For Congress.
ROBERT GARRETT,
of Baltimore County.

Election—Tuesday, November 3rd. 1908.

Bryan has a glib tongue, but with the pen he is no match for Roosevelt.

The Baltimore Sun is advocating the election of Taft with great earnestness and force. Its editorial presentation of the reasons which prompt this course is cogent and logical. It sees in Bryan a candidate who "is a perpetual agitator" and "has spent the last 12 years in agitating—in appeals to class feeling, in denouncing capital and in urging strife; in the work of pulling down." It sees in Taft a candidate who "has spent those 12 years in constructive work, in buiding up;" a man who "by nature and temperament is averse to extremes;" who "is calm and has the judicial habit of examining problems carefully, looking on both sides and speaking cautiously." Contrasting these two men thus honestly and fairly the Sun is constrained to advise its readers to vote for Taft, and this notwithstanding its Democratic proclivities, which would lead it to favor Bryan but for its deep-seated conviction that his election would be detrimental to the interests of the American people of all classes.

Mr. Kern Counsel for a Railroad.

Mr. John W. Kern, the Democratic candidate for Vice-President, while attending a fair at Connersville, Ind., was so unfortunate as to lose a notebook which contained a free pass on the Big Four Railway. The pass is good till December, 1908. In a speech at Mansfield, O., Mr. Kern admitted that he had a pass on the Big Four, but did not know it was an annual, having supposed it was a pass to take him to a trial in Winchester, Ind., in which he was counsel for the railroad. A railroad officer, when asked how Mr. Kern could obtain such a pass, said he "was the company's regular attorney" and as such was entitled to ride free on the road.

The main point in the case is, not that Mr. Kern has the railroad pass, but that he is counsel for a company which falls under the anathemas of Mr. Wm. J. Bryan. Mr. Bryan has compelled Governor Haskell to get out of the treasurership of the national committee because of his connection with the Standard Oil Company. To be consistent he cannot consent to trot in harness with a railroad attorney.

If necessary to get a transfer in order to register, go for it in person early next Tuesday morning.

Croom, the widely known proprietor of the Croom Hotel, Vaughn, Miss., says: "For several months I suffered with a severe cough, and consumption seemed to have its grip on me, when a friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery. I now take them as a tonic, and they keep me strong and well." 50c at all drug stores.

AND

Hon. Wm. B. Baker,

DIED.

GORSUCH.—In loving but sad remembrance of Dr. Silas Nelson Gorsuch, who departed this life one year ago to-day, October 3rd, 1908.

Dearest father we have laid thee,
In the peaceful grave's embrace;
But thy memory will be cherished,
Till we see thy heavenly face.
By his son and daughter.

He has entered into rest,
His toils are over, the victory won.
His weakened frame his trembling hand
Said "Life is nearly done."

He has gone to meet his loved ones
Who have journeyed just before,
There to walk and talk with Jesus
On that bright and happy shore.
By his widow, Mrs. Susan B. Gorsuch.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving but sad remembrance of our dear little son, Jacob D. Starner, who died one year ago, October 2nd, 1907.

"Gone but not forgotten."

Through the pearly gates of Heaven
Passed the one we loved so dear;
God thought best to take him from us,
Though he left our home so drear.

We will walk sometimes to his lonely grave,
In the pleasant summer hours,
We will speak his name in a softened voice
And cover his grave with flowers.

Tears from our eyes are streaming
And sorrow shades our brow;
Oh! blame us not for weeping,
We have no Jacob now.
By his parents, sisters and brothers.
