ELECTION TUESDAY NOVEMBER 5th.

Vote for Wm. D. Slack for Sheriff. He's a first-class man.

How can honest Democrats put confidence in and vote for candidates who instigate violations of law by postal officials, that the mails may be employed to further the personal aims of said candidates?

Procuring violations of law on the part of the postmasters and prompting public school teachers to disseminate political lies among their pupils are acts not calculated to give the people an exalted estimate of the leaders who are running the Democratic campaign in this county.

An ardent young Democrat, of this city, has been instigated to circulate a report that Mr. Lowndes is a member of the A. P. A. Of course it is a campaign lie, one of the many that the desperate leaders are starting up at the last moment. Believe none of them.

The managers of the Democratic campaign in Carroll county exhibit their ignorance, or lack of regard for the truth, by distributing pictures of a "mixed school," taken in Pennsylvania, and attributing its existence to the Republican party. Mixed schools were established and maintained in Pennsylvania for twenty years under a Democratic administration of the government of that State.

The Democrat who wants to "down Gorman" and break the iron grip of boss rule over the Democratic party, has but one method by which he can help to accomplish that purpose. He must vote the Republican ticket or continue to be the slave of the bosses. If he be an intelligent Democrat he knows that the assertion that Republican success means mixed schools in Maryland can be only properly characterized by a little word, as Roosevelt says, spelled l-i-e.

The air is full of campaign lies about the Republican candidates in this county. Let no man be deceived by them.

Fully half the taxes levied in Carroll county are paid by Republicans; yet for twenty-eight years they have had no representative on the Board of County Commissioners. An opportunity to correct this injustice is offered at the election of next Tuesday. Vote for Israel C. Rinehart, one of the heaviest tax-payers in the county, and one of its best citizens. His election will be to the advantage of all tax-payers and Democrats may assist in it without changing the political complexion of the board.

The recent Democratic nominating convention of Carroll county admitted, by a unanimous vote, that the Democratic State ticket is tainted with bossism—that sort of bossism which the Democratic county convention of a year ago declared denied to "the people the right to control their own affairs." This was the judgment of all the delegates chosen to a Democratic convention in this county less than two months ago. Nothing has occurred to justify a change of that opinion. The bosses are in the Democratic saddle, and riding the party deeper every day into the slough of corruption and fraud. How can an honest Democrat vote to sustain this infamy?

The Democrats in charge of the headquarters, at the Westminster City Hotel, must be rattled. They don't seem to know the difference between a noun and an adjective. They designate their place of meeting and conference as "Democrat" Headquarters. They have flung an eleven-striped flag to the breeze as "Old Glory," and among the decorations last Saturday had the word "Maryland" inverted. After all, though, that might have been designed as symbolic of the manner in which the bosses have turned the State government upside down. May it prove an omen of the treatment to be accorded these autocrats, on Tuesday next, by the ballots of the people.

Vote for Dr. J. J. Weaver, Jr., for Senator; Charles H. Smith, Charles J. H. Ganter, Wm. F. Cover and Dr. Clotworthy Birnie for the House of Delegates, and for fair elections.

A colored ruffian, working side by side and on terms of social equality with white heelers, assaulted voters who attempted to register at Gardenville, Baltimore county; stabbed and cut the clothes of a voter to shreds, and, when arrested and taken before a justice of the peace, was promptly discharged on bail and returned to his nefarious work.

The most inconsistent people on the face of the earth are the Democratic bosses and their followers. Just now they are making a great outcry about mixed schools and negro equality, falsely asserting that these things will follow a Republican victory in Maryland. At the same time they have negroes enrolled in Democratic clubs in Baltimore, and are employing the very worst element of the colored population as repeaters. Honest voters, white or colored, are to be defrauded of the just effects of their ballots, by the lowest type of negro men, employed by the ring for the purpose. The pretence, on the part of these people, of fear of objectionable privileges for colored people, if the Republicans are successful, is the most arrant hypocrisy.

A better man than Alfred T. Buckingham for County Treasurer cannot be found in the county. Vote for and elect him.

Some gentlemen on the Democratic ticket, who ordinarily are above meanness, must feel a wholesome shame for the part they are playing in carrying around pictures of mixed schools and endeavoring to deceive voters by representing that a Republican victory will cause their introduction in Maryland. The gentlemen referred to are men of intelligence and know that they are perverting the truth. They know, too, that the mixed schools of Pennsylvania, from which the pictures they exhibit were taken, were inaugurated by the Democrats of that State. They must be driven to desperation by apprehensions of defeat, or they would not stoop to methods so utterly contemptible, and to suggestions so maliciously untrue.

The Reform League of Baltimore has raised a fund of $20,000, which it offers as rewards for the prevention of election frauds and for the conviction of those who shall perpetrate them. The league is largely composed of Democrats who believe that the corruption of the ballot, under the bosses now controlling the election machinery of the State, is debauching the public conscience and fast undermining the very foundations of popular government. This patriotic organization ought to be reinforced and sustained by every honest citizen in the State. The fight is against the corrupt bosses who control the Democratic party for their own personal benefit and deny the people the right of honest and fair elections. A vote for Hurst and the Democratic ticket will be a vote to sustain and perpetuate this tyranny and corruption.

Better men than Wm. A. Roop, the Republican candidate for County Surveyor, are hard to find. Vote for him.

One of the plans adopted by the Reform League of Baltimore is to post registered letters to the addresses given by supposed repeaters. Out of eleven hundred such letters sent through the mails of Baltimore, a very few have been receipted for. The parties to whom they were addressed could not be found at the houses from which they registered. The contents of the letters or circulars sent in this way are notices that the votes of the parties to whom they have been addressed will be challenged on election day. This Mr. Harry Wells Rusk, chairman of the Democratic city executive committee, proclaims is intimidation of voters, and he publishes a card promising protection to those receiving the warning, thus furnishing another evidence of the sympathy of the Democratic bosses with repeating and fraud on elections.

The spectacle presented in Baltimore, at this time, in relation to the precautions being taken to prevent outrages upon the ballot, is a startling commentary upon the unfaithful character of the sworn officers whose duty it is to protect the rights of all citizens and to see that each man entitled to suffrage shall cast but one ballot and have that ballot properly counted and returned. Think of it! An honest and fair election impossible because many of the election officers, from the supervisors down to ballot and election clerks, are conspiring to prevent it! Think of it! Private citizens organizing and working together to enforce a fair election at the hands of the officers sworn to protect and preserve the purity of the ballot. That is what is being done and thousands of dollars have been contributed from private purses to carry on this good work. These citizens are voluntarily taxing themselves to aid in the effort to protect the most sacred rights of Americans against the villainy of officers paid from the public treasury.

If you want to be free from bossism, vote the Republican ticket.

Harry M. Clabaugh is the first Carroll county Republican honored with a place on the State ticket for more than a quarter of a century. He deserves and should receive a handsome majority in the county. Give it to him.

Some Democrats have undertaken to deny that mixed schools originated in Pennsylvania when the Democrats were in power in that State. They are either ignorant of what they are talking about, or wilfully falsify the facts.

Republicans! Be on your guard! Trust no story started at this late date to the discredit of any of your candidates. Lies have already been put in circulation about some of them and others will probably follow.

Mr. Hurst and Bossism.

Mr. John E. Hurst, the Democratic candidate for Governor, in his speech at the Democratic meeting at Odd Fellows' Hall, this city, on Saturday last, repudiated the idea that his nomination was brought about, in any manner, by the interference of the bosses. He declared, in substance, at least, that he was the choice of the convention chosen by the Democrats of the State, and that he was nominated regularly and according to the customary methods of the party. Conscious, however, that his name was not considered in the primaries, by the people who elected the delegates who composed the convention, he found an excuse for the desertion, without an effort in their favor, of the men who were thus considered. That excuse—a lame one indeed—was that Judge Fisher was inimical to the same charge. Mr. Hurst's conclusions on the subject were not in harmony with the opinions expressed by the people he was addressing, through their representatives in the recent county nominating convention, some of whom were conspicuous on the platform and must have felt the remarks of the gubernatorial candidate as a rebuke of their own public utterances. "Tainted with bossism" and "their (the people's) rights shamelessly usurped," were some of those utterances, made less than two months ago, by the unanimous voice of a Carroll county Democratic convention. It is not surprising that the remarks of Mr. Hurst fell flat before an audience of Carroll county Democrats. They were all conscious that he was nominated by the bosses and not by the people, and that his effort to controvert the fact was an utter and humiliating failure. But none the less was it an accusation of falsehood against the Democrats of Carroll county who had the temerity to acknowledge the taint of bossism on their ticket.

Albert Schaeffer, Wm. Y. Frizzell and Wm. Wallace Naill are all eminently worthy of the suffrages of their fellow-citizens. Make them Judges of the Orphans' Court by your ballots on Tuesday next.

The Tax Rate.

The Advocate continues to harp upon the low tax rate by which many citizens of Carroll county have, no doubt, been deceived into supposing they are the lowest taxed people, for county purposes, in the State. It instituted a comparison, last week, between the per capita rates in Allegany and Carroll counties, very much to its own satisfaction, showing that the ratio in the former is $3.66 and in the latter, $2.81. Basing the calculation on the last statement of expenses in this county, we make the rate $2.85, but the difference is not material. There is, however, an interesting fact in the comparison between these two counties, which the Advocate appears to have overlooked. That fact is this: The assessed value of property in Allegany county had increased from $10,809,342 in 1877, to $16,490,596 in 1884. During the same period the assessed value of property in Carroll county decreased from $16,167,561 to $15,873,829. In other words, while Allegany county people added to their wealth about sixty per cent., from 1877 to 1894, the people of Carroll county were less prosperous, at the close than at the beginning of that period, by about one per cent. The people of Allegany county have gotten something for their money. What have the people of Carroll county to show for the more than a million and a half of dollars paid in taxes since 1877?

But the Advocate might have instituted a comparison with some of the other counties of the State, and those generally considered the most heavily taxed, that would not have shown her as having, in reality, the lowest tax rate. Even Frederick, with her splendid Montevue Hospital; her new, well built and expensive jail, which holds prisoners when they are committed; her splendid iron bridges over the Monocacy, erected in recent years, and other expensive public improvements, has a rate but little in excess of Carroll, it being $2.97 per capita. Her people also have something to show for their money.

Calvert county pays but $2.19 per capita; St. Mary's about $1.90; Charles $2.03; Somerset $1.70, all very much less than Carroll county. In fact, few of the counties of the State pay a higher rate per capita—that is, for each inhabitant—than this, with its boasted lowest rate on the $100.

The cause of this anomalous condition can be found without much difficulty. It lies in the excessive rate of assessment. Much of the property in the county is assessed far beyond its real value, and those who imagine they are bearing lighter burdens of taxation for county purposes than the people of the other counties, are laboring under a delusion.

There is a side to this question, too, that should provoke more careful inquiry on the part of the tax-payers of this county. They are paying more than their fair share of the State taxes. The rate of State taxation is the same in all the counties, and the excessive basis maintained in this county, for the purpose of exhibiting a low county rate, is an injustice from which the tax-payers should demand prompt relief. For many long years the property-holders of Carroll county have been contributing far more of State taxes than their just share—paying, in fact, a portion of the State taxes for the people of Calvert, Charles, Worcester, St Mary's and other counties. It is about time they escaped from the delusion of a low rate, into which they have been cunningly led, and demand a fair, equitable and just reassessment. This they are not likely to get at the hands of those who have been despoiling them, lo these many years. It is time for a change. Let the people make it at the election next Tuesday.

If you want a thorough investigation of the maladministration of public affairs under boss domination for the last twenty years, vote the Republican ticket.

Strange Economy.

There would seem to be good reason for questioning the beneficial character of some of the legislation for which State Senator Bennett claims the credit in that little 4½ by 7 inch record of his, so freely distributed through the mails to "Republicans who take the SENTINEL" and others.

For instance, it is extremely doubtful whether the law, giving the sheriff a fixed salary of $2,500 per year, was a measure of economy, or an actual reduction of his compensation.

It is true that under a tramp law, which is held to be unconstitutional by some of the ablest lawyers at the bar, the sheriff's compensation had been largely increased.

The Senator himself confesses that further legislation in respect to that law is necessary "to relieve the people of the present burdensome expense." Such legislation would probably have been much more effective, in the first place, in properly reducing the sheriff's pay, than that for which Senator Bennett claims so much credit.

By the last county statement it appears that Sheriff Arnold, in addition to his $2,500 salary, received $3,124.55 on various accounts, making an aggregate of $5,624.55. In addition to this the County Commissioners purchased provisions for prisoners to the amount of $252.21, making a total of $5,876.76.

The small sum expended for provisions would indicate a greatly reduced number of prisoners from the previous year, when the sheriff's compensation was largely made up from that source, and would have been correspondingly diminished by the falling off in their number. It is impossible to ascertain precisely how much the cost of feeding the prisoners was to the sheriff during the last year he furnished the supplies, but it must have been a considerable item.

The conclusion is inevitable that the new system, brought about by the law of which Senator Bennett boasts, has not worked economically, because, with a large reduction in the number of prisoners there would have been a material diminution in the seriff's compensation, which in the year 1894 was nearly double that of Sheriff Shower in 1884. This system, for which Senator Bennett is sponsor, assures that officer, in the future, the best salary of any official in the county, not excepting the chief judge of the court, who is paid by the State, and far in excess of the average compensation of the sheriff's office for the last twenty years.

Evidently Senator Bennett's effort at economical legislation cannot be regarded as a brilliant success. It began at the wrong end. Sheriff Shower's entire net compensation was scarcely in excess of the fixed sum given the sheriff by Senator Bennett's law, to say nothing of the valuable perquisites yet remaining.

The Senator's little record is open to other adverse criticism, but further space cannot be devoted to it.

The Republican candidates, from Governor to County Surveyor, are worthy of your suffrages. Vote for them.

Republicans Take Notice.

We are informed that some Democrats who are soliciting Republican votes are practicing a deception in explaining the method of marking the ballot. For instance, it is said that one of the candidates for Judge of the Orphans' Court informed a Republican whose vote he solicited, that by putting the mark in the space opposite his, the Democratic candidate's, name and erasing the name of the Republican candidate for County Surveyor the vote would count against the latter and not against an Orphans' Court candidate. If the Republican believes and adopts the explanation he will not only vote against a Republican candidate for the Orphans' Court, but will fail to vote for County Surveyor at all. It is even thought by some well informed persons that a ticket thus marked may be considered defective by the judges of election and be thrown out entirely. While this is probably not correct, no Republican should take the risk of it. The Republican who wants to vote for one of the Democratic candidates for Judges of the Orphans' Court should erase the name of the Republican candidate for the same office against whom he desires to vote; otherwise, putting the mark in the square opposite the name of a Democrat will count against the Republican whose name is immediately to the right of it. For instance, a Republican who desires to vote for Dr. Jacob Rinehart and also for Mr. Albert Schaeffer must erase one of the other names on the Orphans' Court ticket, or it will count against Mr. Schaeffer. So, too, if he desires to vote for Mr. Tracey and Mr. Frizzell he must erase either the name of Mr. Schaeffer or Mr. Naill, and if he desires to vote for Dr. Stewart and for Mr. Naill, either Mr. Frizzell or Mr. Schaeffer's name must be erased. We desire to say to every Republican, however, that the man who wilfully attempts to lead him astray in the manner indicated in the first part of this article, is unworthy the vote of any honorable elector. Let no Republican upon whom he has attempted to practice this fraud help him by a vote. It will be safer far to vote a straight ticket.

Vote against the people who prostitute the mails and public schools to illegal political uses.

If you want to overthrow the intolerable tyranny of Gorman and Rasin bossism, vote the Republican ticket.

Ex-Gov. Wm. Pinkney Whyte will speak at an Independent Democratic meeting in Baltimore to-night, and counsel the election of the Republican ticket.

Election, Tuesday, November 5th, 1895.

If you want minority representation in the Board of County Commissioners, and a first-class man to represent you, vote for Israel C. Rinehart.

Ignorance or Mendacity.

Mr. Roosevelt, of New York, in his speech at the great meeting in Music Hall, Baltimore, several weeks ago, flatly accused Senator Gorman of falsehood, spelling the word, as he said, l-i-e. The provocation must be great which justifies the use of such a term, and many persons felt that Mr. Roosevelt was unnecessarily harsh in applying it to a Senator of the United States. But Mr. Gorman is either densely ignorant or recklessly mendacious in his allusions to the record of Mr. Lowndes, the Republican candidate for Governor of Maryland. In a speech at Broadway Institute, Baltimore, on Tuesday night, he charged that Mr. Lowndes had, while in Congress, ten years after the war, voted to exclude every Democratic Congressman; for a tariff bill as high as the McKinley law; for the carpet-bag government of Arkansas, and for a force bill equal to the one killed two years ago.

It is charity to presume that these charges were made in ignorance, though the official Congressional Record furnishes their complete refutation. There was no general revision of the tariff in 1875. Changes were made in the law, and were supported by many Democrats, including those from Maryland.

Mr. Lowndes voted against the recognition of Brooks as Governor of Arkansas, and also against the so-called force bill. He was the youngest member of the House of Representatives, with but limited experience as a legislator, and it would not have been surprising if he had been influenced by the older Republican Representatives to vote for the measures they considered proper. But he acted upon his own judgment, and subsequent events fully justified his course.

Mr. Gorman's assertions are undoubtedly false. If they were made with knowledge of the truth Mr. Roosevelt was not in error as to the estimate of his character. If made in ignorance they cannot be excused, as he might easily have ascertained the truth, and even charity can scarcely cover that sort of ignorant assertion. Yet this is the man that the Cleveland and Democratic leaders in Carroll county are endeavoring to confirm on his throne as the boss autocrat of the Democratic party in Maryland, by urging the election of his nominees.

Arthur F. Smith is the nominee of the Republican convention for State's Attorney. His speech before the Republican club last week shows that he has brains. Vote for him.

In their wide alarm at the revolt of their followers against bossism the Democratic leaders are resorting to most disreputable methods to arrest the tide of disaster sweeping down upon them. Nothing seems to be sacred from their touch. Even the public schools are being prostituted to political ends. We have positive knowledge that in at least one public school the teacher has exhibited to the pupils one of the "mixed school" pictures, to which reference has heretofore been made in the SENTINEL, and has said to them: "That will be the way it will be if the Republicans carry the election." The teacher was, of course, instigated to this impropriety as the postmasters, who furnished the Democratic Headquarters with lists of those who take the SENTINEL at their offices, were led to violate the postal laws at the request of those conducting the Democratic campaign. The people, without regard to party, should rebuke this pernicious and corrupting conduct at the polls. The public schools should not be made the medium of disseminating political lies, nor of stirring up partisan strife among the people, and the men who are endeavoring to employ them for such purposes should receive the contempt of all honorable citizens.

If you want a law to prevent frauds on the ballot, vote the Republican ticket.

The Shakers have made a discovery which is destined to accomplish much good. Realizing that three-fourths of all our sufferings arise from stomach troubles, that the country is literally filled with people who cannot eat and digest food, without subsequently suffering pain and distress, and that many are starving, wasting to mere skeletons, because their food does them no good, they have devoted much study and thought to the subject, and the result is this discovery, of their Digestive Cordial.

A little book can be obtained from your druggist that will point out the way of relief at once. An investigation will cost nothing and will result in much good.

Children all hate to take Castor Oil, but not LAXOL, which is palatable.

If you want free school books and better schools, vote the Republican ticket.
