliciting a trustworthy reply, just what object the Democratic party has in view in its efforts to secure control of the General Government, by electing a majority of the House of Representatives this year, and, if successful in that purpose, to follow up its victory by another and more important one in 1908. Does it look forward to taking over the trunk line railroads of the country, as suggested by its leader-in-chief, Mr. Bryan? or does it contemplate the conversion of the nation into a socialistic power, as seems probable by its alliance with the Independence League in New York and its support of Hearst, the Socialist leader in that State, for Governor of the great Commonwealth? No doubt most Maryland Democrats would give a negative answer to these queries, and yet the influences at work within the Democratic party to make the questions referred to living issues are strong enough to lead all thoughtful citizens to realize the dangers which threaten the country through these agencies.

If Democrats who are hostile to these new issues, raised within their party, are content to ignore them and struggle to gain a victory by which the dangers threatened will be emphasized, Republicans, at least, should not be content to idly view the contest now raging and the consequences which may follow its result. It is time for every Republican to awaken to the perils which threaten the country through Democratic agencies, and for the party to present a united front against the dangerous theories of Bryan and Hearst.

One of the most effective ways of interposing an effective check to Bryanism and Hearstism is to achieve an overwhelming Republican victory in the pending congressional election. The Republicans have it in their power to do this by polling their full strength at the election on Tuesday. There is reason to believe that they will have the assistance of a number of Democrats, especially in the Second Congressional district of Maryland, who are not only hostile to the methods of their own candidate, but see clearly the dangerous consequences to the country of their party's alliance with political Socialism.

In this crisis, therefore, it becomes the duty of every Republican to lay aside personal grievances, to arouse from indifference and engage actively in efforts to poll the full Republican vote on Tuesday next.

ELECTION, TUESDAY,
NOVEMBER 6th, 1906.
Polls open from 8 a. m., till 6 p. m.
VOTE FOR
ROBERT GARRETT.

REPUBLICANS!

Discharge the highest duty and exercise the highest privilege of a citizen by voting on Tuesday next, and vote for ROBERT GARRETT, the friend and champion of purity in politics.

No Republican should absent himself from the pools on Tuesday. Important issues are involved and dire consequences to every class of citizens might follow the election of a Democratic majority to the House of Representatives. Let every Republican vote in this county be polled for Robert Garrett.

New and dangerous issues are being forced upon American voters for their consideration. As usual the Republicans stand by their principles, while their leading opponents, called, by courtesy, Democrats, are, in some localities, coalescing with the disciples of political Socialism. If the tide of that heresy is to be successfully stemmed everybody realizes that it must be done by the Republican party. Some of the most decided Democrats in this locality are hoping and praying for the defeat of Hearst in New York, and there are probably few thoughtful members of that party in Maryland who do not realize that Hearstism is a menace to it as well as a danger to the country. For that reason they will rejoice if he shall be defeated. It seems inconsistent that, while entertaining these views and knowing that the country must be saved from this new danger by the Republican party, they are making every possible effort to defeat that party at home. And this being the case, Republicans should concentrate their energies in a grand effort to prevent a Democratic victory. Let us have a full vote and a fair count in this emergency and there is reason to hope that, with the aid of Democrats whose party prejudices do not utterly control them, a Republican victory may be won in the Second district and Robert Garrett elected to Congress.

GO TO THE POLLS.

Only one possibility of danger to Republican success in the elections this fall can be conjured up in reason, and that is over confidence and apathy of the Republican voters. It is easy to understand how the Republicans at large may fall into this error. No great public crisis exists. On the contrary, everything is quiet and prosperous. It is hard to imagine the voters listening to Democratic appeals for a change. But it is just in such times of profound peace, politically, that dominant parties sometimes lose their hold. "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty," said the philosopher, and the saying is certainly true of political parties. In the moment of relaxation comes the enemy. It will not do for the Republicans this fall to say that there is no danger and no use to bestir themselves at the polls.

Every Democrat clamoring for a change will set out early and work late on election day. Don't let them catch you napping, because your business is good, or your crops large, or work is pressing. Take time to get to the polls, and take your neighbor along. Your business will not be so good a year hence if the Democrats should carry the House of Representatives this fall. You wil have leisure in the next election, in that event, and do not forget it.

A republican majority exists in this country, as has been shown in every election since 1896. Nothing has happened since the last election to warrant a change of heart among the people. The votes are there, but remember that they must be brought out. Do not sit by the fireside and snuggle up to the idea that the country does not need your vote. Go out and put it in the ballot-box, and be a participant in another big Republican majority for a Republican House. GO TO THE POLLS.

Nearly sixty people were drowned like rats in a trap, in electric cars at Atlantic City, on Sunday morning. Several cars of a train, on the new electric road from Philadelphia to Atlantic City, jumped from the track in crossing the bridge over the Throoughfare surrounding that resort, and plunged into the waters below. Most of their occupants were unable to escape from the submerged cars and perished. About 20 persons were injured. The bridge is a "draw" and a vessel had just passed through as the train approached. It was at first asserted that the "draw" had not been securely fastened when the forward car, running at a high rate of speed, reached it, and that this was the cause of the derailment. Another account says that the front car was jostled from the track by the high rate of speed at which the train was running, and the second and third followed it. Whatever the cause may have been, however, it is certain that by the observance of the proper care the accident could have been avoided. The victims were excursionists from Philadelphia, and in some instances whole familes perished.

The Postoffice Department is looking up violations of Section 484 of the Postal Laws and Regulations, which forbids the concealment of letters and other first-class matter in packages of second, third, or fourth class matter. Some violations of this provision are known to have occurred in this city and an inspector was here this week investigating them. The fine for each violation of the law is $10 and must be paid or prosecution will follow, entailing serious inconvenience, trouble and expense. All packages despatched from and received at the office are being inspected and where written matter shall be found concealed in a second, third or fourth class package, the penalty prescribed will be imposed. The force of the postoffice here has received strict orders to see that the law is obeyed. The approach of the holiday season emphasizes the warning to forbear its trangession.

MADE HAPPY FOR LIFE.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent, at St. Albans, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitus' Dance, which yielded to no treatment but grew steadily worse until as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters; and I rejoice to say, three bottles effected a complete cure." Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weaknesses, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed at all Drug Stores. Price 50 cents.

HAD A CLOSE CALL.

"A dangerous surgical operation, involving the removal of a malignant ulcer, as large as my hand, from my daughter's hip, was prevented by the application of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says A. C. Stickel, of Miletus, W. Va. "Persistent use of the Salve completely cured it." Cures Cuts, Burns and Injuries. 25c at all Drug Stores.
