STATE OF MARYLAND,
CITY OF BALTIMORE, ss.
BY JAMES CALHOUN, Mayor of the city of Baltimore.

A PROCLAMATION.
WHEREAS it has this day been represented to me by the commissioners of health, that they entertain a well founded apprehension that the malignant disease, with which the cities of Philadelphia and New-York are at this time unhappily afflicted, may be introduced amongst us, unless the usual intercourse be restrained;
I have, therefore, in pursuance of the advice of the said commissioners of health, issued this proclamation, hereby forbidding the entrance into the city of Baltimore, or within three miles thereof, of all persons whomsoever, as well as all baggage or other goods, which shall come from the said cities of Philadelphia and New-York, until they shall have been at least fifteen days absent therefrom, excepting only the public mail and such persons or things, as the commissioners of health may admit by a special licence, in consequence of no circumstance appearing to them, whereby the health of the city may be endangered.
This proclamation to remain in force until publickly revoked by me, of which all persons concerned are to take notice, and govern themselves accordingly, under the penalty of three hundred dollars for every offence, one half to the informer, and the other half for the use of the corporation.
Given under my hand, and the corporate seal of the city of
(L. S.) Baltimore, this fourteenth day of September, eighteen hundred and three.
JAMES CALHOUN, Mayor of the city of Baltimore.
