FRIDAY, MARCH 4, 1882.

THE GARFIELD MEMORIAL SERVICE.

The oration delivered by Hon. James G. Blaine in the hall of the House of Representatives on Monday did credit alike to the orator and to the dead statesman of whom it was a eulogy. It was pronounced by many prominent men as the most remarkable utterance ever made within the walls of the Capitol.—Among the distinguished persons present, besides the members of the two houses of Congress, were President Arthur, the Diplomatic Corps, Generals Sherman, Sheridan, Hancock, Howard and Meigs, W. W. Corcoran, Cyrus W. Field, George Bancroft, Admirals Porter, Worden, John Rodgers, and C. P. R. Rodgers, and the justices of the Supreme Court of the United States. The Diplomatic Corps, the officers of the army and navy and justices were clad in their respective uniforms and robes of office. The oration was a resume of the life of the martyr president, beginning with his origin, referring to his early life and struggles, detailing the history of his army life and experiences, describing his magnificent career in Congress, his dignified bearing as a candidate for the presidency, the firm resolution that characterized his brief administration and the wonderful bravery and fortitude that distinguished his manner from the moment he received the fatal shot until he passed through the darkness of death into the light of the great mystery.

Mr. Blaine concluded his address with the following words:

"He trod the wine-press alone. With unfaltering front he faced death. With unfailing tenderness he took leave of life. Above the demoniac hiss of the assassin's bullet he heard the voice of God. With simple resignation he bowed to the Divine decree.

As the end drew near, his early craving for the sea returned. The stately mansion of power had been to him the wearisome hospital of pain, and he begged to be taken from its prison walls, from its oppressive, stifling air, from its homelessness, and its hopelessness. Gently, silently, the love of a great people bore the pale sufferer to the longed-for healing of the sea, to live or to die, as God should will, within sight of its heaving billows, within sound of its manifold voices. With wan, fevered face tenderly lifted to the cooling breeze, he looked out wistfully upon the ocean's changing wonders; on its far sails, whitening in the morning light; on its restless waves, rolling shoreward to break and die beneath the noonday sun; on the red clouds of evening, arching low to the horizon; on the serene and shining pathway of the stars. Let us think that his dying eyes read a mystic meaning which only the rapt and parting soul may know. Let us believe that in the silence of the receding world he heard the great waves breaking on the further shore, and felt already upon his wasted brow the breath of the eternal morning."

Mr. Blaine's beautiful language, delivered in his most impressive style, frequently brought tears to the eyes of many of his hearers, and at the conclusion of the address, the suffused eyes of the speaker testified to the deep feeling with which he pronounced this eloquent eulogy upon his departed friend. At the conclusion of the address, Mr. Blaine was greeted with an outburst of applause that continued for come moments.

The cards of invitation to the services, which were very elaborate, were eagerly sought after by many who wished to preserve them as mementos of the occasion.

—Gen. Ulysses S. Grant, a graduate of West Point, and a former general in the United States Army, has been placed upon the retired list. He was accorded the same distinction in 1880.

—The President has nominated Mr. Roscoe Conkling as an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, and ex-Senator Sargent as Minister to Germany.—The former nomination has excited considerable comment throughout the country.

—The bill to establish the whipping post in Maryland as a punishment for wife-beaters, which passed the House, was unfavorably reported in the Senate; but the bill was substituted for the unfavorable report, and it is believed that it will ultimately become a law. The Senate bill providing for the taxation of mortgages has been defeated in that body by the tabling of a motion to strike out the enacting clause, five Republicans and ten Democrats voting in the affirmative, and four Republicans and six Democrats in the negative.

In the House of Delegates, on Tuesday, the Committee on Temperance reported unfavorably the House bill to submit the question of prohibition to all the voters of the State. The unfavorable report was discussed at length, but no action was taken upon it.

—Nothing like "Lindsey's Blood Searcher" for all skin diseases, tetter, salt rheum, itch, etc. It never fails.

LOWENSTEIN BROS.,

THE PEOPLE'S CANDIDATE FOR POPULAR

CLOTHIERS AND TAILORS,

—OF—

Hagerstown and Vicinity.

The undersigned being impressed by the rapid growth of Hagerstown, have determined to fill a void long felt by opening the beautiful New Store, No. 7, West Washington Street, nearly opposite the Baldwin House, with a first-class stock of

MEN'S, BOYS', YOUTHS' AND CHILDREN'S CLOTHING,

—AND—

Gent's Furnishing Goods,

together with a carefully selected and choice line of

Foreign and Domestic Piece Goods

for Merchant Tailoring. Our reputation of many years standing for fair and honorable dealing can be vouched for by many of the citizens of Frederick and adjoining Counties, and the firm-name and reputation will be fully maintained here; therefore our patrons can purchase of us with the full assurance of having nothing misrepresented. Our clothing is of the newest patterns, and cut in the most modern styles, and will be sold at prices to suit all. Our stock is well selected, and we can sell you from a common pair of working pants up to a suit fit to be married in. We call your attention to our Merchant Tailoring Department and ask a careful inspection of our large line of Cloths, Cassimeres, Beavers, Overcoating, Doeskins and Vestings. Being practical cutters ourselves we employ none but first-class workmen in this branch; and hence we can guarantee a perfect fit, together with the most durable workmanship. Our FURNISHING GOODS DEPARTMENT will be complete in every particular, and the variety to select from as large as any in Baltimore City. We take great pleasure in introducing "OUR PRIDE" SHIRT, the best in the market.

A Word to Business Men.

We mean to those men who imagine they cannot be suited in a ready-made garment; we mean those business men who pick up the papers and read our advertisements and never give them another thought. To those who have been paying $25, $30, $35 and $40 for a suit it seems impossible that we should fit them out for $10, $12, $14 and $16 in a good, stylish cut, well-made suit, but we can, and this class of men we invite to come to our store, to look at our goods, and bear witness to their neighbors that we prove the truth of our statement in the papers by the goods on our counters.

A Word to Workingmen.

To men whose honest toil produces values and enriches the country, and to whom more than any other class we are indebted for the tremendous magnitude of our sales; to them we return our thanks. We always pick out strong and substantial goods—goods that the workingmen buy. We are selling good working pants for 75 cts. $1 00 and $1.25; a good strong working suit for $4 or $6; a stout warm overcoat for $4 or $6; a good ulster for $6, and a good suit from $4 up to $10. Now, men give us your patronage, and we will sell you goods at lower prices than small dealers buy them.

Children's Suits.

In this branch we are in the lead at all times, not alone at selling at lower prices, but in unequaled varieties and shapes. We can show over a hundred varieties of children's suits in kilt jackets, pants, vests, and every conceivable color and design of trimming in overcoats. We have all the novelties of the season.

Boys' Suits and Overcoats.

Better bring your boy in early. We are offering special bargains in overcoats and suits for $3.50, $4.00, $4 50, $5.00 and $6 00. Overcoats for $3, $4, $5 and $6. Come and see us. Polite and attentive clerks to wait on you. No trouble to show goods.

Collars and Neckwear.

We are manufacturers' agents for collars and cuffs. One factory took the agency away from us because we would not sell their collars for 20 cts and cuffs for 40 cts. We insisted on selling collars for 12 cts. and cuffs for 25 cts. We sell scarfs for 40 cts. that usually bring 75 cts. Remember, if you buy a suit of clothing of us and your friends don't say that you have got the worth of your money, or if you don't like the garment you can bring them back If we cannot make a fair exchange we will refund the money. Remember all our suits above ten dollars are our own make.

We are yours, &c.,
