SLEIGHING SONG.

A bright lip and a flashing eye,
And a heart that springs with glee—
A trackless path where moonbeams lie,
And a trackless path for me!
Let others crowd the home-hearth side,
And dread old Winter's frown,
But give to us the merry ride,
His palace and his crown.

The groves and rocks are flitting past,
And the homestead seems to flee—
Sweeps swiftly on the winged blast,
But faster still dash we!
Old Time may stay his running sand,
And cast his scyth away—
We live to-night in a spirit land,
That's far beyond his sway.

How spotless yonder snow-wreath's breast,
How bright yon golden star;
But purer love, thy bosom's rest,
And thine eye is brighter far;
Thy brow is like the mountain top,
That's wrapt in angel dreams;
The brightest moonbeams round it drop,
In chaster, holier streams.

When years have filled life's crystal bowl
With waves of strife and pride,
Have stilled the wild throbs of the soul,
And its fondest springs have dried.
Oh! doubt not but thine eyes more bright,
And thy brow more clear shall be,
At mem'ry of the moonlight night,
When our sleigh dashed on in glee.

WALKING VARIETY AND PROVISION STORE.—An old lady, apparently about fifty years of age, genteelly dressed, with cloak and muff, was brought into the N. York police office, upon a charge of attempting to steal an umbrella. Upon searching her, the following articles were found secreted in her muff, viz; two ladies' caps, one hat feather, one worsted hood, two pair of worsted mitts, one dozen spools cotton, one gentleman's glove, one worsted cuff, two cut glass tumblers, and four business cards. Tied to her waist, beneath her dress, were four large pockets, within which was found three large oysters, one boiled crab, one steak of fresh codfish, seven large red onions, two very large flat dutch turnips, one orange, one potatoe, three large pieces of taffy, four doughnuts, two muffins, two fancy poundcakes, and a copy of Bishop Onderdonk's trial.

"William," said a carpenter to his apprentice, 'I'm going away to-day, and want you to grind all the tools."

"Yes, sir."

The carpenter came home at night.

"William have you ground all the tools right sharp?"

"All but the handsaw," said Bill, "I couldn't get quite all the gaps out of that."

TAKEN UP.—A swaggering fellow betting on an election, a constable got his eye on the great man, and recognized him as an old offender of whom he was in pursuit. "Come, I'll bet $50 on Mr. Smith, who'll take me up?"

"I will," cried the constable, clapping his paw on his shoulder and leading him off.

"Mother," said a little square built urchin, about five years old, "why don't my teacher make me monitor sometimes? I can lick every boy in my class but one." A hopeful scion that!

At Franconia, N. H., on the 3d inst., the mercury in the thermometer stood at 24 degrees below zero.

FOR THE LADIES!

Something New and very Beautiful!

THE EVERGREEN,

OR

CHURCH OFFERING FOR ALL SEASONS:

A Repository of Religious, Literary and Entertaining Knowledge for the Christian Family.

A RELIGIOUS Periodical, in the Magazine form, suited for the centre table, has long been a desideratum. "The Evergreen" is designed to supply the deficiency. It is equal in every respect to the "Ladies' Book," &c. and at ONE-HALF the price. Each number is superbly embellished with a fine copper-plate engraving. Among them it is intended to give portraits of deceased and living, of the American Episcopal Church, (comprising nearly fifty.) Three have already appeared since "The Evergreen" was commenced—viz.: Bishop PEABURY, of Connecticut, first presiding Bishop; Bishop WHILE, of Pennsylvania, second presiding Bishop; Bishop PROVOOST, the first Bishop of New York: besides the new Anglican Cathedral, at Jerusalem, Views, Churches, &c.—chiefly American and scriptural subjects.

The Literary Department is unequaled by any periodical in the country; being almost wholly original, and furnished by a number of distinguished Divines of the Episcopal church, and several eminent female Authors, Poeteses, &c. The tone is unequivocally Episcopal, but untinctured by any peculiar school, whether "High Church," "Low Church," "Puseyite," or "anti-Puseyite," which is its principal recommendation, as well adapted to take the place of party church newspapers.

As evidence of the general acceptableness of "The Evergreen," in the Episcopal denomination, it may be mentioned that its subscription list already includes persons in every State of the Union. ☞ Subscription, $1 50 a year.

WRIGHT'S
INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS.

IF, during the continuance of storms and floods, the channels of

OUR MIGHTY RIVERS

become so obstructed as to afford an insufficient outlet for the superabundant waters, we can expect nothing less than that the surrounding country will be

OVERWHELMED WITH THE FOOD.

In like manner with the human body—if the Skin, Kidneys, and Bowels, (the natural outlets for useless and corrupt humors,) become so obstructed as to fail in affording a full discharge of those impurities, which are in all cases

THE CAUSE OF SICKNESS,

we surely can expect no other results than that the whole frame will sooner or later be

OVERWHELMED WITH DISEASE.

As in the first place, if we would prevent an inundation, we must remove all obstructions to the free discharge of the superabundant waters. So, in the second place, if we would prevent and cure disease, we must open, and keep open, the Natural Drains of the body.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills,

Of the North American College of Health, will be found one of the best, if not the very BEST MEDICINE IN THE WORLD, for carrying out this beautiful and simple theory; because they completely cleanse the Stomach and Bowels from all bilious humors and other impurity, and at the same time promote a healthy discharge from the Lungs, Skin, and Kidneys; consequently, as all the natural drains are opened, Disease of every name is literally driven from the body.

☞ CAUTION.—As the great popularity and consequently great demand for Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills has raised up a host of counterfeiters, country agents and storekeepers will be on their guard against the many imposters who are travelling about the country selling to the unsuspecting a spurious article for the genuine.

It should be remembered that all authorized agents are provided with a certificate of agency, signed by WILLIAM WRIGHT, Vice-President of the N. A. College of Health. Consequently, those who offer Indian Vegetable Pills, and cannot show a certificate, as above described, will be known as imposters.

The following highly respectable storekeepers have been appointed agents for the sale of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, and of whom it is confidently believed the genuine medicine can with certainty be obtained:
