John Glenn vs. Alice Totten and Bessie Totten, infant.	No. 3695. In the Circuit Court for Allegany county, Maryland. In Equity.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of a lot of ground situated in Allegany county, Maryland.

The Bill states:

1, That John Glenn, the plaintiff, in said cause, and a certain Bessie Totten, infant, the only child and heir at law of William E. Totten, late of Springfield, Ohio, deceased, are seized in fee simple as tenants in common of a lot of ground, consisting of one-half acre, and situated in the town of Lonaconing, Maryland, the interest of the said Bessie Totten, infant, being subject to the dower interest of her the said Bessie Totten's mother, Alice Totten, the widow of the late William E. Totten, deceased.

2, That said property is incapable of division and is not susceptible of partition without loss and injury amongst the parties entitled thereto, and that it would be to the interest, advantage and benefit of the parties entitled thereto to have the same sold and converted into money, and the proceeds arising from said sale to be distributed among the parties entitled thereto according to their respective interests.

3, That the said Alice Totten and Bessie Totten, infant, are non-residents of this State and are now living at Yellow Springs, Green county, Ohio.

4, The Bill prays for a sale of the property and a distribution of the proceeds amongst the parties entitled thereto and for such other and further relief as the plaintiff's case may require, and for an order of publication against the non-resident defendants.

It is thereupon this 29th day of October, 1887, ordered by the Circuit Court for Allegany county, Maryland, in Equity, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Allegany county once in each of four successive weeks before the 3d day of December, 1887, give notice to the said absent defendants of the object and substance of this Bill, warning them to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor on or before the 10th day of March, 1888, next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed. Theatrical.—A fair audience witnessed the "Mysteries of Paris" by the Frostburg Dramatic Company at Moat's Opera House, Monday evening, and the performance was fully up to the high standard established by the company. The drama is one of three acts, each of which brought out fully the strong points of play and players. The following cast comprises the characters and the ladies and gentlemen who personated them:

Monsieur Ferrand / Fortillard, a deformed dwarf,	Conrad Nickel
The Chourineur	William Nickel
Maitre de Cole	Philip Pfeiffer
Rodolphe	John Pfeiffer
Mike Murphy	Julius Jandorf

LOCALS IN MINION.

Publications.—Our lady friends who are looking around to see what magazine they wish to subscribe for next year should see Demorest's Monthly for December, which is just out. It certainly is in the front rank of Family Magazines, and seems to combine a dozen magazines in one, so varied is the information it contains. Any lady possessing this valuable publication cannot fail to keep house well, if she follows its suggestions. It not only gives full information on household matters, but furnishes light as well as solid reading. One of its late attractions is to give each month a portrait and a sketch of the life of one of the State Presidents of the W. C. T. U. That for December is Mrs. Mary Towne Burt, of New York State. In fact, Demorest's is a magazine that every lady of refinement should possess. It is beautifully gotten up, and its price, $2 per year, puts it within the reach of all. Published by W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th street, New York.

The December number of Frank Leslie's Sunday Magazine closes the twenty-second volume. It contains the semi-annual index, from which a good idea of the number and value of the articles in the volume may be obtained. The number contains interesting articles on "Gardens," by Walter Edgar McCann; on "Linnæus and Upsala University," by Sarah K. Bolton; on "Old Stagecoach Days" by H. W. De Long; on "Old New Orleans," and on "A Fairyland of Science," by Christian Reid, all fully, and even profusely illustrated. The last article is descriptive of certain portions of North Carolina, which ought to be better known. The two serial stories are continued and a short story and several pretty poems are included. The number ends with a vigorous hymn tune by C. Wenham Smith which is set to the hymn "Brightly Gleams Our Banner." This number is one of the best.

The December number of Our Little Ones opens with a charming story entitled "Grandma's Surprise." "Fishing for Birds," gives a short account of a voyage around Cape Horn. The young botanist will find something of interest in "What Roots are For." Many other stories complete the number. Russell Publishing Co., 36 Bromfield street, Boston, Mass.
