SHOEING!

AT the earnest request of a number of our fellow craftsmen we agree for reasons which seemed to us good and sufficent to raise the price of plain shoeing on September 1, 1913, to $1.00 per set.

Some of our fellows, however, felt that for good reasons they wished to again make the price 75c per set, and we hereby notify the public that on and after November 18, 1913, the price of plain shoeing in our shops will be

75c Per Set

We solicit a continuance of your patronage, promising to give the best service we can and not keep you waiting long to get your work.

Accidents.—Mrs. Herbert E. Perkins and sister, Mrs. Jennie Robinson, while driving in Quaker Neck on Thursday last had their horse frightened by buzzards along the road. The animal ran up an embankment, throwing Mrs. Robinson to the ground and the carriage passed over her body. The horse, with the reins, ran on down the road and was caught by James Diggs, a colored man of Chestertown, and stopped after some trouble. Mrs. Perkins was not hurt but Mrs. Robinson was considerably bruised up though not seriously injured.

BARN AND CONTENTS BURNED.

The barn on Smith Brothers Bradshaw farm, near Edesville, tenanted by Mr. Newcomb, was entirely estroyed by fire Friday night, despite the heroic efforts of Mr. Newcomb and others to save it. Several hundred bushels of wheat, all his hay and this year's corn crop were destroyed. The loss is estimated at $2,000, with insurance of $800 in the Kent Mutual.

WEDDING BELLS.

THE wedding of Miss Mary Carroll, of Baltimore, and Mr. John Hadaway, of Still Pond, took place Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Newcomb, at Lynch, Rev. H. B. Jester, officiating. They will reside in Still Pond.

The Reverend and Mrs. Thomas O. Crouse announce the engagement of their daughter, Charlotte Hammond, to Mr. Henry Stuart Wells. Mr. Wells is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bier Wells, of Linden avenue, Baltimore. The wedding is expected early in the new year.

PERRY—MCFEELY.

Miss Frances Louise, daughter of Mrs. Frances Spencer McFeely and the late William Harper McFeely, became the bride of John Wilkinson Perry, son of John Mackey Perry, of Readbourne, near Centreville, in St Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening, the Rev. A. H. Conger the rector, performing the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her elder brother, William James McFeely, a member of the Baltimore bar. She was attended by Mrs. M. Worthington Bordley, her sister, and a bride of a few months as matron of honor.

The groom was attended by Julian Edgar Bryan, of Baltimore, as best man, and the ushers were Philemon B. H. McFeely, brother of the bride, and M. Worthington Bordley and William McKenney, Jr., all of Centreville; Louis E. Skinner, of Swarthmore, Pa.; and S. Scott Beck, Esq., brothers-in-law of the groom, of Chestertown, and Alan B. Harris of Chestertown.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Perry left by automobile for Wilmington to start on a lengthy tour through the North and South. Mr. and Mrs. Perry will reside at Spring Garden, the home of the Perry family for four generations.

DEATHS.

Mr. Edward T. Willis formerly of Chestertown, died at his home in Baltimore Monday, aged 84. He leaves one son and three daughters. He was a well-known jeweler and watch maker and understood the business thoroughly. He was a highly intelligent citizen and a great student of history.

Mrs. Sarah Ann Thompson, wife of Capt. James T. Thompson, died Sunday night at 12 o'clock at the home of her husband, on Kent street, of cancer, aged 71 years. Mrs. Thompson has been suffering with cancer for many years, which she bore with patience. She was before marriage, Miss Warran, born in Worton, and leaves a husband and one sister who lives in Illinois She was a devoted member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and a woman of fine qualities. The funeral was held Wednesday at her home in town, Dr. L. E. Barrett officiating; interment in Chester Cemetary; C. L. Dodd undertaker. The bearers were Messrs. Samuel and Wm. J. Vannort, J. B. Rev. I. G. Fosnocht, aged 65, one of the oldest ministers of Wilmington M. E. Conference, who last spring relinquished his charge at Millington, and moved to Smyrna, died at his home on South street at one o'clock Wednesday morning after a lingering illness. He had been in failing health ever since his break, dows at Millington. Recently his case grew more critical and the end came peaceably this morning. The death of Rev. Fosnocht will be received with sorrow and regret throughout the bounds of Wilmington Conference. Wherever he served.

Mrs. Sarah J. C. Milbourn, wife of Samuel R. Milbourn, died at her late home in Crumpton on Nov. 24th, Death was due to dialation of the heart. Funeral services were held on Wednesday morning, Nov. 26th, from her late home, conducted by the Rev. F. S. Cain, of Kennedyville, assisted by the Rev. W. R Graham, D. D., of Chestertown. She is survived by her husband and five daughters—Mrs. Edgar F. Bishop, of near Elkton, Md.; Mrs George B. M. Montgomery, of Chester, Pa.; Mrs. Henry Hughes, of Chestertown, Md; Misses Laura L and Lillie L. Milbourn, Crumpton, Md; two sons, Charles T. Milbourn, of Baltimore, Md, and Grover C Milbourn, of Sudlersville, Md.; thirteen grandchildren and one great-grandchild, daughter of Mrs. P. B Merritt, Jr., of Warwick, Md. The bearers were her two sons, three sons-in-law and grandson, Edgar P. Bishop. Interment in Chester cemetery, Chestertown, Md.; undertakers, Bradley & Sparks.

Dr. Charles A. Usilton, husband of Louise B Usilton, (nee Haage) and son of Eliza J. and the late Samuel L. Usilton, died at his home in Philadelphia Wednesday, aged 59. The funeral will take place today, interment in Philadelphia at Mt. Moriah cemetery. He leaves a widow and two daughters.

The members of the Mills family held a reunion at the home of J Bibb Mills, attorney for the Anti-Saloon League, 3508 Duvall avenue, Baltimore on Thanksgiving Day. The reunion was the first ever held by the Mills family at which Rev J L Mills, the father, of Carmichael, Queen Anne's county, with all of his sons and their wives and children was present. Moreover, it was the first time since 1899 that Rev Mr. Mills has attended a reunion of his family. The beloved father is well-known in Kent Besides Rev Mr. Mills those present were: Mr and Mrs Frank D. Mills, of New York, and their three children; Joseph S. Mills, a member of the faculty of the High School of Commerce, of New York, and his wife and child; Dr and Mrs William Porter Mills, of East Las Vegas, N. M., and their child; Miss Marie L Mills, of Carmichael; and Mr and Mrs J. Bibb Mills and their three children.

FAIRLEE GRANGE will meet in special session on Friday afternoon, Dec. 19th at 4 o'clock. Sandwiches and coffee will be served.
