AMERICAN SENTINEL:

WESTMINSTER, - MARYLAND.

W. L. W. SEABROOK, WILLIAM L. SEABROOK, } Editors.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1909.

James M. Atlas, proprietor of a hotel at Bridgeport, Conn., must imagine that he is the fellow who was doomed to uphold the sky with his shoulders and hands, inasmuch as he seeks to induce President Roosevelt to accept a proposition to become the principal actor in a "Wild West" show. He has written to the President to inquire whether he will accept a salary of $10,000 a week to head an exhibition entitled "Theodore Roosevelt's Congress of Rough Riders," the engagement to run 30 weeks. That means $300,000, in addition to other enormous expenses. Apparently the proposition is made in good faith, but Mr. Roosevelt will probably treat it as a huge joke and drop the communication in the waste basket unanswered. Its acceptance would place a burden on the shoulders of this real Atlas no more easily borne than that supposed to have been carried by the mythical one.

Do It Now

An important and enthusiastic meeting in the interest of the Young Men's Christian Association was held in the Royal Arcanum rooms, on Tuesday night. Dr. W. R. McDaniel, president, was in the chair, and about sixty members of the association present. After prayer by Dr. D. L. Greenfield, Secretary Babylon read the minutes of the last meeting. Dr. Charles Billingslea and Mr. Chas. E. Goodwin were elected to fill the vacancies in the board of trustees. Mr. Fred D. Miller, chairman of the finance committee, reported subscriptions to the amount of $6,260.00, and 60 sustaining members at $10 per year for five years, with a gift of stock, worth more than $1200., as the beginning of an endowment fund. Hon. B. F. Crouse suggested that the remaining $2,240 might be provided for by a number of persons giving their obligations for sums of $100 or less, to be raised among friends or paid personally. The suggestion was enthusiastically accepted and a number of pledges of $100 and a few for $50 and $25, aggregating $1,050, were made. Thus about $7,300 had been provided for, contributed by about 200 individuals, about $1,000 of the amount coming from non-residents, who are deeply interested in the cause. There are doubtless many former residents of Westminster, who will read this report of the splendid success of the effort, who would like to have a share in the movement for the betterment of their old home city. They will readily see that the home stretch is yet before us and realizing that the last lap brings the hardest strain, will be impelled to do something to help it forward. Any one of our readers, who desires to contribute to and have his name connected with this good work, can send a check to the AMERICAN SENTINEL Company. Large gifts are desired, but small ones will be equally acceptable.

Mr. George F. Tibbets, Inter-State Secretary, was present at the meeting on Tuesday night, and made an address congratulating the citizens upon their success in carrying the work to a successful issue.

Mr. C. K. Ober, who was for many years International College Secretary, and one of the leaders in the Students' Volunteer Movement, and who made a deep impression on the students of Western Maryland College and the young men of this city on the occasion of his visit here a number of years ago, gives the best answer we have seen to the question, "What is The Young Men's Christian Association?"

HIS ANSWER FOLLOWS.

"It is a high-class, far-sighted INVESTMENT in the greatest undeveloped resources in the world—young men.

"It is a wise and economical ENLISTMENT of young men themselves in the work of their own development.

"It is an attractive and workable COMBINATION of the club, athletics, education, religion and organization, the most effective agencies known in mutual improvement work with men.

"It is a persistent and far-reaching SPECIALIZATION of practical and resourceful men, through more than sixty years, in nearly eight thousand places, on a solution of the vital and urgent problems of young men.

"It is a philanthropic and also self-interested PROVISION of an all-round opportunity for young men.

"It provides a CLUBHOUSE; the young men fill it, and close the saloon for lack of patronage.

"It provides a GYMNASIUM; the young men use it, and put increasing health and vitality into their day's work.

"It provides a NIGHT SCHOOL; the young men join it, and gain and keep the higher places waiting for skilled labor and efficiency.

"It provides THE GOSPEL; the young men practice it, and the community cuts down expenses for asylums, courts and jails.

"It provides and organizes the TIME OF MEN; the best and busiest in the community. The young men respond to it and develop latent powers of character and service.

"It invests money; it gets manhood.

"It invests sympathy; it gets friendships.

"It invests small sacrifices; it gets abundant and deathless dividends.

"It invests time and things that might otherwise perish; it gets character that continues and perpetuates itself, in vital and constructive forces, for the moral and spiritual uplift of the world.

"Its investments are human; its dividends are divine."

DIED.

IN MEMORIAM.

HARTLEY.—In sad but loving remembrance of my dear grandmother, Margaret E. Hartley, who departed this life January 19th, 1909.

"Gone but not forgotten."

Rest on dear grandma, thy labor's o'er,
Thy willing hands will toil no more;
A faithful grandma both true and kind
A sweeter grandma I could never find.

Often I seem to be cheerful;
I smile and they think I am gay;
But alas I am tearful and gloomy
Because my dear grandma is away.

Her well remembered foot steps
I am listening for in vain,
And my eyes grow dim with watching,
And my heart is sad with pain.

No words will ever be so sweet
As the words she used to say,
No hours will ever be so sad
As the hour she passed away.

Sleep on dear grandma, sweetly rest,
I loved you but God knew best;
God's will be done, He doeth well;
But how I miss you no tongue can tell.

Thou knowest my life is sad and lonely,
Yet I try so hard to endure the pain;
Oftimes I think my poor heart's breaking
To think I'll never see her on earth again.

In love she lived, in peace she died,
Her life was asked, but God denied.

By her grandson, Fred. S. Jenkins.

JENKINS.—In loving remembrance of my dear Mother, Mary E. Jenkins, who died one year ago, January 25, 1908.

One mournful year has vanished,
Think I while the tear drops start,
But the memory of my dear mother
Still is fresh within my heart.
Friends may think I soon forget you
And my wounded heart be healed,
But they little know the sorrow
That's within my heart concealed.

Well she is gone and now in heaven
She sings His praise who died for her,
And to her hand a harp is given
And she's a heavenly worshiper.

By her daughter,
Amanda J. Haines.
