WESTMINSTER, - MARYLAND.

W. L. W. Seabrook, - Editor.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

FRIDAY, JUNE 7, 1907.

The Republican State Executive Committee will meet in Baltimore next Wednesday, 12th inst., to decide upon the date for the State Convention.

HARDLY A CAUSE FOR PREFERMENT.

Numerous Marylanders who served in the Confederate army and some who did not—among them Governor Warfield—attended the Confederate reunion and the unveiling of a monument to Jefferson Davis, in Richmond, Va., a few days ago. One of the most prominent of these visitors was Col. Spencer C. Jones, of Rockville, who served as a private in the Confederate army from an early period in the war until its close. The colonel's gubernatorial aspirations are well known to his old comrades and they expressed a lively interest in his behalf. Congressman Talbott and his desire to become a United States Senator are also known and he shared with Col. Jones the good wishes of the Confederate veterans. One grizzled old soldier is quoted as saying:

"See here, it is pretty nearly time we old Confederates in Maryland were getting what is due us. We want Spencer Jones for Governor and Fred Talbott for Senator this time, and we are going to come mighty near getting it, too."

As Maryland was a loyal State and sent about fifty thousand of her sons into the U. S. Army to fight for the preservation of the Union, service against the old commonwealth and the cause which she espoused, is hardly a cause for political preferment within her borders. Fortunately and happily the time has come when the great body of those in the State who stood by the Federal Government entertain no hostility to the political advancement of those who sympathised with or served the Confederate cause. No Republican would make it a cause of opposition to Col. Jones or Mr. Talbott that they fought for the Confederacy, believing, as they did, in the right of secession. That is now a dead issue. Why then should such service be held as a reason for conferring high office in Maryland, on either of the gentlemen named? Their present principles and fitness for the stations to which they aspire should be the only consideration in the matter and their success will only be opposed by the Republicans for those reasons. There is nothing to be said against Col. Jones on the latter proposition, but it is doubtful whether Mr. Talbott is the sort of timber out of which to make a United States Senator.

Will Let Court Decide.

Acting on the advice of John P. Poe, the Democratic managers have determined to test the question raised by Attorney-General Wm. Shepherd Bryan, Jr., in reference to the Primary Election law.

Mr. Bryan gave Gov. Warfield an opinion that the law applied to the whole State, as well as to Baltimore. Mr. Poe and others do not agree with Mr. Bryan on this point, but as he raised the question, they consider it best to have a judicial interpretation, that there may be no question as to the legality of the nominations in the counties.

It has been decided, it is said, that steps shall be taken in this county to have the case decided in court. Some Democratic registered voter will ask for a mandamus against the Supervisors of Election of the county, and the question will be taken to court, where a ruling can be obtained. F. Neale Parke and B. F. Crouse, Esqs., are, it is stated, to take the initiative and bring the matter before the court in the manner suggested. The proceeding is to be taken at once and a decision reached, if possible, in time to carry the case to the Court of Appeals for judgment, if necessary, before the late primaries. The law, it is conceded, does not apply to State nominations.

Snow fell in New York on the first Sunday in the summer month of June. The flakes were not of the sort that make sleighing and snowballs, nor did they fall as snow all the way to the pavements, but, coming from a colder strata, they snarled about the tops of the skyscrapers and, before dissolving, added a midwinter touch to the most remarkable June 2 that New Yorkers have known.

WEDDING BELLS.

Hood-Dorsey.

On June 4th, inst., the home of Rev. G. W. Cecil, of Taylorsville, the officiating clergyman, was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding, the contracting parties having been Mr. James B. Hood, of Mount Airy, and Miss Grace F. Dorsey, of Sykesville. The bride was handsomely attired in a gown of blue silk, while the groom wore the conventional black. The SENTINEL'S informant expresses the wish that success may attend them in their matrimonial life.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

Daniel Items.

Mr. Orestes Berwager had the misfortune to lose a valuable cow and a calf last week.

The officers of Wentz's Union Sunday School decided on Sunday last to hold their annual celebration Saturday, Aug. 31st. A full attendance of the officers is requested on Sunday morning next. If the weather should be unfavorable in the morning the school will meet in the afternoon.

There is some business done with Uncle Sam in our town. In the past four weeks Zepp, the printer, received 125 sealed letters per week, besides other mail, and sent an average of 700 pieces of mail each week, all carefully handled and dispatched by our carrier, Mr. Walter W. Wentz, and postmaster C. J. H. Ganter, of Manchester.

Mr. C. Wm. Miller's gasoline traction engine, built by the Bucher Bros., passed through here on Monday last.

Funeral of A. Pierce Marsh.

The remains of Mr. Alonzo Pierce Marsh, who died at his home in Frederick on Thursday of last week, were brought to this city by the fast mail train on Saturday afternoon, accompanied by his family and delegations of the orders of Knights of Pythias and Red Men, and were met by the lodges of those orders in this city and escorted to the residence of Mr. Harry B. Hoffacker, on Belle Grove Square. Thence the body was taken to St. Paul's Reformed Church, of which Mr. Marsh was a member, on Sunday afternoon and funeral services held by the pastor, Rev. Dr. C. S. Slagle. The lodges of the orders above mentioned attended the services and at their close escorted the body of their deceased brother to Westminster Cemetery, where it was interred in the family lot, with the burial rites and honors of both. Mr. Theo. A. Kauffman conducted the burial ceremonies of the Knights of Pythias in an impressive manner and the rite of the Red Men was also beautifully rendered, closing with the liberation of a white carrier pigeon, which hovered over the grave for a few seconds and then flew away. There were many beautiful floral offerings of appropriate designs from relatives and friends, and the funeral was very largely attended. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Charles Englar, Nathan Albert, George E. Matthews, S. C. Stoner, Jas. T. Trayer and Oliver M. Crouse of Charity Lodge, K. of P., and Messrs. J. W. Young and W. H. Gilbert, of the Frederick Lodge of Red Men. Mr. F. C. Sharrer was funeral director.

On Saturday evening last Miss Mary Lovell, oldest daughter of Mr. William Lovell, one of the deputy clerks of Carroll county court, and Urcie Benedict, near this place, were married at the home of Elder A. P. Snader.

Silver Run Items.

Last Monday noon a serious fire raged about four miles from here when the barn of Mr. Augustus Study at Black's school house was entirely destroyed together with its contents. Mr. Herbert Myers, of Pleasant Valley, a huckster, usually stops with Mr. Study for dinner and to feed his horses. When they left the barn to go to the table there was no indication of fire whatever. After about twenty minutes absence Mr. Myers came from the house and discovered the building on fire. He called Mr. Study and both rushed to save the horses. Each succeeded in getting out one horse, when the heat and flames prevented any further effort at rescue. Mr. Myers lost one horse, Mr. Study a fine pair of mules and a valuable horse, together with all his machinery and farm implements. The wind coming from the northeast saved the other buildings. The loss is heavy and the losers have the sympathy of the entire community. Mr. Study had some insurance, but it covers only a fraction of his loss. The origin of the fire is a mystery. It is supposed that a tramp, who occupied the barn recently, may have dropped matches, that in some way were ignited.

Mr. Albert Study, of Kump's, was a recent visitor to our village.

Mr. William H. Marker and wife visited at Mr. Joshua Bowers'.

Mr. Jesse Marshall moved into Henry Willet's house this week.

The flight of the huge balloon from Washington, D. C., on Tuesday was observed at this place, by several persons.

George Hartman, son of Rev. J. S. Hartman, is among the graduated this week, at Mercersburg Academy.

Mrs. Myers is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John D. Freeser.

Mr. Clarence Boose, of Harrisburg, Pa., is spending some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Boose, in this place.

Rain prevented the game of baseball scheduled here for last Saturday, between our team and players from Hanover.

Patapsco Items.

Children's day Services will be held here in the M. E. Church on Sunday, 9th inst., commencing at 10 A. M. A good program will be rendered with vocal and instrumental music.

Messrs. Jacob M. Leppo, Wesley Davidson and Mr. and Mrs. James F. Tracy, who spent several days at Washington, D. C., visiting Mrs. Tracy's sister, Mrs. Lewis Leppo, returned home last Saturday evening much pleased with their trip. While in Washington they visited the Navy Yard where they saw the making of Uncle Sam's guns of all sizes. At night they went to the Congressional Library which is the most ornamental building in the world. Thursday, May 30th, they went to Arlington, where Gen. Lee's farm and mansion stand, now the National cemetery. Then to Congress Heights and had a view of the Pennsylvania Steel Works. May 31st, Friday, saw the marine drill and heard the Marine Band play. Saw Bureau of Engraving, Washington's Monument, 555 ft. high; Treasury Department, where there are about 5,000 tons of coin and other money. Went through White House, the National Capital, the Botanical Garden and Lincoln Park, then to Union depot, where they boarded a train for "Home, Sweet Home."

A Stag Social.

Mr. J. Maurice Eckenrode gave a delightful "stag social", on Saturday evening last, at the residence of Mr. Samuel Shipley, on Green street, this city. Cards occupied the first part of the evening, after which the guests were invited to the dining room, where a table, handsomely decorated with roses and heliotrope, was freighted with a bountiful supply of the delicacies of the season. A menu card, with the names of the guests, was at each plate, with a carnation boutoniere. Mr. J. Hampton Baumgartner was appointed toastmaster, and every guest responded as called upon. The evening was a most enjoyable one to all present. The guests were Messrs. Philip A. Latimer, J. Hampton Baumgartner, Thomas S. Englar, Walter E. Short, Charles Roberts Thomas, Charles R. Walker, John C. Doyle, Fletcher Hanks, Clarence E. Whealton, W. Carroll Shunk and J. Meriwether Shellman.

MORE SCORES BY CO. H.

Company H, 1st Reg., M. N. G., of this city, carried off top honors at Saunders' Range last week, having qualified 3 experts, 2 sharpshooters and 17 marksmen out of 28 men present. Captain Weigle was formerly a non-commissioned officer in the regular army and he has brought his company up among the leaders in the brigade. Private Tracey, who but recently enlisted in the Guard, surprised everyone by moving right along the line, finishing as an expert. Tracey made a rattling good skirmish run of 60 out of a possible 100. Captain Weigle made 69 in skirmish run. On Saturday Sgt. Bitzel qualified as an expert in a cold, heavy rain. Captain Weigle easily led the battalion with both rifle and revolver, qualifying as expert with both. Lieut. Frizzell and Sgt. Engleman qualified as sharpshooters the latter part of the week, but wet weather prevented them from trying the 800 and 1000yd. range for expert. At 600 yds. Frizzell and Engleman made 40 each out of a possible 50. At rapid fire Frizzell made 45 and Engleman 43. On skirmish run Frizzell made 45 and Engleman 61. Lieut. Frizzell was the only man to make five straight bullseyes at rapid fire in the battalion. Following are the scores made the latter part of the week by members of the company at 200, 300 and 500 yards;

Sgt. Stoner	33	31	36	100
Corp. Manning	33	38	29	100
Corp. Clary	25	34	41	100
Horner	31	33	39	103
Storp	32	35	35	102
Noel	34	35	39	108
Blizzard	34	30	40	104

Others previously made were:

	200 yds.	300 yds.	500 yds.	Total.
Captain Weigle	42	43	43	128
Lieut. Frizzell	39	38	41	118
Sgt. Engleman	39	34	40	113
Sgt. Bitzel	41	39	42	122
Sgt. Simonson	39	34	34	107
Sgt. Dell	28	32	39	99
Corp. Bentz	36	35	39	110
Autz	36	36	39	111
Tracy	39	40	43	122
Webster	40	39	37	116
Baker	30	30	42	102
Byers	30	29	40	99
Stem	41	34	38	113
Hesson	34	31	37	102

Captain Weigle and Sergeant Bitzel made sharpshooters. At rapid fire Weigle made 47 out of 50; Bitzel 43. On Skirmish run Weigle made 65 out of 100; Bitzel 37. At 600 yards Weigle made 42 out of 50; Bitzel 41. At 1000 yards Captain Weigle made 37 out of 50. All the above scores were made out of a possible 50, each man firing 10 shots at each range, except skirmish run. A bullseye counts five at each range.

From July 5th to 14th Companies A, B, D and H, of the 1st Regiment, will be on duty in the fort at Fort Howard during the water and land maneuvres to take place around the fort.

Captain Weigle would like to enlist 12 to 15 men to strengthen his company for the above maneuvres.

Doings at Smallwood.

Washington Camp No. 68, P. O. S. of A., was instituted at Smallwood Friday, May 31, 1907, with a membership of 53. The officers present from the State Camp were State President, Dr. A. B. Candler and Recording Secretary, Herman W. Frame. Both were agreeably surprised at the number of charter applicants, and as the charter remains open for six weeks it is quite likely that the membership will exceed one hundred in that time. The P. O. S. of A. Camps from Winfield and Gist were well represented. District President Wesley A. Barnes, who was present at the last meeting, has kindly offered his services to assist us in the future, as all of the officers are inexperienced but are quite willing to be guided by any of the brothers from other camps. The personnel of officers for the new camp is: President, Iveu H. Sayers; past president, Chas. A. Wagner; vice-president, Edward Arnold; master of forms, Wm. Shilling; conductor, Carroll Logue; chaplain, Wm. E. Baker; secretary, J. Howell Davis; recording secretary, Ralph Reifsnider; sentinel, Christopher Schnabel; guard, Carroll Owings. The present headquarters of the camp are over the Smallwood Creamery and we will cheerfully receive any applicant between the ages of 16 and 55 years, of good character, if in good physical condition.

The health of this community at present is fairly good.

Children's day services will be held at Deer Park, on Sunday, at 2 o'clock, p. m.

Our local baseball team went down to defeat on Decoration day, but the victory of their opponents was robbed of its glory, when you take into consideration that our locals consist of boys, while all of the other fellows shave.

Union Mills Items.

Mr. Uriah Arter died at the home of his son, Nahiah Arter, in the upper part of Myers district, on the morning of the 6th inst., from the infirmities of old age. He was a son of the late Philip Arter and was in the 74th year of his age. For many years he conducted successfully the farming business and leaves a comfortable estate. He was a man of upright christian character and an humble and devout member of the Lutheran Church. He leaves the following named children: Artwell Arter, near Schwartz's school house, Pa.; Alva Arter, Nahiah Arter and Mrs. Jacob Petry, of Myers district, this county. Funeral services will be held at St. Mary's Lutheran Church, Silver Run, on Sunday morning.

The government balloon that ascended at Washington, D. C., on the afternoon of the 4th inst., and landed in the vicinity of Harrisburg, Pa., the same day, was seen by quite a number of people of this vicinity, among them being Dr. G. L. Wetzel, Charles Nusbaum, Wilmer Frock and Chas. Shean. The balloon passed over the Deep Run country, a few miles east of Union Mills.

Mr. B. F. Shriver, with his wife and four daughters, returned home from their European trip this week.

I. O. G. T. News.

District Lodge No. 4, I. O. G. T., met at Pickett's Hall, Woodbine, May 25th, and, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, there was a good attendance and an inspiring amount of enthusiasm. Six delegates received the District Degree and the reports showed encouraging conditions in the order.

Miss Nettie M. Parlette, G. S. G. T., of Baltimore, made an earnest appeal for a more hearty co-operation of parents with those who strive to train their children in principles of total abstinence. Parents why not? Mr. B. W. Bowman, G. E. T., also addressed the lodge urging the exercise of a more aggressive spirit in the interest of temperance; especially in shielding the young from the influence of drink. The following officers were elected: C. T., Rev. C. P. Nowlin; V. T., Miss Florence Fleming; Sec., T. J. Brandenburg; Asst. Sec., Miss Amelia Pickett; Treas., Daniel Hartsock; Con., S. F. Hess; Chap., John W. Penn; marshals, Boyd Gosnell, Albert Franklin; guards, Wm. Flynn, R. Mullinix; Press Rep., Robert J. Brandenburg; legislative counsel, M. H. Penn.

The ladies of Woodbine Lodge proved their ability in the culinary art by the wholesome dinner and supper served.

Pomona Grange, of Carroll County.

The Pomona Grange P. of H., of Carroll County, held its quarterly meeting in Grange Hall, at Taneytown, June 1st. Notwithstanding the inclement weather about one hundred and fifty were present at the morning session, during which the officers for the ensuing two years, who were elected at the last session of the Pomona, were duly installed by Mrs. M. C. Peltz, Master of Medford Grange. After partaking of the bountiful dinner prepared by the Taneytown Grange, the meeting was again called to order at one o'clock by Worthy Master H. P. Morelock, and after disposing of the business of the order, the session adjourned; and the meeting was opened to the public. The speakers of the day were: Geo. W. F. Gaunt, of N. J., lecturer of the National Grange; State Master Prof. H. Patterson, of College Park; Richard Vincent, Jr., of White Marsh, Md., and Nevin Detrich, of Chambersburg, Pa. The meeting proved very interesting and aroused a great deal of enthusiasm, and was late in closing.

The next session of Pomona Grange will be held at Union Bridge, Sept. 7, 1907.

Mr. E. W. Goodloe, of 107 St. Louis St., Dallas, Tex., says: "In the past year I have become acquainted with Dr. King's New Life Pills, and no laxative I ever before tried so effectually disposes of malaria and biliousness." They don't grind nor gripe. 25c at all druggists.

MARRIED

In Union Bridge, May 29th, 1907, by Elder E. W. Stoner, Mr. Milton D. Lawyer, near Union Bridge, and Miss Mary Elma Fike, of Detour.

DIED.

In this city, June 2nd, 1907, Robert L. Hoppe, aged 35 years, 10 months and 27 days.

Near Avondale, June 2nd, 1907, H. Jane, wife of Henry N. Cassell, aged 73 years, 1 month and 9 days.

Near Taylorsville, June 2nd, 1907, Elizabeth, widow of Wm. H. Hooper, aged about 80 years.

At her home between Winfield and Taylorsville, May 25th, 1907, Minnie, wife of Harry Barnes, aged 22 years and 8 months.

How long she struggled against disease
Which baffled skill and care.
And long she lingered racked with pain
And suffering hard to bear;

And yet, through all, at times she'd smile,
A smile of heavenly birth
And when the angels called her home
She smiled farewell to earth.

Rest on dear wife, thy labors o'er,
Thy willing hands will toil no more;
A faithful wife, both true and kind,
A more loving one you could not find.

She sought out every pleasure,
Cared for me night and day,
And was to me a wife
In every word and way.

And then a place is vacant
A step is heard no more,
And one she then another
Cross o'er to yonder shore.

By her Husband.

She sleeps, her life was young and fair;
She dreams sweet dreams and knows no care,
Her heart was pure, her life was young,
It's God's way, His will be done.

We cast a flower as we pass
And that the same returnless tide,
Which bore her from us still glides on,
And we who mourn her, with it glide.

By her sister, Edna Pickett.

Westminster's Best Store

Clothing with a Pedigree

¶ If you were buying a fine horse or dog you'd probably be very careful about its pedigree—you'd want to know where it came from, what kind of reputation the breeder had, and all about it generally.

¶ Clothes ought to be bought the same way. It's of the utmost importance for you to know who makes the Clothes you buy, what kind of reputation their maker has, and what kind of cloth, materials and workmanship he is in the habit of putting into his garments.

¶ The "Schloss Clothes" that you buy here are positively guaranteed in all these respects. Made in the finest tailoring shops in the country, cleverly designed and built by expect tailors from reliable fabrics, selected by us and specially made up for us, they are "Clothes with a Pedigree that means Something." Try them: they are a pleasure to wear and a satisfaction to own.

¶ We are showing hundreds of new patterns in all the latest styles. Two- and three-button models in both single- and double-breasted cut, made, fashioned and trimmed in the best manner, most stores charge a third more for equal values. Come in and see the new styles.
